4th Quarter 2021 Training Schedule

The 4th quarter of 2021 and the 2021–22 National Royal Rangers training schedule closes out with some tremendous training events in the fall and into early January. Don't miss out on a training opportunity near you!

If you want to attend an event, don't wait to register. Registering before the event's "Early Registration Deadline" allows you to receive the lowest price and ensures that the event will be a "GO." If the event gets cancelled or postponed, you have no financial risk. You will have the option to receive a refund or to transfer to another event. If you do not register and the event doesn't receive enough registrations, yours might have made the difference.
