Dear Royal Rangers Leader,

As you leaf through the pages of this catalog, you will discover two things about Royal Rangers:

1. Profound gratitude for our rich heritage.

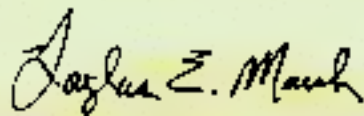

We have a legacy of leaders all across America who serve with integrity. To-date Royal Rangers has spiritually influenced over 2.5 millions boys and young men. Our founder, Johnnie Barnes, never dreamed our efforts would take Royal Rangers to 86 nations (and growing!). Today as we mentor future men, we continue to share our founder's commitment to "develop the total boy for Jesus Christ."

2. Prepared anticipation for the future.

A few years ago we set out on a journey of faith to do whatever it would take to "influence more boys and young men than ever, more effectively than ever." The Lord directed our planning, and this year marks the completion of that process. Already, it is paying off; more and more churches start Royal Rangers each week, and numerous denominations are adopting the ministry. As we move into our bright future, we do so on the solid foundation established by others.

Now it's your turn and mine, too!

We have readied ourselves, and God honors preparation. Boys and young men need mentoring today more than ever! Let us faithfully fulfill our mission: "to evangelize the world, equip the next generation of Christlike men, and empower lifelong servant leaders."

Doug Marsh
National Royal Rangers Director

What Is Royal Rangers?

Royal Rangers is a mentoring ministry for future men. With it, you provide Christ-like character formation and servant leadership development in a relational and fun environment. Your commitment to mentor future men is well supported by the resources found in this catalog. With them you will:

Mentor boys to become godly men.

With sports, outdoor activities, trades, technology, arts, ministry, and more, you can reach more boys than ever. As you reach and disciple them, one-by-one, they will develop confidence and learn by your example and biblical counsel how to become the men God designed them to be.

Equip more mentors.

Fifty years ago camping was the activity that attracted the greatest number of boys. Not so today. Since boys want variety, mentors with a broad range of interests and abilities now have the opportunity to disciple today's boy. Royal Rangers is stronger by involving dads in the lives of their sons, men from every generation, and those with a variety of backgrounds. The resources and training Rangers offers will give new and experienced mentors the confidence to enjoy ministry success.

Develop young leaders.

There is no better way to shape lifelong servant leaders than by instructing them to lead and then stepping back as they take charge to the degree their age, maturity, and growing abilities allow. This will prepare them for the future while giving them ownership of their outpost today.

Customize your ministry.

As a church you choose the activities that will draw the most boys; you choose the best staffing solutions; you choose how much product you depend on; you choose the leadership style your boys need; you choose the apparel that will make young men proud to be associated with Royal Rangers and your church. With Rangers you get the effectiveness of a proven ministry with all the flexibility you need!

The future is here

Royal Rangers is the premier, most sought after church ministry for the next generation of men in America—period! As we grow, we remain quick and responsive to learn and adapt to our changing society.

See pg 42 for details.

Royal Rangers' teaching curriculum is delivered online, so you always have access to the sharpest mentoring resources possible—available at TRaCclub.org. With tracks for Leaders and each age group of Royal Rangers, you'll have everything you need to mentor boys.

Leadership Merits make it easy for you to equip boys to lead. Available in both weekly and weekend formats, you choose the one that fits your ministry best.

Bible Merits are more flexible than ever before. Now merits are awarded for every 8 lessons Rangers complete, two of which can come from other local alternatives like summer camp, youth group, Sunday School, and other settings where Rangers are learning more about God's Word.

Skill merits develop valuable skills and build confidence in boys as they enjoy fun activities together around common interests.

See pg 48-50 for all merits.

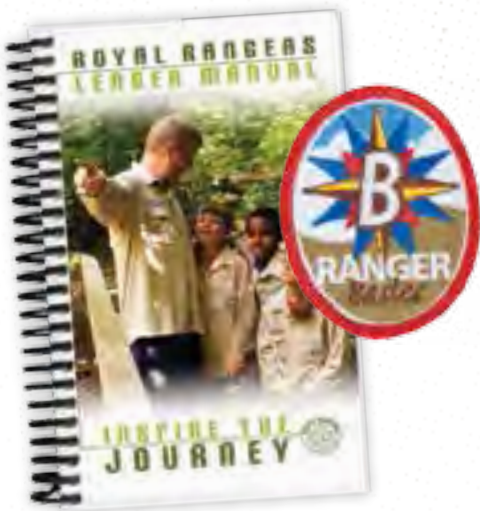

See pg 14, 20, 26 and 32 for details.

Handbooks

New for Discovery, Adventure, and Expedition Rangers, the handbooks keep information boys and leaders will need often and on the go.

Coming soon! Equipping resources on Manhood and Leadership (pg 42) will show Rangers how to become godly men and servant leaders.

Training

Royal Rangers' training is second to none; it will inspire and equip you to mentor future men with integrity and skill. From the comprehensive Leader Manual to training events across the nation, you have what you need to be successful as you mentor. Go to RoyalRangers.com for details.

Fun

To put it simply, Royal Rangers is FUN—fun with a purpose. Royal Rangers brings men and boys together around common interests to do fun things. It reaches boys by creative methods. Rangers makes personal and spiritual growths fun, hands-on, and experiential as friendship charges your ministry atmosphere.

Events

Royal Rangers' events will help you build momentum and stay connected with Rangers across the nation and around the world. Events like National Camporama in 2012 as well as outstanding district/network events complement your church's events and activities.

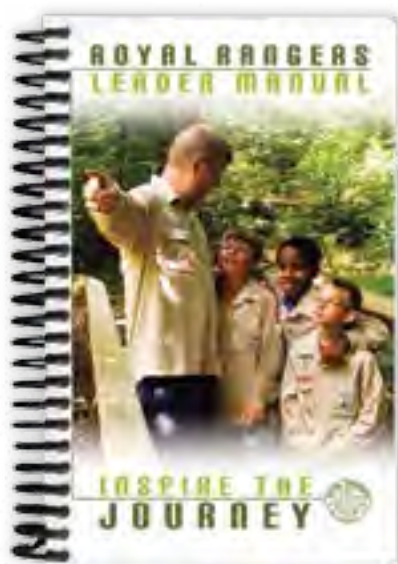

Flexibility

One of the greatest features of Royal Rangers is the degree of flexibility you have in creating just the right program for your church. The resources in this catalog let you choose how you'll incorporate uniforms, merits, and other awards. Plus, standing behind you is a nationwide network committed to your success. To find out more, check out RoyalRangers.com.

Startup Resources for Your New Outpost

Once you understand the value and purpose of Royal Rangers and its potential impact on boys' lives, starting a program is the exciting next step. To help you get started, here is a list of recommended resources. More information on how to start a new outpost can be found in the Royal Rangers 2.0 Launch Kit magazine available upon request from the Royal Rangers' National Office. Contact us at rangers@ag.org for details.

Leader Manual

Each leader will need to have a Royal Rangers Leader Manual. See pg 37 for details.

Pull for the team.

Discovery Rangers is for boys in grades 3-5. This group learns Biblical principles by earning Bible merits, discovering new skills and abilities by earning skill merits, and develops leadership and teamwork skills by earning leadership merits. Discovery Rangers learn the true meaning of growing mentally, physically, spiritually, and socially following the pattern of Jesus.

Discovery Rangers Advancement Trail

Discovery Rangers is for boys in 3rd-5th grade and features a 3-year advancement system where boys complete quarterly advancement steps by earning certain combinations of skill, leadership, and Bible merits. Each merit is designed to promote the boy's development in a specific area.

- Skill merits help develop skills and build confidence as leaders and boys enjoy fun times together and learn about a variety of subjects of common interest.
- Leadership merits teach teamwork and leadership skills and help boys to grow into true Christlike servant leaders.
- Bible merits lead boys through an intentional process of growth into Christlike manhood by presenting Scripture in a way that is uniquely relevant to today's boy.

Discovery Rangers Advancement Awards

The Discovery Rangers advancement system consists of 15 advancement steps, organized into three annual trails of 5 steps each. Each step may be represented by one or more forms of recognition, such as a medal, patch, or ribbon. Regardless of the form of recognition used, all insignia represent the same award, allowing you to choose the form of recognition that best suits your groups chosen style.

All advancement steps are represented by a patch worn on the utility uniform or an awards vest. In addition, the highest award in each of the three annual trails is also represented by a medal, ribbon, or neck medallion.

Adventure Rangers Advancement Trail

Adventure Rangers is for young men in junior high school (6th-8th grade) and features a 3-year advancement system where junior high guys complete quarterly advancement steps by earning certain combinations of skill, leadership, and Bible merits. Each merit is designed to promote a guy's development in a specific area.

- Skill merits help develop skills and build confidence as leaders and young men enjoy fun times together and learn about a variety of subjects of common interest.
- Leadership merits teach teamwork and leadership skills and help young men to grow into true Christlike servant leaders.
- Bible merits lead young men through an intentional process of growth into Christlike manhood by presenting Scripture in a way that is uniquely relevant to teen guys today.

Adventure Rangers

Adventure Rangers Advancement Awards

The Adventure Rangers advancement system consists of 15 advancement steps, organized into three annual trails of 5 steps each. Each step may be represented by one or more forms of recognition, such as a medal, patch, or ribbon. Regardless of the form of recognition used, all insignia represent the same award, allowing you to choose the form of recognition that best suits your groups chosen style.

All advancement steps are represented by a patch worn on the dress or utility uniform, or on an awards vest. In addition, the highest award in each of the three annual trails is also represented by a medal, ribbon, or neck medallion. The Gold Medal of Achievement (the highest award in Adventure Rangers) can also be represented by a coin, hat pin, and bolo.

Expedition Rangers Advancement Trail

Expedition Rangers is for high school guys (9th-12th grade) and features a 3-year advancement trail of learning and growing, specifically developed for high school guys. Guys earn annual awards based on certain combinations of skill merits, leadership merits, and Spirit Challenge Bible lessons. Merits are designed to promote learning and development in a specific area.

- Skill merits help develop skills and build confidence as leaders and young men enjoy fun times together and learn about a variety of subjects of common interest.
- Leadership merits teach teamwork and leadership skills and help young men to grow into true Christlike servant leaders.
- Spirit Challenges take the place of Bible merits in Expedition Rangers and consist of Bible lessons, featuring topics of unique interest to high school guys. Written for group discussion, Spirit Challenges engage guys in the learning process and promote interaction and personal application.

Your Online Source for Royal Rangers Curriculum!

Royal Rangers utilizes a combination of both print and electronic curriculum components to achieve the optimum balance between flexibility and availability. Most of the curriculum is made available online through TRaCclub, the online resource delivery system, while some components are available in print format for ease of use.

TRaCclub

TRaCclub includes everything you need to teach the merits and advancement materials for Royal Rangers, including:

- Weekly Meeting Guides—a complete outline for weekly Royal Rangers meetings from opening ceremonies to closing prayers.
- Skill Merit Activity Guides—material for teaching and learning content on a variety of fun topics, such as archery, backpacking, auto mechanics, model rocketry, or basketball.
- Bible Lessons—written specifically for today's boy and young man, they serve as the core of the Royal Rangers discipleship process and as the focal point of the weekly Royal Rangers meeting.
- Leadership Merits—provide instruction on leadership and teamwork skills with application projects to be completed by the group.

- A variety of other resources, such as award artwork, record keeping materials, supplies checklists, and additional devotions.

For additional information on TRaCclub, visit tracclub.org.

Print Components

Printed curriculum items include the Royal Rangers Leader Manual and the boys' handbooks for Ranger Kids, Discovery Rangers, Adventure Rangers, and Expedition Rangers. These books serve as core reference material for all aspects of the Royal Rangers program and are integral components of the leadership and skills development process. See pg 10 for a list of start-up resources recommended for a new outpost.

Raising a Modern Day Knight

BY ROBERT LEWIS

What does it mean to be a man? Moreover, how does a Ranger commander instill these qualities? Using the medieval stages of knighthood as an example, author Robert Lewis identifies parallel stages for raising godly, chivalrous boys today. Lewis shares a unique approach to shaping a boy into a man by equipping him with three essential elements: a vision, a code of conduct, and a cause (Christianity) in which to invest his life. Includes ceremony ideas to commemorate significant milestones in a boy's journey to modern-day knighthood. Paper. 208 pages.

The Next Generation Leader

BY ANDY STANLEY

Develop strong leaders in your outpost. The Next Generation Leader has been challenging young Christians eager to learn, grow, and lead in ministry since its original release in 2003. Mentoring young leaders as they face the unique issues of a changing world has been pastor and bestselling author Andy Stanley's passion for more than a decade. Here he shares material from his leadership training sessions, developed to address essential leadership qualities such as character, clarity, courage, and competency. Hard. 176 pages.

Wild at Heart

BY JOHN ELDREDGE

Lead your Rangers into the role God intended for them. God designed men to be dangerous, says John Eldredge. Simply look at the dreams and desires written in the heart of every boy: To be a hero, to be a warrior, to live a life of adventure and risk. Sadly, most men abandon those dreams and desires-aided by a Christianity that feels like nothing more than pressure to be a "nice guy." It is no wonder that many men avoid church, and those who go are often passive and bored to death. In this provocative book, Eldredge gives men permission to be what God designed them to be—dangerous, passionate, alive, and free. Paper. 224 pages.

Measurements

How To Measure

Stand normally, arms at sides. Measure over underwear. Keep the tape measure snug, not tight. To make certain garments fit properly, please measure carefully as indicated above, and consult the measurement charts below.

Note: Charts represent actual garment measurements. If measurement falls between sizes, order the next larger size.

COLLAR: Measure around the base of the neck.

CHEST: Measure under the arms and around the fullest part of the chest.

SLEEVE: Have him hold up one arm chest high and touch his nose. Measure from the back base of neck, across shoulder, around bend of elbow to wrist.

LENGTH: Measure from high point of shoulder (where collar meets shoulder) to just below belt line.
