

WESTERN ARTIST — One of the more colorful artists at Seneca's Bicentennial Arts and Crafts Sale Saturday was Fred Deaver, Galena, Kan. Deaver sported a handmade buckskin western outfit at the sidewalk sale. At the end of the day, he said he had sold none of his art works, but had given two away. (Daily News photo)