

RRI Africa Summit Results & The Ghana NTC

In the last issue of Behind the Falls, we reported on the first ever RRI Africa Summit held in Nairobi, Kenya. We are still seeing the effects of this incredible conference, which was orchestrated by God. As a direct result of the summit, Patrick Kawe of Kenya traveled to Malawi and held a Ranger Basics course for over 40 new leaders in October. Also, RRI was able to send a team to the nation of Ghana to train 115 new leaders in November, and the nation of Madagascar is rapidly moving ahead with their plans to introduce Royal Rangers in 2008.

Ghana now has about 300 Royal Ranger outposts in the nation. The recent NTC was one of the most significant outcomes of last year's meeting. Walter Edem Atsutsey, the national Commander of Ghana, sent us this testimony about the Africa Summit's impact:

"WE HAVE BEEN EDUCATING LEADERS AND MEMBERS OF THE CONGREGATION AT VARIOUS GATHERING AND MOUNTING STANDS FOR ROYAL RANGERS PRODUCTS SINCE WE RETURNED FROM THE

KENYA SUMMIT. ABOUT 95% DID NOT KNOW OR UNDERSTAND WHAT ROYAL RANGERS IS ALL ABOUT. THEY ONLY KNEW US AS PERFORMING DRILLS AND MARCHING DURING LOCAL MEN MINISTRY DAY CELEBRATIONS.

HOWEVER, AFTER LISTENING TO US EXPLAINING OUR MISSION AND THE KIND OF MATERIALS WE USE AND TEACHINGS WE GIVE THESE YOUNG PEOPLE, THEIR PERCEPTION ABOUT US HAS CHANGED COMPLETELY. MOST OF THEM CAME TO CONFESS THIS TO US AND EVEN PLEDGE EITHER TO JOIN AS COMMANDERS OR SUPPORT THE MINISTRY. THIS IS A GREAT ENCOURAGEMENT TO US.

THE RANGERS AND COMMANDERS ARE VERY EXCITED ABOUT THE NEW CURRICULUM AND PRODUCTS. THEY WISH THEY COULD HAVE THEM EARLY. WE WANT TO THANK GOD FOR YOUR LIFE FOR COMING OUT WITH THE PRODUCTS."
