GRADUATION '86 - The Stage Is Set

On Saturday, May 10, 1986 the largest graduating class in NAIT's history will be honoured at a ceremony at the Jubilee Auditorium. Some 800 graduands have indicated their intention to attend.

The ceremony is expected to play a full, and possibly overflowing house. The Auditorium seats 2700, and for that reason, graduands are asked to limit the number of guests they bring to two.

Following the colorful processional, graduates and platform party, the program will proceed through the following stages: Report of the President (Dr. Souch), presentation of the Distinguished Friend of the Institute Award (to his present position, he was John Zigarlick, Jr.), address to the graduands (by Ron Jeffels), farewell address (by Glenn Mason) and presentation of graduands (by Program Heads and other staff). This year's guest speaker is Ron Jeffels, a distinguished educator who is currently principal of the Open Learning Institute of British Columbia. Prior to assuming Principal of Okanagan College for five years. He has been an academic (French language and literature) at both the University of British Columbia and the University of Victoria. At both universities he held administrative positions. Mr. Jeffels is a prolific writer of fiction and popular essays and has published in the Harvard Law Review, Vancouver Sun, Globe and Mail, and The Canadian Forum, to name just a few.

Last year NAIT established the "Distinguished Friend of the Institute Award", to honour individuals who, through their activities or achievements, have advanced the well-being and reputation of NAIT. This year's recipient is Mr. John Zigarlick, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of Echo Bay Mines Ltd. He is 1984; Prospectors and Developers Association of Canada "Distinguished Service Award," 1985. Mr. Zigarlick's business training was taken at NAIT and at the Banff School of Advanced Management. He has demonstrated an ongoing commitment to NAIT by facilitating enrichment experiences (field trips to the Lupin Mine in the NWT) for students enrolled in NAIT's Earth Resources program.

well-known in the resource development community and has been honoured frequently by his peers. Among his honours are the following: Alberta Chamber of Resources "Resource Man of the Year," 1983; Northern Mines "Man of the Year."

Graduands are requested to observe the timelines suggested in a circular distributed several weeks ago:

1) pick up graduation gown between 12:15 - 1 p.m. at the coat check area of the Jubilee Auditorium

2) get into processional lineup between 12:45 - 1:20 p.m.

3) return your gown to the coat check area before 4:30 p.m.

ACTISEC LEADERSHIP '86

Approximately 130 students from Alberta, Ontario, Saskatchewan, and B.C. attended the 1986 ACTISEC Leadership Conference, held May 1-4 at the Westin Hotel.

ACTISEC (Alberta Colleges and Technical Institutes Student Executive Council formed in 1981, has held yearly leadership workshops to provide student executives and students with informative and practical information. This year's conference, organized by NAITSA, was aimed at encouraging and developing leadership and personal skills. The conference enabled students from across Canada to participate in many workshops including: dealing with alcohol on campus, the art of fundraising, time management and dealing with government.

The conference encompassed many speakers from various professions. Most notably, Jack Donohue and C. Shaw Smith.

Jack Donohue spoke on 'Motivating Yourself and Others'. Donohue, the Canadian Olympic Basketball coach, provided both inspiration and enjoyment. However, according to many students, C. Shaw Smith was by far the most outstanding figure of the conference.

Mr. Smith provided the participants with insight into their work, and most importantly, insight into themselves.

C. Shaw Smith, a professional magician and Director of Student Activities of Davidson College, North Carolina, overwhelmed all. His sincerity towards students resulted in three standing ovations at the Farewell banquet, held on May 4th.

The conference entailed three days of constant information regarding the different aspects of leadership achievement and improvement.

Students also had the chance to enjoy themselves at the Conference. The participants attended the ever-popular Beerfest on the 2nd, and on Saturday evening partygoers enjoyed Goose Loonies. Many thanks go to Brian McDonald in room 1710 for the party on Sunday night.

Chairpersons Glenn Mason, Cheryl Anslow, Perry Lubberding, and Brian McDonald received awards for their efforts in putting together the 1986 Leadership Conference.

NAIT Students Place Second in Paper Showdown

On April 29, 1986, a team of two Electrical Engineering Technology (Accelerated) students competed at the annual IEEE Student Papers Competition. The purpose of this competition is to provide engineering students from NAIT and the U of A with a forum to critique technical papers prepared by them.

This year, Neil McNeil and Greg Runnalls accepted the challenge and decided to enter their paper "The Modbus Protocol of the 884 Programmable Logic Controller." Despite heavy competition from three U of A students, two of whom are graduates, they managed to win second place and received certificates and cash awards for their efforts.

This is the first time in many years that NAIT has had successful entries in this prestigious competition.

OOKS, GOLDEN BEARS DONATE $7,000

On Sunday, February 2, the Golden Bears met the NAIT Oopiks to vie for the coveted Ronald McDonald House Cup.

Not only were fans treated to top calibre hockey but a portion of their ticket price was to be donated to Ronald McDonald House.

On Wednesday, April 30 at Ronald McDonald House, Clare Drake, Coach of the U of A Golden Bears and Irwin Strifler, Athletic Director of NAIT, PRESENTED Harvey Adrian, representing the Ronald McDonald House Society with a cheque for $7000.

There is an ongoing need for operating capital and the annual Face-Off between U of A and NAIT epitomizes the energy and enthusiasm it takes to maintain the House that love built.

ACTISEC EXHIBIT '86

Last Friday, May 2nd, the South lobby of NAIT main campus was the site for the ACTISEC Exhibit '86. The exhibit presented a small cross section of companies and organizations who deal with students' associations and clubs.

Travel Cuts [Canadian Universities Travel Service Ltd.] were at the ACTISEC Exhibit to answer students' questions regarding the cost of "getting away from it all" at the end of the school year.

RAH! RAH! RAH!

As charismatic as it may seem, Athletic Chairperson Garth Granum is attempting a coup by asking students to participate in a school Cheerleading Club. Hard to believe, isn't it.

I must congratulate Garth on his attempts to find enthusiastic females and males to bop up and down at NAIT athletic tournaments and games. I hope that he can find the able-bodied females and gorgeous males that will have enough finesse and talent to get fans out to the games.

I hardly doubt that Cheerleaders are the answer to fan apathy.

Even if Garth can find the individuals to do such highly unentertaining acts, several questions must be raised.

Who will be selected as Cheerleaders? Will Betsy from Secretarial and Richie from Welding, lead on the cheering at NAIT?

Who will train the Cheerleaders? Will it be Baryshnikov, or Garth himself?

Who will supply the funding for outfits? It must be the Athletics Board who has nothing else to do with its yearly budget of $155,000.

Can one seriously consider this attempt? Fan apathy at NAIT can hardly be solved by Cheerleaders. This might work in the United States, it could hardly work at NAIT.

The problem lies within Garth's perception that the male population of NAIT will actually stand in front of a crowd of fifty and yell: "You can do it, we know you can, you've done it before, you'll do it again. Go OOKS Go!"

Let's be realistic, to get fans out, one needs something tangible, i.e. bigger prizes. What fans really want is not cheerleaders but beer.

STUDENTS RIPPED-OFF AT BEERFEST

There are two major student events each academic year. Each one is heavily anticipated. This year, these two major events have been major disasters. The two 1985-86 NAITSA Beerfests have been failures, manifesting a shocking lack of consideration for students' enjoyment.

In September, NAITSA booked a declining, boring band by the name of Harlequin (now playing in the Beverly Crest Hotel and other similar "respectable" venues). Most people complained about the choice of bands, citing the cost of the tickets in comparison to the level of entertainment as an inequitable trade-off to say the least. But students were optimistic. They knew there was one more Beerfest that a large amount of student funds were invested in to ensure a first rate event for all students. The May Beerfest had always been known as the big event of the entire year. Last year, more than 2000 students jammed into the Convention Centre to bop to Doug and the Slugs (a fantastic party band for all musical tastes).

This year, ticket sales lagged. Only 1400 students purchased tickets (at $10 each) and saw three bands that were as talented as any mediocre bar band you could see for a four dollar cover charge. They were not major names, they were not bands that catered to all tastes, they were not polished, professional entertainers, they were plain nobodies. But the bands were not the only disappointment. Many students also complained about long breaks between bands, unorganized bar service, no food and high liquor prices.

In sum, the May Beerfest '86 was a flop. Students were ripped off by inferior entertainment and poor service. Their scarce monies were thrown down the tube. And no one else but the 1985-86 NAITSA Executive can be blamed. Their utter lack of concern, and incompetence in thoroughly planning an event for all students to fully enjoy are inexcusable. The May Beerfest is The Big Event of the year, but it can only become the big event through adequate planning. NAIT students did not get this from their NAITSA Executive. Instead, they got a half-assed, second rate cabaret.

NAITSA made the naive assumption that students are not conscious of quality entertainment and value for their dollar. They assumed anything thrown together and called "Beerfest '86" would sell like hotcakes. They were wrong. Students are not that dumb. Most people were very disappointed with the May Beerfest (ticket sales proved this). Especially when last May's event was such a phenomenal entertainment success.

Why wasn't this considered by NAITSA? Perhaps their pet project, the ACTI SEC Leadership Conference, drew time and effort away from the all-important May Beerfest. Granted, the Leadership Conference was a first class event, but it was only taken in by the 200 people or so who could afford the price tag ($75). What about the thousands who anxiously looked forward to Beerfest? Their voices were not heard. For the most part, their requests fell on deaf ears. The Executive operated in a close-minded vacuum. Hopefully, the 1986-87 Executive will learn from the '85-86 Executive's blunder. Students should never allow this kind of rip-off again.

NEW STUDENT LOUNGE FOR NAIT

Student Lounge to be Completed for November 1.

Plans for Plaza II Student Lounge are well underway, according to architect Norbert Lermeyer. Mr. Lermeyer, head architect, indicates that the project will begin construction June 1, 1986 and completion date is expected for November 1, 1986.

In order to complete the $275,000 lounge, NAITSA has provided $75,000 from its building fund. The remaining $200,000 will be provided by NAIT and the Provincial Government.

Other parties playing a significant role in the construction of the Student Lounge are:

Stienbrenner	- Mechanical
Walters, Chambers	- Structural
Grice, Nash, Williams	- Electrical
Bruce Cameron	- NAIT Consultant

According to Mr. Lermeyer, the new lounge will accommodate between 250 and 300 students. The area of construction, located at the loading docks, will encompass 3610 square feet and include: hard seating with tables, soft seating, mezzanine, two televisions, stage and conversation pit.

Plans Come Alive for New Student Lounge

Spring seems to be a time for a multitude of activities, especially ones involving changes. One of the major changes occurring this Spring at NAIT is the construction of a new student lounge at Plaza Two. This is not just a minor change that is taking place, but a major one that is beneficial to any student attending classes at Plaza Two.

Some people may feel that another student lounge is an expenditure that is unnecessary and will not be of any benefit to Main Campus students. This may be due to the fact that a majority of the student population is attending classes at Main Campus. However, the facts do indicate that there is a need for a Student Lounge at Plaza Two.

Presently, Plaza Two has only a few facilities to offer students. These facilities include: a small library with a seating capacity of approximately 40-50 students, the B.C.E.T. study lounge with the capacity for 30, a vending machine lounge that has six tables, two designated areas in the building (smaller than the average classroom) with plastic chairs, and a cafeteria smaller than the one at Main Campus.

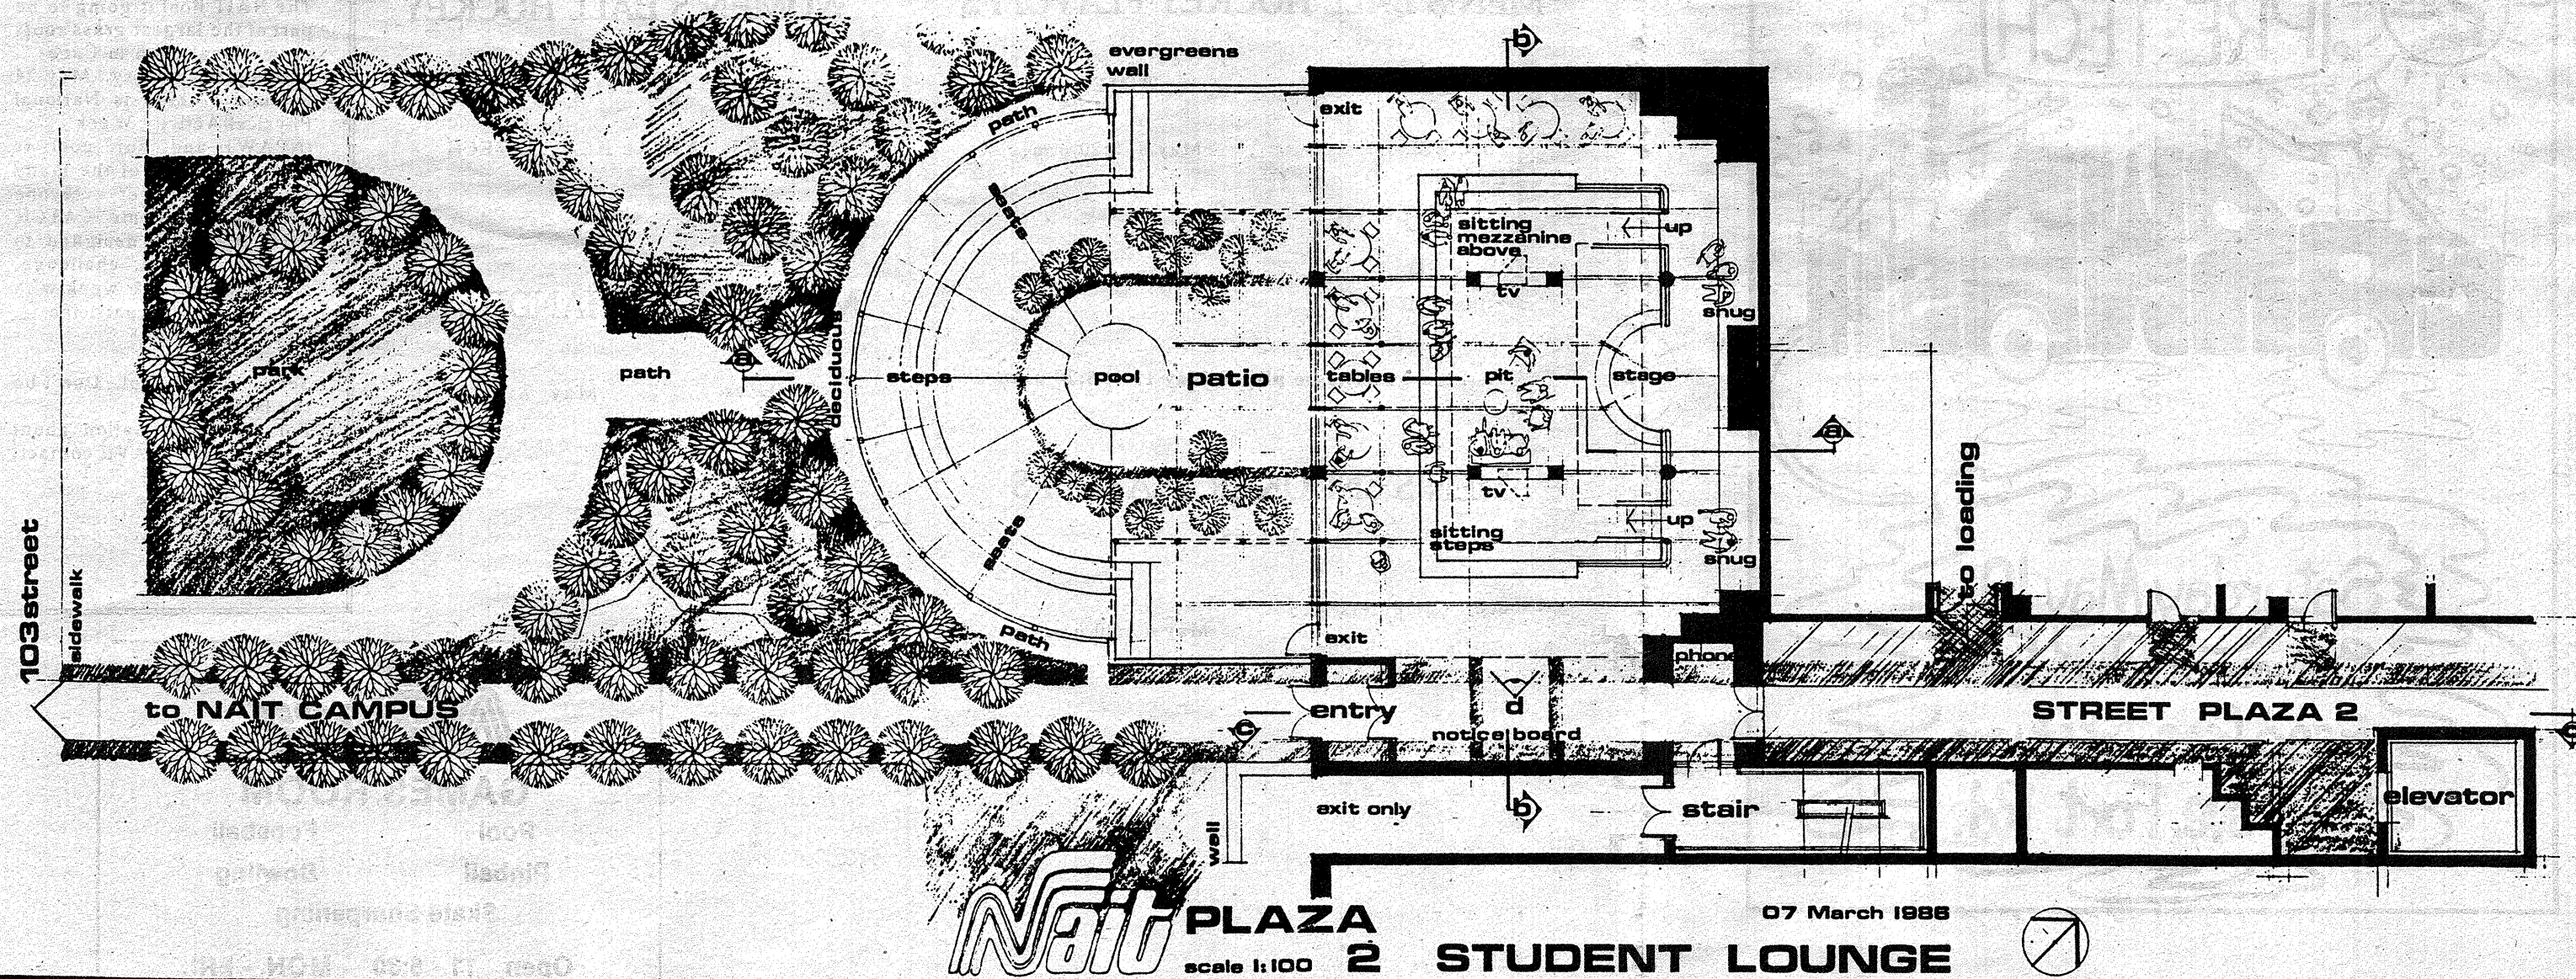

With five technologies housed at Plaza Two and a variety of other technologies using Plaza Two on a daily basis, the need for a student lounge is very evident.

Drawing a comparison to Main Campus, Plaza Two does not have facilities that even come close. Main Campus students enjoy a multitude of facilities on a daily basis, in particular two cafeterias, a library, the Tower Lounge and the Naitrium.

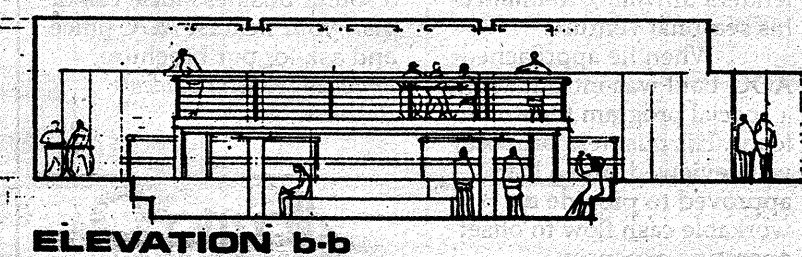

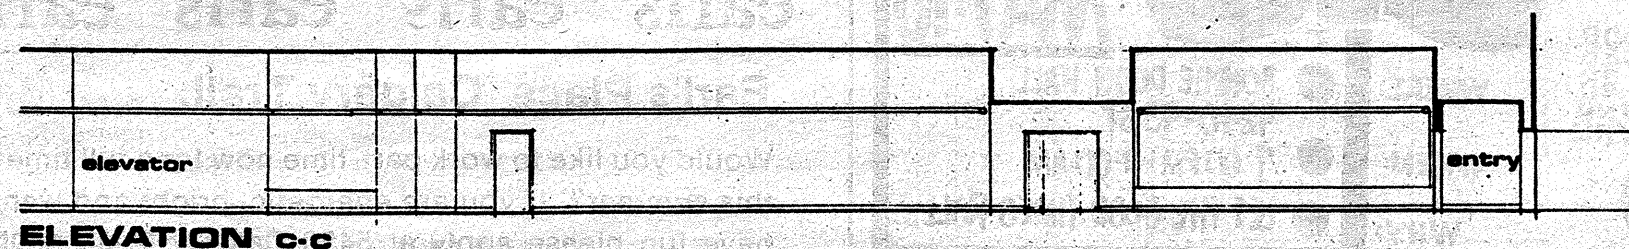

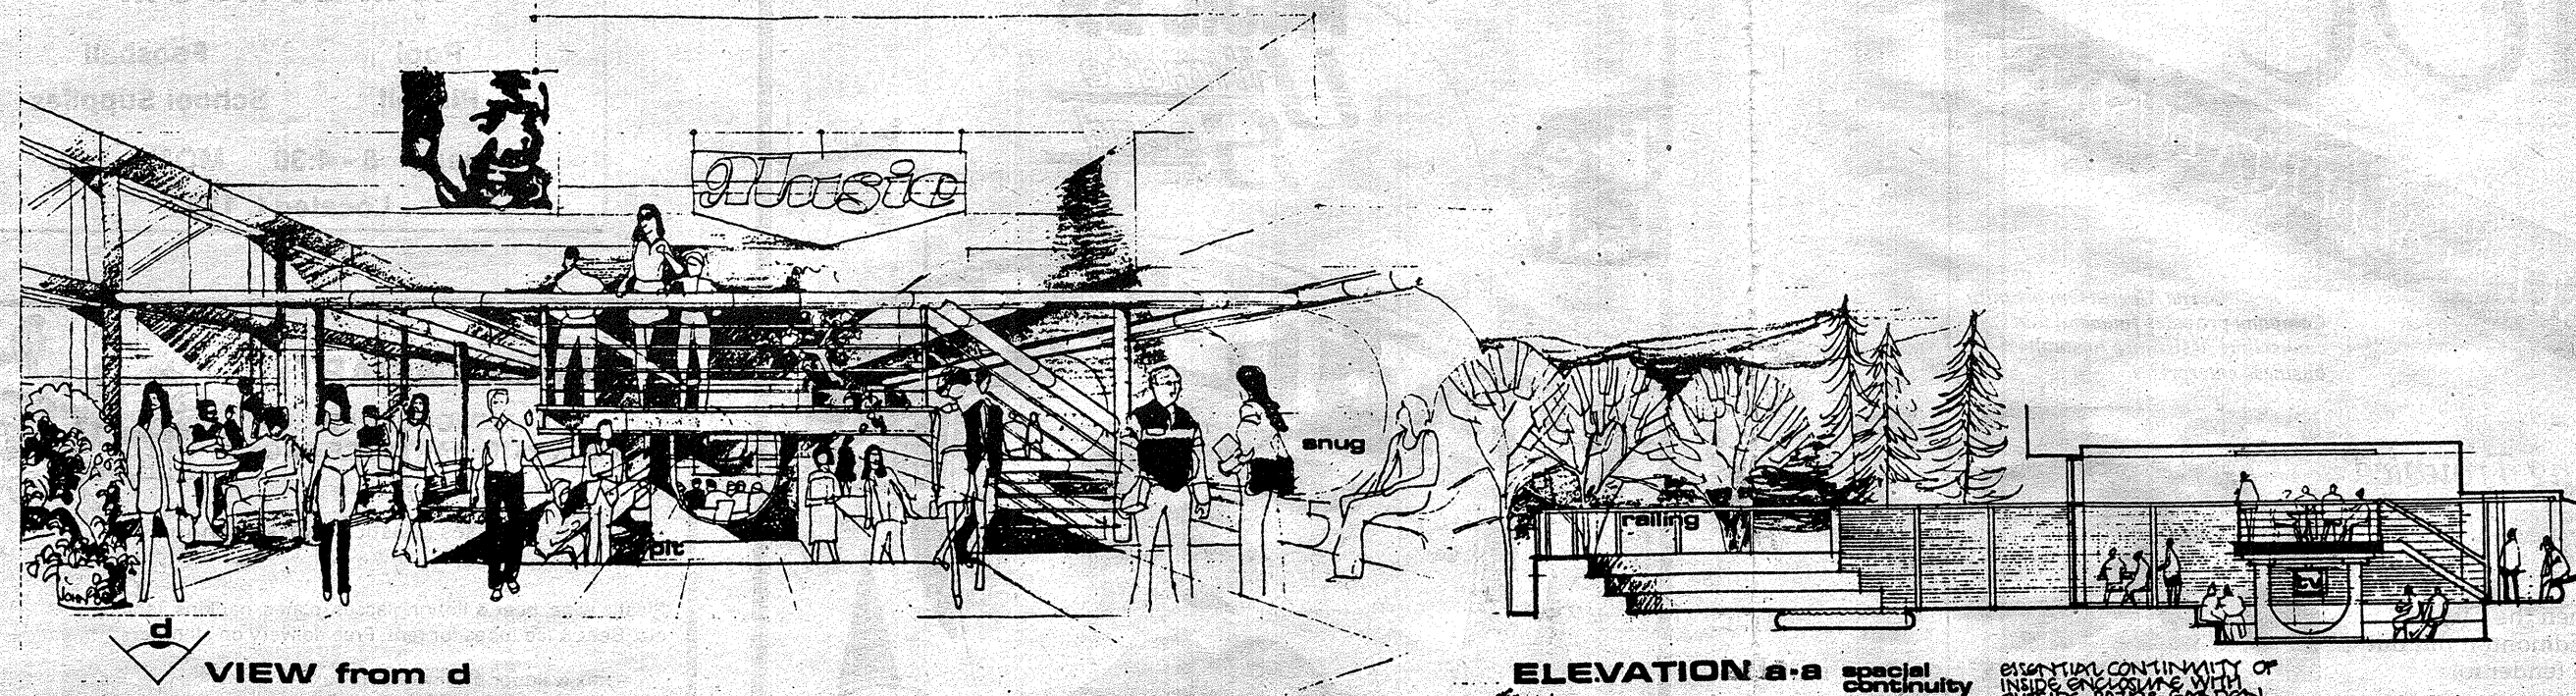

For a Plaza Two student to enjoy Main Campus facilities, a walk (rain or shine) is required.

Sympathy is not the answer to Plaza Two's student needs, the new lounge is. After all, is it not only fair for fellow NAIT students to enjoy a sought after luxury that is long overdue?

"What's great and what grates"

NEO A4

NEO A4 - The Warmer Side of You

Edmonton's own NEO A4 has gained a lot of critical acclaim since they formed four years ago. They've also won themselves some popular appeal in and around our fine city.

NEO A4 is Ric Johnston on guitar and vocals; Joel Anderson, drums and vocals; and John Tidswell on bass, keyboards, stick and vocals. Together they have put together the album The Warmer Side of You which, while not without some flaws, is a pretty decent work.

On the whole, it's a warm, pleasant album that showcases well the surprisingly professional talents of these three young men. The album has a Phillip Glass kind of "minimalist" feel to it, and while several different noises and instruments are used, none ever seem to be competing with each other. Add to this the competent songwriting and outstanding musicianship, and you have a rich mixture of varied textures and styles.

Lyricaly, the band could use a little more maturity. I don't think that there is anything really silly or irrelevant in the lyrics, but then again there doesn't seem to be anything new and inspiring in them either. By this I mean that the band seems to rework some age-old cliches at times. Still, the subject matter is dealt with appropriately and tastefully - not your traditional club music slop are these boys.

Another area in which we might see a little improvement is the vocal department. The vocals never seem to really take off and fly. Only in the title cut do we get a little emotion and energy - otherwise, the mood is essentially the same throughout the record.

Overall, The Warmer Side of You is a great effort by our local musicians. It shouldn't be long before a major label signs them up.

Those darned Russians!

Ronald Reagan worries about their efforts towards world domination. He should know. The man is the President of the goddam United States. Who cares about his age? What is he, 75? 80? Hmmmm...My grandmother is 65 and we don't let her use the remote control for the TV. But, hey, Ron looks better.

Forget that. It's them Ruskies I'm worried about. Not only are they unquestionably and absolutely responsible for the unrest in Latin America, it's their fault that there is famine in Africa.

Libyan tension? You can bet your 649 winnings that those evil commies have a direct hand in it, somehow.

Everytime our winter is too long, or if it rains too much in the summer, rest assured that those contemptible pinko bastards are involved in some sort of meteorological experiment.

The scariest is that melt-down thing. Sure, it looks like a real tragedy, but they're up to something - believe me.

You wanna know what I think? I'll tell you anyway: it's part of a sophisticated communist government program to gradually expose the Russian population to increasing dosages of radioactive fallout!

I won't get into Darwin's theory of natural selection here, but I figure that by the time they drop The Big One, we'll have a new race of mutant super-commies, completely immune to ionization and radiation sickness. It'll be a breeze for them to cruise around all over the place. Indeed, it'll be... world domination by hordes of mutant communist ghouls.

Think about it.

Alberta Ballet Company's acclaimed "Cinderella" plays in Edmonton for two performances only

Cinderella is coming home to the Jubilee Auditorium for two lavish performances only, May 13th and 14th.

Canadians from Rimouski, Quebec to Powell River, British Columbia have responded enthusiastically to the Alberta Ballet Company's cross-Canada tour of Cinderella. Sold out performances, standing ovations, and grateful letters accompanied the Alberta Ballet Company's performances of Cinderella as the company danced its way through Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia on an eight week tour. Cinderella was a smash hit!

In 1983, Cinderella debuted as the Alberta Ballet Company's longest three act ballet. The choreography by Artistic Director Brydon Paige, the stunning sets by Stencil Campbell, and over 80 elaborate costumes by Jennifer Craig have established Cinderella's reputation as enchanting entertainment that crosses age barriers and delights balletomanes and first time attenders alike.

In the first five performances, 10,700 patrons gave Cinderella their enthusiastic endorsement. Rave reviews followed the production then, as they do now: the dancers have energy, technique and dramatic flair, the critics claim; the production "is rich in mood and atmosphere," "a fantasy brought to life," asserts Karen Mazurkewich of The Queen's Journal, Kingston; the star's "classical technique is impeccable, her musical sense innate," declares Roger Bainbridge of "The Whig Standard", Kingston.

In the Alberta Ballet Company's hands Charles Perrault's 17th century fairytale, set to Sergei Prokofiev's enchanting music, still manages to engage and inspire the imagination.

The two performances, May 13th and 14th were sponsored by ESSO Petroleum Canada, ESSO Resources Canada Ltd., and CKXM Radio. Tickets are available at BASS outlets or charge-by-phone, 451-8000.

"Group of Seven" artist's later work opens at the Edmonton Art Gallery

A challenging new perspective on the work of Group of Seven artist Arthur Lismer is presented in an exhibition showing at The Edmonton Art Gallery April 26 through June 8. Canadian Jungle: The Later Work of Arthur Lismer, organized for the Art Gallery of Ontario by Dennis Reid, is the first examination of the post-Group of Seven work of this well-known Canadian painter.

The Group of Seven's tremendous success during the late '20s and early '30s has overshadowed the subsequent artistic achievements of Lismer and other members. This exhibition demonstrates that Lismer's works, many of which have never been exhibited before, form the crowning achievement of the artist's career.

Canadian Jungle focuses on the development of Lismer's art alongside his activities as an important art teacher. It shows how during the '40s - affected by concerns of art education - he concentrated his attention on the formal values in art. Lismer worked out these concerns in a series of small, intense paintings with themes he found while on holiday on the two coasts of Canada. His discovery of the great rain forest of the Pacific coast resulted in a highly expressive body of work during the '50s.

Organized and circulated nationally by the AGO, Canadian Jungle: The Later Work of Arthur Lismer is made possible by a generous grant from the Chemical Bank of Canada and the Museums Assistance Programmes of the National Museum of Canada. An exhibition catalogue accompanies the show and will be available at the EAG's Gallery Shop.

Les Ballets Jazz de Montreal at the Arden Theatre

The Arden Theatre will host the internationally acclaimed Les Ballets Jazz de Montreal for one performance only on Saturday, May 10 at 8 p.m.

On tour to Expo '86, Les Ballets Jazz will preview an exciting new program of contemporary dance created especially for the Vancouver extravaganza. This is the second time the renowned company has performed in the intimate Arden Theatre. In February, 1984 the twelve-member company filled the stage with innovative movements and electrifying images.

When Artistic Director Genevieve Salbaing founded Les Ballets Jazz de Montreal in 1972, she wanted to dedicate a jazz company to jazz music and to experiment with the dance and music interaction. Utilizing the imaginations of choreographers as diverse as Brian Macdonald, Lynne Taylor-Corbett, Louis Falco and Ulysses Dove, among others, together with the music of 20th century composers such as Igor Stravinsky, Duke Ellington, George Gershwin and Claude Bolling, she created the fusion of dance and music that has astounded audiences throughout the world.

Tickets for Les Ballets Jazz de Montreal are $14.50 and may be purchased at the Arden Theatre Box Office or by telephone with a Master Card or Visa. Call 459-1542.

I miss your smile early each day,
So I wrote this note cause I wanted to say,
Our time together has topped all the rest,
Although, my appetite has been quite suppressed.
My door's always open and my telephone's free,
So don't hesitate when your thinking of me.
You've been on my mind, that goes without saying,
The impression you've left won't soon go away.

A whole lotta love

DEAR ORGANIZERS (OF BEERFEST)

That farce you call Beerfest was boring, expensive, and a waste of time. The RICK ROSE BAND should have stayed in New York and the Wholigans would have embarrassed any Who fans present. I hope next year you can spend more than a few hours organizing the biggest NAIT event of the school year.
