

Will-making is a woman's business too!

H. Armstrong Roberts photo

Whatever your age—whether single, married, or widowed, you need a will. Many women avoid making a will because it reminds them of death.

But a good will lets your life prevail after death. A good will can keep alive—for years, or even for generations—your hopes, your ideals, and your dedication to Christ and His work.

Coordinator for the conference is Lawrence B. Larsen, secretary of the national Music Department.

Deron Brock named Royal Ranger of the Year

WILLIAMSBURG, OHIO—Deron Brock, 16, has been selected as national Royal Ranger of the Year for 1982. Deron, one of eight regional Royal Rangers finalists, was presented to a large crowd of Royal Rangers and leaders at the National Camporama last summer in Pigeon Forge, Tenn. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Large.

Deron is a Gold Medal of Achievement winner. He has been active in his church, Mt. Carmel Assembly in Cincinnati, Ohio. Pastor Robert Perdue said Deron is an outstanding Royal Ranger. He served on his high school senate and was a leader in the French Club. He recently received an international foreign language award.

Other regional winners who were interviewed by the national Royal Rangers review board were: Brad Ballard, Sikeston, Mo.; Paul Morrison, Wisconsin

Rapids, Wis.; Stephen Vantassel, Springfield, Mass.; Ron Hornback, Sequim, Wash.; Salvador Dorado, Jr., El Paso, Tex.; Mike Henry, Orlando, Fla.; and Bruce Houlihan, Turlock, Calif.
