

Announcement of Ken Hunt's Initial Appointment to National Royal Rangers Office

High Adventure Leader, Summer 1989

INTRODUCING: Ken Hunt recently was named Editor/Promotions Coordinator of Royal Rangers materials. He began his duties in November 1988.

In his new position, Ken serves as editor for the High Adventure and High Adventure Leader.

A native of southern Missouri, Ken is the son of an Assemblies of God minister. After graduating from Evangel College with a degree in sociology, he served in the U.S. Army for 3 years, 1 year of which he spent in Vietnam.

Following military service, Ken worked for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. before going into general contracting business.

He also has been active in his church as a Men's Ministries leader and a Royal Rangers outpost commander. Presently, he serves on the deacon board of Oak Grove Assembly.

Ken and his wife Sharon have two children: Ryan, age 12; and Heather, age 10.

We in the Royal Rangers national office believe that Ken will be a great asset to the Rangers ministry.
