

University Governance Representation

Rationale

Students are a component of the membership of university governance bodies. The process for populating these bodies with students lies with SAMU.

A clear and consistent process facilitates the effectiveness and efficiency of the election of students for university governance bodies.

Definitions

A committee, in this procedure, refers to a standing committee, as listed in Appendix A, or an ad hoc committee of MacEwan University.

Regulations

General Eligibility

- 1 Applicants for university governance must be current students of MacEwan University in good academic standing.
- 2 Applicants must meet other eligibility requirements for the particular university governance body, if any exist, in order for the nomination to be further considered.

Faculty and School Councils

- 3 Student representation on faculty and school councils will be determined by the bylaws of each faculty or school council.

Committees

- 4 Student representation on committees will be determined by the relevant terms of reference.

Selection Process

- 5 A general call for applications for university governance membership occurs in the winter term and includes membership in faculty and school councils and any current committees.
- 6 The Executive Committee reviews applicants for each faculty and school council, and committees, and selects qualified applicants.
 - 6.1 Executive Committee may remove student representatives who are not fulfilling the expectations of the appointed position.
- 7 Vacancies may be filled throughout the year.

8 Recognition in the form of a gift card is provided to student members of standing committees, as listed in Appendix A, at the end of the academic year.

8.1 Recognition is awarded at a rate of $15 per meeting attended.

8.2 Recognition is limited to a value of $120 per committee per year.

8.3 Executive Committee members are not eligible for this recognition.

Miscellaneous

9 SAMU communicates appointments or selections to the university.

10 SAMU provides students with an orientation to their role and ongoing support as needed.

11 Successful applicants will remain in communication with SAMU throughout the term of their university governance membership.
