

The Eagle Eye

National Camporama

Friday, July 25, 1986 Five Star Final (#3)

...a bird's eye view of what's happening!

YOUR Camporama patch! Take it home and wear it with pride. It's yours!

For some of you fellows, this was your first National Camporama. For others, it is your last one as a boy. But whether it is first or last, it will always stand out in your memory and in ours.

It has been a real pleasure having you at this great event. Drive home carefully, and I hope to see you along the camp trails again soon.

-Johnnie Barnes
National Commander

One more CLUE

HERE, ON THE FRONT PAGE OF OUR 5-STAR EDITION, IS YOUR THIRD AND FINAL CLUE TO THE HIDDEN TREASURE, THAT IS, IF YOU NEED IT!

Begin your journey at the Knights Marque, look in the direction of One Way. The woods keep me safe...with the eagles I nest, find me quick and you can rest.

There you have it, fellows. And may we add a special word of thanks to Ed Corbin who coordinated the Hidden Treasure. And thanks to everyone who helped look!

FROM THE GRAPEVINE

ELLIS STUTZMAN said if D. STROUD was the one responsible for his name in the paper again yesterday, he wanted him to forget it.

Who were those boys hugging those com-modes around camp? Quite a sight. Did that get on TV? (Yes, on BLOOPERS)

Was that JOE FINAN leading the PENN-DEL delegation at review? Looking good, Joe!

The group from OHIO is as large as some District Powwows.

The BOYS FROM ILLINOIS are here to be SEEN & HEARD!

Is Alton Russell from GEORGIA?

Everyone named Jim raise your hand. (Are you SURE?)

RANGER LOST in St. Louis! When found, he was standing at the Gateway Arch waiting for the McDonald's to open.

Someone broke into Fred's home back in Kansas last night and stole his oils. They got his coal oil, his motor oil, and his castor oil.

DAVE FRANKLIN was once the National FCF Scout? Wonder if he knows.

FARWELL CHAPEL is the only church in the country that gives away money instead of taking it.

ED WHITE is a very generous man. He just willed $50,000.00 to the parents of the Unknown Soldier.

INJUN: me not lost. Teepee lost.

CHARLEY THOMPSON is your friendly District Commander from South Carolina.

PAT BROWN deserves a "pat" on the back.

Who said going uphill was easier than going downhill? Ask someone from Nebraska.

Do the fellows from UTAH know UTAH CAROL?

CARL THOMPSON looks busy, but he is not.

No, the lodge is not air-conditioned. It just looks that way.

RAMBLING ROBB may one day put on the hits. See tonight's exciting episode: THREE IS A CROWD. (How many is a multitude?)

COMMANDERS: be sure to take your outpost to some of the attractions in this area. THE GREAT PASSION PLAY in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, is open every night except Mondays and Thursdays. Your boys would love SILVER DOLLAR CITY or WHITE WATER, Branson. Take in a little of the lakes area while you are in the Ozarks!

Next column, please...

THE EDITOR of The Eagle Eye, John Eller, would like to thank those who have helped in any way with this publication. Special thanks to Roy Larimer at the Carroll County Tribune in Green Forest, AR, who has worked many extra hours with his staff to make it possible. Thanks also to my son, John David whose help and suggestions have been very valuable.

Thanks

SPECIAL MESSAGE

2960

REGISTRATION FOR THE 1986 CAMPORAMA stands at 1260 (unofficial). Some 130 boys came forward to re-commit to Christ on Wed. night. We hauled in 13,000 gallons of water the first two day of the Camporama. (Boy were we thirsty!) Drive carefully going home. Watch out for the other guy!

Glad You Came!
