Voice in the Wilderness – From Paul 'Grey Owl' Walters, National FCF President

“The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight” (Mark 1:3). When I think of a man who would have made a great FCF member, it would have been John the Baptist. His boldness in proclaiming the gospel leaves a great model in which we can follow. As Christian men, Royal Rangers, and FCF leaders we have the responsibility to be bold and unwavering in our stance for Christ and the church. The way of the world say’s “You can have it all” or “Do whatever feels good”. The easy way out is to be politically correct in all that we do. The way for us as leaders is clear, and that is to take the straight and narrow path and be unwavering in our beliefs.

Another way we can display our faith is to have an open ear to God’s voice and his leading. I received a timely email recently from Peter Gilchrest, Colonials Territory Representative. It came at a time when both he and I needed to hear a still small voice. It may have been a small gesture but it spoke loudly to my needs at the time. As you spend time before the Lord, you can ask that HE leads you to minister to a need. As fellow brothers, we need this ministry in our lives and it will help the Royal Rangers and the FCF to become stronger in our brotherhood.

As you visit the National FCF website take notice of the grizzly bear photo on the home page. Clicking on the card will take a visitor to a page in which the Trail of the Grizzly is clearly explained. You will notice that an inquiry form has been set up. As the inquiries come, they will be directed to the chapter president for follow up. This provides another way to make contact with prospective members.

Let’s agree to do all we can as quickly as we can to be a “voice in the wilderness”! Our families, churches, communities and Rangers need us and they need us to be strong.
