2009 Royal Rangers Pow Wow

Pow Wow is the BIG district camp for boys and leaders every year. The 2009 Royal Rangers Pow Wow will be held April 24-26 at the Royal Rangers campground at Maypearl. The theme is "Be Transformed," and it is our hope that our boys will truly be transformed through the Word that will be preached Friday and Saturday night and again Sunday morning during our services. Our speaker for Pow Wow is Ryan Beaty, a former Royal Ranger from Texas who now is on the national Royal Rangers staff. Ryan is a graduate of SAGU and AGTS.

Activities will include paintball and other shooting activities, BMX bike races, RC car races, cardboard boat races, canoeing and kayaking, and many others. Your boys WILL have fun at this Pow Wow.

Cost is $60 per person and includes five meals. The entire Pow Wow packet will be mailed to every church and leader, and will be posted on our website at <http://ntd.royalrangers.net>

National Ranger of the Year from North Texas

On Friday, January 30 Royal Rangers from across the South Central Region (Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Texas) came to Lakeview Camp to compete for the title of National Ranger of the Year. After a full day of testing and evaluation it was announced that Spencer Phinney from Glad Tidings in Austin was our National Ranger of the Year, and Stephen Warne, also from Glad Tidings, was our second runner-up in this competition. Congratulations to both of these boys, and to the leadership of the Royal Rangers ministry at Glad Tidings.
