Greetings Commander,

Welcome to the 2009-2010 Royal Rangers Catalog. In your hands, you hold the source to quality Ranger gear.

I'm excited to announce significant improvements to the Royal Rangers Chartering Incentive Program that will add value to your outpost. Coming soon will be the ability for you to charter your outpost online. Not only is this convenient, but will allow for the development of a number of benefits, including Ranger gear discounts.

Let me encourage you to become a chartered outpost if you are not already. Beyond the outstanding benefits you will receive, chartering helps all of us build a stronger and expanding Royal Rangers ministry — able to influence boys and young men more effectively than ever!

Jump in! You are part of a radical group of young men who are united by a common cause:

- Evangelize the world
- Equip the next generation of Christ-like men
- Empower lifelong servant leaders

The journey will be loads of fun! Get out, take it in, and make friends. Know the Master Ranger, Jesus Christ, more each day and connect those around you with Him.

CHARTERING YOUR GROUP

Your Benefits Are Many! Here Is a List of Just a Few You'll Enjoy:

Many of the chartering benefits have been expanded. Instead of a single quarterly magazine for all boys ages 5-17, boys now receive an annual magazine called Rangers NOW. These yearly publications are designed for specific age groups and their interests. There is also a new Outpost Promotional Kit, loaded with letterhead, business cards, postcards, banners—all of which can be customized with your outpost's information and then locally reproduced. Also included in the kit are high-quality videos and other great resources, all designed to shape the image of your outpost in the church and community—plus there's more!

- 15% discount on Ranger gear when ordered via the online Ranger Superstore (effective August 15, 2009), after completing online chartering process.
- Each chartered member of your outpost will receive a free copy of Rangers NOW, the group-specific, annual magazine/resource from the National Royal Rangers Ministries that lets boys know how to get the most from their Rangers experience during the current school year. There is an edition for leaders too.
- Access to download Navigator, a data-tracking tool to record and track boys' and leaders' advancements

What Are Chartering Requirements?

- An outpost must be sponsored by a church affiliated with the Assemblies of God or by a church affiliated with the Pentecostal Charismatic Churches of North America (PCCNA.)
- Other denominations and churches, including independent churches, may qualify if approved by the Assemblies of God district superintendent from the geographic district where the congregation is located. (Determined on a case-by-case basis)
- Outposts must have at least one qualified leader, and, if possible, one or more assistants for each group sponsored (Ranger Kids, K-2; Discovery Rangers, 3-5; Adventure Rangers, 6-8; and Expedition Rangers, 9-12). All boys from each sponsored group must charter.

Where, How, and When Does My Outpost Charter?

Beginning August 15, 2009, chartering can be conveniently completed online from our Chartering page. Forms can be completed online and fees processed using the church's (or individual's) preferred payment card. The discounts and charter benefits are available 24-48 hours after online processing. For your ease of use, the charter information is stored on a secure database that allows quick processing in future years as relevant fields are automatically populated. You simply verify or update the information.

PATCH PHILOSOPHY

The Royal Rangers advancement system is designed to offer boys hands-on fun, which facilitates the discipleship process. "And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men." (Luke 2:52 NIV). In these same areas of growth, Rangers resources will help you take boys on a journey toward maturity as godly men and servant leaders.

In Royal Rangers, boys and young men are challenged to embark on an adventure that requires them to participate actively. It is a spiritual journey that will forge their character and maximize their leadership potential. To the uneducated eye, boys are just learning survival skills in the wilderness, playing sports, producing a music video, repairing the home of an elderly person, etc., but in the process our mentors are intentional about laying biblical foundations of sexual expression, worldview, culture manhood, and leadership. By awarding merit badges, boys are guided on a measureable, personal, and spiritual growth process.

But wait—there's more! Other silver merits are available, but not as patches. Refer to your Expedition Rangers curriculum for more information.

To see each merit in all its embroidered glory, pick up the Royal Rangers Advancement Awards Chart, 23MX8946, found on page 2.

THE UTILITY UNIFORM

The field has requested a uniform that boys, young men, and adult leaders will find attractive and comfortable while engaging in fun activities. The utility uniform will accomplish both of these goals. It will be rugged enough to withstand rigorous activities while remaining stylish enough for boys and young men to wear proudly. One of the most attractive aspects of this uniform is that patches that are routinely changed (e.g., local junior office insignia) can be fastened to the uniform with Velcro footprints. This option can be used in lieu of sewing them on. This should be a welcome relief to those parents doing all that sewing.

On the left uniform sleeve, the Royal Rangers emblem and the local office insignia (e.g., Outpost Chaplain, Patrol Guide, etc.) will be worn. On the right sleeve, the geographic patch will be worn. Directly below the geographic patch will be the outpost numerals. Beneath the outpost numerals will be the advancement level of the boy or the training level of the leader.

The only insignia that will be placed on the collar is for organizational leaders (i.e., regional coordinators, district training coordinators, etc.). They will be non-metallic, embroidered patches.

On the left pocket, the highest level training patch will be worn. It is recommended that metallic pins only be worn during a council of achievement or other ceremony. The intention of this uniform is to have a comfortable uniform in which men and boys can be active without concern that pins will be pulled off, tearing the material.

Above the right pocket, the optional FCF patches can be worn. Each FCF advancement level will have its own patch design. Below the FCF patch and flush against the top of the pocket will be the group tag. On the pocket will be an event patch of the individual's choosing. Name tags are only worn during councils of achievement or special ceremony

General Appearance—Royal Rangers should be dressed neatly and have good posture, clean face and hands, combed hair, neatly trimmed facial hair, and clean fingernails.

Headgear—When appropriate, a Royal Ranger may choose to wear approved headgear. Headgear should never be worn indoors.

Bolo Tie—Royal Rangers may wear the bolo tie of their choosing. It may be official Rangers gear, one purchased elsewhere, or one made through the local outpost or while at a training event. Bolo ties are not required when the utility shirt is untucked but are required when the utility shirt is tucked in, unless the activity dictates otherwise.

Shirt—Royal Rangers may wear the official long-sleeved Royal Rangers utility shirt, complete with patches and insignia placed correctly. The shirt may be worn tucked in or untucked, depending on the activity. When worn with pins (not shown), shirt must be tucked in. Only the official Rangers gear utility shirt is acceptable in order to maintain a professional and uniform appearance.

Pants—Royal Rangers have two current options for pants—RangerTac pants or blue jeans. RangerTac pants are navy blue cargo pants with the Royal Rangers emblem embroidered on the back right hip pocket and other great Ranger features.

Belt—A belt is worn with the utility uniform unless the activity dictates otherwise. If wearing RangerTac pants, wear a black web belt with chrome buckle. If wearing blue jeans, the belt with appropriate belt buckle should be black or brown and match the shoes being worn.

Shoes—If wearing RangerTac pants, black boots or shoes should be worn. If wearing blue jeans, wear shoes appropriate for the activity. Black or brown shoes with matching belt are encouraged. Pants may never be bloused in boots.

Socks—If wearing RangerTac pants, black socks should be worn. If wearing blue jeans, wear socks appropriate to the footwear.

NEW A. UTILITY SHIRT

Wear the Utility Shirt for the ultimate in function and comfort! Light-weight fabric and a vented back with mesh lining allows for ventilation and superior performance. Roll-up sleeves with button tabs help you adapt to changing temperatures. Ample pocket space includes two chest pockets with hook and loop flap closure. Embroidered Royal Rangers logo on left sleeve. Shirt buttons down front. Color: Tan. 100% polyester. Machine wash warm. Tumble dry low. Imported.

DEVELOPING THE LEADERS AROUND YOU:
HOW TO HELP OTHERS REACH THEIR FULL POTENTIAL
BY JOHN C. MAXWELL

A must-read for outpost commanders. Developing leadership qualities in others is the way to ensure success in your outpost, because the one asset that truly appreciates within any organization is people. Your commanders and leaders can grow, develop, and become more effective if they have a leader who understands their potential value. Paper. 224 pages.

THE NEXT GENERATION LEADER BY ANDY STANLEY

Develop strong leaders in your outpost. The Next Generation Leader has been challenging young Christians eager to learn, grow, and lead in ministry since its original release in 2003. Mentoring young leaders as they face the unique issues of a changing world has been pastor and bestselling author Andy Stanley's passion for more than a decade. Here he shares material from his leadership training sessions, developed to address essential leadership qualities such as character, clarity, courage, and competency. Hard. 176 pages.

RAISING A MODERN DAY KNIGHT BY ROBERT LEWIS

What does it mean to be a man? Moreover, how does a Ranger commander instill these qualities? Using as an example the process by which a boy moved through the medieval stages of knighthood, author Robert Lewis identifies parallel stages for today's mentors to create ceremonies to commemorate significant milestones in a young man's journey toward becoming a modern-day knight. Beginning with a biblical perspective of manhood, author-pastor Robert Lewis shares a unique approach to shaping a boy into a man by equipping him with three essential elements: a vision, a code of conduct, and a cause (Christianity) in which to invest his life. Complete with ceremony ideas to celebrate accomplishments and ingrain them in his mind, this softcover is as insightful as it is practical in raising a boy to be a chivalrous, godly man. Paper. 208 pages.

WILD AT HEART BY JOHN ELDRIDGE

Lead your Rangers into the role God intended for them. God designed men to be dangerous, says John Eldredge. Simply look at the dreams and desires written in the heart of every boy: To be a hero, to be a warrior, to live a life of adventure and risk. Sadly, most men abandon those dreams and desires-aided by a Christianity that feels like nothing more than pressure to be a "nice guy." It is no wonder that many men avoid church, and those who go are often passive and bored to death. In this provocative book, Eldredge gives men permission to be what God designed them to be—dangerous, passionate, alive, and free. Paper. 224 pages.

DO HARD THINGS: A TEENAGE REBELLION AGAINST LOW EXPECTATIONS BY ALEX HARRIS AND BRETT HARRIS

Written when they were 18 years old, Do Hard Things gives your boys a tangible glimpse of what is possible for teens who actively resist cultural lies that limit their potential. Combating the idea of adolescence as a vacation from responsibility, the authors weave together biblical insights, history, and modern examples to redefine the teen years as the launching pad of life and map a clear trajectory for long-term fulfillment and eternal impact. Written by teens for teens, Do Hard Things is packed with humorous personal anecdotes, practical examples, and stories of real-life rebellionaries in action. Hard. 256 pages.

HOW TO MEASURE

Stand normally, arms at sides. Measure over underwear. Keep the tape measure snug, not tight. To make certain garments fit properly, please measure carefully as indicated above, and consult the measurement charts below.

Note: Charts represent actual garment measurements. If measurement falls between sizes, order the next larger size.

Collar: Measure around the base of the neck.

Chest: Measure under the arms and around the fullest part of the chest.

Sleeve: Have him hold up one arm chest high and touch his nose. Measure from the back base of neck, across shoulder, around bend of elbow to the wrist.

Length: Measure from high point of shoulder (where collar meets shoulder) to just below belt line.
