FRIED CAKE

Congratulations to all participants who were involved in Shinerama!

That was a hefty sum of money I understand was raised on Friday. Somewhere around $19,050. But what a time was had!

I was Downtown and while passing by "The Bay" I saw a barber chair! I didn't know whether they were giving out haircuts or shaves. Good prop guys!

The OOK was up and around and so was a so called FUNKY CHICKEN. What I'm really curious about is if these two did the Funky Turkey?! If so was it in the barber chair?

Good ol' Pat deserves a pat on the back for arranging and organizing the whole event in order to make it all possible!

Thank goodness for the weather on Friday as a little rain would have put a damper on the whole event but, thanx to goodness the day was sunny!

Something is going around this school and I'm not quite sure what or who it is. (I hope its Sherry!)

But honestly, it seems as though instructors and students alike are getting a bite from some unknown source. Could it be the Flue or Cold or just some unidentified bug?

Have you caught it? If you have don't get rid of it in my office.

I know I had to take cover last week when Gary (the non scruffy skinny fellow who runs the set machine) caught this fly by night flue and had the nerve to hang on to it. Well c'mon boy don't you know of the multiplier effect? This bug will breed faster than a male surrounded by five bunnies (Playboy Bunnies that is)!

But Gary was content on having and hanging on to this bug and faking a sickness of some kind. Some sickness!

He missed a week of classes but was in the Nugget everyday including Sunday!! Now what kind of bug is this anyhow?

So here is the scrawny fellow hacking and coughing up a storm in the back room and just giving the whole office an aroma of "Vicks Vapour Rub", you know the situation!

Three times he asked me to replace the rub but "No sir", I said hiding behind my sanitary mask "I will have no part of your bug. Just stay in that back room and don't come out until you're through!"

Well now I'm beginning to think that this was a collaborated stunt by student and teacher alike because instructors were getting sick also! Sick, my foot, none of mine were!

Somehow though my cohorts instructors were sick on Fridays. Well, funny enough I saw one of these instructors down at the Glowing Embers and he seemed so jovial and excited that if the sickness is still going around maybe I could use a shot!!

STUDENT PARKING

by Alexander Graham Bell

Shinerama. The word brings to mind shoeshines and money being raised for Cystic Fibrosis. But what does it mean to the NAIT students who participated in the event? According to Perry Hendriks, one of the objectives was to win 10 kegs of beer.

This was not heard through the "school grapevine", but on the radio station CHED! And this is NAIT's Activities Chairman!

In other words, one possible (and quite probable) opinion that others will have of NAIT students is that students are in it for what they can get out of it. Thanks a lot Perry

After the dollar made some gains in the international market, Jack Horner was quoted on Tuesday saying the dollar was "still undervalued". Have you ever heard a politician say the dollar is overvalued?

We're still wondering what purpose Miss Freshette has. Does she do anything? If any of you know (or can guess) we'd be glad to know. It might also be interesting to find out what criteria she is chosen on. Is it good looks, charm, personality, or legs?

What's happening to NAIT students? Don't they care about us poor slaves at the Nugget. This is the fourth issue so far this year and we have received a grand total of 0 (that's zero) letters or comments. Does this mean nobody reads the Nugget? Or are students just too tired from schoolwork to get up the energy to write a letter? Maybe we should offer a keg of beer.

TECHNICAL AND VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

The Minister's Advisory Committee on Technical and Vocational Education to Dr. A. E. Hohol, Minister of Alberta Advanced Education and Manpower, will hold its first meetings of the 1978 - 79 year on October 18 and 19 in Edmonton.

Three of the new members are students. They are: Shane Doyle, Fort Macleod, in his second year of agricultural engineering at Olds College; Frank Lilley, Jr., Calgary, in the second year of a business admin. program at SAIT; and James Dick, Lethbridge, a vocational rehabilitation counsellor with the Worker's Compensation Board and a second-year student in management arts at the University of Lethbridge.

Named as public members are: Frederick A. Dubray, Calgary, coordinator of counselling services at SAIT; Harold Jensen, Olds, a retired farmer who is prominent in business and the community; Christina J. Jones, McLennan, a life underwriter with the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company and a member on numerous boards and committees serving pre-school to post-secondary education; Jim Lore, Carstairs, a farmer and agricultural consultant well-known for his service to the community; and Phil Shragge, Edmonton, coordinator of course and program development at Grant MacEwan Community College and a former instructor of economics and political science.

Members continuing on the committee include Herbert Brown of St. Albert, Elsie Fish of Medicine Hat, Glen Ingalls of Calgary, Norman Milan of Calgary, Dan W. Porter of Lethbridge, and R. Guy Spencer of Fort McMurray.

Appointed as new executive secretary is Gary A. Innes, Edmonton, Administrative Officer with the Manpower Services division of Alberta Advanced Education and Manpower.

ALBERTA ADVANCED EDUCATION AND MANPOWER

Dr. A.E. Hohol, Minister of Alberta Advanced Education and Manpower, today announced the appointment of a Lethbridge lawyer as chairman of the board of governors of the University of Lethbridge, effective September 26, 1978.

The new chairman is R. Philip M. North, a senior partner in the law firm of Paterson North in Lethbridge. Mr. North has been a public member of the board since February, 1978.

Mr. North, 2410 - 17 Avenue South, Lethbridge, was born in Manitoba and graduated with a B. Sc. from Brandon College. He received his Bachelor of Law degree in 1971 from the University of Manitoba, Winnipeg. In 1972, Mr. North was called to the Alberta Bar. Professionally, he is a member of the Lethbridge Bar Association, the Canadian Bar Association and the American Trial Lawyers Association.

Active in the Lethbridge business community, Mr. North is the director of the local chamber of commerce, chairman of the chamber's transportation committee and sits on the business advisory committee at Lethbridge Community College. He is a member of the city's air transportation committee, the local Jaycees and country club.

Mr. North devotes much of his leisure time to the leadership of a local Beavers boys' group, and is involved in organized recreational athletics.

Commenting on the appointment, Dr. Hohol said, "Mr. North has demonstrated genuine concern for post-secondary education in Alberta. I am confident that he will contribute significantly to the operation of the University of Lethbridge."

CORRESPONDENCE

Education Minister Julian Koziak today announced that, as an incentive to Alberta Correspondence School students to complete courses, tuition fees for courses in grades 7 - 12 have been increased with a refund of 50 percent, provided the course is satisfactorily completed. There is no charge to Alberta residents for courses in the elementary grades.

Mr. Koziak also announced that Alberta residents 65 years of age or older are now eligible to receive correspondence courses free of charge.

Each junior high school course now costs $16.00. Upon successful completion of the course $8.00 is refunded.

To qualify for the 50 percent refund, the student must have achieved a grade of "D" or a "pass" within the year of initial registration, must have been a resident in Alberta while enrolled in the course, and must have returned all materials, such as text books and lab kits on loan from the Alberta Correspondence School. The refund is given to the person or institution that paid the fee.

Persons still eligible to receive correspondence courses without charge, in addition to students in elementary grades, include those unable to attend school because of mental or physical handicap, illness, or imprisonment.

The Alberta Correspondence School was established in 1923 to provide educational services through correspondence to students of elementary age who might not otherwise have access to school programs. By 1942 the School had grown to the extent that it offered a full curricular program, comprising all 12 grades. As of March 31, 1978, the school had an enrolment of 20,475 pupils. Elementary grades accounted for 149 pupils, junior high school for 887, and senior high school for 19,439. Of the total enrolment figure, senior citizens accounted for 24 pupils.

BIRTHDAY PRESENT

A young man wished to buy his girlfriend a birthday present so he decided to buy a pair of gloves. He went with his sister who at the same time, bought herself a pair of panties.

In delivering, the parcels got mixed. The sister got the gloves and he got the panties. And not troubling to open the parcel, he sent a note as follows and posted the parcel with the note at the same time, and this is how it read:

My Darling Love,

This little gift is to show you that I never forgot your birthday. I chose these as I noticed that you were not in the habit of wearing them when we go out to dinner. Had it not been for my sister, I would have chose long ones with buttons but my sister said tht short ones are fancier. I know a very delicate color but the lady showed me a pink she had been wearing for three weeks, and they are hardly soiled. I asked the shop girl to try them on for me, and she looked very sweet indeed. How I wish I could put them on for you the first time. No doubt many a gentlemen's hand's will come in contact with them before I see them again. I wasn't sure of the size, yet I should be a good judge and more capable than anyone else. When you take them off just blow into them before putting them away as they naturally will be a little damp after wearing. Be sure and keep them on shrink. Be sure also to follow those instructions and everything will be alright. I hope you'll like them, and to please me, will you wear them Friday night.

With all my love,
Dale Henderson

Thank you.

n.a.i.t.s.a. comment

September has already gone by with its characteristic haste and October has presented itself to us. In the brief month that we have been here, and have said good - bye to summer, hello to new faces and friends and have ventured into NAIT with the hopes of accomplishing something. If at this point you feel you haven't, then let me correct you. Last Friday, three and a half months of planning bailed down to one day of shoe shining. Its success or failure depended on us to get you out there. You responded overbearingly and hit the streets to shine shoes, to get a friend, it didn't seem to matter to you except that you raised the money to help some people you have never met! When it came time to relap at the Shinerama Cabaret, you did so in a wild and wonderful way. You kept on collecting money, and helping those people. To me the day, the months of planning became all worthwhile when Brett Cermist-ray, an 11 year old who has CF got up to say thank - you. Your applause and standing ovation and cheers might have scared him a bit but you showed him that there are an awful lot of nice people out in the world. Ladies and Gentlemen of NAIT I take this opportunity to say how moved I feel to be a part of you. Your spirit, enthusiasm and love of other people makes me proud to say I am from NAIT. You truly have accomplished a great deal in the brief month of September. You are just a super group of people and I know that you will carry this warm feeling with you for a long time. THANK - YOU ALL SO VERY VERY MUCH!!

HOCKEY REPORT

Well it is that time of year when you start to hear the crunching of boards and breaking of bones. That's right, it's the beginning of another hockey season. This is the game which allows you to elbow, spear, butt-end, high stick, and kick (not in that order) in order to achieve that final pinnacle of glory, the GOAL (by the way, don't let the referee see you do these naughty things).

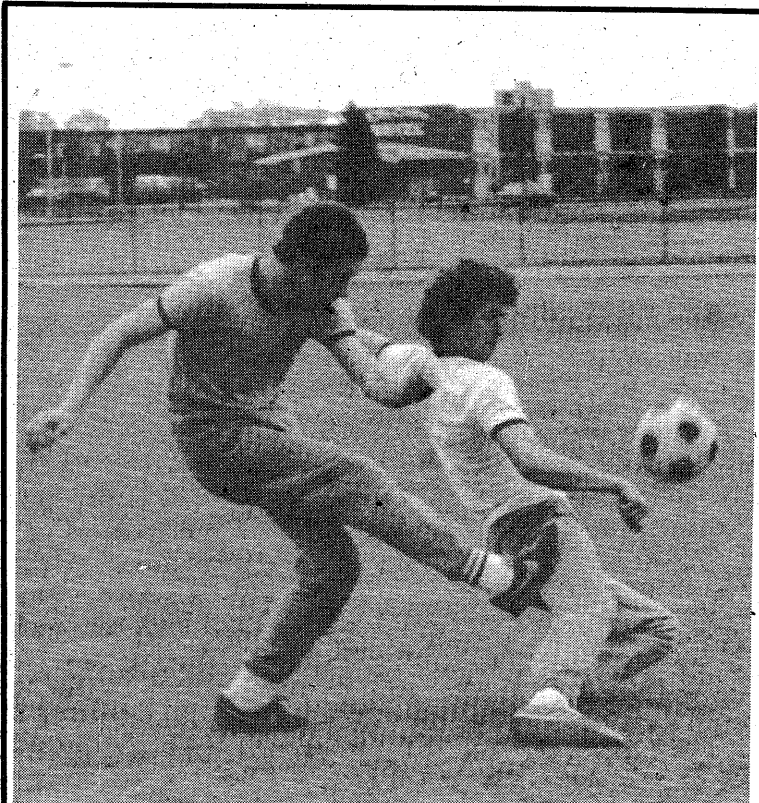

Now that I have my fantastic opening paragraph out of the way, let's get down to business. NAIT has a new hockey coach. His name is Perry Pearn. Last year he was one of the assistant coaches under former head coach Dale Henwood, who went to St. Lawrence University in Canton New York, this year, to coach the team there. Perry has played with such teams as the Junior Edmonton Movers, St. Albert Comets, Junior Golden Bears, and the Red Deer Rustlers. It was with the last team that Perry and his teammates won the Canadian Tier Two Hockey Championships in 1971. In 1974, he graduated from the U of A in Phys. Ed. and then went to teach at Paul Kane High School in St. Albert. Also, for the past couple summers, Perry has been associated with the NAIT Summer Hockey School. With all this experience, Perry was hired as the new head coach.

As far as the team goes, there are nine returning players from last year: four forwards, four defencemen, and one goalie. One of the stars from last year who is returning is Brian Jubinville, a second team all-star goalie. The returning forwards are Joe Mykietyshyn, Bart Szoke, Rocky Smith, and Brian Goodfellow. The returning players anchoring the defense will be Don Owchar, Bill Sutherland, Grant Gordon, and Brad Stilas.

Some interesting prospects trying out for the team include Dave Reid, Carey Winquist, and Rene Brodeur. Dave was a forward last year with the Red Deer Rustlers. Carey was a first all-star goalie in the Alberta Intermediate Hockey League last year. Another goalie worth looking at is Rene, who last year was a key factor in the play of the K of C Pats. There are also several very good players from the Capital Junior Hockey League trying out, but are too numerous to mention.

Tryouts started last October 2 with 94 players battling to make the team. By the end of this week, the team should be down to 35 bodies. The first action for the Ooks will be on the weekend of October 20 - 22 in Red Deer. This is an annual tournament held as a warm-up before the season begins. The season begins in earnest on October 28. By this time, the team should have twenty healthy and robust players ready to improve on their fourth place finish of last year. Until next time, this is your hockey reporter saying come out and support the Ooks on to a great season of hockey action!

SPORTS - LOOK

IS THERE A LADY IN THE LOCKER ROOM?

Last week the Supreme Court at the United States ruled that the New York Yankees had to allow a female Sports Illustrated writer into the locker room after a game just like the men here access to it. Later in the same week an appeal bid by the Yankees was denied. What it now means is that all across the U.S. (Canada won't likely be far behind;) female reporters must be allowed into dressing rooms to conduct interviews just like the guys regardless of the state of dress or lack thereof of the athletes in question. All I can do is wonder why. I mean isn't enough, enough?

Let me make one thing clear, I'm a male chauvinist pig but not to the point where women should be left in the kitchen barefooted and pregnant. It's great women that can go out and compete for jobs with men, fine and dandy, but in this case it will be hard for me to lend any support (athletic?) to the cause.

Why would they want to go into locker rooms in the first place. They smell like month old socks, the language makes George Carlin look like Shaun Cassidy and there a bunch of naked athletes running around comparing stats...er...uh...of ahh...the game of course. Sounds like just the place the average female would love to be.

Of course there is always freedom of the press and equal rights to justify it. There's not much doubt about that. But if you were standing there in the buff, could you answer honestly to a lovely female? I think some of us might (like it or not) be some what hesitant.

But what are the gals doing? Are they interested in getting an inside story or just proving a point and making points for women's Lib? This issue can raise as many questions and as many answers depending on what side of the fence you're on. What ever way you feel drop us a line and I'll print the letters next week.

P.S. I'm looking forward to covering NAIT women's basketball and volleyball - right girls???

COBRA - DALE JACOBS.
(EPIC)

On "Cobra" Dale Jacobs lets his creativity run free. A master of keyboards, Dale shows special interest in electronic synthesizers, but his interest is only matched by the group cohesiveness which is found on "Cobra".

Vancouver based Jacobs spent a year in the studio experimenting with what is now known as Cobra.

This is easily realized when one listens to the clarity of recording and expertise of musicians on either side of the record.

Though a year has gone into this album each song has the spontaneity of a moments jam on stage. Jacobs is just the one to shine on stage as you may have noticed when he appeared with the Domenic Triano Band at the SUB Theatre recently.

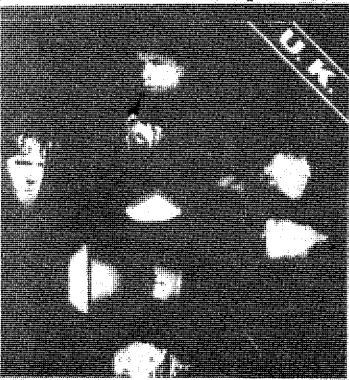

Energy flows through Jacobs jazz on selections such as "Cobra" and loose "Connection" but a mellow mood is best captured "On the Wings of a Song" and "Patch Bay".

Jacobs is host to a number of North American greats some being Jim McGillvery on percussion (formerly of Paul Horn) and Tom Laun on guitar (formerly of Prism) to name a few.

Jacobs is an innovative instrumentalist of our time and "Cobra" illustrates nothing but bright colours!

"U. K." - U. K.

If you enjoy hearing something other than ordinary rock n' roll, you might try listening to this album. Those who have heard progressive rock before and know what to expect, should really enjoy it.

The four musicians who make up U. K. have quite prestigious credentials. Bill Bruford (drummer) played with YES and KING

CRIMSON; John Wetton (bass and vocals), also with KING CRIMSON, as well as FAMILY AND ROXY MUSIC; Eddie Jobson (violin and synthesizer) belonged to CURVED AIR, ROXY MUSIC, and FRANK ZAPPA'S MOTHERS; and Allan Holdsworth (guitars) was with GONG, SOFT MACHINE AND THE TONY WILLIAMS NEW LIFETIME.

The music on this album is quite complex; included is a suite which takes up most of the first side, entitled "In the Dead of Night". Unusual melodies are featured, as well as unexpected changes in rhythm. Jobson plays the violin imaginatively and builds up layers of sound on the synthesizer for Holdsworth's guitar to weave through. John Wetton plays a deep throbbing bass and adds occasional vocals (which become a bit awkward in places), while Bruford pulls it all together with his sharp complementary drumming.

U. K. just completed a U. S. tour as an opening act for Tom Petty. Hopefully, their next album will boost their reputation and get them more of the recognition they deserve as a fine progressive band.

500 MILES HIGH - FLORA PURIM AT MONTREUX
(MILESTONE)

As usual the line up appearing at the Montreux Jazz Festival is always impressive and if you are into jazz at all you probably own a record recorded at the famed swiss town.

A flamboyant brazilian stepped out of her homeland to treat musician an music lover an evening they'd never forget.

Flora Purim struck up the tune one hot July evening with such stars as Ron Carter on bass and Airta on percussion. Only to finish building an album that left everyone high!

Flora Purim is a vocaust of an extra ordinary quality. She covers the scales like no other vocalist in her space, but more exciting is she is flexible. Though most of the album is recorded in her native tongue Flora pumps out the english on her latest album by the title "Everyday Everynight".

If you are already a fan of Flora's you know the transitions she goes through from album to album. The never ending battle of innovating her style is easily noticed and I'm sure appreciated by listener.

MIX'EM WITH MURRAY

There is a considerable number of people who enjoy Brandy. Consequently it is preferred as an after-dinner drink, heated and straight up.

One of the more popular brands to be imbibed in this fashion is Cognac. Produced only in the Cognac region of France, this Brandy is renowned for its smoothness and heady dry aroma. However there are many cocktails that include Brandy as a base and it's not necessary to use such high priced brands as Cognac. The difference in taste is negligible.

Here are a few suggestions.

If you enjoy sweeter tasting cocktails, chances are the ALEXANDER would be a good choice.

1 oz Brandy
1/4 oz creme de cacao (dark or white)

1 1/2 oz sweet creme

Shake with ice and strain into cocktail glass. Sprinkle nutmeg on top.

The STINGER is a drink with a little stronger Brandy taste, yet will definitely stand alone in its uniqueness.

In a mixing glass with ice pour
1 oz Brandy

1/4 oz Creme de Menthe (white)

Stir and strain in to a martini glass. Garnish with a lemon twist.

Finally the THUNDERCLAP cocktail. Approach it with caution

3/4 oz Dry Gin

3/4 oz Rye

3/4 oz Brandy

Shake with ice and strain into a cocktail glass. Save this one for that rainy day.

PEN PALS

Sir:

I am quite at a loss to getting pals the world over with particular regards to the Commonwealth Countries. Since Canada is a beloved country of brotherhood and mutual respect among the youths of our time. I have therefore as an alternative to seek NAIT students as pen pals since NAIT students are popular citizens. A friend of mine who was in the Edmonton Commonwealth Games has so well briefed me on the friendliness of Canadians and it really touched me on the way there is so much hospitality in your continent.

Indeed I am looking and searching for friends to exchange letters with, or even talk on the phone. Below is some information about me so that you know more about me.

JUST REMEMBER ...

Dramaturgy motivates contravention.

Erudition for ephemeral vigorous pulverizers always helps.

When in profound obeisance, ululate plebian submission.

Be compendious when refused amiability.

An edifice is a melodious impoverishing.

Universal lenity is erroneous and mendacious!!
