JUNE 2019

People of God raised up by the power of Christ's resurrection:

You often hear people complain in our modern day about the fact that we have so many ways to be connected to one another and yet we are often less connected than we have ever been. Somehow, even though we have phones, texting and instant messaging, video calling, Facebook, and free long distance, many people know their extended family much less than they did when there was only a yearly reunion at which you could talk to them. Friends may know less about each other having all those ways to communicate than they did when they only had a few minutes after school to get to see each other. Church members may feel less connected to one another and be less able to support one another than in days when it took quite a bit of work just to get everything ready to go to church and phones were not cheap to own or use.

A similar thing can be said about studying the Word in our day. Again, pastors have at their disposal all sorts of tools they can use to teach the truths of God. And yet, with all of those tools, we might ask whether people learn more about the Word of God now than in former days. I would think you would be hard-pressed to answer "yes" to that question with any integrity. And yet the fault does not lie with all the many ways that we could learn, but it lies with us ourselves not making use of any of those ways.

Ever since I have been here, we have taken a break from weekday Bible Studies (our Sunday morning classes at Peace continue) at church during the summer months since schedules seem to be all over the place. But that does not mean that we should take a break from studying the Word.

I would like to encourage you to do so in two ways this summer. First, read the Word in your home and talk about it with those God has given to live in your home. Pray together. Memorize the Word together. Sing together. Secondly, I would invite you to participate in our online Bible studies that I will produce over the summer. Unlike in recent years, I am not going to simply pick a book and work our way through that book. This summer, I would like to be able to answer some specific questions you might have about the Scriptures, faith, life and about our Savior Jesus. So, please send me suggestions.

There will be a box in the narthex to place them in or you can email them (pastor@ihoppe.com) to me or text them (320-372-0773) to me. Is there a verse this very hard for you to understand? Write it down and I will seek to explain it. Is there a topic about which you are not sure what the Bible teaches? Write it down and I will collect together God's wisdom on the topic and present it to you. Is there an argument your unbelieving friends like to make the you are not sure how to respond to? Write it down, and I will seek to give you guidance from the Word. These videos will be produced most weeks when I am not on vacation but will only be produced as suggestions from you are received.

Let us make use of all the means that we have available to us to learn the Word since it reveals to us Jesus. Let us learn in the most old-fashioned ways which are opening up the Word in our homes and gathering together in church around that same Word. But let us also be in the Word using the new technologies that exist as well. Make suggestions for topics that should be covered and then come to the church website (http://plcms.com) or Facebook page (https://www.facebook.com/peacefinlayson/) to see these online Bible Studies.

COFFEE FELLOWSHIP SIGN-UP

We will have coffee fellowships during the summer months at 10:00 am, following our worship service, and will be held in the church basement. Please sign up for a Sunday to bring donuts, breads, pastries, and/or fruit, prepare coffee, and clean up. Plan to join us for your morning coffee here with your fellow members. Free-will offerings will be taken each Sunday and will be sent to our two Concordia Seminaries. We hope we can count on your support.

-- The Peace Quilters have closed up shop for the summer. 261 'quilts were made this last year, which were given to Veteran Hospitals, Union Gospel Mission in Duluth, Red Cross for fire victims, local benefits, WINDOW Victim Services, Options for Women, High School graduates, shut-ins, and people recovering from surgery or illness. A big thank you to all who donated fabric, sheets, blankets, other supplies - it is greatly appreciated!

A special thank you to all the willing workers who have helped with Monday morning quilting this past year. We will resume again in September.

...JUST AROUND THE CORNER

It sounds like our 4th of July Food Stand is a "go" again this year. Instead of being in a building, tents & tables will be set up.

Within the next couple of weeks, schedules will be set up, and we pray that all our members will gladly give a couple hours of their time to this endeavor and help to ease the burden of the committee members. We are also asking each family of the congregation to bring 2 pies for the stand. Thank You in advance for all your help.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL AUGUST 5-9

Is it too early to think about VBS? Absolutely not! Much planning has already gone into our program for this year.

Peace VBS is for kids age 4 thru those going into 7th grade. At "Miraculous Mission: Jesus Saves the World" kids will discover the truth about Jesus as they meet friends, explore Bible stories, do fun activities, sing great songs, make crafts, play games, and eat snacks! NOW is the time to prayerfully consider how you will be involved in this wonderful ministry opportunity and learn how you too, can be a part of making VBS 2019 the best year yet!

We appreciate your prayers in the planning process. Ask God to bring children to our program so they can know and grow in Jesus, our Savior, and to provide leaders and helpers for this important mission. Be watching for further information soon and new displays in the narthex. Thank You!

, Mary Nelson, director

"IF"

IF students went to school like some people go to church (when they feel like it), they would fail.

IF an employee went to work like some people go to the task of missions (indifferently), they would be fired.

IF a person ate meals like some partake of the Lord's Supper (irregularly), they would starve.

IF one paid bills like some support the church (occasionally), they would have no credit.

IF one neglected his family like some do the Lord, they would be charged with desertion.

IF one spoke to others as seldom as some pray to God, they would be branded as anti-social.

JESUS IS LIKE A COMPUTER.

He ENTERS your life

WHAT IS A FATHER?

A father is a person who is forced to endure childbirth without an anesthetic.

A father is a person who growls when he feels good – and laughs very loudly when he's scared to death.

A father never feels entirely worthy of worship in a child's eyes. He's never quite the hero his daughter thinks – never quite the man his son believes him to be – and this worries him, sometimes. So, he works too hard to try to smooth the rough places in the road for those of his own who will follow him.

A father is a person who gets very angry when the first grades in school aren't as good as he thinks they should be. He scolds his son, though he knows it's the teacher's fault.

Fathers grow old faster than other people, because they, in other wars, have to stand at the train station and wave goodbye to the uniformed son that climbs aboard. And while mothers often cry where it shows, fathers stand there and beam outside and die inside.

Fathers have very stout hearts; so they have to be broken sometimes or no one would know what's inside. Fathers give daughters away to men who aren't nearly good enough — so they can have grandchildren that are smarter than anybody's.

Fathers fight dragons – almost daily. They hurry away from the breakfast table, off to the arena which is sometimes called an office or a shop. There, with calloused, practiced hand, they tackle the dragon with three heads: weariness, work and monotony. They never quite win the fight, but they never give up. Knights in shining armor – fathers in shiny trousers; there's little difference as they march away to each workday.

And when a father dies, I've an idea that he won't be happy unless there's work to do. He won't just sit around and wait for the girl he's loved and the children she bore. He'll be busy there, too – repairing the stairs, oiling the gates, improving the streets – smoothing the way.
