

Molding kids into Pentecostal believers takes preparation, dedication, and work—but most of all it takes a full-gospel curriculum! Today many popular publishers choose to water down and avoid key issues in the Bible. WORD OF LIFE isn't one of them! WORD OF LIFE is proud to take a strong stand on great doctrines like the Holy Spirit and divine healing. In fact, we build them right in to all our Sunday school literature. WORD OF LIFE comes face-to-face with all God's truths when many publishers avoid them. Shouldn't you be using WORD OF LIFE—the full-gospel literature?

For Pentecostal believers tomorrow, teach Pentecostal truths today—
WORD OF LIFE!

1445 BOONVILLE AVENUE
SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI 65802

New officers of the National Action Crusades Council are (left to right) Richard Taylor, vice-chairman; Roland Cole, secretary; and Grant Spong, chairman. William J. Wind (not shown) continues as president.

SOULS WON DURING NATIONAL ACTION CRUSADES COUNCIL

ATLANTA, GA.—The 9th National Action Crusades Council, held here March 8-11, introduced Action Crusades to the major city of the southeast.

The daytime meetings featured specialists in various areas of personal evangelism, and the NACC business meeting. In the evenings Action Crusades were held in more than 16 metropolitan churches. At least 22 souls were reported saved one night in outreach ministry.

At the business meeting new officers were elected. They are: Grant Spong, Germantown, Tenn., chairman; Richard Taylor, Rock Hill, S. C., vice-chairman; and Roland Cole, Commerce City, Colo., secretary. Previously the secretary's post was filled by the national Action Crusades coordinator. The term of office is two years. William J. Wind of Phoenix, Ariz., has one year remaining as president.

The Council recommended that regional Action Crusades be developed as rapidly as feasible. The tenth NACC will be in the Los Angeles metropolitan area March 7-10, 1977.

Special recognition was given to Robert Breon of Arlington, Wash., and Leon Owen of Dallas, Tex., for serving the Council the past four years as chairman and vice-chairman respectively. Officers are limited to serving only two consecutive two-year terms in one office.

A commemorative plaque was given to Faith Memorial Church (Jimmy Swilley, pastor) for hosting the 9th NACC.

AIDES-DE-CAMP MEET, PLAN ROYAL RANGERS PROMOTION

SPRINGFIELD, MO.—Election of officers was a major function of this year's meeting of the Royal Rangers National Aides-de-Camp Council held here.

Those elected were: Floyd Larson, Holden, Mass., president; Fred Deaver, Galena, Kans., first vice-president; and John Tyler, Detroit, Mich., second vice-president. The term of office is two years. The officers serve as the executive committee of the Council to carry out the organization's business passed at the annual meeting and introduction of the new National Royal Rangers Council next year, the Aides-de-Camp Council will unite with it and will hold its sessions in conjunction with the major organization.

At the present time each aide-de-camp is a promotional assistant to the national Royal Rangers commander. He has the responsibility to properly present the Royal Rangers program and answer questions regarding it. Also he may assist local churches to begin Royal Rangers outposts. He serves the national office by encouraging outposts to keep their

