me so happy in moments of sorrow. I was tempted to spend the dollar because it was the only one I had at this time, but when I think of how you always remember me—even when I am not able to send my offering—I am glad to give it."

Our friends faithfully help us too. One businessman in Gilbert, Ark., has a two-fold ministry in Revivaltime promotion. In addition to making his weekly contribution, he recommends Revivaltime to each of his business contacts. In Florida, a couple extends Revivaltime's ministry by taping each broadcast and playing it in their store. A man in Gridley, Ill., places Revivaltime advertisements in the local newspaper. Such indications of friendship are greatly appreciated. Revivaltime depends on the cooperation of its many friends to keep broadcasting its

To make our friendship more meaningful to you we have prepared a special book, The Vilest Clean, by C. M. Ward. Brother Ward says of this book, "It is the greatest story I have written this year."

You will be inspired by this book which tells how Captain Dilena, of the New York City Police Department, witnesses to the dope addicts and teen-age gangs in New York City's lower regions. It describes how hopeless addicts have been delivered by the power of God. David Wilkerson, director of Teen-Age Evangelism, says of Captain Dilena, "He is one of the few men respected on both sides of the law—by the law officers higher up and the kids on the street."

You will want to read this book. A copy will be sent you when you fill out the attached coupon and give the brief information we need. Mail your letter to Revivaltime, Box 70, Springfield, Mo. 65801.

How a Methodist Minister Received the Pentecostal Baptism

Lord with all my being. When I came to myself, I was speaking in a language I had never heard before. I knew beyond a shadow of doubt that this was the baptism of the Holy Ghost. God revolutionized my life that night so that I have not been the same person since.

I went back to Lubbock the following Sunday and resigned my church. My farewell sermon dealt with the subject, "Why I Believe in the Baptism of the Holy Spirit." Some were amazed, some were displeased, but they all said, "Brother Barnes is a different person from the one we used to know."

THE PROMISE IS FOR YOU

Every born-again person has a right to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Jesus said, "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?" (Luke 11:13).

On the Day of Pentecost, Peter declared: "For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call" (Acts 2:39). Have you claimed this promise?

Recovery Called "A Miracle"

When I took my checkup in December, 1962, Dr. Kiser told me I was the sickest person he had ever cared for and lived to tell him about it. The doctor reports I am in perfect health now. Praise the Lord.—Keith K. Wilson, Goddard, Kansas.

(Endorsed by Pastor John W. DeVasher, South Seneca Assembly of God, Wichita 17, Kansas. He states: "I am acquainted with Mr. Wilson and know his testimony to be true facts. His present health is good and he has no symptoms of any of these sicknesses at the present time. He is present in almost every service and enjoying the blessings of our Lord.")
