championships tournaments leading scorer. When asked about his selection Alex only comment was that it was an award for the team because without the support of the rest of the NAIT Oaks player he would not have had the excellent chances to score. Asked about the Oaks performance in the nationals Alex felt the team did not get the breaks in the C.C.A.A semi final against Ontario. With a little luck he said "we could have been in the final".

Alex is a graduate of Joes' excellent soccer program. He is a member of Lautaro E.D.S.A. premier team.

Alex came to Canada as a refugee from Chile where soccer is a religion. Being able to play soccer made Alex transition into a different culture a little easier. Alex mentioned that he is pleased that NAIT has a soccer program because there are no other sports that he and the spanish speaking team members could play at a high level. CONGRATULATIONS! ALEX. EDITOR'S NOTE

Albert's third institute of technology, Westerra Institute of Technology, will be officially opened at a ceremony in Stony Plain on Wednesday, November 9, 1983, at 7:00p.m. The Minister of Advanced Education, Dick Johnston, and the M.L.A. for Stony Plain, Bill Purdy, will attend the inaugural celebration to be held in Westerra's General Services Building.

Westerra's 157 acre campus is located approximately six kilometres southeast of the Stony Plain overpass on Highway 16. Construction of the 10,100 square metres General Services Building commenced in November, 1982. The total cost was $12,163,000 and the facility was completed on schedule and within budget in September, 1983.

During the first academic year Westerra Institute of Technology is expected to accommodate approximately 1,300 apprentices. Currently 150 students are participating in the Institute's Boilermaker, Steel Fabricator, Printing and Graphic Arts, Insulator, Electrician and Steamfitter-Pipefitter programs. An additional 20 students are enrolled at Westerra's Edmonton campus where Roofer and Floorcovering apprenticeship programs are taught. The Institute is expected to employ a total of about 100 staff by June, 1984.

It was in April, 1980, that the Alberta Government first announced its decision to establish a major technical and trades institute in the Edmonton region and to expand apprenticeship facilities within existing colleges throughout the Province. Seventeen communities submitted proposals, and Stony Plain was selected as the site for the new technical and trades institute.

Four major factors were identified as having a bearing upon the successful establishment and operation of the proposed institute. The structure must be located in reasonable proximity to the student population; students must be able to travel easily between their places of residence and the institution; the institute must be located close to industrial activity; and the community must be large enough to accommodate the institution without loss of its own identity. The decision to place the institute outside Edmonton was consistent with the Government's policy to decentralize major provincial facilities. In July, 1982, Westerra Institute of Technology became a board-governed institution.

LIVE DEATH

Just over a year ago, whilst watching David Letterman, I found myself looking at an "NBC News Bulletin" visual. And my ears were hearing silence. Not a sound was coming from whoever was supposed to be announcing whatever the bulletin was supposed to be about. The mind, at two in the morning, starts to imagine all sorts of possibilities, from the announcer being a part of the bulletin, to somebody trying to pull off a simplified version of Orson Welles' radio report of the Martians landing on Earth. My mind reached the ultimate possibility when one of the stacks at the Strathcona refineries let off a flare that seemed more like an atomic bomb going off than excess gas being burned. Finally, after what seemed like an eternity, the newsman announced that Brezhnev had died. I breathed a sigh of relief, and asked my heart to start pumping again.

Since then, a part of my mind tries to imagine what World War III would really be like, and especially how the various television networks would handle it. Would the networks decide not to cover it at all, perhaps deciding that the less known, the less panic there would be? Or would they cover said "story" in the manner that the assassination attempt on Ronald Reagan was covered--Brokaw, Jennings, and Rather each anchoring their own network's "special report", which would last for as long as the event would last, or until the affiliates wanted to get back to "Family Feud"? It is a gruesome thought.

Imagine, if you will, Barbara Frum interviewing whoever was involved in the developing situation. "Tonight on 'The Journal', we'll talk with this high-level government figure in Moscow, and to this member of the United States' Chiefs of Staff. Mr. Vladimir, is that a bomb shelter you're in?..." Or, if the situation became terribly serious, imagine Barbara Walters having a last "up close and personal" interview with Carl "I hope the insects will do better" Sagan and Jerry "at least we'll be rid of the Commies" Falwell. One can imagine Sam Donaldson getting a last few words about the American way of life, or Walter Cronkite muttering, for the last time, "that's the way it is...."

Hopefully, the closest we will ever come to nuclear war being on television will be this Sunday night, when ABC will broadcast "The Day After". There has been some controversy about this film, which will be broadcast at nine on Sunday night, and there will be more controversy in the weeks ahead. However, I think it will be well worth taking some time out from studying for your finals to see what the headlines and announcements might be like in the days leading up to the Big Blast. (And don't forget to run for the river valley if a real "Special News Report" comes on the air.)

Vernon R.J. Schmid

P.S.: If the bombs ever do drop on Edmonton, remember to look on the bright side--your eyes will melt faster that way....

Debbie's experience and much improved play will be a valuable asset as the Chick's hope to battle for first place in the A.C.A.C. North Division.

Ooks B-Ball

Last weekend the NAIT Mens Basketball Team travelled down to Cougar Country(M.R.C. College) to participate in the M.R.C. Cougar Classic held every year. In their first game NAIT came up against Blue Mountain Community College from Oregon. NAIT and Blue Mountain were very close through out the night and in the end the score was 86-74 for Blue Mountain. The loss was attributed to the fact that Blue Mountain was good shooting team, shooting 47.32 for the game, while NAIT shot 37.2. Leading scorers for NAIT were Darrel Zheir with 18 pts., Bill Ralley with 15, and Luc Naccarato with 11.

With the loss NAIT advanced to the consolation side of the tournament. NAIT played Red River College from Manitoba in their second game of the tournament. The game started off with NAIT taking the lead and never losing it. NAIT did not play as well as could be expected but in the end registered a 63 to 50 win.

Leading scorer for NAIT was Luc Naccarato with 16 pts. This win put NAIT into the consolation final against the strong M.R.C. Alumni. On Saturday night the lead changed hands on many occasions throughout the first with the score at half time 44-31 for MRC Alumni. The second half the teams came out play hard and at the end of the game the score was 77 to 66 for MRC.

Though NAIT lost they played good basketball and never gave up. Leading scorers for NAIT were Bill Ralley with 16 pts., Scott McLaren with 11 pts. and Jim Barnett and Chris Peareson chipping in 10 pts. each. In talking with coaches after, head coach Dave Hoy was extremely pleased with the progress of the team to date and thinks they will be successful if they continue to work hard to improve.

This week the Mens and Womens teams are on the road to Camrose on Wednesday and Red Deer on Friday for their first league games.

Chicks B-Ball

Chick's Tops in GMCC

In the weekend NAIT women wrapped up their preseason Basketball schedule by winning the G.M.C.C. Invitational Tournament at Grant MacEwan. The Tourney featured womens teams from Camrose, Caribou College in Kamloops, host GMCC and NAIT in a single round robin format.

Friday night the girls played perhaps their worst game of the preseason dropping a 51-44 decision to Camrose Lutheran Vikettes, last place finishers in the ACAC Tourney the previous week. Sloppy ball handling victimized the Chicks who took a 28-26 lead to the lockerroom at half time. Janet Weech led the Chicks with 14 points in a losing cause.

Saturday saw the Chicks return to playing form as they rebounded to knock off Grant MacEwan 58-54 and Caribou College 61-54 to finish the tourney with 2 wins and a loss. In the first game Grant MacEwan jumped out to a 35-21 half time lead but the Chicks fired up their defense in the second half holding GMCC to 19 points, forcing many turnovers and capitalizing on them for points. The Chicks rode the net hand of Marcy Hurlburt who hit for 15 second half points to finish with a game high 23 points. Janet Weech chipped in 14 points in a supporting role.

In their final game the Chicks got balanced scoring from Janet Weech(14 pts.), Marcy Hurlburt(13 pts.), and Susan Tomchuk(12 pts.) in their victory over Caribou College. The win left the Chicks tied with Grant MacEwan with identical 2 win-1 loss records but gave them first in the tourney by virtue of their win over the Griffettes.

Chicks will open their ACAC League Schedule on the road this year with games in Camrose on Wednesday and in Red Deer on Friday before hosting Medicine Hat and Lethbridge the following weekend.

Ooks Hockey

The NAIT Ooks played three games in four days coming away with three wins and six points. NAIT nipped the CLC Viking 7-6 on Wednesday, November 9th. The Ooks also swept a pair of matches from the MHC Rattlers 6-3 on Friday, November 11th, and 16-1 on Saturday, November 12th.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9th--NAIT OOKS 7, CLC 6

The NAIT Ooks scored six goals in the first 22 minutes and held on to gain a narrow 7-6 victory over the Camrose Lutheran College Vikings at the NAIT Arena on Wednesday, November 9th.

Gary Leach of the Ooks tallied twice. Garth Hayes, Kevin Hayes, Jim Lee, Hugh McCaskill, and Kevin Imrie also netted goals for NAIT. Darcy Youngmans, Lloyd McKinney, Greg Fischer, Lorne Albertson, Bruce Kikyulik, and Dale Pilon replied for CLC.

NAIT jumped out into a 5-1 lead after one, and a 6-3 advantage following two periods of play. The Ooks scored first in the third, and clinged to a 7-6 win.

CLC's Wayne Fischer turned away 42 NAIT shots at the Vikings' net. At the other end, Cleo Rowein of the Ooks redirected 26 Camrose drivers.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11th--NAIT OOKS 6, MHC RATTTLERS 3 at MEDICINE HAT ARENA

The NAIT Ooks tallied three times in the first frame to acquire a lead they never relinquished as they doubled the Medicine Hat Rattlers 6-3 on Friday, November 11th in Medicine Hat.

Former Fort Saskatchewan Trader Jim Lee spurred the NAIT attack with a pair of markers. Brian Hermanutz, Randy Repchuk, Kevin Hayes and Brian Keates rounded out the NAIT scoring. Peter Hayden, and Todd Penner answered for the Rattlers.

NAIT came away with a 3-0 advantage after one. The two teams traded goals in the second to make the count 4-1 after 40 minutes of play. The final frame saw four goals being scored.

NAIT rookie netminder Preston Yakimec blocked 20 Rattlers' blasts. Brent Roseichuk in the Medicine Hat net stopped the Ooks on 30 occasions.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12th--NAIT OOKS 16, MHC RATTTLERS 1 at MEDICINE HAT ARENA

Six powerplay goals played a dominant role in the NAIT Ooks 16-1 triumph over the MHC Rattlers on Saturday, the 12th, in the final game of a two game road trip.

Jim Lee and Brian Keates of NAIT were the point leaders in this match. Jim accumulated 3 goals and four assists, while Brian completed the hat trick and helped out on three more scoring plays. Garth Hayes, Kevin Hayes and Gary Leach pitched in with two apiece for the Ooks. Kevin Imrie, Hugh McCaskill, Garry Haddon, and Larry Oswald of NAIT each scored once. MHC's Mike Hallas broke NAIT's shutout bid at 11:10 of the second.

The NAIT Ooks were 5-0 leaders following 20 minutes. The score was 10-1 after two. NAIT then added six more markers in the final frame.

NAIT's Cleo Rowein was tested 20 times by the Rattlers. The Rattlers netminding tandem came up with 26 saves in 42 attempts.

Coach Perry Pearn was pleased with the progress of the Ooks and commented about Saturday's win, "It was our best 60 minute effort of the year. We executed well and there were no mental lapses."

Coach Pearn added, "The whole trip to the Hat and back seemed to bring the team closer together. We've learned through the Mount Royal experience (a 4-3 loss), and we're starting to see the commitment coming to the forefront."

ON THE BENCH: The NAIT Ooks appear to be one of the stronger clubs in the ACAC this season. Regarding Saturday's victory, Coach Pearn stated, "I think if we play with the type of intensity we had in the whole 60 minutes, we can be a dominant force in the league. It would be difficult for the competition to stay with us." A whole team effort has moved the Ooks into striking range of first place with a record of 4 wins and 2 losses...In the two games in Medicine Hat, NAIT scored on 7 of 10 powerplay chances. On the season, the Ooks have capitalized 14 times on 26 powerplay opportunities...Jim Lee and Brian Keates were outstanding both ways over the weekend picking up 10 and eight points respectively...On Friday, November 18th, the Ooks will entertain the Red Deer College Kings at the NAIT Arena. Game time is 7:30. On Saturday, the Ooks travel to Camrose to take on the CLC Vikings in an 8:00 pm matchup.

Ooks Go Down in Soccer

After dropping the opening game to British Columbia 2-0 in flood like conditions NAIT came back to defeat Saskatchewan 4-2 to ensure a place in the Canadian Championship semi final. The top two teams in each pool advanced to the semi finals.

In semi final NAIT vs SENECA College in Ontario on Friday, November 11th.

In this game Seneca scored early and score remained 1-0 for the next 80 minutes. NAIT had some great chances to equalize. On one occasion striker Alex Nunez scored however the goal was disallowed. This was an excellent soccer game played by two outstanding teams. In the final minute Seneca put the game away to win 2-0.

Although eliminated from the championship side of the draw NAIT gave everything they had, with a little luck NAIT may have advanced

On Saturday Nov. 12th NAIT played Capilano College in the consolation final- both of these teams lost in the semis. NAIT scored first, Capilano came back with two goals, NAIT equalised to make the score 2-2 with two minutes left in regulation time just when it appeared overtime was looming Capilano was awarded a controversial penalty shot. This made it 3-2 for capilano. Capilano added the insurance goal in the dying seconds of the game to win 4-2.

This team all though not winning the championship gave everything and can be proud of their efforts in winning Alberta and their play in the nationals. All players deserve credit but none more than the goal keeper Robert Cesseretti who made some great saves and inspired the team to give their best. The coaching of Stuart Brown and Bob Buchan wishes to congratulate the team for the excellent season.

SIDE LINE NOTES

The NAIT soccer team wishes to thank the NAIT staff and students for the telegrams of support they recieved while in Vancouver. The team would like to thank the NUGGET for their coverage of the soccer season.

Ooks V-ball

Last Wednesday, the Ooks volleyball team overwhelmed Red Deer College three game straight. The scores were terribly lopsided as the Ooks swept by the Kings 15-4, 15-7 and 15-8.

When I talked to the Ooks coach Pierre Baudin, he said that they used a special strategy and that he felt that the Ooks took Red Deer by surprise. He also mentioned that the Ooks are exceptional this early in the season, and that the rookies are a pleasant surprise with their play. This is definitely a good sign when you consider that the Ooks have only four returning players: Jeff Wilford, Rob Klettli, ACAC All-Star Richard Kolasa, and All Canadian Loris Campagnolo.

AT THE NET: the Chicks next games in Grande Prairie next Friday and Saturday. Then they host Grant MacEwan on the following Wednesday.

Chicks V-ball

The Chicks lost a series of close games last Wednesday to the Red Deer College Queens.

In the first game the Chicks were down 11-2, but rallied back. Unfortunately, it was not enough as Red Deer went on to win 16-14 in a very close match. In the second game the Chicks put together a good team effort but still lost to the Queens by a score of 15-11. The last game saw Red Deer take NAIT 15-7.

I talked with coach Peter Grundmanis, and he said that Denine Miller was probably the best player in the three game series. He was not disappointed with the Chicks effort, since Red Deer will probably finish first in the division, anything the Chicks can learn now will be a definite aid in the playoffs.

AT THE NET: the Chicks travel to Grande Prairie on the weekend of Nov. 25 and 26. This game will be important since the challenge for second will probably come from Grande Prairie and it will be important to get an early jump on them.

MOVIE UPDATE

By Byron A. Martin

This week I have only two movies to update for you, "Deal of the Century" and "Going Berserk". Things are slow on the theatre front lately because all the major studios are waiting for the Christmas season to release their best movies for the Academy Awards. So, don't expect anything extravagant to come out until then. Although, some of the Christmas movies coming out look alright.

"Two of a Kind" see John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John back together again in a romantic comedy about a pair of star-matched lovers.

"To Be or Not To Be", combines real-life husband and wife team, starring together in a comedy about a Polish acting troupe which becomes involved in an outrageous scheme to save the Polish underground during World War II.

"Silkwood" stars Meryl Streep and Kurt Russel in a story based on the personal and professional struggles of Karen Silkwood, who died in a mysterious car crash in 1974 while she was attempting to expose the dangers in the plutonium plant in which she worked.

These are just three of the movies that are coming out in December, later in the month I'll outline the complete schedule for the month.

DEAL OF THE CENTURY

"Deal of the Century"—written by Paul Brickman and starring Chevy Chase, Sigourney Weaver, and Gregory Hines. Director William Friedkin sharply focuses his cameras on a subject yet to be dealt with on the big screen: the strange, complex world of the international arms and aerospace industries. And, through a glass mirror, he mirrors today's headlines. Somewhere in Central America, it is Christmas Eve—a night when thoughts of Santa Claus and snowflakes fill the minds of those back home. Eddie Muntz(Chevy Chase) sits alone at the bar of a not-too-savory hotel, waiting for three members of a guerilla army who want him to arm their cause. For Muntz, a first-rate pro at selling second-hand weapons to Third World countries, war has no holidays.

Later, in his rundown room overlooking the town square, Muntz pitches with the panache of a hardcore hockster. Out of his sample bag come the wares of warfare: German-made HK-91 assault rifles—used only once during the misguided Yemen revolt; nastily little Dragon Teeth Mines; assorted pistols; and his piece de resistance, The Tankbuster, complete with ammunition. Muntz enumerates the Tankbuster's fine points. The heat-sensing scope through which he peers reveals a military jeep parked across the square. Like a vacuum cleaner salesman who sprinkles dirt on a carpet, Muntz learned early never to underestimate the power of a demonstration.

He pulls the trigger and disintegrates the vehicle. The guerilla leaders seem impressed...

"Deal of the Century" tells the story of Luckup Industries all-out effort to sell The Peacemaker, a state-of-the-art high-tech, multi-million dollar "ultra" weapon that flies without a pilot and kills without a thought.

When The Peacemaker begins to act like a lemon, Luckup marketing V.P. Frank Stryker(Vince Edwards) recruits small-time arms hustler Eddie Muntz(Chevy Chase) to unload the drone on a Latin American dictator(William Marquez). Muntz is aided by his reborn, bible-quoting partner, Ray Pasternak(Gregory Hines), an ex-air-force pilot, and by Mrs. Catherine DeVoto(Sigourney Weaver), the ambitious widow of a previous Peacemaker sales rep. A combined team effort trying to make the "Deal of the Century", making this movie cautionary as well as entertaining.

GOING BERSERK

"Going Berserk" reunites David Steinberg with stars Jonn Candy, Joe Flaherty and Eugene Levy — all of whom come from the Second City theatrical company.

John Bourguignon (John Candy) is a part-time limousine driver and night club drummer. He is about to marry the daughter of a famous Congressman (Pat Hingle, who just finished "Running Brave" in Edmonton), but not before he is kidnapped by a religious aerobics cult and brainwashed into an assassination plot against his future father-in-law. His experiences take him from a free-for-all "ladies night" at a male strip joint to being arrested and handcuffed to a pyromaniac murderer.

As you can tell from the plot, this movie is totally off the wall. Unfortunately, I was talked into going to this movie last week and without question I predict this movie will win an award. BOMB OF THE YEAR AWARD!! This movie is so bad, it is unbelievable. Poorly directed, lousy script, crummy acting, a total bomb in every manner. On a scale of one to five, I'll graciously give this movie a 0.

Interested In Freelance

Hal Tennant, one of Canada's top freelance writers and editors, will be in Edmonton this December to present a workshop on the business of freelance writing.

The workshop begins at 8 pm Tuesday, December 6th, in Room 14 of the Edmonton Convention Centre, 9797 Jasper Avenue.

Tickets are 5.00 dollars at the door. Doors open at 7:30 pm. Copies of the recently updated Words for Sale will be on sale.

Tennant has been in the business of making money as a professional writer and editor-in both print and broadcast media-for more than 30 years. In his glib and informal manner, he will talk about the tricks of the trade and the how-tos of success-the kind of information most writers learn the hard way.

His presentation will be of interest to practising freelance writers, to writers who are wondering about taking a career plunge into the freelance marketplace, to those who write part time, to professional communicators and editors who work with freelance writers, and to students of university and college writing and journalism courses.

The Toronto-based writer is well known for his contributions to Maclean's, Homemaker's, Quest, Weekend, Canadian business, The Reader's Digest and other major magazines; for his work in senior staff capacities with Maclean's, The Financial Post, Canadian Homes and Imperial Oil Review; and as writer, commentator, panelist and co-producer in the broadcasting industry. He has also written speeches for political and business leaders, ghostwritten for an international bestseller, and co-edited Words for Sale, a bestselling survival guide for professional writers.

Tennant's visit has been arranged by the Edmonton chapter of the Periodical Writers Association of Canada, a national organization of professional writers.

Scorpie(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Have fun today and enjoy yourself but don't forget your finals(you just made it last time!). Also, don't spend everything in your budget, you may need it to bribe your teachers.

Sagittarius(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Avoid tendencies today to take situations for granted. (STUDY) Even things you usually do easily could get messed up.

Capricorn(Dec 22-Jan 19)

You really shouldn't worry so much about finals, you'll do alright, all you have to do is relax, don't just study.

Aquarius(Jan 20-Feb 19)

Don't indulge in wishful thinking, go for it! Otherwise you may not attain your goals. Should be another typical day for Aquarians--BORING.

Pisces(Feb 20-Mar 20)

Success comes through dedication, not through a roll of the dice, so forget that washroom crap-game and study!

Aries(Mar 21-April 19)

Don't be a typical Arien; be modest about your talents, yet spread them around where needed.

Taurus(Apr 20-May 20)

You're trying too hard to keep up with the Jonese. You're burning the candle at both ends. Settle down to what's important.

Gemini(May 21-June 20)

Doing things on your own today could have its drawbacks(That does not mean you can use another person's brain on exams though!)

Cancer(June 21-July 22)

Don't try to do things all in one step, break it down into workable units. Be practical.

Leo(July 23-Aug 22)

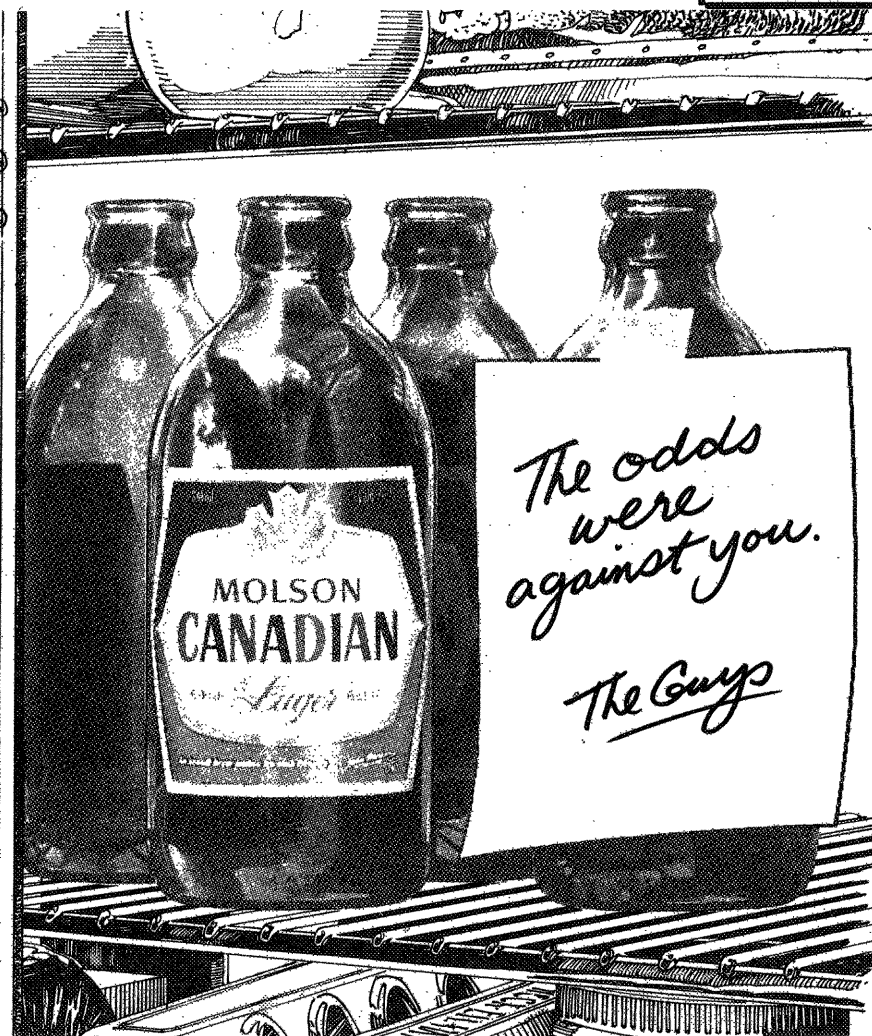

Don't try to run things for others. Don't try to take center stage today either, you may end up on the wrong side of your teachers again.)

Virgo(Aug 23-Sept 23)

Keep your sharp logic up to its usual high standards. If you do, your day will go a lot better than it started(you may have JUST passed that exam.)

Libra(Sept 23-Oct 23)

Others might back off from helping you today, if your asking them to do things you should be doing for yourself. (write your own "crib notes")
