

Our Half-Termly Topic is

Big Wide World

English

As Writers, we will be writing words/ sentences using tricky words.

As Readers, we will listen to and talk about selected non-fiction books to develop a deep familiarity with new knowledge and vocabulary. We will be looking at books and share stories by describing the characters, events and settings in stories that have been read using recently introduced vocabulary.

Maths

As Mathematicians, We will build numbers beyond 10, Count patterns beyond 10, First, then, now, adding more, taking away and developing our Spatial reasoning skills.

Understanding of the world

As Scientists, we will be learning about living things and their habitats. Exploring themes, including where food comes from, what plants and animals need to grow and survive and what constitutes a healthy lifestyle.

Islamic Studies

As Theologians, We will be studying the five Pillars of Islam, Wuddu and Salaah. We will be learning Surah Al-Kawther.

Personal, Social and Emotional

We will work and play cooperatively and take turns with others. We will understand the reasons for rules, know right from wrong and try to behave accordingly.

PSHE

As Global Citizens. We will be learning about the global community to which we belong and explores how living things, communities and climates differ around the world. We will be looking at the globe and maps to locate different places around the world. We will be talking about the different places around the world, including oceans and seas.

Art and Design

As Artists, we will explore and create using a wide range of materials and components, including upcycled materials, construction kits, textiles and ingredients.

Language and Communication

As young communicators, we will be learning new vocabulary and using them in our daily conversation. We will be developing our communication skills by presenting our stories to our peers.

Physical Education

As Athletes, we will be developing our skills in speed Agility Travel and Control speed. We will be taking part in a variety of activities individually and with others. We will be playing cooperatively.