

Above: Ropecraft is part of the training boys receive at Royal Rangers camps. Right: Active young minds have questions. Outpost meetings are designed to challenge the intellectual capacity of Royal Rangers. Center: A Trailblazer receives the gold medal of achievement, the highest award in Royal Rangers. The goal of the advancement program is to develop the total boy. Far right: Boys listen to a lesson from the Bible. Spiritual training is one of the major emphases of Royal Rangers.

