www.GospelPublishing.com

Greetings Commander!

So here you are on the trail again, heading down to the post for this year's supplies. If you want to make a couple days out of the trip, we have some new camping equipment to help prepare you for anything that might come up along the way. Also, your next Pinewood Derby should be a lot easier to organize and manage with the Grand Prix Race Manager Software we've just set up on the shelf.

You'll find a few more new things scattered here and there, so keep your eyes peeled.

And when you need to take a load off, be sure to take in the sights and read what's happening in the lives of your fellow commanders. Different year, different experiences, after all.

Most of all, we want you to enjoy yourself. You're doing a great thing for your boys. Not just by this trip, but by your day-to-day leadership and example. If we can hand you some tools to help and encourage you in those roles, then that's all the more power to you and the difference you make.
