

Royal Rangers Commit Themselves to “Unprecedented Evangelism”

Royal Rangers International (RRI) held an historic conference in Orlando, Florida, February 20-25, 2006. In Spanish, the conference was called Seminario de Actualización Latinoamericano (SAL, which means salt). The purpose was to introduce new evangelistic program resources to the national Royal Rangers leaders in the Spanish-speaking world. 105 leaders (twice as many as originally expected) from Spain, Italy, Mexico, Central & South America, and the Caribbean attended.

The conference atmosphere was charged with energy as Puerto Rican trumpet player Willie Nieves opened each morning with a concert of praise. Guest speakers included: Dick Nicholson, Assemblies of God World Missions Regional Director for Latin America and the Caribbean; Richard Marriot, U.S. National Commander; Martin Seiler, leader of the world’s largest Royal Rangers outpost (with just over 1,200 members located in Stuttgart, Germany); and Enrique Strochein, Assemblies of God General Superintendent of Argentina. The ministry of the Word stressed the importance of evangelism, prayer, and Holy Spirit enthusiasm, guidance and power to grow Royal Rangers.

In addition to the ample resources, instruction and motivation received, the national leaders enjoyed great fellowship. Many were so excited to be with fellow Ranger leaders from around the world that they stayed up all evening talking and interacting.

Perhaps the most exciting result of the conference was seeing the national commanders accept a challenge issued by Doug Marsh, director of RRI. Reciting the first part of the Royal Rangers pledge, “With God’s help I will do my best to serve God,...” the national leaders committed themselves “to an unprecedented effort of Ranger-evangelism.” As a group they set a goal to grow the ministry in Latin America and the Caribbean from 45,000 to over 250,000 within the next ten years!

RRI is most grateful to Pastor Saturnino Gonzalez of Iglesia El Calvario for being such a gracious host. Additionally, to the following churches for generously supporting the SAL and investing into the future of Ranger-evangelism overseas: Faith Assembly of God – Orlando, FL; Mandarin First Assembly – Jacksonville, FL; New Life Assembly – Kissimmee, FL; Victory Assembly – Lakeland, FL; Evangel Assembly of God – Wichita, KS.

There is little doubt this conference will be viewed as historic. What will follow is “unprecedented Ranger-evangelism!” ❦

First Bulgarian Staff School Report

— FEBRUARY 2006 —

Andy Whitman with a group of Ranger kids and leaders in Northern Bulgaria.

SOFIA, BULGARIA — This past February Jukka Piirainen, the Royal Ranger Coordinator for Europe, and Andy Whitman, the RRI Communications Coordinator, taught the first Royal Ranger Staff School held in Bulgaria. Dime Nakov, a district commander from the Republic of Macedonia, assisted them in conducting the 3-day course. The Bulgarian Ranger program sent six trainees and Macedonia sent seven, in an on-going cooperation between the two nations that started last year. The trainees learned how to conduct a National Training Camp (NTC) in order to prepare new leaders for the ministry, and are now all qualified to serve on an NTC staff.

With God's help, Bulgaria has been recruiting more leaders and is expanding the ministry. They plan to hold their second NTC later this year. As part of our mission, RRI is always ready to assist in the pioneering efforts going on in Europe and around the world, and we now have more resources than ever to offer. Your contributions to the Evangelism Force make such efforts possible and we are very grateful for your generous giving.

PARTNERING with RRI through the RRI “READY” Evangelism Force

RRI just delivered the new Global Curriculum to the Spanish speaking world and we plan to launch it in Europe this year, but we still have a lot of work to do in Eurasia, Africa, and Asia Pacific.

Your response with a monthly “Faith Promise” will help us rapidly respond to such needs. Today the ministry is growing in 71 nations. Our goal is to build-up in 150 more. To contribute, please use the information below or visit our ministry website. Your participation will lay the foundation of $12,000 in monthly commitments and allow us to respond the moment God opens doors. Currently, we have reached approximately 14% of this goal.

You can help by making a monthly Faith Promise to RRI
