

LFTL council notes 20th anniversary

PHOENIX, ARIZ.—The 20th anniversary convention of the National Council of Light-for-the-Lost was held here April 27, 28. Attendance at two dinner functions and the Gold Key breakfast averaged more than 150.

Officers for the forthcoming year are F. P. "Tim" Tyler (Los Alamitos, Calif.), chairman; Sam Cochran (Garden Grove, Calif.), vice-chairman; and Robert Bruder (Glendora, Calif.), president. The eight regional executive vice-presidents will be: Northeast—Julius Fried (New York, N.Y.); Great Lakes—Richard Patete (Cleveland, Ohio); Southeast—Philip Brauchler (Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.); Gulf—Hollis Lawson (Monett, Mo.); South Central—Charles Freeman (Oklahoma City, Okla.); North Central—Lud Oquist (Brookfield, Wis.); Southwest—David Burdine (San Jose, Calif.); Northwest—Ray Radford (Seattle, Wash.).

Light-for-the-Lost recognition awards were presented. Pastor Wilbur Wacker, San Jose, Calif., and C. L. Dixon, Bell Gardens, Calif., tied for honors as Light-for-the-Lost "Pastor of the Year."

The Southern California District won the "District of the Year" award, and Parvin C. Lee (Michigan) became "District Superintendent of the Year."

Philip Brauchler, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and David Burdine,

San Jose, Calif., tied for first place as "Councilmen of the Year." Ray Neil, Wilmington, Calif., and Tim Tyler, Long Beach, Calif., tied for second place. Marc Dunn, Phoenix, Ariz., received the third-place trophy.

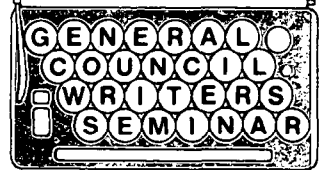

"Church of the Year" awards went to the Assembly of God, Holland, Mich., first place; Cabrillo Assembly, Soquel, Calif., second place; First Assembly, Santa Ana, Calif., third place; First Assembly, Los Gatos, Calif., fourth place.

General Superintendent T. F. Zimmerman spoke at the opening banquet; Sam Johnson, missionary to Spain and Portugal, spoke at the Gold Key breakfast; Sam Cochran, founder and vice-chairman of the National Council of Light-for-the-Lost, spoke at the final banquet. Officers were installed by Silas Gaither, national director of the Division of Church Ministries.

The National Council of Light-for-the-Lost set a goal of one million dollars annually for overseas evangelism literature ministries.

National Royal Rangers Camporama slated for Colorado in 1974

SPRINGFIELD, MO.—Plans for the first National Royal Rangers Camporama to be held in 1974 at the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo., were announced at the 1973 Royal Rangers National Aides-de-Camp Council.

Details of the Camporama program, registration, attendance, and equipment requirements will be announced later.

Silas Gaither, national director of the Division of Church Ministries, addressed the Council at the opening banquet. Prior to his message he was initiated into the Royal Rangers Frontiersmen Camping Fraternity by John Eiler, national president of the fraternity.

A new book concerning Royal Rangers uniforms was introduced to aid conformity.

Chief officers of the National Aides-de-Camp Council are Wesley Kilcrease (right), president; and Floyd Larson, first vice-president.
