Advanced training in camping procedures at the National Training Camp prepares Royal Rangers leaders for better work with boys. Members of the faculty at Camp Arrowhead, Missouri, were Paul Feller and Eugene Meador (top left), and James Griggs and Manuel Ellis (bottom left). Cooking on an open fire (center) was required in the Adirondacks. Even rain (top right) could not stop the classes. In Puerto Rico Royal Rangers Outpost 61 (bottom right) makes a good showing.
