Today, Jim and his wife Margaret attend First Assembly in Sierra Vista, Arizona. There he engages in the visitation program of the church. It is one way to show he appreciates his salvation. He admonishes, "You will never understand the joy of giving yourself until you understand the price that was paid

"Yes, physical sight is important, but spiritual sight is more important."

Soon after being saved, Jim Decker enrolled in the Berean School of the Bible, and will soon complete all its courses.

to redeem a lost sinner. The courses I have studied have given me a greater knowledge of God's Word."

Jim recently has had the opportunity to preach in his home church and in nearby assemblies. God has called him into the ministry. He is praying the door will soon open for him to enter full-time evangelistic work.
