Leadership of the National Council of Light-for-the-Lost is in the hands of these capable laymen: Phil Sondeno, president; Herman Meyers, vice-chairman; and Sam Cochran, chairman. At present 330 men throughout the United States serve on this Council which furnishes support for the promotion and advancement of Light-for-the-Lost in its fund-raising activities.

end, the Men's Fellowship Department dedicates its efforts.

Distinctive areas of ministry now being served through the Men's Fellowship Department are Action Crusades, a personal witnessing soul-winning program; Evangelism Literature for America, and Light-for-the-Lost, fund-raising projects for evangelism literature for America and overseas; and Royal Rangers, an outdoor-oriented boy's program to reach, teach, and keep boys, and which involves leadership training for a large number of adult leaders. Active involvement in other areas of church life is encouraged.

A close-working relationship between pastors and laymen is a fundamental principle of the Annually the National Action Crusades Council meets to plan, promote, elect officers, and establish training procedures for its growing program of personal witnessing. The officers above are: J. P. Men's Fellowship program. Development and growth of the programs are always within the framework of the local assembly.

TEAM has contributed greatly toward a better understanding of the objectives of the men's work in the Assemblies of God, and it is from grateful hearts we thank God for TEAM's sixteen years of ministry to Assemblies of God men. Also, we thank all the writers, editors, national secretaries and executive directors of the Men's Fellowship Department for their assistance in the making of TEAM.

Officers of the National Royal Rangers Aides-de-Camp Council and members of the national staff are: Paul Feller, national training co-ordinator; Norman Winchar, first vice-president; Wesley Kilcrease, president; Kermit Reneau, executive director Men's Fellowship Department; Johnnie Barnes, national commander; Floyd Larson, second vice-president.

men" (Ephesians 3:5).

The church was brought forth in mystery, and it will be taken in mystery. Moffatt translates 1 Corinthians 15:51, "Here is a secret truth for you."

Paul learned and shared this secret. "We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed" (1 Corinthians 15:51, 52).

A lovely New Testament picture, or type, of this mysterious catching away is Peter's deliverance from prison. Not even the soldiers guarding him knew what happened. "The Lord hath sent... and... delivered me" (Acts 12:11).

"High Adventure," New Magazine for Royal Rangers

For some 90,000 boys and 10,000 men engaged in the Royal Rangers program, it is a joyful occasion to announce the forthcoming publication of the new Royal Rangers magazine, "High Adventure." A quarterly magazine, the first issue will be ready in early 1971.

"High Adventure" is designed to provide boys with worthwhile, enjoyable leisurely reading; to challenge them in narrative form to higher ideals and greater spiritual dedication; and to perpetuate the spirit of the Royal Rangers program through stories, ideas, and illustrations.

To accomplish these objectives the magazine will contain fast-moving adventure stories, true camping ventures, professional tips on camping, hiking, back packing, and other campcraft subjects.

The subscription price is $1.50 a year for single subscriptions; or $1.30 each subscription when five or more subscriptions are

Christ is going to send for His own.

What a picture! James was taken and knew the power of death. Peter escaped miraculously. Both were Christ's property. "We which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep" (1 Thess. 4:15).
