Dear Commander:

Welcome to the 1999 Royal Rangers catalog.

We realize that being a Royal Rangers leader takes time and energy. Here in the national office, we want your efforts to be spent building young men, not in trying to find products and materials to make your program work.

This year's catalog has been redesigned to help you better find what you need—

- Each program, from Straight Arrows to Challengers, has its own section.
- Camping gear includes several new products and has been expanded to better display and explain the products.
- Pinewood Derby supplies include a new easier-to-make car for younger boys.
- Specially selected products designed to enhance your teaching and ministry have been added to the resources portion of the catalog.
- Several new casual shirts and hats have been added to our clothing section.

We believe the time is right for developing the commanders of tomorrow. Your efforts will be blessed.

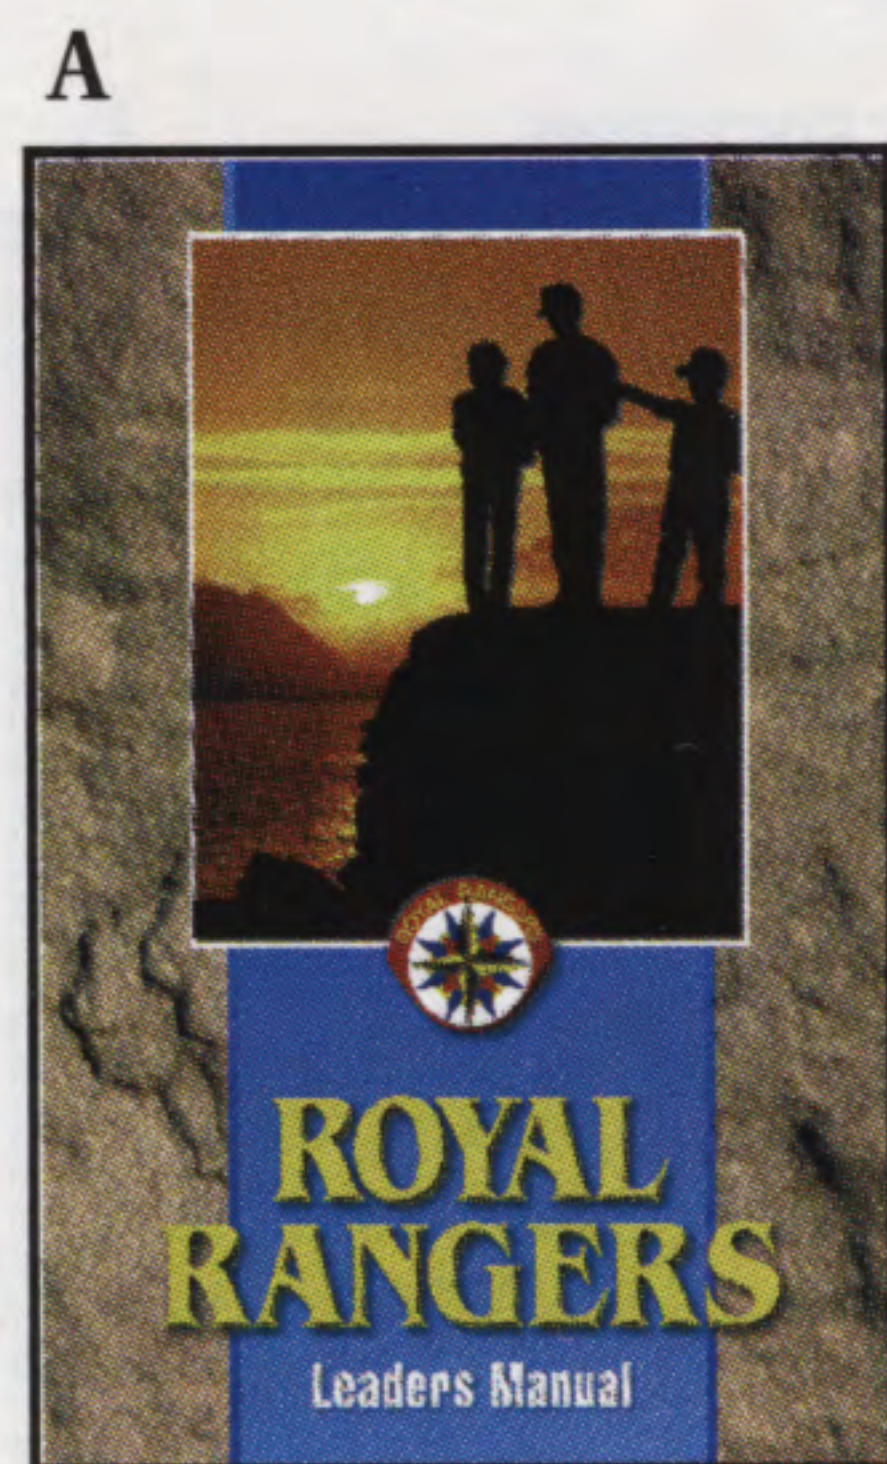

In Service to Christ,

Ken Hunt
National Commander
National Royal Rangers Office
