NORTH TEXAS CHAPTER F.C.F.

337 CRUSADER DALLAS 75217

THESE MEN PASSED

DUES DUE AUG 10- 1969

We had 9 new candidates pass the testing for FCF. They are: Jerry Longwell, O. A. Lewis, Dante Reid, Floyd Horst, John Myers, Bruce Henley, Wayne Davis, Bobby E Tate, and Dale Piersol. They passed a all night test of skill and courage with flying colors. We are proud to have these new members in the F.C.F., we now have 18 in the North Texas Chapter. We were privligned to have General Johnnie Barnes to help with the tests the men had to pass. We also had with us his son David Barnes and his friend David Simpson from New York to help us. " Thanks Fellows "

It was decided that the annual dues for the FCF members of the North Texas Chapter would start Aug 10/69. It will be 5¢ for each year you are old. Send to: North Texas FCF

The President

We have in the plans a get acquainted camp fire and camp out for the FCF only. We have thought about Sept 5th and 6th from 7pm to about 10am. We want you to make plans now for this date, the place we will inform you of later. If these dates are "OK" let us know if you plan to attend.

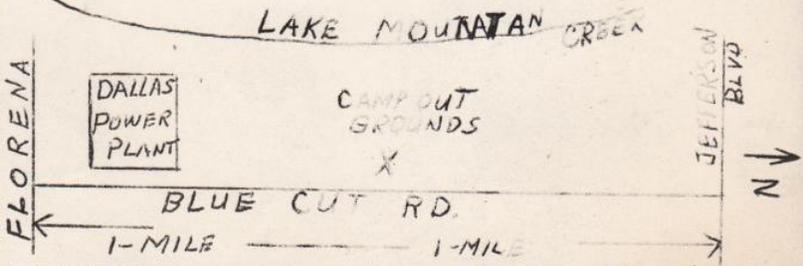

We have been informed of 5 fellows who have successfully completed the advanced training course in the Royal Ranger training series. They will be wearing the training chief's award. They are: Trumon Davis, Bob Tate, Ed Hamel, Jerry Longwell, and Ollie Henley. Have you completed yours? Let us know if you have.

The President

Lt Col. Alan Gell invited several of our members to an FCF initiation at the south Texas roundup. This was held June 5,6,&7 at camp victory at Silsbee Texas.

The North Texas FCF will have a part in the council fire of the North Dallas camp out July 11&12 you are invited. Bring your FCF gear and come on out

The initiated ones were: Lt Col. Bob Thompson and 5 boys Baker, Berry and Valdez (boy can he run) Ludwig, AND LITTLEJOHN

The FCF members from Dallas were: Bob Tate, Eugene Hunt, Floyd Horst, Bruce Henley, Bobby E. Tate and Wayne Davis. The report is a good camp out and a good time was had by all.
