

NORTH TEXAS ROYAL RANGERS

SHAWNEE TRAIL CHAPTER

2008 FCF FAMILY DAYS ISSUE

OCTOBER 19, 2008

NEW FCF WEB SITE

Family Days 2008 not only brings about time where families can come together and fellowship with each other. Nor is it only a time of competition, fun, and prizes. It also represents the launching of the new North Texas Royal Rangers Shawnee Trail Chapter web site.

After years of being a subsection of the district web site, that has occasionally seen neglect, we are now hosted at a brand new URL. The home of the Shawnee Trail Chapter is found at <http://fcf.ntxrr.org>

Along with a completely new, frontier-themed appearance, the Shawnee Trail web site will be THE online source of information for FCF members, non-members, and those interested in FCF in the North Texas District.

In addition to the new FCF web site, the Shawnee Trail Chapter also has a blog. For those unfamiliar with what a blog is, a blog is a place where an individual, or a group of individuals, post regular entries on commentaries, descriptions of events, or other news and material. A blog allows for interaction with the web site visitors, in that people can comment on the entries. The Shawnee Trail blog will provide a place where important news articles relating to the chapter will be posted along with other articles that relate to FCF. Don't be surprised if at future events you see a staff member writing a blog post live from an FCF event.

A majority of the information that was available on the old FCF pages can be found on the new Shawnee Trail web site. There is some information that is currently being rewritten, restructured, and reorganized and will become available at another time.

There are other exciting things in store for the Shawnee Trail web site that will be forthcoming in the coming weeks and months ahead. If you have any questions about the new FCF web site, please contact David Trower, FCF Sutler/Promotions for the Shawnee Trail Chapter.

DISTRICT WINTER CAMP

This year's District Winter Camp is being held at Lakeview, November 14-16. FCF will be having a village at Winter Camp this year. FCF and the FCF Village will again be host to the Saturday evening hot chocolate and refreshments fellowship after the evening council fire service. This time of fellowship will be taking place 30 minutes after the evening service has ended. During the day Saturday, the FCF village will be open for the boys to explore. FCF will be hosting several different activities that the boys can participate in. Hawk throwing is always a favorite activity, however there will be other exciting activities available in the village. FCF members are strongly encouraged to set up their trade in the village and be actively engaging in their trade throughout the day Saturday while boys are exploring.
