

2014 National Rendezvous

Visitor Information

Can family/friends visit Rendezvous?

Yes, visitors will be required to check in/out with security at the campground entranceway. Visitors' Hours are Sunday: 1:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. and Monday-Thursday: 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Evening services are for registered campers only.

How do I check in as a visitor?

Everyone must check in with Registration at the Eagles Resort Lodge. You will be presented with a Visitor ID badge that must be visible at all times while on the campground. All visitors must check out through the main security gate by 5:00 p.m.

What type of activities can visitors do at Rendezvous?

There will be selected events/activities for visitors (non-registered) to participate in as non-competitors. These events/activities include Traders Row, Demonstrator booths, a special Hawk and Knife throwing area, Vendors Row, and Blacksmith Shop. Other activities include flint & steel, rock throwing, primitive slingshot, colonial baseball, corncob darts, and a non-traditional Seneca trail. There will also be a zip line, climbing wall, and rappelling tower available for a reasonable fee. Visitors will also be able to observe some competitions to cheer on their family and friends.

Do I need to bring in my own lunch while visiting Rendezvous?

Guests may purchase lunch and snacks at the snack bar.

Will there be areas for skilled demonstrators?

Yes, there are plans to have many skilled demonstrators at camp. The location and times of those demonstrations will be posted when Rendezvous registration opens. All demonstrators of must be approved by the national FCF staff in advance.

Are there any areas off limits to visitors?

To protect campers' privacy, female visitors are kindly requested not to visit chapter campsites since they are the men's and boys' changing and sleeping areas. The amphitheater is only open during morning assembly and evening services, which are outside visiting hours.

Can I serve as a part-time or full-time volunteer at Rendezvous?

Persons with specialized skills are needed as volunteer staff (electricians, plumbers, carpenters, mechanical, medical, security, food service, tram drivers, etc.). Adults interested in assisting as either pre-camp or post-camp staff should contact the National Royal Rangers Ministries office and request a Volunteer Staff Application. Direct inquires to Steve Schultz at sschultz@aq.org.
