

Edmund Lother named district superintendent in Wyoming

CASPER, WYO.—Edmund Lother, pastor of First Assembly here, has been elected to a 3-

Edmund Lother

year term as superintendent of the Wyoming District.

Lother succeeds E. D. Beard, who served as superintendent from 1971 to 1985, and 1959 to 1964. Beard was also assistant district superintendent from 1954 to 1955, and secretary-treasurer from 1958 to 1959.

As the new Wyoming District superintendent, Lother will oversee 49 churches. He said the district plans on opening six more churches in 1986.

In addition to pastoring in Wyoming, Lother has pastored in Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Michigan. He has taught at several Bible colleges, including the Detroit campus of Central Bible College. Prior to entering the ministry he conducted the Royal Canadian Navy Band for 3 years.

Pentecostal Holiness churches to use A/G Royal Rangers program

SPRINGFIELD, MO.—Pentecostal Holiness churches will begin using Royal Rangers as its boys ministries program, ac-ording to an agreement reached with the Assemblies of God Executive Presidency.

Under the agreement the Oklahoma City-based Pentecostal Holiness denomination will charter its own outposts but purchase all necessary materials through Gospel Publishing House of the Assemblies of God. Uniforms, certification, and awards programs will be used unaltered, but a supplemental leaders manual will be developed by the Pentecostal Holiness Church. It will cover historical and doctrinal material unique to that body.

The Pentecostal Holiness group joins a number of other denominations and churches using the Assemblies of God Royal Rangers materials and program. These include Congregational Holiness, Pentecostal Freewill Baptist, and a variety of local independent and denominational churches.

Silas Gaither, national director of the Division of Church Ministries, is the Assemblies of God liaison with all other groups using Royal Rangers.

REVIVAL REPORTS

LEBANON, IND.—Twenty-five children were saved at First Assembly during a recent crusade with Ed and Jane Knapczyk.

Pastor Larry D. Gallaway, Sr., said the Knapczyks' ministry was "anointed and carried the simple yet powerful message of the gospel to children in terms they could relate to."

Attendance for the revival was excellent, Gallaway said.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.—"Stanford Linzey's simple, direct manner of encouraging people to receive the fullness of the Spirit was clearly used of God," reported Glad Tidings Pastor Melvin Johnson. Approximately 50 individuals received the Baptism during the crusade.
