

Hunt named editor for Royal Rangers

Hunt

Ken Hunt recently was named the editor of Royal Rangers materials. He began his duties in November 1988.

In his new position Hunt serves as managing editor of High Adventure and High Adventure Leader, publications with a combined circulation of more than 80,000 per quarter. A native of southern Missouri, Hunt is the son of an Assemblies of God minister. After graduating from Evangel College with a degree in sociology, he served in the military for 3 years, 1 year of which he spent in Vietnam.

Following military service, Hunt went into the contracting business.

He also has been active in his church as a member of the deacon board and has served as a Royal Rangers outpost commander.

Hunt and his wife Sharon have two children. ☐
