

Photo by Stew Hensley

Three of the speakers at the Camporama were (left to right): Thos. F. Zimmerman, Johnnie Barnes, and Herb Ellingwood.

Photos by J. Stephen Earle

3,400 Royal

On June 27-31 approximately 3,400 Royal Rangers convened in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee, for their quadrennial National Camporama.

Among the activities featured at this 3d National Camporama were an Advanced Award Midway and the Frontiersman Camping Fraternity (FCF) Village. It included craftsmen and typical frontiersmen activities. An archery range, BB rifle range, .22 rifle range, and an obstacle course were also provided.

Photo by Stew Hensley

