Volume 30 Issue 2

The amazing Professor Crookshank wowed them at the Orientation Week festivities last Wednesday in the Big Top in the Main Courtyard. Hundreds of students took in the week long fun and frivolity that included live music, amazing prizes and a S.U.D.S. Garden every night to cap everything off.

Shinerama Shines With The Stars This Week

By Brad Balkan

All events planned for this year's Shinerama campaign are going ahead as scheduled. Rounded up so far are 250 enthusiastic NAIT students who are looking forward to having some serious fun. "I did it last year with three friends of mine and we had a blast!," said Cherri Burdeyny, a second year Management student. "I don't like doing fundraisers, but this is different. We went out and acted so crazy . . . I'm surprised we didn't get locked up. The day went so fast. I think that's why I don't mind doing it - because it is fun and the day goes fast."

Tomorrow, Saturday, September 12 is the NAIT/U of A Challenge Celebrity Carwash. 10-20 NAIT

"...I'm surprised we didn't get locked up."

students will be at the Kingsway location of Save-On-Foods to wash cars. The carwash gets underway at 10:00 a.m. Come and have your car washed, make a donation (so we can beat those artsies from the U of A) and get a free Coke from Blake Marshall of the Eskimos.

Tuesday, September 15 is Molson Celebrity Bartender Night at "The Nest". The fun gets started at 7:00 p.m., with Blake Marshall, Bernie Nicholls (Oilers) and media celebrities from K-97 Classic Hits serving up a night of comedy, prizes and fun. Be sure to arrive early, as we expect to fill up quickly.

Shinerama Day is on Saturday, September 19, starting at 9:00 a.m. in the South Cafeteria. Every volunteer shiner will get a free breakfast (served up by Mayor Reimer), free lunch from McDonald's, a free t-shirt to commemorate Shinerama '92, and a chance to win thousands of dollars in prizes. There is a post-shining reception planned at Kelsey's on 149 St. - plan to attend. The folks at Kelsey's are planning some fun, with cheap food and drink for all shiners. As well, the doors open at 8:00 p.m. at the Mayfield Trade Centre for the 2nd annual "Get a Shine On" Cabaret featuring Blackwater Jack and Stardust Sound. Tickets for the cabaret can be purchased at the Student Store on Main Campus, or in the NAITSA offices - E 133.

The students of NAIT are proud to be an integral part of Shinerama. Since the first campaign in 1968, under the leadership of former NAITSA Vice President Percy Wickman, it has grown to be the largest fundraiser that the NAIT Student Association undertakes. Our goal this year is an ambitious $14 000. With your help, we can give the breath of life.

BAS looking for some self-starters

By Stewart Walline

BAS . . . what does that word mean to you? Do you think of an open-mouthed, bulge-eyed fish? Or maybe the ticket outlet you bought your last concert tickets from. Whatever it may be, you probably didn't think of the Business Administration Society (B.A.S.). Well have no fear because most people don't. This year, however, things are going to change! The Business technology represents just under 1500 students; that's the largest in NAIT! With these numbers one would think that Business is the proudest and the loudest technology going . . . NOT! Unfortunately this past year Business was as quiet as a mouse. (With a few exceptions) That's where B.A.S. steps in. Myself, Susan Tedder (Vice-President) and Don Davidge (V.P. Marketing) are the 1992/93 B.A.S. executive and we have an attitude. We represent every single solitary individual in Business and it is their right and our duty to ensure that everyone has a most excellent year. Whether it be the Business cabarets, the New Year's ski trip or the December/April graduation (party) banquets. Our slogan and attitude is, "Shooting for Success". That means, finding a target, setting your sights on it and then going straight for the bull's eye.

As confident as we are, we're still short a V.P. of Finance, Accounting and Management. We need one individual from each of these 2nd year groups. So, B.A.S. is running another election for these positions. Success doesn't mean winning a lottery. It all starts right here kids! You go to school to learn how to become a success, not only in class but out of class. It's time to get involved in more than just the academics of school. The experience, challenge and good times of B.A.S. will lead you to bigger and better things. Nomination forms must first be filled out between Sept. 14-18 in order to be eligible to run in the election. Nominees will have Sept. 21-24 to campaign. Voting will take place on Sept. 25 and the winners will be announced that night at the "Cheers to the First Years" Business cabaret. For more information come to the B.A.S. office in T 114A on the first floor of the Business Tower. Remember, "Shooting for Success": that's where it all begins.

Library gets automated

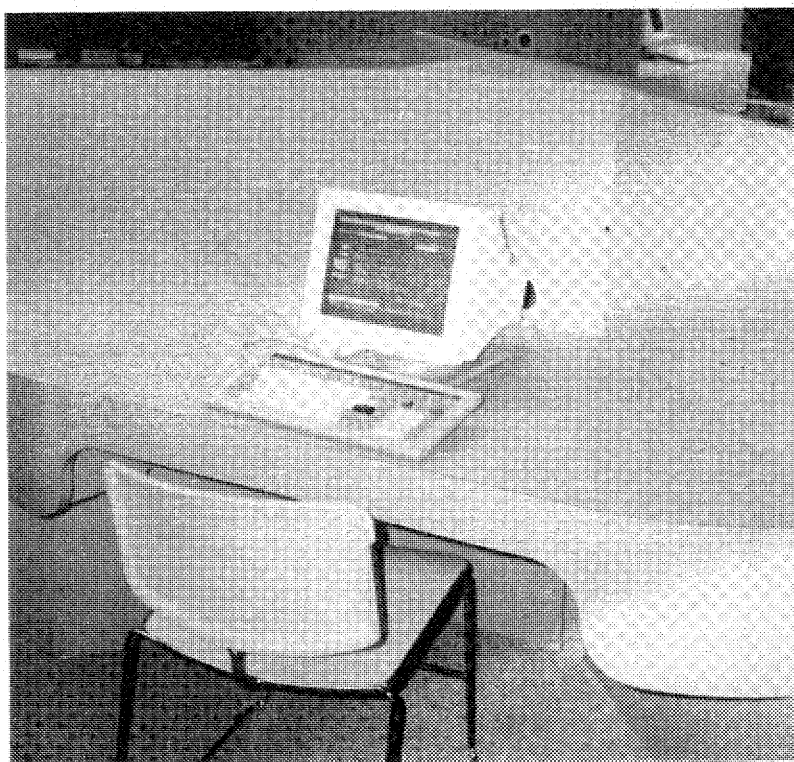

Pat Waterton
Divisional Librarian
Systems and Technical Service

Change has been the order of the day in the McNally Library during the summer. The Library is now automated! Catalogue information previously held in the card catalogue is now accessible on-line at terminals located on the second floor Audio-Visual and third floor Information Desk areas. At these terminals you will be able to find materials more quickly and will know immediately whether the material you want is checked out or on the shelf.

A new automated circulation function speeds up the check-out process and does away with the need for you to fill in borrowing slips for every item borrowed. On your first visit to the Library you will need to have a barcode attached to your NAIT I.D. card to permit you to borrow materials. The Library encourages all students to come up to the 3rd floor circulation Desk to be registered. It will take a few minutes to register you and apply the barcode. We will have two stations, one for registration only and one for checkout. We look forward to seeing you in the library.

The next time you go to the McNally Library, check out the new automated book borrowing system. (No pun intended)

Help needed for disability research

Sherry Peters is a researcher at the University of Alberta and is working towards a Master's degree in Sociology. Sherry has a physical disability and has chosen for her research project to explore the situations of other individuals who also have a disability. She is looking for disabled individuals who would be willing to help her with her research by talking about some of their experiences.

If you are interested in helping, you will be asked to fill out a very short questionnaire. After questionnaires have been received, some individuals will be asked to take part in an interview. The interviews would be conducted at a place and time acceptable to you. If you would like to participate or if you have any questions, please call Sherry at 484-0463.

Government's decreasing commitment

Program cuts, tuition increases, auxiliary fees and decreasing quality of education are just some of the results of the government's proposed two percent grant decrease to post-secondary institutions. Let me explain.

Each year, the provincial government helps pay your education through a grant donations. This two percent cut would result in a shortfall in the neighborhood of $5 million (including inflation) to NAIT.

Basically, what our government is saying is, on the one hand, Canada wants to be competitive internationally in technology and academics. On the other hand, they're not willing to pay for it.

"We have no money."

- Advanced Education Minister
John Gogo

used for NAIT's operating capital. That figure is approximately $91 million for the 92/93 academic year. The balance of NAIT's funds come mostly through fundraising (NAIT Foundation), tuition and Hell! The Novatel fiasco alone would have sent approximately 745 thousand student to NAIT for one year, tuition and books paid! It sounds like a misallocation of funds to me. What can we do about it? Well to start, letters of protest are being sent out by every student's association in ACTISEC (Alberta College and Technical Institute Student Executive Council).

ACTISEC represents 45 thousand students in Alberta.

Pearn named National Team coach

Brian Stein
Staff Writer

For the first time in history, a coach from the Canadian Colleges Athletic Association has been named head coach of Canada's National Junior Team. NAIT Ooks hockey coach Perry Pearn was elevated to the position in mid-July following Alain Vigneault's acceptance of an assistant coaching position with the Ottawa Senators. Prior to taking on the head role with the club, Pearn was an assistant coach on back to back world junior champions in 1990 and 1991.

Pearn, who has guided the Ooks to an unprecedented six a typical coaching situation. If you do well, people will be happy. If you don't do well, people will be disappointed."

Pearn and his assistants - Dave Siciliano of Thunder Bay and Joe Canale of Chicoutimi - took their first look at prospects in Kitchener from August 2nd through 8th. The trio will now follow the progress of the young men through the early portion of the 1992-93 season before inviting approximately 34 players to a final camp in mid-December. The team will then be assembled for the World Junior Tournament

Coach Pearn has led the Ooks to an unprecedented six CCAA national titles

CCAA national titles, is looking forward to the challenge. "The expectations by the Canadian public for the Canadian World Junior Team are high. If we don't do well, we can expect negative feedback. However, if we do garner a medal, there is a lot of credit that goes with it. It's which begins December 26th in Sweden.

The effect of Pearn's commitment to the World Junior Team will have a minimal impact on the Ooks. "I don't anticipate the team will be playing a lot of games in my absence. However there will be a few at Christmas time. As in the past, I don't think there will be a major disruption. The one positive thing is that we have always had excellent people as assistant coaches. Those people were always very capable of taking the reigns and going with them." Pearn has hinted that Randy Repcheck, who took control of the team last year while Pearn was at the Spengler Cup, is the leading candidate to assume the head coaching role during the 1992 holiday season.

This Week in Intramurals

By Candace Visser
Athletics VP

This is the intramural section. Each edition of The Nugget will have a listing of what's happening in the upcoming week, such as entry forms needed (which can be picked up in the Student Services Office, E 134, or the Sports Equipment Centre, E 32), deadlines for entry, and starting dates. Once the season gets underway it will also let you know who is winning what.

It will also keep you up-to-date on who has possession of the Challenge Cup at the time of printing. Right now CST holds the Cup and are awaiting a challenge. If your technology wishes to challenge them, stop by my office, E 133H, and I'll let you know who to contact. Remember, there is a trophy to be won here! And it's loads of fun.

In addition to this article, there is also an Intramural Bulletin Board posted outside of the NAITSA Office, E 133. The above information is posted on the board as well as the team rosters, event locations, game dates, and game times.

I just want to add this: it doesn't matter how good or how horrible you think you are or even if you know the sport at all, intramurals are a great way to have lots of fun and meet a lot of new people. So don't be shy . . . get involved! And have a great year.

Help Yourself While Helping Someone Else

Would you like to spend a couple of hours a week with someone who could really use your help? Our volunteers find that helping someone who is lonely and housebound is a very rewarding experience.

The Edmonton Board of Health, Home Care Program knows of people who need a little help from a caring person. They may be lonely and need someone to visit them once a week, or they may need someone to help them get to medical appointments or grocery shopping.

Mistakes may cost Jays

BOB PRINCE SPEAKS OUT

By Bob Prince
The Dean of Sports
Columnists

It's the heat of the pennant race and the Jays are hanging on.

One of the reasons the Jays are not leading the American League East Division by a dozen games is their inconsistent play. Whether it be the first game, the last game, or one in between during the 1992 campaign, futility is not far away.

Last month, the Jays opened a crucial series at the Skydome with a win over the Milwaukee Brewers. Then, 24 hours later surrendered 22 runs to the Brew Crew. Only the Jays could turn things around so quickly.

In the month of May, David Wells threw a pitch over to John Olerud whose thoughts were somewhere else in the 11th inning of a game at the Skydome. Even though the season was in its infancy, one could see the team still had not learned its lesson from last year.

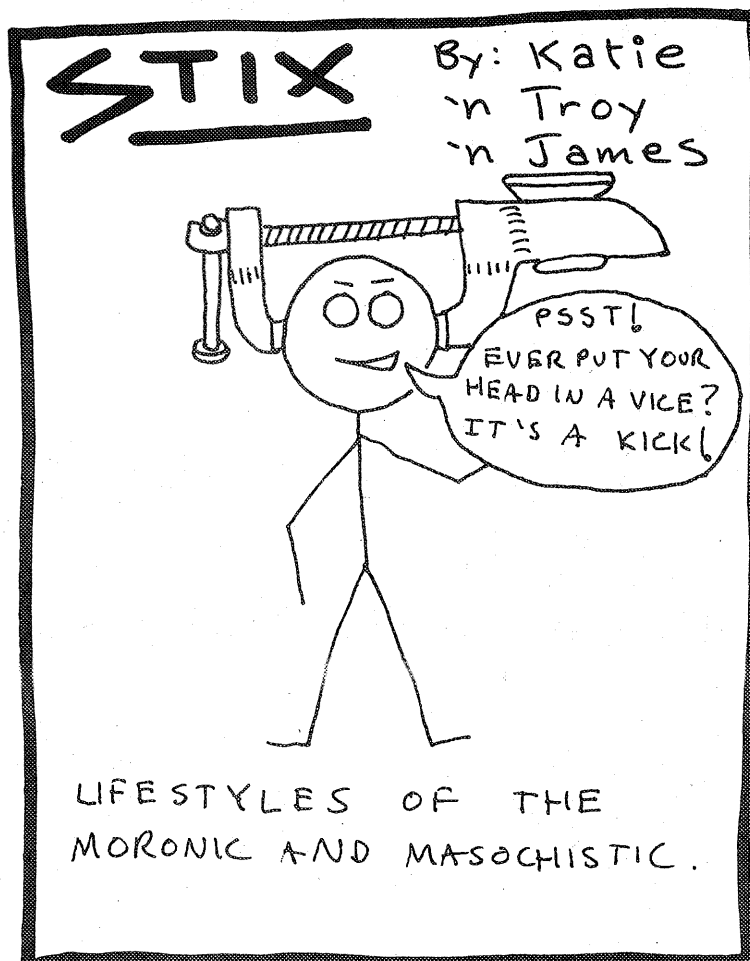

The Jays have been a team without focus for the past few years. The problems lie not with the managers. Bobby Cox, Jimmy Williams, and Cito Gaston could not take a team over the top with anchors like Dave Stieb and George Bell.

The Jays will not probably win a thing and the stumbling block is professionalism. How professional is a team that keeps Fergie "I Love the Jays" Oliver on the broadcast crew? Think about it!

Back for the attack

By Miller Malone
Editorial

My name is Miller and I'm not wearing any underwear, I'm also drinking Vodka and O.J. from a Fred Flintstone cup but we'll get to that later.

If you're a new NAIT student I'd like to take this opportunity to give you a big fat NAIT howdy.

If you're a returning student I'd like to take this opportunity to give you a GOCHEE PULL, but since that's physically impossible let me just say this, "I'm back, so let's get twisted shall we?"

You probably thought you'd never hear from me again but economic realities forced me to choose between working for peanuts, selling a kidney or returning to school for two (2) more years. So I came back to school to further my education.

"What about the kidney?" you ask apprehensively. Well, I'm not sure that it's any of your business, but suffice to say there's a Saudi Sheik who's short a cool twenty five grand.

So anyway, this year (like last year) I'll be your guide to this esoteric, irrational and perverse state we call consciousness and though our perceptions of reality may differ, perhaps we'll find some common ground on which to stand and howl at the moon for a while.

By the way, I'm not wearing any underwear because I'm fresh out of quarters and I'd rather be naked under my clothing than wash my gotch in the sink. I'm also drinking vodka and O.J. from a Fred Flintstone cup because that's simply what I do.

Ask Big Bob

Welcome! This is a first for The Nugget- an honest, straightforward, no punches-pulled advice column. I'm not going to make-up some fictitious letters to fill space, I'm only going to answer letters that I receive. It's simple- no letters, no column.

My name is Big Bob, and I can solve any problem you have. Don't be afraid to ask anything you want- I'll give you the best answer or solution there is. As an example, a rather voluptuous young lady came up to me yesterday and asked "Bob, who is Miller Malone?" She was desperate to know. So I showed her. Needless to say, she was impressed with my honest answer.

Go ahead. I dare you. Stump me with your best. Drop off your petty problems or questions to me, Big Bob at The Nugget office. If I'm not here, leave it in the box. It's Miller time. Time to go expand my mind.

See you next week, if you're up for it.

- 5) Yeah, Yeah, Yeah cut to chase!
- 4) Did you get your degree from a mail in place? Match book?
- 3) I bet you won't be able to catch me cheating!
- 2) Is that a nervous twitch or have you been drinking
- 1) Nice breath. Mint?

Knockin' At My Door

"I'm sorry" she said
 "If I woke you up.
 Would you like to buy our Magazine?
 "No thanks" I tell her.
 "I'm in a cult
 And illiterate to boot.
 I'm not afraid of Armagedon
 Just people like you.
 Don't you people ever sleep?"
 Though she smiled and turned away
 I know deep in her heart
 She just wanted to take Christmas away.
 Kill joys, all of them.

Too Much

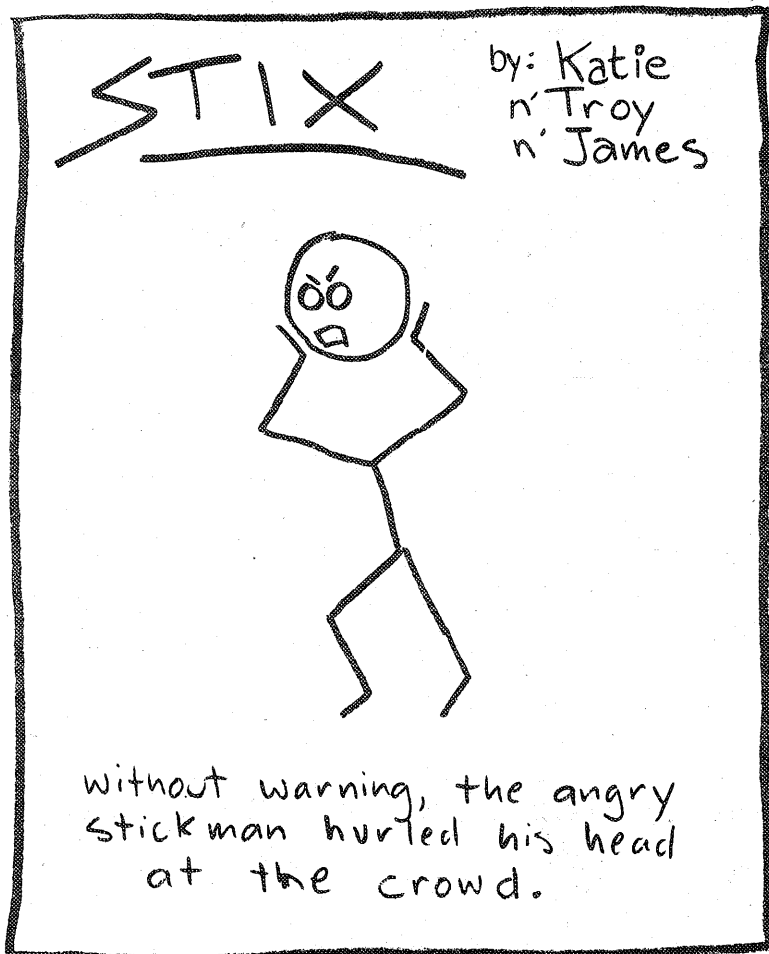

Too much easy living
 Too much to eat and drink
 Too much rotary motion
 Could you stop this ride and let me off?
 Those things of youth
 Spinning by at dizzying speed
 They that have not, want
 They that have, need
 My mind reels from the speed
 Could you stop this ride?
 What if it stopped and we found that...
 There was nothing but the ride?

THE TOP 5 Things Not To Say At A Job Interview

By Miller Malone

- 5) Sure I have a criminal record, but just between you and me - the SOB had it comin to him.
- 4) Nice breath! What, you can't afford 75¢ for some mints?
- 3) Do any babes work here, or is everyone an old fart like you?
- 2) Of course my college marks aren't a good representation of what I'm capable of - I was hammered half of the time.
- 1) Sure I could've worn a suit - but you'll never forget the guy who wore pink leotards and a Guns 'N Roses T-shirt.

THE TOP 5 Things I'll Be Saying This Summer

By Miller Malone

- 5) "You kids get out of my yard!"
- 4) "So how much jail time am I looking at if I plea down to indecent exposure?"
- 3) "How did I get that mosquito bite on my penis?"
- 2) "So let me get this right - even if I was the last man on earth you still wouldn't sleep with me?"
- 1) "What do you mean this isn't a nude beach!"

THE TOP 5 Lies My Father Told Me

By Miller Malone

- 5) "The bigger they are the harder they fall." False. The bigger they are the harder they hit you with their fist.
- 4) "Don't be afraid to take chances and try new things." False. After uttering these now famous words, Dad got into his barrel and plunged over the Niagara Falls never to be seen again.
- 3) "Always own up to your mistakes and you'll be the better man." False. Lie, B.S. and lie some more because if they don't catch on, you're home free, and if they do catch on, it doesn't matter anyway because you were screwed all along.
- 2) "Put in a good days work for a full days pay." False. Try to work for the government; you get a full days pay plus benefits galore for 2-3 hours of work.
- 1) "When a girl says 'no' she really means 'yes.'" False. When a girl says "no" she really means "no" and being too insistent usually earns one a well placed knee in the testicular zone.

MOM2

Poetry for Dogs

Woof, woof, woof
Arf, arf, arf
Bark, bark, bark
Nonny, nonny, nay.

Moms are sometimes nice
They'll bake you a cake on your birthday
Or they'll give you a bandaid
For a cut on your knee
Moms are sometimes mean
They'll hurl obscenities at you
And try to drown you in the Deep end of the pool at the Ramada Inn.

IN HINDSIGHT, LARRY FELT THAT LAUGHING AT THE OLD GYPSY WOMAN WHILE SHE CURSED HIM PROBABLY
WASN'T THE BEST IDEA
HE'D EVER HAD.

You ever kill someone in a freak guillotine accident and fearing an unsympathetic justice system bury the body of your uncle Frank in a shallow grave in the woods off of a seldom used road?
Yeah right, me neither.

CLUMSY

Is there anything more clumsy
Than a first kiss?
Are you ever closer to disaster
Than the first moment you reach out
The intricate fear of intimacy
Is anything more dangerous?
Oh well, maybe running with Scissors or shaving with a chain saw.

DEMON ALCOHOL

"My name is Bob
But you can call me Death"
The bartender intoned
As he ground his cigarette
Into my face.
"Thanks for letting Me in on that"
I muttered as I made my way into the Night - in search of a friendlier bar.

HELP WANTED

Attention all NAIT Students

Would you like to make some EXTRA CASH while going to NAIT? Would you like to work when you want to? Would you like to MEET other people attending NAIT? Do you like SPORTS?

If you answered "yes" to any of the above then I've got a job for you... be an INTRAMURAL REFEREE. There is no experience required to be a referee. All intramural games start after 5:15 pm, so you don't miss out on any class time. It's fun, it's easy, and it's a great way to meet people... and get paid while you're at it.

If you're interested, you can pick up an application in the NAITSA Office, E 133. If you have any questions about the job position of intramurals, come and see Candace Visser, Athletics VP in E 133H.

Hope to see you around and have a great year!

Without you, we may never have discovered the power of the Brussels sprout.

It's curious. People who eat Brussels sprouts and other yellow-green vegetables on a regular basis tend to have a much lower incidence of certain types of cancer. The reason may well have to do with the high fibre content and high concentration of Vitamin A found in yellow-green vegetables. These discoveries have been made through intensive research. Some of which was funded by your past generous donations to the Canadian Cancer Society.
