

Jonathan Trower
Royal Rangers
Commander

Royal Rangers 2009 Pow Wow Recap

Approximately 600 leaders and boys from across North Texas came together the last weekend in April for our annual Pow Wow. This year's theme was "Be Transformed" and the boys were challenged each night to be spiritually transformed. The first night over 100 boys responded to the altar call to accept Jesus as their personal savior. On the second night, dozens of boys and leaders responded to the altar call to seek the Baptism of the Holy Spirit.

as the national programs and outreach coordinator for Royal Rangers. He challenged us to beat Penn Florida by at least a dollar.

When we hit the first $5,000 for BGMC, our district commander Jonathan Trower received a pie in the face.

When we hit the $10,000 mark for BGMC, our speaker got a pie in his face.

At the $15,000 mark, our district children's ministry director Duane Swanson agreed to get a pie in the face.

And when we hit $20,963 in cash and pledges, Ryan Beaty agreed to have his head shaved.

So the Royal Rangers from the North Texas district gave almost $21,000 to help support the efforts of BGMC around the world, over 100 boys gave their hearts to Christ, and dozens were filled with the Holy Spirit. What a great Pow Wow!

BGMC Offering

This year the national Royal Rangers ministry is asking each district to take up an offering for BGMC. Our district accepted this challenge and made plans for an auction and offering at the Saturday morning assembly at Pow Wow. Then we heard that the Penn Florida district raised $20,000 for BGMC at their Pow Wow, and the pressure was on for us. Our speaker, Rev. Ryan Beaty, serves

