Greetings Commander!

This 2004 catalog is sort of like a trip down to the trading post—a chance to enjoy the sights, learn a few pointers, and pick up some supplies. It won't take you more than a few steps to see that some of the old landmarks have changed just a little. We've done some landscaping to make your routine journey a bit more enjoyable and productive.

All Royal Rangers resources are present and accounted for at the post, including Expedition Rangers! We've expanded on some of the product details, and kicked up the energy. Also, we've provided a few resting areas where you can take in the scenery or read the experiences of other commanders.

But all that aside, we know you're taking the trip for your boys. We may have provided some great equipment, but through the Holy Spirit you're the one working up a sweat and making a difference. We're just here to give you a place to start.

Happy Trails.
