SHORT AND SWEET

Queen Week! and I can give you ten great reasons why it's going to be a hit.

As usual Mardi Gras Week has been a success. It's one of the best attended functions sponsored by NAITSA.

What makes it? The great competition and hard work by the contestants themselves has the most to do with it.

A lot of expense has been put forth to pick a good representative for NAIT. This year the position has attracted ten closely matched girls.

So let's end the week off properly and give all the ladies good memories to keep. Get out and VOTE on Friday, Feb. 9th. I want the best woman to represent NAIT.

After you vote turn up at the Queen Ball and continue to support all the events. When you see the happy person crowned it will all seem very worthwhile.

EDITOR

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

I feel the NAIT cafeteria price increases are unfair. Why isn't our cafeteria subsidized like the one that serves the well-paid legislative employees?

Furthermore, the dinner meal is on a first come - first served basis which can be very annoying and if you buy the meal but decline part of it, (the vegetables for instance) you still have to pay the full price.

They've even served hair in the buns and a wire in the vegetables to a few students.

Our cafeteria leaves a lot to be desired.

Shelly

The extras in the food are the cafeteria's idea of variety.

I feel that I should write this letter just to let the NAITSA members know that at least one member of the habitually silent majority agrees with their most recent actions.

I, for one, fully approve of the decision made by Sandra Anderson to fire the former NUGGET editor Dale Henderson. I found his editorials and articles generally tasteless and written in a crude excuse for English. A person who has to resort to swear words to express himself is usually lacking in more intelligent vocabulary. The only thing I will miss is my weekly chuckle as I corrected the spelling and grammar mistakes to be found in his editorials.

When I learned that NAITSA had been paying over $200.00 per month to a person who can't write to edit the NAIT newspaper I was shocked, and relieved to hear that the situation had been rectified.

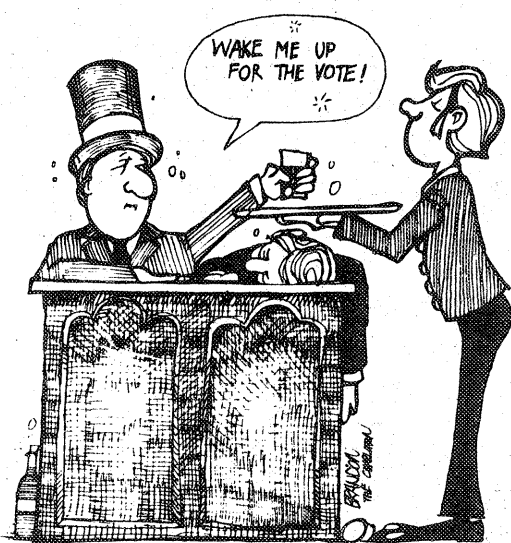

Other articles have appeared recently in the NUGGET written by frustrated NAITSA members. I know that being a member of a student council is sometimes a thankless job, so I would like to say thank you. As a student at Plaza II I would like to thank NAITSA for making sure that we get lots of posters over here telling us of activities in plenty of time.

It is also nice to have tickets sold here so we can buy them without having to brave sub-zero temperatures.

A special thanks should go to Perry Hendriks who retained his sanity and sense of humour after havin to fight off numerous drunks one night after a Beerfest.

I am looking for an improvement in the NUGGET starting now so that the student body will realize that the NAITSA members made the correct decision for the students at NAIT.

NEWS BRIEFS

REPORT OPENS WAY FOR HIGHER FEES AT ALBERTA UNIVERSITIES

EDMONTON (CUP) -- A report recommending that tuition fees be kept at Alberta universities and colleges may also open the way for tuition increases of up to 119 per cent at some post-secondary institutions.

The Grantham report, released to the public Jan. 25, recommended equalizing tuition for all programs at any institution, and that there be a base fee level for universities, at colleges and technical institutes, and at vocation centers.

For university students the report recommends tuition be set at $590, up from the current $550 for most undergraduate programs. However, there would be a 14-45 per cent drop in graduate studies, medicine, environmental design, engineering and dentistry.

At colleges and technical institutes, it suggests a base tuition of $385, a 40-83 per cent increase for colleges and a whopping 119 per cent at technical schools.

The report proposes a 55 per cent fee hike at vocational schools.

While the province's education minister Bert Hohol was pleased with the report, Blair Redlin, Federation of Alberta Students president and a student representative on the task force was not as congratulatory.

"Although there are some positive aspects in the report, in the section concerning tuition fees there are confused, contradictory and unsubstantiated claims," Redlin said.

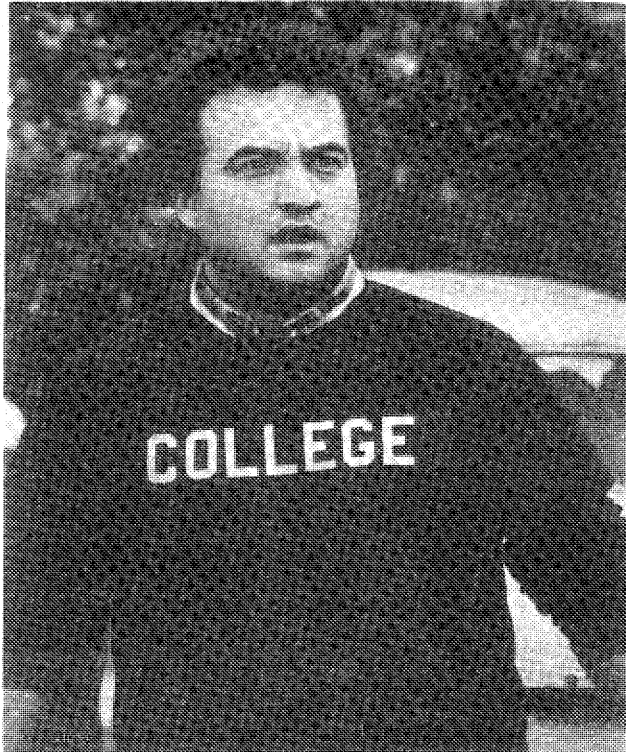

The report points out that the total costs to the student reduces the accessibility to a post-secondary education, and that tuition is a factor in student costs.

"The facts presented to the committee showed that tuition fees are a definite financial barrier to a post-secondary education, yet the committee chose to ignore those facts," said Redlin.

The task force, comprised of Edmonton engineer Ron Grant-ham, two students, two representatives of post-secondary institutions, four members of the public and a department representative, was set up by Hohol in Jan. 1978 to review the role of student contributions toward paying the costs of higher education. Over 100 briefs and letters were presented to the task force by administrators, labor repre-

WONDERS

Dear Auntie Wonders:

My husband and I have been married now for 7 years. We don't have any children and as far as I know my hubby has no intention of having any children. As a matter of fact we haven't fooled around for quite a while now either!

At the time it didn't mean anything but I came home from work early one day and my husband and his best friend Ray were working out in the raw. My husband laid on his stomach and Ray would do deep knee bends.

I feel that I've lost him to another man! What should I do?

THIS WEEKS ALBUM

JAZZ - "WE ALL HAVE A STAR"
by Wilton Felder

This is an album of jazz with hearty helpings of piano, vocals and saxophone.

The music keeps moving right along with very little slow stuff to speak of.

It has a variable rythm which, at times, looks a bit like the disco end of the spectrum.

All around it is still mainly a modern kind of jazz and the vocals match the music well. Side two seems more conformist than side one which has a lot more ad lib.

The music is generally quite light and should keep you awake while studying.

If that's all the kind of jazz you enjoy it's all there on "We all have a Star".

There'll never be another Vice President like Richard.

Never.

The President made that promise to himself last Thursday afternoon, after Richard blew an important new-business presentation.

Richard isn't incompetent. The villain is his lunches, or rather the too-many drinks he often has at lunch. Come afternoon, he's just not as sharp as he was in the morning.

Richard is playing dice with his health. His old-fashioned business style is also sabotaging his career.

Today, with competition so rough and stakes so high, even the most generous company can't be patient for long with an employee whose effectiveness ends at noon.

If you're a friend, do Richard a favour by reminding him of the good sense of moderation.

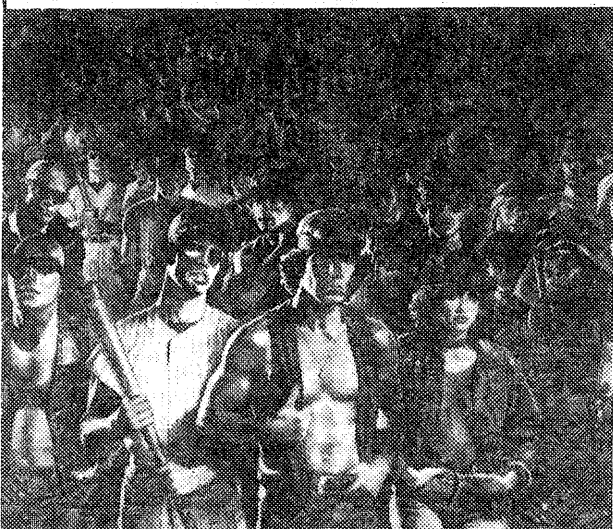

You can bet the man eyeing his job won't help him.

Angie Smith

Miss

Architecture

Hi, I'm Angie Smith the representative from Architectural Technology.

This is my first year at NAIT and I have found both the people and the social life a lot of fun. By looking at the scheduled events I can see that Mardi Gras Week is going to be one filled with many good times for everyone. I hope to meet many people throughout the week at the special events and have a great time in doing so.

Jeannette Wiger

Miss

Engineering,

Designing,

And

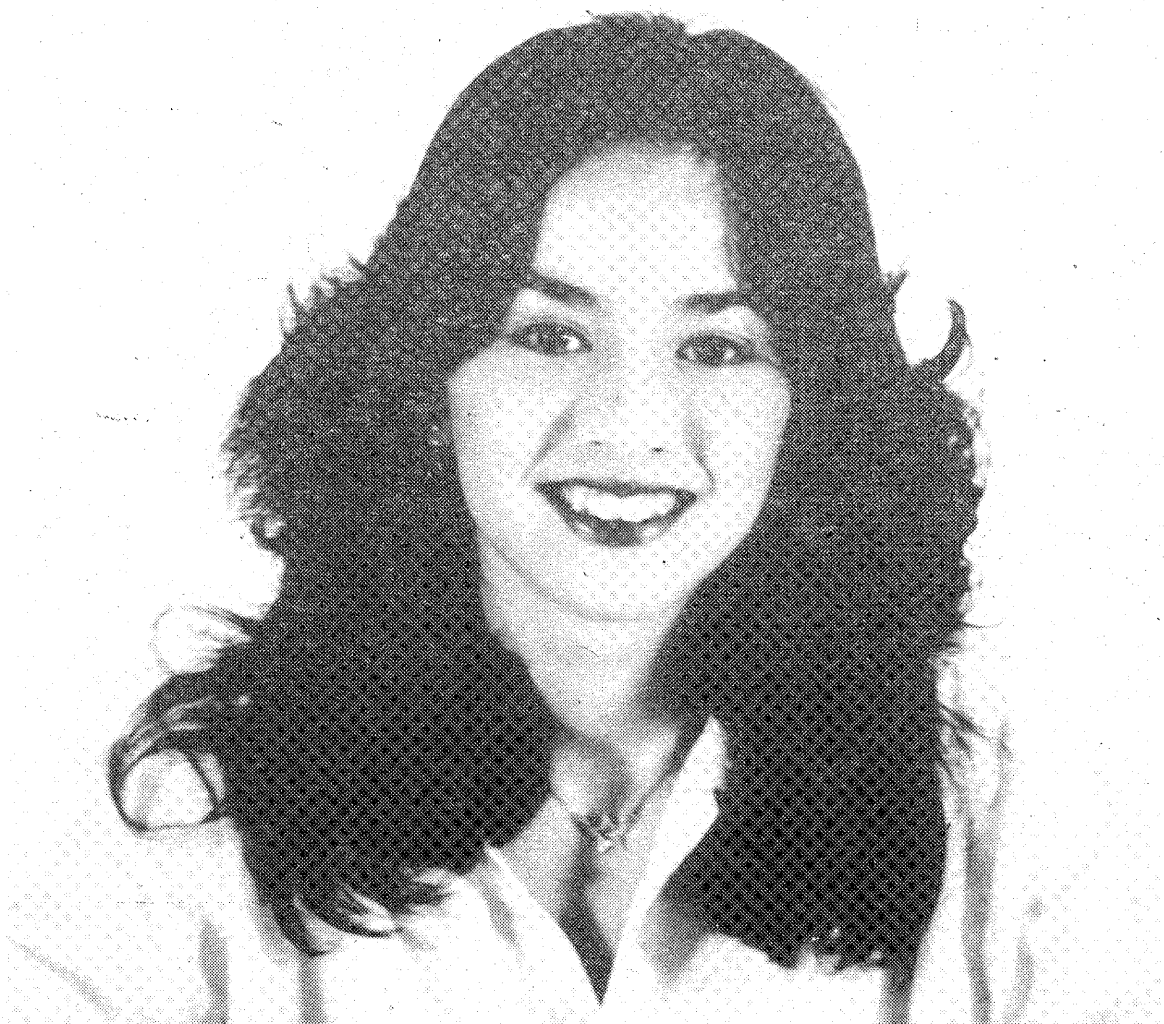

Drafting

Hello, I'm Jeannette Wiger. I'm representing EDDT during Mardi Gras Week. This week gives everyone a chance to get together and meet the other Technologies while having a little fun in the process.

The activities at NAIT are one of the greatest assets to our school. By participating in the Intramural program, I've had a chance to meet a lot of different people.

Shinerama and the Blood Donor Clinic are two good examples of everyone's willingness to help out.

I know everyone will have a good time and I wish all the other girls the best of luck.

Alyson Bereznicki

Miss Accounting

Hi! My name is Alyson and I am proud to represent Accounting in the Miss NAIT Queen Contest.

I am 18 years old and was born in Edmonton. I have spent most of my life in Edmonton but have lived elsewhere. Five years of my life were spent in Edson, then two years were spent in San Francisco. Finally, I spent one year in Uranium City, Saskatchewan.

Presently, I am enrolled in Business Administration, Accounting, at NAIT. When I finish this course I plan to obtain the Registered Industrial Accountant status to further my ambition in the challenging field of Accounting. It is a challenge that I look forward to.

One of the things that I enjoy very much is competing in sports. These sports include skiing, bowling, and hockey. One of my present ambitions is to attempt sky diving.

Another aspect of life that I enjoy very much is any activity that allows me the opportunity to meet people. I enjoy going to cabarets, dancing, and most other social gatherings.

I have very few dislikes. I am usually very open - minded but do not like to be forced into situations against my will. Being my own person is important to me. For those of you who saw me last week you know another dislike of mine, crutches. That is because they restrict my freedom and prevent me from doing the things in life that I enjoy.

I feel that running for Miss NAIT is a great opportunity for new and challenging experiences. This contest is a prosperous event for not only the girls involved but also for the institute as a whole. It allows all of the students to join together and participate in all of the events. It is just a great social event for all the students and offers a change from the regular school routine.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all of the other queen contestants the best of luck in their respective campaigns.

Also I would like to thank those of you who have offered your support for my campaign. Namely, Duane Iverson, my campaign manager; Stuart Lyman, my photographer; Norah Smyth and Mark Likeland for helping with the posters and their moral support. And last but not least, the remainder of my class, AF 1 & 2 and the rest of the Accounting group for their participation and support.

Now lets get out there and have a good time.

Thank - you.

Miss Finance

I have been nominated by my class to run for NAIT Queen. I am running from Finance.

I am going into this contest with the idea of having a good time and with the hope that my class and other helpers have a good time also.

My hobbies (after school activities) are partying, drinking and dancing and partying.

I hope everybody has a good time and comes out to all the events. Anyone that isn't helping out is free to join me.

Miss Bio Vet Sci for this year is Diane Weleschuk. Diane really stands out at NAIT. She is an active member of her technology club, and participates in various intramural activities such as skating and football. She is also an avid fan of the Eskimos. When asked who her favorite player was, she replied "All of them".

She also like dancing and guys (though not necessarily in that order). Diane is excited about running for Miss NAIT and memories of this week will last forever.

NAIT EXPLODES MOUNT ROYAL

While the basketball team was playing in Millwoods, the hockey team hit the bus and traveled to Camrose in the hopes of avenging last week's loss. As it turned out, Camrose blasted the NAIT goal with 34 shots and took home with them a 5-3 victory.

In talking to the General Manager of the team, Mr. B. Watson, he said that the team was playing well but ran into poor officiating and if anyone has seen any ACAC games, there are some real doozies acting as referees.

The man who has been sparking the Oaks of late, centreman Peter Skrabyk, put in two goals. In the last three games Skrabyk has scored 11 goals but the key to his play is that he never gives up and plays to win. The other NAIT goal scorer was Darrelle Boeken-

Coming off two consecutive losses, NAIT was ready for a victory and it was the unfortunate Mount Royal team who were the recipients.

NAIT totally dominated the hockey game Saturday night, outshooting the Cougars 71-20 but more importantly, they outscored Mount Royal 10-2.

Bart Szoke put NAIT on the scoreboard with 2:52 gone in the first period. The team had a lot of good opportunities to score but couldn't seem to put the puck in the net. NAIT found themselves trailing 2-1 after one period of play.

In the second period, Brian Goodfellow, Darrell Bokenfohr, and Dave Johnson tallied for NAIT giving them a 4-2 lead going into the third period.

The final frame saw NAIT score six unanswered goals. The Captain, Joe Mykietyshyn scored twice while Darrell Bokenfohr and Dave Johnson picked up their second goals of the night. Funny thing about Dave, both his goals came after he left the penalty box. Henri Tessier and Brad Stiles also picked up a goal each.

It was a lopsided affair but still a good game. Hope to see you at the next home game which will be the final game before the playoffs. Red Deer College will be the visiting club and a NAIT victory could send them into the playoffs with the momentum they need SO GET OUT AND CHEER THEM ON!!!!!!

Gina Noce

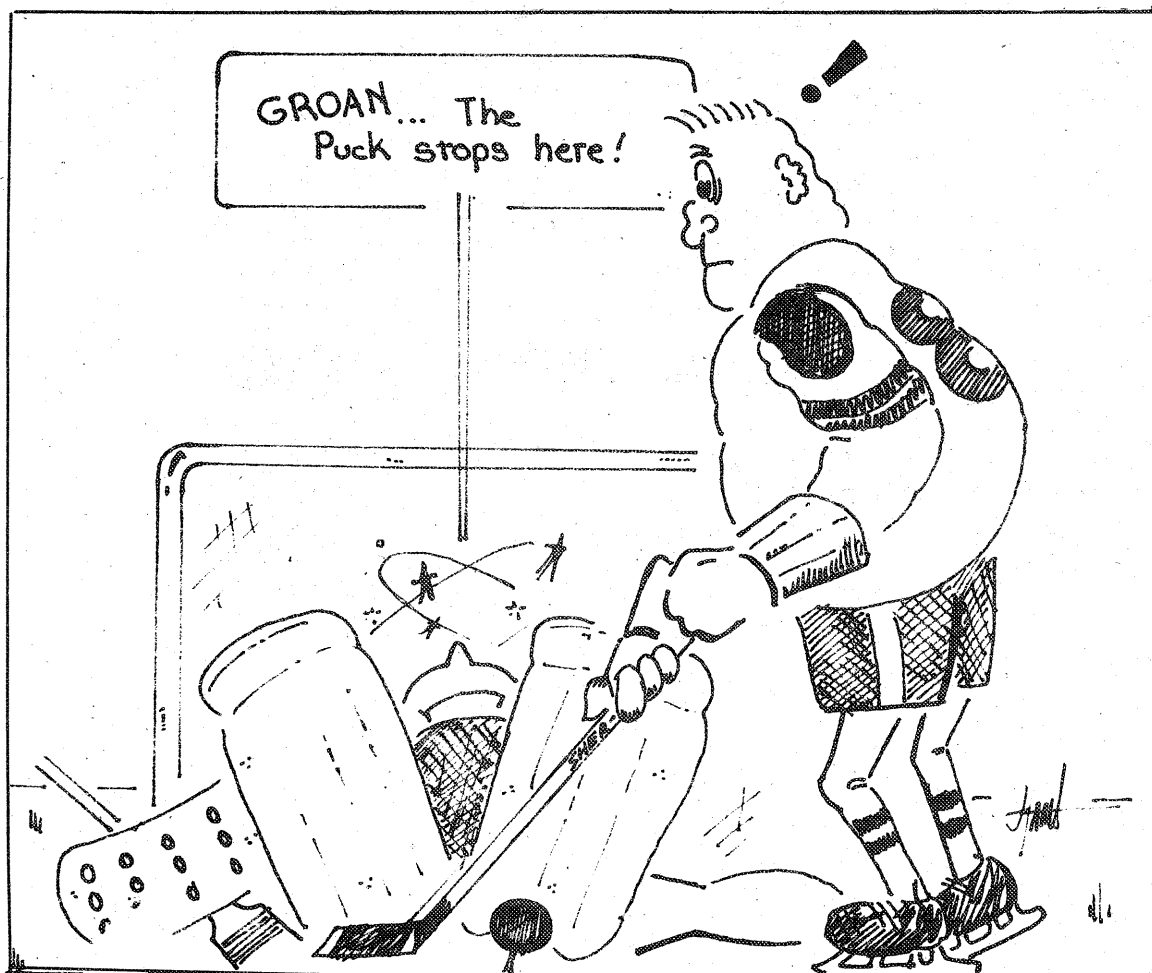

SAIT TROUNCES NAIT

It was one of those games where nothing went right for the Oaks and it was all smiles for the visiting SAIT Trojans as they dumped NAIT 6-1 last Friday night.

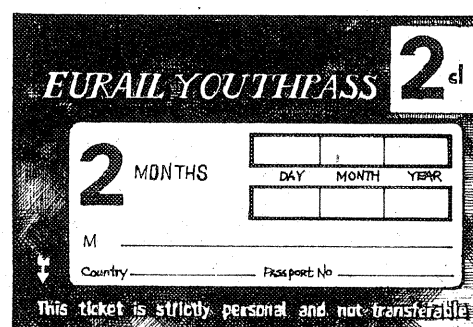

The first period was the best one for the Oaks. They quickly fell behind 1-0 as a result of a disorganized defense but then turned it around and pressured the Trojans for the rest of the period and finally scored on a power play goal by Brian Goodfellow.

NAIT ran into trouble in the second period by the name of Dan McMullen who literally robbed several of the Oaks of sure goals. While he was doing that his teammates were fortunate enough not to be robbed and popped in three goals to take a firm 4-1 lead.

The third period saw SAIT dent the mesh twice more and dominated much of the period. Probably the only highlight came late in the period when Coach Perry Pearn pulled his goal tender, Brian Jubinville, and Bart Szoke made three stops that were sure goals.

INTERVIEW WITH A FENCER

"Fencing is a very disciplined and demanding sport which requires a great deal of concentration, technical knowledge, and controlled reflexes." Somehow this does not match my idea of the dashing swashbuckler swinging into the castle on a chandlier, rescuing the fair maiden after running the villain through with his trusty sword.

Mr. Les Klar is the coach of the NAIT Fencing Club and he helped straighten out my popular misconception. "Unfortunately, you are not alone in your thinking. A great many people come out to the meetings and approach fencing with a pirate-like attitude and perhaps they were thinking that they would be given the costumes in which to act out their dream. Fencing involves a great deal of hard work and dedication, and many do not think that it is worth it but there are those who do.

At present there are about twenty plus members of the NAIT Fencing Club and not all are men either. In fact the most promising fencer is a young lady from business named Dawn Marie Messier. NAIT has earned a great deal of respect from the various other clubs in the province.

Unfortunately, just as a great many are ready to show themselves as a good fencer, they graduate from NAIT. Thus it is hard for the club to produce a steady medal winning team.

However, there is a major upset in almost every tournament when a NAIT fencer defeats an opponent who they were supposed to lose to. The club works very hard and takes the sport seriously enough to make sure that their opponents are not going to think them easy pickings.

As mentioned in the opening paragraph, it takes a great deal of concentration, technical knowledge and controlled reflexes. By controlled reflexes I mean that one has to react exactly and not over or under react as you may leave yourself open to a thrust from your opponent.

The tactics are similar to boxing. You probe for each others strengths and reflexes and try to lull the opponent into a smooth and monotonous routine and then move in for the hit.

What does one hit with or should I say thrust with? There are three different categories, foil, sabre and epee.

The most demanding is the foil where you try to maim or kill the opponent by stabbing him in the torso area. Points are scored by hitting the opponents target area, the trunk of his body, with the tip of the foil.

The epee is the modern version of the dueling sword. It is heavier than the foil and the target area is anywhere on the body from the toes to the head.

The sabre, a cut and thrust weapon, is the modern version of the slashing cavalry sword. The valid target area includes all the portions of the body above the hips. To win any of the above matches one has to score five hits.

If anyone is interested in this fast moving sport, just walk up to F206 and talk to Mr. Klar who will be happy to inform you of the sport and answer any of your questions. The next competition for the NAIT Fencing Club will be the Provincial Championships which will be held at the U. of A. gym on March 10-11.

Drop over and see for yourself just what fencing is all about.

Friday, Feb. 9, 1979 OOKS HOOP NEWS

Last Wednesday, the NAIT basketball teams travelled to the Millwoods campus to play their crosstown rivals, Grant McEwen. The results were two very frustrating losses for the hoop squads.

The Ookchicks showed that they can play good basketball against any team but poor officiating and a momentary lapse in defense brought the Ookchicks to their downfall. At one point in the game the Ookchicks were down by 24 points but valiantly fought back only to lose by 10 points. The final score of the game was 55-45 for Grant McEwen. Some of the high scorers of the Ookchicks were Dallas Hurlbert with 14 points, Cindy Olskew and Joan Powers with 10 points each and Charlene "Chuck" Schroeder with 7.

In the men's game, the Ooks were down by 7 points at halftime and were under by as much as 16 points late in the second half of play. The Ooks started to play heads up ball and narrowed their deficit to 3 points and that's where it ended, resulting in a 71-68 victory for Grant McEwen. The high scorers for NAIT were Wayne Squires with 12 points, Dave "Spiderman" Niel with 11 and Ken Plumb with 10 points.

In men's and ladies basketball action this past week-end, our NAIT Ookchicks and Ookchicks took a pounding. They valiantly played the two top ACAC teams from Mount Royal only to come away with two losses.

In the Ookchicks game, Mount Royal jumped into a 36-19 half time lead by out-muscling and out-rebounding the NAIT ladies. The Ookchicks fought back in the second half and were only out scored by three points. Final score of the game was Mount Royal 54, NAIT 34. It should be noted that Mount Royal, who were undefeated last year, went into the game with 11 straight victories. They also played the Grand McEwen Griffettes and soundly beat them on Saturday.

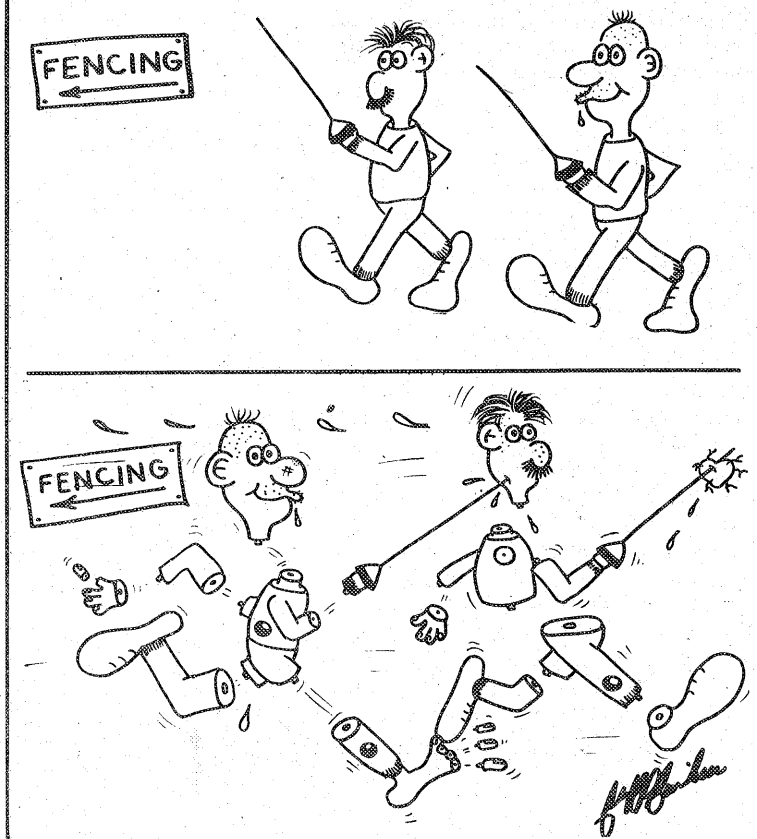

The men's game, however, was quite frustrating from the players and fans point of view. Mount Royal is the class of the league and in order to beat them you have to play tough aggressive ball and not make too many mistakes. Such was not the case as Mount Royal scored 20 plus points inside the NAIT key.

Wayne Squires led the Ooks with 18 points. Ron Kelly added 11 and Rick Davidson chipped in 10 points in the losing cause. Final score was Mount Royal 87, NAIT 64.

The Ooks and Ookchicks travel to Camrose this Friday and will finish up the season hosting Grant McEwen on Wednesday. We would appreciate any fan support for this last home game and would like to take this opportunity to thank those few dedicated people who supported us this past year.

BADMINTON TEAMS WIN

This past week-end, the Badminton team travelled to the sunny suburb of Red Deer and took part in yet another tournament. As they have done in their previous two tournaments NAIT played well enough to be the number one team to beat in the coveted ACAC championships held in Calgary this week-end.

Some of the results were as follows:

Men's Singles: Winner - Grant McEwen
3rd. NAIT - Valden Palm (Arch)

Ladies Singles:
5th NAIT - Rita Rusich (Arch)

Men's Doubles:
Winners - Al Uniat (computers)

Marketing takes broomball title

Monday night the Marketing Men played a tough and aggressive Telecom team for the Men's Intramural Broomball Championship. Right from the start each knew that it would be a tough game as they had already met in league play and battled to a 1-1 draw.

The game was up and down the ice with Marketing holding a slight edge in play but were unable to score. Telecom had several chances as well but Marketing held them off.

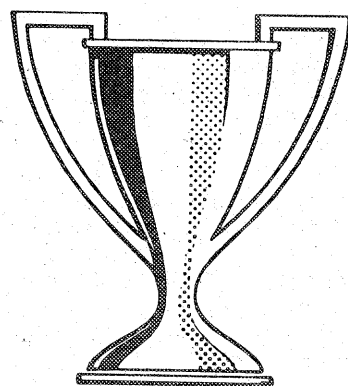

After playing out the regular time the game was slated for sudden-death overtime with the teams playing five aside and no goalie.

The play was held by Marketing and then with three minutes left to go, Telecom had a breakaway but were unable to score but Marketing was called for interference which left them short handed. However, if you remember last year it was the same situation for the Marketing squad and this time was to be no different. Jack Chawrun blocked a shot at his blue line and sped by the Telecom defender and fired a shot that went into the net ending a very exciting and well played contest.

Congratulations go to the Telecom team for playing an excellent game as it could have gone either way.

For the Marketing team this victory marks the third consecutive men's Broomball championship and the third straight year being undefeated. I hope that next years team will carry on the fast establishing tradition. A hearty congratulations to Henry Loziuk, Bob Shuya, Rick Stewart, for guiding the team to the past two championship victories.
