

English

During this half term children will be reading book Stone Mouse by a prize winner author Jenny Nimmo. This is a story about emotions.

Children will also be doing writing activities from a lyrical, captivating and beautiful picture book called Dam by Carnegie Medal-winner David Almond.

PE

This term our PE topic is Gymnastics.

In this topic children will learn about physical exercises requiring balance, strength, flexibility, agility, coordination, and endurance. The movements involved in gymnastics contribute to the development of the arms, legs, shoulders, back, chest, and abdominal muscle groups.

MISTY MOUNTAIN, WINDING RIVER.

This exciting project teaches children about the characteristics and features of rivers and mountain ranges around the world, including a detailed exploration of the ecosystems and processes that shape them and the land around them.

Dear Parents & carer,

We'll come to Year 4

Spring 1 Topic web.

Geography

Children will learn about stages of rivers and its uses. Different types of mountains.

Maths

Children will continue following Maths – No Problem the Maths mastery approaches used in Singapore. Children will be learning about Time, Fractions and Graph in next half term.

Science

In science children will learn about water cycle and its four stages: : evaporation, condensation, precipitation and collection

Use computer to discover the locations of some of the world's largest mountains.

Write a True or False Quiz which includes amazing statements about mountains of the world

Create your own mountains from papier Mache .

Homework is fun!

In this new topic, you will learn all about the world's rivers and mountains. Here is a range of home projects for you to try and show off your home learning in this exciting topic.

Choose one of the world's highest mountains and create a powerpoint presentation all about it to show to your class. Don't forget to include lots of interesting images and information.

Write a diary entry for a child living in a mountain region of the world. What happens in their daily life? How would their day differ from your own?

Create a fact file about famous mountaineers such as George Mallory etc