SEPTEMBER 2019

People of God redeemed by Jesus-

“Listen, Listen God is calling, through the Word inviting, offering forgiveness, comfort and joy.”

These are the words that come from a hymn 833 in our hymnal. We don't sing this hymn often because it is arranged to be responsively sung between a leader and the congregation which is something we don't usually do. But I wanted to call attention to it because this simple refrain contains truths we should remember as things start up again here in the fall.

In the midst of all that seems like it must be done as school and church activities resume, let us never forget that God is calling out to us through His Word. And what is He saying? Well, He is inviting us to receive His good gifts. What good gifts? Well, forgiveness, comfort, and joy to just name three.

Are those three gifts things you need?

Have you done things you know you should have not done? Is guilt a close companion to you at times? Would you be ashamed if others knew what you did? Are you aware of how comfortable you have become with your sin? Well, you need forgiveness.

Have you lost a loved one, either to death or because conflict has robbed you of their presence in your life? Has tragedy seemed to have made its home all too near to yours? Are you just not sure you can handle it anymore? Well, you need comfort.

Are you weary? Does life seem like nothing but struggle after struggle? Are you not sure some days what can lift up your spirit? Well, you need joy.

Know this: God is inviting you to have these gifts. And not just in some abstract way, but through His Word. Through Jesus who is the Word of God. As He is given to you in the written Word recorded in the Bible, the spoken Word delivered by your pastor, the Word made flesh served at the table of your Lord.

But do you hear the call when you walk by the Bible in your home? Do you hear it when the church bells ring or your alarm sounds on Sunday morning? Do you hear it when He beckons you to come and eat at His altar?

Well, you will not necessarily hear anything audibly in each case, but the call does go out from all those places and every other place His Word is present. It goes out and invites you to receive His good gifts.

So please don't think of devotions with your family as something you had better do to be thought of as a good Christian. Don't think of church as just another item on your holy to do list to be checked off. Don't think of coming to the Lord's Supper as just something that the Lord requires of you.

Hear in these places God's call. Receive His Invitation. Receive Forgiveness, Comfort and Joy. Or as the hymn puts it, “Listen, Listen God is calling, through the Word inviting, offering forgiveness, comfort and joy.”

In Christ,
Pastor Philip Hoppe

VBS WRAP-UP

Our 2019 VBS entitled, "Miraculous

Mission: Jesus Saves the World" finished up the week with a total of 58 registered students in five groups. Each morning began with music as the students were arriving and followed with the Opening. From there the groups rotated through Storytelling, Games, Bible Challenge, Crafts and Snacks. The morning was completed with the Closing for the day.

Part of the weekly program was the Concordia Gospel Outreach Mission Project Sharing God's Miraculous Message – providing the booklet "The Work of His Hands for Kids." Donations from the congregation also provided $700 in funds to give a booklet to each student with a few extra copies given to each church.

The week ended with a program where the students sang highlights of the week for their families and friends. Afterwards all were invited downstairs for refreshments provided by the Women of Peace.

Thank you to all the people who worked so hard to make this possible:

Our willing, able, and very busy staff included:

Our Group Leaders & helpers included: Sharon Tvedt, Sue Koecher, Ginny Henkel, Carlene Boettcher, Ruth Nielsen, Olivia Hoppe, Ron Osladil, Ava Dunkley, Libby Dangers, Angel Swanson, Isabella Koski.

Registration help was Liz Kelly, Angel Swanson, Isabella Koski; and photography was done by Olivia Hoppe and "others."

A special thanks to this year's VBS director, Mary Nelson, for all of the many hours spent organizing this very tiring, hectic, but fun-filled, Christ-centered week!

Thank you also to Pete Seitz & Land 'O Lakes for the donation of milk all week; to Lampert Lumber for paint and float-building supplies; to Northview Bank for suckers for the 4th of July float; and to the many church members who provided food for the snacks and to anyone else who helped out in any way!!!!

Thrivent Action Teams were applied for to help with expenses for craft supplies, snacks, and T-shirts for staff & kids.

And of course, a most heartfelt thanks to God who not only blessed us with the ability to hold VBS, but also for the students that attended, the very perfect weather, and the strength and endurance to make it through the week without any serious mishaps. "God bless us, one and all!"

SUNDAY SCHOOL BEGINS WITH RALLY DAY SEPTEMBER 8th

Share the Lord with someone you know. We look forward to seeing all the children again, not only in Sunday school, but in our worship services as well. Parents, please encourage your children to attend both faithfully.

ISN'T IT FUNNY? ...

-- that parents are so concerned that their children be able to participate in all kinds of sports and other activities, but are completely unconcerned about their spiritual growth!

ANNUAL CREATION CONFERENCE WEEKEND @ LIC

Hosted by Christ Serve Ranch @ Lutheran Island Camp ~ October 18-19

You are invited to attend this day and ½ conference featuring experts from internationally known creation and apologetics ministries. This year they will be hosting Joel Tay from Creation Ministries International. Joel has degrees in theology, evolutionary biology, and genetics. He also served with open-air street evangelism ministries. The questions he received during that time, reinforced his belief that Christians need to be equipped with biblically sound, creation-based answers to not only protect their families but to reach the lost.

OUR CHILDREN

Children are a gift from God (Genesis 48:8-9), a heritage and a reward (Psalm 127:3), a source of joy (Psalm 113:9), and a crown in their parents' old age (Proverbs 17:6). It is a serious thing to abuse children (Matthew 18:1-6) or to neglect their spiritual training (Ephesians 6:1-4). The church is always only one generation short of extinction. If we fail to train our children for Christ, we forfeit the future.
