Men's prayer meeting is backbone of success in church men's work.

time. Periodically these are all-night prayer sessions.

The men of the Huntington Station Assembly hold monthly meetings at the Bowery Mission. In every meeting they have held there someone has surrendered his heart to Jesus Christ. To date more than 200 persons have been saved. The director of the well-known New York mission stated that no other group holding services there has such a record. Also, the group is unique in that it has never missed a service when its turn came.

Light-for-the-Lost giving for 1968 totaled $900, almost doubling the goal of $500 for this missionary outreach through literature.

The Action Crusades training in personal witnessing has resulted in a weekly house-to-house visitation program. The men go out two by two. During Action Mandatory the men distributed 3,000 copies of the special issue of TEAM magazine.

The MF of Huntington Station Assembly sponsors a very active group of Royal Rangers. At the last pow-wow 12 unsaved boys attended. When the invitation was given, during the campfire service 11 of the 12 boys accepted Christ as their personal Saviour.

Bible studies, jail services, and banquet rallies are other ingredients that make this MF an aggressive witness for Christ in its community. The men are kept
