Media Information

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials for Tulsa's home football games must be emailed to donald-tomkalski@utulsa.edu with the Tulsa Athletic Media Relations Office.

Media will still be asked to physical distance as best as possible in 2022. Masks are optional at this time, but possibly could become mandatory.

Members of the electronic media and those daily and Sunday papers covering Tulsa and its opponents on a regular basis will receive first priority for credentials.

Credentials will not be mailed. Credentials can be picked up at the TU Athletic Media Relations Office during the week of the game or on gameday three hours prior to kickoff at the press will call window at the corner of Gary and Florence Avenues.

All credentials are non-transferable and are limited to members of the working media only. Your cooperation in this matter will help ensure the best possible working conditions in the H.A. Chapman Stadium Press Box and on the sidelines.

PARKING

Media parking will be located in two locations: the Mabee Gym West Parking Lot (the corner of 8th Street and Florence Ave; enter on 8th Street from the west at Delaware Ave.) and the Blue Lot (the corner of 8th Street and Harvard Ave; enter 8th Street from the east at Harvard Ave.). THE PROPER PARKING CREDENTIAL WILL BE NEEDED FOR ENTRANCE TO THESE LOTS. These parking credentials are issued by the Athletic Media Relations office. A limited number of parking spaces are available, therefore, members of the electronic media and those daily and Sunday papers covering Tulsa and its opponents on a regular basis will receive first priority. In order to park satellite trucks or vehicles for radio remotes contact the TU Athletic Media Relations Office in advance of the game.

TELEVISION TRUCK PARKING

Parking for Television Trucks is located on Florence Avenue at the corner of 8th Street and Florence Ave. The proper media parking credential for the Mabee West Parking Lot will be required. You can access this parking lot from the west only, off of Delaware Ave. and coming down 8th Street.

PRESS BOX

The press box is located on the west side of H.A. Chapman Stadium. The Working Press Level is located the fourth floor of the Press Box. In addition to print media, Radio and TV Broadcast Booths are also located on the fourth floor. There is a TV Photo Deck located on the fifth floor. This level accommodates team video and and television film crews.

INTERNET

Wireless and hardwire internet connections are available in the H.A. Chapman Stadium Press Box.

POST-GAME INTERVIEW POLICY

The Tulsa locker room is closed. Postgame interviews for Tulsa will be held in the Case Athletic Complex in the north end zone of the football field.

The visiting team has access to a postgame interview room at the back entrance to the team locker room.

PHOTOGRAPHERS / VIDEOGRAPHERS

Photographers and videographers are reminded that credentials must be properly displayed at all times. There will be a transmission area for photographers.

SIDELINE POLICY

Media will be required to social distance on the field as much as possible and do not crowd players or coaches when entering or exiting the field.

The team bench areas has been extended to the 15-yard line on each side of the field.

MEDIA IS NOT PERMITTED IN THE TEAM BENCH AREAS.

When passing behind the team benches to get to the other end of the field, please do not stop. Move as quickly as possible from one end to the next. DO NOT TAKE PHOTOS/VIDEO FROM BEHIND THE BENCH AREA.

COVERING PRACTICE

Tulsa's practices are closed to the public. Television video and photography of practice is allowed between Tuesday-Wednesday for a selected period of time.

All videography and photography will be from the sidelines at Chapman Stadium or at a predetermined distance on Harwell Field. NOT ON THE ACTUAL PLAYING FIELD.

Contact the Athletic Media Relations Office earlier in the day to request attending practice.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with Tulsa players should be made through the Athletic Media Relations Office. Please make your request a day in advance to allow enough time to arrange the interview. Interviews will not be allowed on student-athlete OFF days. The best time for extended interviews is normally between 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., depending on the players' class schedules and team obligations.

Television stations usually will be able to do interviews of a shorter duration after practice, but make arrangements with the athletic media relations office.

The last time for player interviews is Thursday following practice, except on non-Saturday game weeks. Contact the athletic media relations office for exact days and times of media availability for non-Saturday game weeks.

Media is asked to set-up all player and coach interviews by calling the athletic media relations office at 918-631-3200.

TULSA WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCES

Tulsa Head Coach Philip Montgomery's weekly news conference will be on Tuesday from 12-12:45 p.m. Select players will be available following Coach Montgomery's availability.

In 2021, weekly news conferences will be in person or via zoom.

All other requests for interviews with Coach Montgomery should be directed to the Athletic Media Relations Office.

The University of Tulsa

The University of Tulsa is a student-centered research university that cultivates interconnected learning experiences to explore complex ideas and create new knowledge in a spirit of free inquiry. Guided by our commitment to diversity, equity and service, we prepare individuals to make meaningful contributions to our campus, our community and our world.

TU is Oklahoma's highest ranked private university. It comprises a graduate school and five colleges: Kendall College of Arts & Sciences, Collins College of Business, Oxley College of Health Sciences, College of Engineering & Natural Sciences and College of Law. Popular majors include mechanical engineering, computer science, nursing, exercise/sports science, psychology and finance. Although TU is small, we have more nationally competitive scholars than all other Oklahoma colleges combined.

A leader in blending liberal arts, professional studies and career support, TU strives to produce the region's most well-rounded, life- and career-ready alumni. TU also is Top 25 in the nation for STEM education, ranks No. 3 in the nation for petroleum engineering and is tied with Harvard for undergraduate cybersecurity programs. TU also is home to internationally acclaimed poets, theologians and entrepreneurs. Across all our programs, faculty and staff ensure that students receive the support and guidance they need to thrive in their studies and beyond. Beginning in fall 2022, all incoming undergraduates are eligible to participate in the CaneCareers Job Placement Guarantee. Students who complete all program requirements are guaranteed to be offered an entry-level job in their field of study or to be accepted into a graduate or professional program within six months of graduation. If not, they will receive a free semester of graduate school tuition benefit at TU. Last year, TU students who earned a bachelor's degree reported an average starting salary of $68,117.

Clubs, intramurals, Greek life, study abroad and community engagement opportunities are plentiful. While TU welcomes students from 45 states and dozens of countries, we are profoundly invested in our hometown. We continually seek ways to partner with people and organizations across the City of Tulsa in order to represent and unite this vibrant and diverse community while playing a pivotal role in propelling it forward socially, culturally and economically.

TU recognizes the Tribal lands on which our beautiful main campus resides. We honor and acknowledge the Indigenous tribes, and tribes who were forcibly removed, including the Ni-u-kon-ska (Osage), Kitikiti'sh (Wichita), Kadohadacho (Caddo), Mvskoke (Muscogee [Creek]) and Tsálāgī (Cherokee) Tribal Nations as the original inhabitants and keepers of the land and water that we now call Tulsa.

Tulsa, Okla. is "Green Country"

Geographically, Tulsa sits at the crossroads of America. Metaphorically, it is the crossroads of America. It's where creative expression, sophistication and down-to-earth hospitality all converge in a lush natural setting to redefine what it means to be a modern American city.

Tulsa is nestled in the northeastern quadrant of Oklahoma, right in the heart of "Green Country." The rolling green hills and wooded terrain of the city lies at an elevation of 700 feet above sea level and offers a temperate climate. Tulsa's enjoy 227 days of sunshine a year and an average daily temperature of 61 degrees.

What began as Tulsee Town in 1836 under a sturdy oak tree, which still stands today at 18th and Cheyenne Streets, is today the second largest city in Oklahoma. Tulsa was forever changed by the discovery of oil in 1901.

Today, Tulsa offers enviable low cost of living combined with big city attractions and amenities. From world-class outdoor spaces to legendary music venues, Tulsa has an unexpected, dynamic quality of life without the sticker shock of other regions.

Lots of cities have notable parks, but very few have a crown jewel like Gathering Place. This 100-acre riverfront park is situated in the heart of Tulsa. On par with visionary public spaces as Manhattan's Central Park and Chicago's Millennium Park, Gathering Place blends nature in an urban setting, providing Tulsans and visitors more space to play, relax and gather together along the Arkansas River. The park's highlights include an adventure playground, seasonal gardens, walking and biking trails, a pond and boathouse, two restaurants, and much more.

Downtown Tulsa is a treasure trove for lovers of architecture, with a concentration of Art Deco rivaled only by New York City and Miami. The central public space in downtown, Guthrie Green, is a year-round destination for live music, cultural programming and festivals. Just a few blocks northeast is ONEOK Field, home of the Tulsa Drillers, a Class AA affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers. The ballpark sits within the historic Greenwood District, Tulsa's resurgent Black Wall Street known internationally as a hub of African American entrepreneurship and resilience.

Nearby you'll find the Blue Dome and Arts districts, which offer visitors a variety of restaurants, bars and galleries. Downtown's premier shopping and specialty stores – a confectionary, rare guitars, an indie bookstore and more – have something for every taste.

The BOK Center is downtown Tulsa's award winning and premier sports and entertainment venue, playing host to worldwide superstars and NCAA DI Basketball Championship tournaments. The venue was named the 2016 and 2018 Arena of Year.

"The Tulsa Sound" is as alive and well in 2019 as it was when Eric Clapton and George Harrison jammed with Tulsa's own Leon Russell and JJ Cale. Tulsa's historic live music venues, like the Cain's Ballroom and Brady Theater, are second to none. The multi-purpose BOK Center is a world-class entertainment venue, recently named the Arena of the Year for the second time in the last three years.

Take in a special afternoon of art, culture and history at one of the city's iconic museums, including the world's greatest collection of Western art at the Gilcrease Museum and the eclectic and thoroughly contemporary Philbrook Museum of Art. You'll also find the Woody Guthrie Center, which celebrates the acclaimed folk singer's life and legacy, and soon you'll be able to visit the permanent home of Bob Dylan's archives. Other family-friendly attractions include the Tulsa Children's Museum, the Tulsa Zoo and the Oklahoma Aquarium.

The crossroads of America wouldn't be complete without America's Main Street. Historic Route 66 runs the full east-to-west stretch of the city along 11th Street, offering nostalgic looks at the city's past and a bold vision of the community's future. From classic diners and burger joints to the new Mother Road Market food hall, Route 66 in Tulsa is one of city's newest culinary hotspots.

Further into the city, notable districts include Cherry Street, a seven-block hub of trendy shops, bistros, cafés and bars; Brookside, a nearly mile-long stretch of upscale shopping and dining; and the Pearl District, which has Tulsa's highest concentration of craft breweries. The Hard Rock Hotel and Casino, River Spirit Casino Resort and Osage Casino also feature restaurants, nightclubs and a constant stream of live entertainment.

Tulsa hosts a never-ending lineup of exciting games, tournaments and recreational events throughout the year. Sports spectators can look to The University of Tulsa, Tulsa Drillers baseball, Tulsa Oilers ice hockey and FC Tulsa soccer. Tulsa Tough is one of the most popular bicycle street races in the country, and the annual Tulsa Run the Route 66 Marathon appeal to runners from around the world.

For every local or visitor, Tulsa inspires something different! To learn more about all that Tulsa has to offer, check out VisitTulsa.com.

Skelly Field at H.A. Chapman Stadium

The 2022 season is the 92nd for football being played on the turf of Skelly Field at H.A. Chapman Stadium, the home of Golden Hurricane Football since 1930. The stadium first opened as Skelly Field, later was named Skelly Stadium and in April 2007 received the name of H.A. Chapman Stadium. The stadium underwent a major facelift in the summer of 2008 and on September 20, 2008, Tulsa opened the renovated stadium with a 56-14 victory over New Mexico.

H.A. Chapman Stadium

On April 24, 2007, it was announced that the University of Tulsa had received the naming gift for renovation of the football stadium.

The H.A. and Mary K. Chapman Trust provided the financial gift for half of the estimated cost for renovation of the H.A. Chapman Stadium. Trustees of the H.A. and Mary K. Chapman Trust are Donne Pitman and Jerry Dickman.

Following the 2007 football season, a complete renovation of H.A. Chapman Stadium began.

The stadium renovation included new seating throughout the stadium, restrooms, concession areas, new press box with luxury suites and club level seating, and a new scoreboard on the south side of the stadium, among other amenities. A new FieldTurf was installed in April 2008, and again in 2013 and prior to the 2017 season.

The steel structure on the stadium's west side was removed, substantially improving the aesthetics of the facility. The structure on the west side has an exterior finish of pre-cast concrete panels trimmed with cast stone. This returns the façade to the original architecture of the stadium, keeping the traditional look and feel of other campus structures. The stadium now has a capacity of 30,000.

When the stadium was first constructed in 1930 it was originally named Skelly Field, but was changed to Skelly Stadium in 1947 when 5,000 seats were added to north end zone.

Skelly Field at H.A. Chapman Stadium celebrating its 90th anniversary in the 2020 season.

Opening Skelly Field was a dream come true for Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson. Before Tulsa played its home games in Skelly Field the Golden Hurricane used McNulty Park, the minor league stadium that was the forerunner of Oiler Park. McNulty was located near the corner of 11th street and Elgin.

An unprecedented wave of prosperity swept over America in 1928 and wealthy Tulsa oil men began listening to Henderson's dream. The trustees were proceeding with plans for a stadium on faith that a donor would appear. In April, 1930, William Skelly, a long-time friend of the University, gave $125,000 to the stadium fund if another $175,000 could be raised. The remaining money was raised by Tulsa businessmen who organized the Stadium Corporation of Tulsa.

Ground-breaking ceremonies were held on May 11, 1930 and the race was on to complete the stadium for the upcoming season.

Skelly Field opened on October 4, 1930 against Arkansas. Records show that 13,000 spectators were on hand for the game.

On the opening kickoff of that inaugural game, Arkansas fumbled and end Johnny Potts recovered for Tulsa. On Tulsa's first play from scrimmage, Billy Boehm scored the first touchdown in the north end zone of the stadium. Later, Chet Benefiel scored the first touchdown in the south end zone. Tulsa went on to win the contest by a score of 26-6.

Since that day, some of college football's greatest stars have graced Skelly Field. Opponents the likes of Sammy Baugh, Ollie Matson, Bob Fenimore, Walt Garrison, Gino Toretta, Keith Jackson and Ladaian Tomlinson are a few of the games' greatest to step on the Skelly Field turf.

Tulsa's own Glenn Dobbs in the 1940s, the passing combination of Heisman Trophy runners-up Jerry Rhome and Howard Twilley in the 1960s, future NFL receiving greats Steve Largent and Drew Pearson in the 70s, the 1980s Palomino Express of Micheal Gunter and Ken Lacy and the stars from the 1991 Freedom Bowl Championship team thrilled Hurricane fans through the years.

In 2003, Tulsa's Humanitarian Bowl team excited fans by averaging over 37 points in six home games, while in the 75th anniversary year of Skelly Field the 2005 squad won the Conference USA Championship and advanced to a second bowl game in three years.

The 2016 season saw the Tulsa football team post an undefeated 6-0 home record and the school's 10th season of 10+ wins.

The highest attended game in stadium history was 47,350 on September 26, 1987 against No. 1 — ranked Oklahoma.

H.A. Chapman Stadium Through the Decades

1930s

Oil man and longtime friend of The University of Tulsa, William Skelly, gave $125,000 to the Stadium Fund Drive in the spring of 1930. The remaining $175,000 was raised by Tulsa businessmen who organized the Stadium Corporation of Tulsa.

Ground-breaking ceremonies were held on May 11 and the season kicked off on October 4, as Tulsa hosted Arkansas in front of a crowd of 13,000. On the opening kickoff, Arkansas fumbled and Johnny Potts recovered for Tulsa. Billy Boehm scored on the very next play for the first touchdown in the north end of the stadium.

Chet Benefiel scored the first TD in the south end zone and Tulsa went on for a 26-6 victory. The Golden Hurricane won its first six games at the new stadium that year.

1940s

A couple years earlier, 1938, the University traded Skelly Field to the Tulsa Public Schools for the Philtower Building lot at 5th and Boston. TU then began to lease the stadium from the board of education.

In the 1940s, Skelly Field was home to some of the best teams in school history. The Hurricane became the first school to play in five straight New Year's Day Bowl Games and the 1942 team posted a 10-1 record and finished the season ranked fourth in the final Associated Press poll.

In 1947, William Skelly turned the first shovel full of dirt at ground-breaking ceremonies for a 5,000-seat north end zone expansion and the name changed to Skelly Stadium. The first home game that season saw Tulsa defeat West Texas State 26-13 on September 20.

1950s

The 1950s began with Tulsa going undefeated at Skelly Stadium in the decades first three seasons, posting an 18-0-2 record covering 1950 through 1952. In 1956, a Billy Graham rally brought a crowd of 28,000 on June 18, 1956.

1960s

The Stadium Corporation was reorganized in 1964 and planned to build two high school stadiums (LaFortune and McLain) in exchange for Skelly Stadium. Skelly would be enlarged to 40,235 seats and the total program would cost $1,250,000. The track was removed, the field lowered and box seats added. The excavated dirt was used to support the new south end zone stands. Seating was added to the west stands plus a new two story press box, escalator and elevator. The third story photo deck was added the next year. Skelly Stadium was returned to become the property of TU in 1968.

1970s

The 1970s saw numerous players who went on to NFL careers grace the Skelly Stadium turf that decade, including NFL legends Steve Largent and Drew Pearson. The grass field was changed to Tartan Turf in the summer of 1972. Professional soccer made its debut at Skelly Stadium with a preseason game in 1977, and a year later the Tulsa Roughnecks made Skelly Stadium its home.

Tulsa won its 200th game at Skelly Stadium on September 15, 1979 with a 28-20 win over Southwestern Louisiana.

1980s

In the spring of 1980, a modern scoreboard and animated message center was installed above the south stands. John Cooper's 1980 team ushered in the new decade with an 8-3 record, including a 5-0 mark in home games. Tulsa's 10-1 record in 1982, including a 5-0 home record, was the fourth 10-win season in school history and just the second since Skelly Stadium was built.

1990s

Some of the biggest wins in Skelly Stadium history came in the 1990s. The Miracle on 11th Street was just the start on September 21, 1991, when the Hurricane came back from a 24-10 halftime deficit for a thrilling 35-34 victory over #15-ranked Texas A&M. In 1996, Tulsa opened its home season with a 27-20 win over #19 Iowa and two weeks later defeated Colorado State, 20-14, in its debut game of the Western Athletic Conference.

2000s

The 2000s began with the installation of a new FieldTurf, a synthetic artificial turf that looked and felt like natural grass. The north end zone stands were demolished in 2005 to make room for the new Case Athletic Complex that opened in 2007. It was also announced in 2007, that Skelly Stadium would have a new name – H.A. Chapman Stadium and in 2008 the stadium went through a complete renovation. The renovated stadium opened on September 20 with a 56-14 victory over New Mexico.

2010s

Three 10-win seasons came in this decade with the first coming in 2010 at 10-3. In 2012, Tulsa posted an 11-3 record and won the Conference USA Championship on its home turf with a 33-27 overtime win over UCF. Tulsa also claimed a 10-3 record in the 2016 season and was 3-0 at its home venue in the COVID-shortened 2020 season.

H.A. Chapman Stadium Highlights

1930 — Groundbreaking ceremony for the 14,500 seat Skelly Field occurred on May 11. The first football game was played on Oct. 4, 1930 in front of a crowd of 13,000. Tulsa defeated Arkansas 26-6.

1938 — TU traded Skelly Field to the Tulsa Public Schools for the Philtower Building lot at 5th and Boston. TU began to lease the stadium from the board of education.

1947 — Lease renewal for Skelly Field was signed. The 5,000 seat north end zone stands were added and the scoreboard moved to the south end zone. Skelly Field was the original name, but changed to Skelly Stadium when the north end zone seats were added.

1953 — In August, former TU star Jim Finks played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in an exhibition game against the Chicago Bears before a crowd of 10,000.

1956 — On June 18, Evangelist Reverend Billy Graham held a one-night rally and set what was to that date a stadium record crowd of 28,000.

1960 — Newly formed American Football League entries, Houston Oilers and Dallas Texans, met in an exhibition contest in August.

1964 — The stadium corporation was reorganized and it planned to build two high school stadiums (LaFortune and McLain) in exchange for Skelly Stadium.

1965 — Skelly Stadium was enlarged to 40,235 seats at a cost of $1,250,000. The track was removed, the field lowered and box seats added. The excavated dirt was used to support the new south end zone stands. Seating was added to the west stands plus a new two story press box, escalator and elevator. Work was completed in August.

1966 — The third story photo deck was added to the press box. Skelly Stadium turned into a baseball field for one game on May 5. The St. Louis Cardinals baseball club played their triple-A farm team, the Tulsa Oilers, in an exhibition game. The contest drew a crowd of 18,904, which saw the Cards beat Tulsa 5-4.

1968 — Skelly Stadium was returned to the University.

1972 — Tartan turf was installed in the summer months.

1977 — Professional soccer made its debut at Skelly Stadium with a preseason game.

1978 — The Tulsa Roughnecks, an NASL professional soccer team, moved into Skelly Stadium.

1979 — Getty Oil Company and Getty Refining and Marketing Company made a $350,000 grant for refurbishing and repairs to the Stadium.

1980 — A modern scoreboard and animated message center was installed above the south stands.

The sign package was donated by Dr. Pepper, KJRH Television and Getty Refining and Marketing Company. The largest crowd for soccer occurred on April 26 when the Roughnecks met the New York Cosmos before 30,831 fans.

1987 — The largest crowd in Skelly Stadium history, 47,350, saw Tulsa lose to the nation's number one-ranked Oklahoma Sooners, 65-0.

1982 — A new artificial turf was installed and the lighting system was replaced.

1984 — A new scoreboard above the north end zone and 25-second clocks were added in each end zone.

1991 — Stadia Turf, a new artificial surface, was installed in the summer. The football season had the highest season attendance average in school history with an average of 31,236 fans for seven home games.

1993 — A new scoreboard was erected in the south end zone. It was completed just one day before the home opener on September 18.

2000 — New FieldTurf was installed in the summer. The synthetic artificial turf looks and feels like natural grass. The visiting team locker room was refurbished.

2003 — Installed new stadium lighting.

2005 — The north end zone stands were demolished in February, thus clearing way for the new Case Athletic Complex. The stadium seating was reduced from 40,385 to 35,542.

2007 — The Case Athletic Complex in the north end zone was completed in June; and on April 24, it was announced that the H.A. and Mary K. Chapman Trust has provided the financial gift for half of the estimated cost for renovation of the newly named H.A. Chapman Stadium.

2008 — The H.A Chapman Stadium underwent major renovation and now has a new stadium capacity of 30,000.

2013 — A new playing surface, FieldTurf Revolution Cool Play featuring cork and rubber, was installed in the spring of 2013, as was an 80-foot LED electronic sign located on the south end zone field level wall.

2017 — A new FieldTurf surface was installed.

2018 — ONEOK Club had a complete renovation and an LED board was added to the north end zone.

Case Athletic Complex

The Case Athletic Complex opened in June 2007, less than three years after the plans were unveiled for the facility that houses Golden Hurricane football.

On November 11, 2004, University of Tulsa President Steadman Upham unveiled plans for the Case Athletic Complex to be located in the north end zone of Skelly Stadium. Excavation began on January 13, 2006.

The 30,000 square foot complex was built at a cost of $10 million, and it began phase one of the renovation of Skelly Field. Phase Two began following the 2007 football campaign, when Skelly Field at H.A. Chapman Stadium underwent major renovations.

The Case Athletic Complex, named for Mike Case, a developer and philanthropist who made a significant financial gift for the project, houses football coaches offices, meeting rooms, game day suites, academic support center for all student-athletes, football locker room and equipment room, athletic training room, video production suite and Lettermen's Club suite.

A renovation of the locker room was completed in the summer of 2018.

The facility provides the Tulsa football program with an exceptional every-day use facility, as well as providing all TU student-athletes with an area dedicated to academic enhancement.

Tulsa comes into the 2022 season on a four-game winning streak to close out the season, including a 30-17 win over Old Dominion to claim the Myrtle Beach Bowl Championship.

2022 Tulsa Season Preview

The Tulsa football enters the 2022 campaign looking to build on the momentum of winning four straight games. After dropping four games to teams that finished the season among the nation's top-20, the Golden Hurricane closed out the 2021 season on a four-game winning streak.

Tulsa will again look to defy the prognosticators and finish among the top-half of the American Athletic Conference. The Hurricane has posted an 11-3 league record over the past two seasons.

The Hurricane return a total of 42 lettermen, including 17 on offense, 21 on defense and three specialists for the 2022 campaign.

What does 2022 hold for the Golden Hurricane? Here's the position-by-position breakdown...

THE OFFENSE

Quarterbacks

Davis Brin (6-2, 208) is back for his senior season as the returning starting quarterback for the Hurricane.

Brin played sparingly in his first three seasons, seeing action in four games, before taking over the reins as the starter in 2021. He completed nearly 60 percent of his passes for 3,269 yards and 18 touchdowns last year.

His performance against the ninth-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes amounted to a career-high 428 yards and two touchdowns without one of his top receivers, sidelined with an injury. A week later, Brin completed 68 percent of his passes for 355 yards and a career-high three TDs against Arkansas State.

Three youngsters behind Brin each received valuable playing time during spring practice in leading the Hurricane offense. Redshirt freshman Braylon Braxton (6-3, 222) played in four games as a rookie in 2021 and gained 38 rushing yards, 4.2 yards per carry and one touchdown in his role as wildcat quarterback.

Braxton put up lofty passing numbers at Independence (Texas) High School, where he passed for over 6,000 yards and rushed for another 2,000-plus yards in his prep career.

Sophomore Roman Fuller (6-4, 206) came to Tulsa at mid-semester 2020 after completing his career at Decatur (Texas) High School. Fuller, who played in one game last season, came out of high school after throwing for over 9,000 yards and 90 touchdowns with a 66.4 completion percentage in his three years.

Newcomer Cardell Williams (6-2, 175) enrolled last January and participated in spring drills after graduating early from Houston Westfield High School. The dual-threat quarterback helped lead his team to a 33-5 record as a three-year starter, while throwing for 7,786 yards, running for 487 yards and combining for 105 touchdowns.

Walk-ons Carson Collins (6-1, 195), a junior, and redshirt freshman Stephen Kittleman (5-10, 183) add depth to the position.

Running Backs

One word that describes Tulsa's running back corps in 2022 is depth.

A year ago, Tulsa's run game was ranked 34th nationally with 192 yards per game and four different running backs each gaining over 200 yards. Shamari Brooks graduated as the school's second-leading rusher of all-time, but the cupboard is certainly not bare as the next three rushers return in 2022.

Brooks led the way with 1,029 yards and seven

Davis Brin

Jaden Muskrat

TDs, but the returning trio of Anthony Watkins (5-11, 202), Deneric Prince (6-0, 219) and Steven Anderson (6-2, 269) combined for 1,377 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Watkins, a transfer from Missouri, ran for 634 yards and four touchdowns, while averaging 7.4 yards per carry. Prince, who played in only 10 games due to an injury, gained 524 yards, 5.2 yards per attempt and five scores. The former Texas A&M back, Prince enters his senior campaign with 999 rushing yards over his two seasons with the Hurricane.

Anderson, a former Southern Miss running back, gained 219 yards on 4.9 yards per carry.

Depth doesn't end there for the Hurricane as junior Jordan Ford (5-10, 178), redshirt freshman Bill Clark (5-10, 189) and Virginia Tech transfer Tahj Gary (5-8, 220) are all capable ballcarriers.

Ford had an outstanding spring campaign catapulting him into a position to be a primary ballcarrier in 2022, while Clark also showed his explosiveness during the spring.

An NJCAA All-America performer in 2021, Ford rushed for a nation-leading 1,039 yards and 12 touchdowns. Jackson averaged over 122 yards per game and 10.6 yards per carry in his final two seasons at Cardinal Ritter (Mo.) College Prep.

Gary played only three games in his time at Virginia Tech, but before that racked up 3,200 career yards at Woodward (Ga.) Academy.

Two walk-ons, redshirt freshman Kyser Cannon (5-5, 178) and true freshman Cookie Desiderio (6-1, 216), will add depth for the Hurricane.

Offensive Line

The offensive line is perhaps the biggest question entering the 2022 campaign.

An influx of five transfers will join a talented, but not as experienced pool of underclassmen to offset the loss of seven linemen who had started at least one game throughout their careers.

Two linemen went in the NFL Draft, including underclassman Tyler Smith in the first round to the Dallas Cowboys and seventh round pick Chris Paul to the Washington Commanders. Smith started two years at left tackle and Paul was a four-year starter, the last two at right tackle.

Tulsa also lost fellow starters Dylan Couch to graduation, X'Zauvea Gadlin to transfer and center Gerard Wheeler to injury.

A total of seven returning players have seen playing time upfront with the most experienced among the group being Bryce Bray (6-4, 305), a junior who started eight games in 2021. Sophomore Jaden Muskrat (6-3, 307) was hampered with an injury last year, but has played in eight career games with his lone start coming at right tackle in the 2020 American Athletic Conference Championship game against Cincinnati.

Sophomore Dillon Wade (6-4, 290) and junior Will Farniok (6-3, 305) each filled in last year in key spots due to injury. Wade saw the majority of his snaps against No. 9-ranked Ohio State at right tackle, while Farniok played at the center position for the entire second half in Tulsa's Myrtle Beach Bowl victory at the center position.

Juniors Chester Baah (6-3, 308) and Jeremy Jones (6-5, 320) will battle for starting spots as well, along with sophomore Gabe Cantu (6-4, 298). Baah has seen playing time in 14 games, Jones 11 and Cantu seven for the Hurricane.

The Hurricane spent spring practice with linemen taking snaps at various positions creating versatility in the unit that will certainly be an asset this season.

FBS transfers looking to move into key roles on the front-line include Miami graduate transfer Kai-Leon Herbert (6-5, 305), Tennessee transfer Chris Akporoghene (6-3, 310), Oklahoma's Darrell Simpson (6-8, 348), Colorado State transfer Tai Marks (6-2, 300) and Illinois transfer Brody Wisecarver (6-5, 320).

The Hurricane has a solid group of walk-ons on the offensive front as well in the likes of redshirt freshmen Walter Young Bear (6-3, 299), Trent Robinson (6-0, 302) and Ramsey Kifolo (6-2, 268).

Tight Ends

The tight end position has been critical to Tulsa's offensive success in the past and nothing will change in 2022.

Returning starter Ethan Hall (6-3, 240) has been an integral part of the offense the last two seasons, catching 14 passes for 107 yards and two touchdowns in 25 career games. Hall caught 10 passes last season for 63 yards and one TD. Sophomore Bayne Tryon (6-2, 232) showed signs in the spring of becoming a big contributor for the Hurricane. Tryon saw action in 13 contests a year ago, but mainly on special teams.

Two newcomers – transfer Colby Powers (6-4, 231) and freshman Connor Vaughn (6-5, 248) – will join redshirt freshman walk-on Waylon Adams (6-3, 243) in competing for playing time at the tight end slot.

Powers spent last season redshirting at Arizona, while Vaughn caught 28 passes for 438 yards and three touchdowns at Flower Mound Marcus (Texas) High School.

Wide Receivers

Although Tulsa loses three of its top four receivers from a year ago, the 2022 group should still be effective and explosive.

Tulsa returns second-leading receiver JuanCarlos Santana (6-0, 183) from a season ago and 2020 leading receiver Keylon Stokes (5-10, 202) returns from injury. A group of young receivers look for a break-out season, while three transfers add size and speed.

Santana caught 51 passes for 689 yards and three touchdowns last year and comes into the 2022 season with 1,466 yards and eight TDs.

Stokes missed all but for games last year with an injury, catching 11 passes for 148 yards. He enters his final season with 2,550 career receiving yards and 11 touchdowns and is 793 yards shy of the school's all-time receiving record that has stood for nearly 60 years. In just nine games in the 2020 season, Stokes led Tulsa with 644 receiving yards on 46 receptions.

Sophomore Malachai Jones (6-0, 189) saw valuable playing time a season ago at receiver, starting three games and catching three passes for 47 yards. Former walk-on Kamdyn Benjamin (5-9, 172), who handled punt return duties for Tulsa a year ago, will be in the mix at receiver this season as well.

The redshirt freshmen duo of Scottie Alexander (6-2, 205) and Marquis Shoulders (5-10, 165) sat out last season, but both had impressive spring campaigns.

Tulsa added size to the receiving corps with three transfers. Isaiah Epps (6-2, 190) and Nick Rempert (6-2, 186) made a splash during spring drills. Epps, a transfer from Kentucky who played his prep football at local Jenks High School, had 31 career receptions for 365 yards with the Wildcats. Rempert began his career as a defensive back in 2019 at Northern Illinois, but spent two seasons at Tyler Junior College honing his receiving skills.

Ethan Hall

A third transfer is 6'4" Carl Chester (6-4, 195) from Trinity Valley Community College. In his only JUCO season, Chester caught nine passes for 104 yards.

Freshman newcomers to the receiver position include Keith Wheeler II (6-1, 175), who went through spring drills after graduating early from Atascocita (Texas) High School, Charles Hodge IV (6-1, 165) and Devan Williams (6-2, 189).

Hodge had 33 receptions for 676 yards and 10 TDs at Smithville (Texas) High School and Williams totaled 780 yards and 11 touchdowns at Temple (Texas) High School as prep seniors.

A pair of returning walk-ons Corbin Daniels (6-1, 191) and Jeshari Houston (5-9, 171) will add depth to the receiving corps.

THE DEFENSE

Defensive Line

Although losing three starters upfront, the Tulsa defensive line still brings back experience while adding two transfers to help shore up the front three.

As was the case a year ago, Tulsa's front three will be versatile with movement from inside to outside among the group.

Senior end Anthony Goodlow (6-5, 286) leads the way for the Hurricane after starting five games a year ago and leading Tulsa with six sacks. He totaled 28 stops and seven TFL on the season.

Goodlow is joined up front by Colorado transfer Jayden Simon (6-3, 344) and junior Everitt Rogers (6-2, 305), as the duo will hold down the nose guard position. Former walk-on Joe Anderson has become a solid fixture for the Hurricane defensive front and will most likely see playing time at all three spots.

Juan Carlos Santana

In addition to Simon, Tulsa added another FBS transfer in the likes of Mississippi State transfer Isuchukwu King Ani (6-4, 265). Unlike Simon though, Ani did not participate in spring drills as he joined the Hurricane in July.

Redshirt freshman Owen Ostroski (6-2, 256), from nearby Holland Hall High School, had a solid spring and will be in the rotation upfront for Tulsa. Another local prep product, Haydon Grant (6-5, 255), from Owasso High School, saw valuable time on the defensive front as a true freshman in 2020, but saw most of his playing time last season on special teams.

Rogers played in eight games and had 10 stops a year ago, while Anderson tallied 22 tackles and 3.5 TFL. Rogers missed most of spring practice, but Simon and Rogers joined Goodlow and Ostroski by having good spring seasons.

Bryce Alonso (6-3, 258), Cooper Laake (6-3, 264) and Darrias Murdock (6-4, 281) have each seen little play time in their first couple seasons, but will be looked upon to provide depth in 2022.

Rookies Tai Newhouse (6-3, 303) in the middle and Vontroy Malone (6-5, 245) on the outside brings solid size as true freshmen. Newhouse collected 92 tackles, 17 TFL and five sacks as a senior at Lawrence (Kan.) Free State High School. Malone totaled 152 tackles, 35 TFL and 15 sacks in 28 career games at Brazoswood (Texas) High School.

Tulsa walk-ons Carter Renfro (6-0, 250) and Gabe Lyon (5-8, 226) add depth.

Linebackers

The linebacker corps has two graduate players and one senior holding down the three starting spots heading into the 2022 season.

Senior Justin Wright (6-2, 244) shared the team-lead a year ago with 82 tackles and added 5.5 TFL and one interception for a touchdown, while forcing one fumble and recovering another.

Wright will be flanked by graduates Grant Sawyer (6-2, 220) and Jon-Michael Terry (6-3, 247) in the lineup.

A fifth-year player, Sawyer has played in 46 career games with eight starts and has tallied 70 tackles and 12 stops for -44 yards. Terry, who transferred from Oklahoma in the spring of 2021, played in four games and totaled eight tackles and two TFL before suffering a season-ending injury last year.

Junior Dorian Hopkins (6-0, 236) and senior

Jon-Michael Terry

Mitchell Kulkin (6-0, 213) also bring valuable playing time at the linebacker position to the Hurricane. Hopkins had 26 tackles and three TFL a year ago, while Kulkin tallied 13 stops.

Brian Johnson (6-1, 198), Bershard Glaspie (6-2, 209) and walk-on Trevor Reh (6-2, 229) have seen playing time for the Hurricane, but mainly on special teams. They will compete with redshirt freshman Jaden Moore (6-3, 220) for action at the linebacker positions this fall.

A pair of freshmen, Eli McWilliams (6-3, 225) and Zach Neilsen (6-1, 222) add depth to the position, as do walk-ons Sam Clayton (6-0, 205) and Seth Bullock (6-2, 219).

Defensive Secondary

Tulsa returns 10 lettermen to the secondary, including five players who have started at least one game in their careers.

The safety and nickel safety positions return six of those letterwinners.

Strong safety Kendarin Ray (6-4, 208) returns after missing the final seven games of the 2021 season with an injury. He totaled 33 stops in six games after leading the Hurricane in tackles and pass breakups a year earlier with 63 tackles and seven breakups. Free safeties LJ Wallace (6-2, 210) and Jaise Oliver (6-2, 212) saw extensive action a year ago with Wallace starting three contests and Oliver six, playing both safety spots.

Oliver totaled 39 tackles and five pass breakups, while Wallace tallied 27 total stops, including 21 solos, and had one pick-off.

Sophomore Sean O'Keefe (6-2, 194) and redshirt freshman Zion Hopes (6-3, 180) provide great size, length and athletic ability in adding quality depth at the safety positions.

At the nickel safety position, graduate Bryson Powers (6-0, 192) has been an important cog in the Tulsa secondary the past four seasons as a part-time starter, compiling 144 tackles, six pass breakups, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in 46 games.

Daiquain Jackson (5-10, 210) has played a vital role on Tulsa's special team's unit for the past four seasons and has also filled in at the nickel position. A newcomer to the spot is transfer Jehlen Cannady (6-0, 180) after playing in two games last year for the National Champion Georgia Bulldogs

Kendarin Ray

Tyon Davis

Bryson Powers

Lachlan Wilson

A pair of walk-ons, junior Hunter Rangel (5-9, 187), who saw playing time mostly on special teams last year, and redshirt freshman Dayne Hodge (5-10, 188), add depth to the nickel position.

Walk-ons Brad Hensley (6-0, 172) and Georderrial Williams (5-10, 173) will back-up at safety.

The cornerback position returns four letterwinners and one starter. Graduate Tyon Davis (6-0, 186) started all 13 games last season and was third on the team with 75 tackles, while sharing the team-lead with 10 pass break-ups.

The other three letterwinners are Tyree Carlisle (6-1, 180), Reggie Ellis (6-0, 193) and Kenney Solomon (6-0, 170). The trio combined for 30 tackles last year. A pair of sophomores, DaMarco Williams (6-5, 193) and Kaylon Washington (6-2, 213), bring great length to the corner slot and will be in the mix for playing time as well.

Wisconsin transfer Donte Burton (6-0, 185) adds experience to the position. In four years with the Badgers, Burton tallied 26 tackles and five pass breakups in 27 career games.

A pair of freshmen from northeastern Oklahoma, NuNu Campbell (6-0, 165) from Tulsa's Holland Hall High School and Beggs' Kyron Grayson (6-1, 165), bring solid prep credentials to the Hurricane corner position.

Redshirt freshman walk-on Canon Peters (5-11, 191) also adds depth.

THE SPECIAL TEAMS

Tulsa's special teams is in solid hands with the return of place-kicker Zack Long (6-2, 175) and punter Lachlan Wilson (6-3, 195).

Long was the nation's leader for field goal percentage by connecting on 22-of-23 field goals for 95.6 percent. His lone miss was from 50 yards against Cincinnati, coming after he had already connected on an earlier 50-yarder against the Bearcats.

Long's adventure to his fourth-team Phil Steele All-America recognition a year ago is not the normal path. He only played soccer in high school and didn't kick a football until joining the Tulsa football team as a walk-on in the spring of 2019.

Sophomore Tyler Tipton (6-2, 172) settled in as Tulsa's kickoff leader and back-up on placements a year ago. Tipton averaged 59.6 yards on 46 kickoffs in 2021. Fellow sophomore Alex Haight (5-10, 191) adds depth on placements and kickoffs.

Wilson didn't begin playing American football until arriving on campus in the fall of 2019.

Before coming to the states, Wilson played Australian football for the Heidelberg Football Club, where he started four years and played the full forward position, which requires punting for goals and passing.

Wilson ranked second in the American Athletic Conference last year for punting with a 45.6 average, while placing 21 punts inside the 20-yard line and had 23 punts covering 50+ yards.

Keylon Stokes (5-10, 202) and Kamdyn Benjamin (5-9, 172) are Tulsa's returning punt returners, while Stokes is joined by a bevy of talented skill players to handle kickoff returns this year.

Stokes ranks third all-time in school history for all-purpose yards with 4,148 career yards and has tallied 1,253 kickoff yards and 119 punt return yards. He handled punt returns for two years prior to his injury a year ago and that's when Benjamin took over and returned 16 punts for 56 yards.

Last year's kick return leader Anthony Watkins (5-11, 202) returns this season after returning 15 kicks for 311 yards and a 20.7 average.

Zack Long

Preseason Notes

- Tulsa has made a bowl game in each of the last two seasons and is coming off a 30-17 win over Old Dominion in the Myrtle Beach Bowl.
- Tulsa went 7-6 overall and 5-3 in the American Athletic Conference to finish in a third-place tie in 2021, marking the second straight top-3 conference finish for the Hurricane.
- In 2021, Tulsa played three of the nation's top-9 teams in the final AP poll and four teams in the top-20 – #4 Cincinnati (losing 28-20), #6 Ohio State (losing 41-20) and #9 Oklahoma State (falling 28-23) ... Tulsa also fell to #20 Houston.
- QB Davis Brin was the MVP of the 2021 Myrtle Beach Bowl after throwing for 285 yards and two touchdowns.
- Although Tulsa loses leading rusher Shamari Brooks (1,029 yards and 7 TDs), the Hurricane returns three ballcarriers that combined for 1,377 yards and 11 TDs ... Anthony Watkins had 634 yards and 4 TDs, Deneric Prince rushed for 524 yards and 5 TDs and Steven Anderson had 219 yards and 2 touchdowns.
- Keylon Stokes has 2,550 career receiving yards and 11 touchdowns and returns after missing nine games in 2021 with an injury ... he is 793 yards shy of tying a nearly 60 year record for most receiving yards in school history.
- LB Justin Wright was Tulsa's co-leader for tackles in 2021 with 82 stops and had 5.5 TFL and one interception for a 55-yard touchdown return.
- Starting SAF Kendarin Ray missed seven games in 2021 due to injury after leading the team for tackles in 2020 with 63 stops and PBUs with seven.
- PK Zack Long returns for his Covid year after converting 22-of-23 field goals in 2021 to rank first in the nation for field goal percentage at .956 percent.
- Tulsa has had 21 comeback wins in the Philip Montgomery era, including five come-from-behind victories in the 2021 season.

PHILIP MONTGOMERY

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

EIGHTH YEAR

Philip Montgomery is the first coach in school history to have two players selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, let alone in back-to-back years. The eighth year Tulsa head coach saw linebacker Zaven Collins selected by the Arizona Cardinals with the 16th pick in 2021 and offensive lineman Tyler Smith went to the Dallas Cowboys in the 2022 draft as the 26th overall selection.

Considered one of the brightest offensive minds in college football, Montgomery became Tulsa's 33rd head football coach on December 11, 2014.

In his first seven years, Montgomery has led the Golden Hurricane to four bowl games, has coached 40 all-conference performers and five All-Americans. The last three years marked the first time since 1992-94 that a Tulsa coach has had NFL draft picks. In 2020, Montgomery became the first coach in school history to defeat two top-20 teams in the same season — No. 11 UCF and No. 19 SMU.

Montgomery's 2021 team posted a 7-6 record against a schedule that featured four teams that finished the season among the nation's top-20 teams in the final Associated Press poll — No. 4 Cincinnati, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 7 Oklahoma State and No. 17 Houston. The Hurricane ended the season by winning the Myrtle Beach Bowl Championship against Old Dominion.

There was no more excitement for Tulsa football than what the 2020 season provided under Montgomery. He led Tulsa to an undefeated 6-0 regular season conference record, an appearance in the AAC Championship Game against No. 6-ranked Cincinnati and a return to a bowl game.

Montgomery brought excitement back to H.A. Chapman Stadium with his potent offensive style in his first year as the Tulsa head coach, transforming a previous two-win team into a squad that won six games in 2015. He led his first two teams to consecutive bowl game appearances and guided the 2016 team to a 10-win season, the 10th double-digit win campaign in school history.

In year one, Tulsa ranked among the nation's leaders the entire season for passing, scoring and total offense, while appearing in the 2015 Camping World Independence Bowl. Tulsa completed the 2015 season ranked 11th nationally in passing, 13th in total offense and 21st in scoring.

After that first year, Montgomery's second team took a giant leap by posting a 10-3 record, finishing in second place in the American Athletic Conference West Division and claiming a 55-10 victory over Central Michigan in the 2016 Miami Beach

Bowl. The 2016 Tulsa squad finished the season among the nation's best for total offense (527.0), scoring offense (42.5), rushing offense (261.7) and passing (265.3). The Hurricane ranked 4th for total offense, 7th for scoring, 8th for rushing and 30th for passing.

Tulsa's offense also established an NCAA record in 2016, becoming the first team in FBS/DI history with a 3,000-yard passer (Dane Evans), two 1,000-yard rushers (James Flanders and D'Angelo Brewer) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Keewan Lucas and Josh Atkinson).

Tulsa established 11 individual school records on offense in 2016, including nine career records, one single-season and one single-game record. It was also an offense that set a school record with eight 300+ rushing games. The defensive unit has shown marked improvement since day one of Montgomery's tenure and in 2018 held opponents to 120+ yards less than the year before while transitioning to a 3-3-5 defense.

The Hurricane fielded a young squad, both offensively and defensively, during the 2017 campaign and suffered setbacks against three top-25 teams, while also losing two games on last-second field goals. Tulsa's offense finished the 2017 campaign ranked 14th nationally in rushing with a 247.3 average per game, while D'Angelo Brewer became the school's and American Athletic Conference's all-time rushing leader.

Tulsa's 2018 offense showed signs of a bright future with a red-shirt freshman quarterback, two sophomores leading the running attack and another sophomore leading the receiving corps in yards and receptions. In 2019, a season-ending 49-24 road win at East Carolina gave the Hurricane a 4-8 record with earlier wins over San Jose State, Wyoming and UCF. An overtime loss at #24 SMU and a last-second loss against

#25 Memphis kept the Hurricane from bowl eligibility.

The 2020 season saw the Hurricane play in their first American Athletic Conference Championship Game in the school's first seven seasons as a league member. Tulsa defeated two nationally-ranked opponents for the first time in school history and the play of Zaven Collins propelled him into being honored as a Consensus All-American and the National Defensive Player of the Year, winning both the Chuck Bednarik and Bronko Nagurski Trophies.

Montgomery has compiled an overall 38-46 record after seven seasons.

In his tenure as a collegiate coach, Tulsa's 2021 Myrtle Beach Bowl appearance marked the 13th time in 19 years that Montgomery helped take a team to a Bowl game.

Before coming to Tulsa, Montgomery logged nearly two decades of coaching experience, including seven seasons (2008-14) at Baylor University, where he served as the offensive coordinator in his final four years for the Big 12 powerhouse. The Bears posted 10 or more wins in three of his last four seasons, including 11 victories in each of his last two years there. In 2014, Baylor produced an 11-1 record and ranked as high as No. 4 in the Associated Press poll.

A Texas native, Montgomery jumped from the high school level to the collegiate ranks in 2003 when he became the running backs and quarterback coach at the University of Houston. He then moved with head coach Art Briles to Baylor in 2008.

In his career, Montgomery has tutored several award-winning quarterbacks, including Big 12 Player of the Year Bryce Petty, Heisman Trophy winner Robert Griffin III, Baylor All-American Nick Florence, Conference USA MVP Kevin Kolb and Houston standout Case Keenum.

At Tulsa, quarterback Dane Evans completed his career in 2016 as the school's all-time passing, total offense and TD passes leader under Montgomery's tutelage.

Following Baylor's record-breaking 2013 Big 12 championship season, Montgomery was honored as the Offensive Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop.com and was named a finalist for the Broyles Award given to the nation's top assistant. In 2011, Montgomery was selected as the National Offensive Coordinator of the Year by Rivals.com and was the Quarterback Coach of the Year by SpeedTracs/FootballScoop.com.

Montgomery called plays for an offense ranked among the nation's top two in each of his final four seasons at Baylor. In 2014, Baylor's 581.3 yards per game and 48.8 points led the nation, while the Bears also led the nation in total offense in 2013 (618.8) and ranked second in 2012 (572.2) and 2011 (587.1).

For three straight seasons at Baylor, each with a different quarterback, Montgomery's pupils earned All-America honors. In 2013, Petty joined the list after throwing for 4,200 yards and 32 TDs. He finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting and was named the unanimous Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year. In 2012, Florence threw for a school-record 4,309 yards in 2012 and was named an honorable mention All-American by Sports Illustrated.

As backfield coach in 2011 Montgomery coached two All-Americans on an offense that set or tied 101 school records. The Bears completed that season with a 10-3 record and finished ranked 12th (Coaches) and 13th (AP) in the national polls.

In 2010, Griffin III set or tied 11 school records, including the then single-season passing mark with 3,501 yards. In all, Montgomery assisted a Baylor offense that established 55 school records and ranked 13th nationally (475.3) that season.

Montgomery coached a 2008 Baylor backfield that was as productive as any BU offense in more than a decade. The Bears total points (28.0), rushing yards (2,349) and rushing TDs (29) were the most since 1994, and the total offense average (376.4) was the highest since 1995. Griffin, who threw for 2,091 yards, rushed for 843 and accounted for 28 TDs in 2008, earned Freshman All-America honors under Montgomery's tutelage.

Montgomery arrived at Baylor following five seasons coaching the offensive backfield at Houston, and serving as co-offensive coordinator in 2006 and 2007. During his Houston tenure, the Cougar offense ranked as one of the nation's most prolific. In the 2007 regular season, Houston ranked fourth nationally in total offense (513.1), 10th in rushing offense (239.9), 17th in scoring offense (36.3) and 27th in passing offense (273.2).

Prior to joining the Cougars' coaching staff, Montgomery served one year as the offensive coordinator at Denton (Texas) High School and helped that team compile a 10-2 record and the 2002 Bi-district crown. Before that, Montgomery was the quarterback and backfield coach at Stephenville High School for six seasons. He was an integral part of a program that won back-to-back Class 4A Division II state championships in 1998 and 1999.

A four-year letterman at Tarleton State, Montgomery began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater, as he worked with the running backs and served as the summer weight room coordinator for two seasons.

Montgomery, 50, received his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports studies from Tarleton in 1995. He and his wife, Ashli, have two children: Cannon and Maci. Cannon played football for his father at Tulsa and Maci is a senior member of the Golden Hurricane spirit squad.

Luke Olson

Defensive Coordinator & Nickel
Safeties Coach

Luke Olson is in his 11th year on the Tulsa football coaching staff and is in his first season as defensive coordinator, a position he assumed in January 2022. Olson also coaches the nickel safety position for the Golden Hurricane.

A native Tulsan, Olson has been an integral part of the defensive staff that transitioned the Hurricane from a base 4-man front to a 3-3-5 alignment beginning in 2018. He spent the past four seasons coaching the nickel safeties and coordinated Tulsa's punt return unit in 2019. Olson first came to Tulsa as a graduate assistant coach in 2012 and then spent four years as defensive quality control coach before becoming nickel safeties coach in 2018.

During his time at Tulsa, Olson has been involved in every aspect of helping prepare the Tulsa defense from directing the offensive scout team, film break down, defensive signal-calling, coordinating the punt return team, assisting with coaching the defensive line and secondary and coaching STAR linebacker and the nickel safety positions. Olson also coordinated the Philip Montgomery Football Camps for three seasons.

Olson has helped lead Tulsa to five bowl games, including the 2012 AutoZone Liberty Bowl, 2015 Camping World Independence Bowl, 2016 Miami Beach Bowl, 2020 Armed Forces Bowl and this past season's Myrtle Beach Bowl. Olson also helped lead the Hurricane to two conference championship games during his tenure.

The 2021 Tulsa defense ranked among the top-5 in the American Athletic Conference for scoring defense, rush defense, total defense and interceptions. The Hurricane held the opposition to 369.8 yards per game to rank 56th among 130 teams nationally for total defense. The nickel safety position accounted for 81 tackles, four pass breakups and one forced fumble in 2021.

Tulsa's 2020 defense was ranked second in The American for total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass defense and pass defense efficiency. Tulsa also ranked among the nation's best defenses for a variety of statistical categories. The nickel safety position was responsible for 72 tackles, five pass breakups and four forced fumbles in the 2020 season. In 2019, the position totaled 81 total tackles, three pass break-ups, three forced fumbles and one interception.

After transitioning to a 3-3-5 alignment, the Hurricane finished the 2018 season with the nation's 8th best pass defense, while also allowing opponents 120+ yards less in total offense than a year earlier.

In 2016, the Tulsa defense held opponents to 10 points and 110.1 yards fewer than in the 2015 season. Tulsa's defense also forced 21 turnovers with 15 of those takeaways leading to 101 points in the 2016 campaign.

Olson began his coaching career at Tulsa in 2012 as a graduate assistant coach assisting with the defensive line for one year (2012) and assisting with coaching the defensive backs the next two seasons. (2013-14).

When Olson helped coach the Tulsa defensive line in 2012, the Hurricane defense ranked among the nation's leaders for quarterback sacks, while defensive linemen totaled 32 of 53 team sacks for -205 yards. The Hurricane won the 2012 Conference USA Championship and AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Before coming to Tulsa, Olson was a four-year starter (2008-11) at Southern Nazarene University, where he played free safety and linebacker. Olson was an Academic all-Central States Football League (CSFL) selection each year, while earning all-conference accolades in 2009.

Olson earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Southern Nazarene in 2012, while receiving a master's degree in May 2014 from Tulsa in Methods in Educational Research.

Olson, 33, played prep football at Tulsa's Union High School.

He and his wife, Keisha, have two sons: Lane and Wells.

Alma Mater: Southern Nazarene '12

Hometown: Tulsa, Okla.

Playing Experience: Was a four-year starter at Southern Nazarene (2008-11), playing safety and linebacker.

Calvin Lowry

Co-Passing Game
Coordinator,
Receivers & Special
Teams Coach

EIGHTH YEAR

Calvin Lowry is in his eighth season coaching the Golden Hurricane receivers and special teams. He was promoted to Co-Passing Game Coordinator prior to the 2021 season. A three-year NFL veteran, Lowry joined The University of Tulsa football coaching staff on January 2, 2015.

He has been a part of four bowl teams with the Hurricane, including the 2015 Camping World Independence Bowl, 2016 Miami Beach Bowl, 2020 Armed Forces Bowl and 2021 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

In his tenure, Lowry has had six Hurricane five receivers surpass 1,000 yards in a single season. In his first three years, Lowry tutored three receivers – Keevan Lucas, Keyarris Garrett and Josh Atkinson – who completed their careers ranked among the top-7 receiving leaders in school history. Lucas and Garrett each surpassed 3,000 yards in their careers, while Atkinson had 2,600+ receiving yards.

In 2015, Garrett was the nation's leading receiver with 1,588 yards for a 122.2-yard average per game, while Lucas and Atkinson each ranked among the top-35 nationally in 2016. Garrett (2015) and Lucas (2016) earned first-team American Athletic Conference honors.

Keylon Stokes became the fifth 1,000-yard receiver in a season under Lowry when he hauled in 62 passes for 1,040 yards in 2019. In the 2021 campaign, Josh Johnson surpassed 1,000 yards on the season with a team-bests of 1,114 receiving yards and six touchdowns.

Before coming to Tulsa, Lowry spent three seasons at Baylor University, including two years as an assistant director of operations and one as a graduate assistant coach. He worked with Baylor's offense and special teams in that one season.

Previously, Lowry spent one season at St. Andrew's Episcopal High School in Austin, Texas, where he coached wide receivers, secondary and special teams in 2011.

A former All-Big Ten safety, Lowry spent three full seasons in the NFL, where he played special teams and safety for the Tennessee Titans (2006 and 2007), Denver Broncos (2008) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2008). He also spent the 2009 training camp with the Detroit Lions. Lowry was a fourth-round draft pick of the Titans in 2006. He played in 43 games and totaled 86 tackles, 13 pass deflections and started 14 games in his NFL career. Lowry's best season statistically came in the 2007 season when he collected 57 tackles, including 42 solos, and had two interceptions for Tennessee.

A four-year letterman and starter at Penn State, Lowry was a first-team All-Big Ten safety in 2005 as a senior after collecting 79 tackles and four interceptions. He totaled nine career interceptions and was PSU's leading punt returner for three seasons. In 2002, Lowry became the first true freshman to start for legendary Head Coach Joe Paterno.

Lowry was a four-year standout at Douglas Byrd High School in Fayetteville, N.C., as a wide receiver and defensive back. A native of Fort Hood, Texas, Lowry called Fayetteville home from age 3 through college.

Lowry received his bachelor's degree in Crime, Law and Justice from Penn State in 2007. He also completed his master's degree in educational leadership from Penn State in 2020.

He and his wife, Annie, have two sons: Calvin Jr. and Klay.

Alma Mater: Penn State '07

Hometown: Fayetteville, NC

Playing Experience: Was a four-year letterman and starter at Penn State (2002-05) and earned first-team all-Big 10 honors as a senior.

Beau Trahan

Co-Passing Game
 Coordinator &
 Quarterbacks Coach

SEVENTH YEAR

Beau Trahan enters his seventh season as a member of The University of Tulsa football coaching staff, joining the Golden Hurricane in January 2016. He serves as Co-Passing Game Coordinator, a position he was promoted to in July 2021, while also coaching the Tulsa quarterbacks.

Two of his proteges rank among the school's career top-10 passers. Dane Evans is Tulsa's all-time leader with 11,680 yards and Zach Smith with 5,226 yards in just two seasons is eighth on the school's career passing chart.

In 2016, Evans became the school's career leader for passing yards, completions, attempts, 300-yard passing games, total offense and TD passes. Evans threw for 3,348 yards and 32 touchdowns during the 2016 season under Trahan's tutelage, thus helping the Hurricane post a 10-3 record and win the Miami Beach Bowl that year. It was also an offense that set an NCAA record by becoming the first FBS/DI school to have a 3,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard rushers and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

Trahan tutored freshman quarterback starters in two consecutive seasons, 2017 and 2018. In the 2018 campaign, redshirt freshman Seth Boomer showed steady progress by completing 61.2-percent of his passes for 945 yards, seven TDs and two interceptions in Tulsa's final five games.

In 2019, junior Zach Smith threw for 3,279 yards and 19 touchdowns with a 131.9 pass efficiency rating after sitting out a transfer year in 2018. Smith averaged 216.3 yards per game with 13 TDs in the 2020 shortened nine-game season.

Last year, the Hurricane offense ranked second in the American Athletic Conference and 28th in the nation for total offense with 443.5 yards per game, while ranking 34th nationally in rushing and 53rd for passing.

Before coming to Tulsa, Trahan spent eight years at Baylor University. He spent his final two seasons as the Bears' assistant athletic director in charge of high school relations and coordinator of recruiting for football. Before that, Trahan served as Baylor's director of football operations for three seasons and previously was the director of high school relations for three years.

A four-year letterman at the University of Texas (1999-2002), Trahan began his collegiate playing career as a quarterback and then moved to safety. He returned to the quarterback position in 2001 and 2002. Trahan served as a team captain during his senior season of 2002.

Following his playing career, Trahan launched his collegiate coaching career in 2003 as a graduate assistant on the defensive side of the ball at Texas. He assisted with coaching the defensive backs and special teams. From UT, Trahan joined the coaching staff at the University of Houston in 2004 as an offensive graduate assistant coach, coaching under Philip Montgomery. He coached tight ends for the Cougars and assisted with coaching the special teams.

From 2005-08, Trahan was an assistant coach at Dickinson (Texas) High School, where he coached the quarterbacks and served as co-offensive coordinator under his father, legendary Warren "Bull" Trahan.

Trahan received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from the University of Texas in 2002. He and his wife, Lauren, have two daughters: Abigail and Anne.

Alma Mater: Texas '02

Hometown: Bay City, Texas

Playing Experience: Lettered four seasons at the University of Texas (1999-2002), where he started as a quarterback and played safety and special teams.

Jesse Williams

Defensive Run
 Game Coordinator &
 Defensive Line Coach

SECOND YEAR

A college coaching veteran of 33 years, Jesse Williams serves as The University of Tulsa's defensive run game coordinator and defensive line coach. He joined Golden Hurricane coaching staff in February 2021 as defensive line coach and added the responsibility of run game coordinator in January 2022.

Williams has coached the defensive line for all 33 of those seasons. He started his career at his alma mater, Sonoma State, in 1988, and has also coaches at Portland State, Eastern Washington, Holy Cross, San Jose State, Colorado State, Nebraska-Kearney, New Mexico State, Ohio, Kansas and his most recent stint at Eastern Kentucky.

In 2021, Williams coached a Tulsa defensive front that was the first line of defense in limiting opposing offenses to 142.3 rushing yards per game to rank 48th nationally for run defense. His linemen combined to total 196 tackles, 41 stops for lost yardage and 17.5 quarterback sacks.

Williams came to Tulsa after spending the 2019 season at Eastern Kentucky. He coached FCS first-team All-American and Ohio Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year Aaron Patrick in 2019. Williams also tutored Taquan Evans to second team all-conference recognition. Evans' eight sacks in 2019 were the ninth most in one season in program history.

He was part of a coaching staff in 2019 that helped ECU's defense finish second in the OVC in points allowed, second in total defense, second in rushing defense and third in passing defense. Eastern Kentucky was fifth in the nation in third down defense, seventh in fourth down defense, 11th in red-zone defense, 15th in rushing defense, 16th in total defense and 22nd in scoring defense in 2019.

Before his time at ECU, Williams spent two seasons as the defensive line coach at Kansas (2017-18). Under Williams' guidance, defensive tackle Daniel Wise earned first-team All-Big 12 honors in 2017 and 2018. Defensive end Dorance Armstrong Jr. was a second team all-conference honoree in 2017. Wise had one of the best seasons of any defensive lineman in the Big 12 in 2017 as he turned in 16 tackles-for-loss, including seven sacks. He ranked second in the Big 12 in tackles for a loss and 11th in the FBS rankings.

Williams arrived at Kansas after spending five seasons (2012-16) as the defensive line coach at Ohio. The 2016 Bobcat defense produced 104 tackles-for-loss, manufactured 44 sacks and held opponents to 104.4 yards rushing per game. Williams' defensive line broke through blocking schemes for 59.5 tackles for a loss and sacked the quarterback 31.5 times.

Williams tutored the 2016 Mid-American Conference (MAC) Defensive Player of the Year Tarell Basham to a team-high 11.5 sacks. Williams also helped Casey Sayles to third team All-MAC honors with six sacks and 7.5 tackles for a loss.

In 2014, the Bobcat defense was stout against the run allowing only 132 yards on the ground per game and holding opponents to under 100 yards in six games. Williams' defensive line recorded 12 sacks. In 2013, Williams directed a defensive line that accounted for 36 sacks, which tied for 20th in the country and ranked second in the MAC.

Basham made an immediate impact as a rookie, totaling 7.5 sacks, which tied for fifth all-time for a single season. He was named to the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Freshmen All-America Team.

In his first season at Ohio, Williams led a defensive line unit that combined for 249 tackles, 39 tackles-for-loss and 14.5 sacks on a team that played in and won the Independence Bowl.

Before his tenure at Ohio, Williams was the defensive line coach at New Mexico State (2009-11), Nebraska-Kearney (2007-08), Colorado State (2007), Holy Cross (1996-97), Eastern Washington (1995), Portland State (1992-94) and Sonoma State (1988-91). He also served as the defensive ends coach at Colorado State (1999-06) and San Jose State (1998). Williams also doubled as the special team's coordinator at Nebraska-Kearney, Eastern Washington, Holy Cross and San Jose State.

During his career, Williams has recruited California, Georgia, Illinois, Louisiana, Michigan, Texas, Florida and Ohio. He played collegiately at Riverside City College and Sonoma State University.

Williams and his wife, Felicia, have three sons, Jessien, Jesse III and Albert.

Alma Mater: Sonoma State '88

Hometown: Rubidoux, Calif.

Playing Experience: Played at Riverside City College and Sonoma State University

Jayden Everett

Running Backs Coach

SECOND YEAR

Jayden Everett is in his second season after joining The University of Tulsa coaching staff as running backs coach in March 2021.

In his initial season, Tulsa running backs gained 2,361 yards and was led by 1,000-yard rusher and the school's second-ranked rusher of all-time Shamari Brooks. The Hurricane offense ranked third in the American Athletic Conference and 34th nationally for rushing in 2021 with an average of 192 yards per game.

Everett came to Tulsa following two seasons (2019-20) as the running backs coach at the University of Akron. Before that, Everett served as the running backs coach at Central Michigan for two seasons (2017-18).

At Akron, Everett helped develop a strong core of running backs, most notable being Teon Dollard, who became the first Zip to earn first-team All-MAC honors at running back in school history, and only the fourth Akron offensive player to do so. Dollard rushed for 666 yards and six touchdowns on 112 carries.

In 2017, Central Michigan's Jonathan Ward emerged as a budding star under Everett's tutelage, rushing for 1,019 yards, rolling up 470 yards in receptions and scoring 13 touchdowns. He became the first CMU back to rush for 1,000 yards since 2014. Ward, who ranked second in the MAC with an average of 5.7 yards per carry, was among a slew of talented returnees with whom Everett worked.

A 2018 USA Today preseason Top 25 running back, he was ranked No. 21, one of only two backs to rush for 1,000 yards and catch passes for over 500 yards in 2017. Ward is now a member of the Arizona Cardinals backfield.

Everett's most notable recruit at Central Michigan was running back Lew Nichols Jr., who became the 2020 MAC Freshman of the Year.

Before joining the Chippewas, Everett spent four seasons (2013-16) at his alma mater, Indiana State, as running backs coach. He also served as ISU's recruiting coordinator in 2016. Everett coached standout running back Shakir Bell, who completed his career ranked second in school history with 4,214 rushing yards. He also developed 2015 Missouri Valley Conference Newcomer of the Year Roland Genesy as well as 2013 MVFC All-Newcomer LeMonte Booker. Everett recruited first-team All-Missouri Valley performer Jaquan Keys.

In 2014, Everett helped ISU make the school's first postseason appearance in 30 years as the Sycamores advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs.

Everett spent two seasons (2011-12) at Hutchinson Community College as the recruiting coordinator and running backs coach. He helped develop first round NFL Draft pick and All-Pro wide receiver Cordarrelle Patterson, who went on to play at the University of Tennessee before being drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the first round.

Everett played linebacker for three seasons at Indiana State, where he was the team's co-Most Valuable Player and defensive captain as a senior. An All-Missouri Valley Conference Honorable Mention selection, Everett recorded 102 tackles as a senior, which ranked among the nation's Top 20.

Everett earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Indiana State in 2009.

A native of Newton, Kan., Everett and his wife Susan have two children: Vera and Kaenan.

Alma Mater: Indiana State '09

Hometown: Newton, Kan.

Playing Experience: Played linebacker at Indiana State for three seasons and served as defensive captain his senior season

Steve Farmer

Offensive Line Coach

FIRST YEAR

Steve Farmer joined The University of Tulsa football coaching staff as offensive line coach in January 2022.

Farmer brought 23 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Hurricane, including nine seasons as an offensive coordinator. He comes to Tulsa following three seasons (2019-21) coaching the offensive front at Texas Tech.

Five different Texas Tech offensive linemen earned six All-Big 12 honors in three seasons under Farmer's tutelage. In his first two seasons at Tech, the Red Raider offensive line ranked among the top 30 nationally for fewest sacks allowed.

Three of Farmer's linemen went onto the NFL – Terence Steele signed as an undrafted free agent with the Dallas Cowboys following the 2019 season, Jack Anderson was selected in the seventh round of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills and Dawson Deaton was a seventh-round pick by the Cleveland Browns in 2022. Steele became only the fourth offensive tackle in the Super Bowl era and the ninth in NFL history to start at least 14 games as an undrafted free agent when he started at right tackle for the Cowboys in 2020.

Previously, Farmer spent three seasons at Utah State (2016-18) in a similar capacity before moving to Texas Tech with Head Coach Matt Wells.

Under his guidance, Utah State boasted one of the top offensive lines in 2018 with an FBS national ranking of fourth place for fewest sacks allowed, giving up only 10 sacks despite attempting 465 passes on the year. USU was one of only three teams in the country to rank in the top 10 for fewest sacks allowed and the top 30 for pass attempts. The Aggies scored 47.5 points per game in 2018 to rank second in the nation behind No. 1 Oklahoma.

Utah State closed the 2018 season at 11-2 overall, matching the single-season school record for wins. The Aggies ended the year at No. 21 in the final Amway Coaches' poll and 22nd in the Associated Press poll.

Over his three-year tenure, Farmer tutored a total of nine offensive linemen who earned All-Mountain West accolades and had two players sign NFL free agent contracts.

Prior to joining Utah State, Farmer spent six seasons as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Louisiana-Monroe from 2010-15, which was his second coaching stint with the Warhawks. Farmer was also on Monroe's staff from 2004-08, where he coached the offensive line. He also added the responsibilities as run game coordinator in 2006, co-offensive coordinator in 2007 and served as offensive coordinator in 2008.

In his second stint at Monroe, Farmer mentored 17 offensive players who garnered various Sun Belt all-conference honors. During his first stay in Monroe, Farmer produced one of the best offensive lines in school history as his 2007 unit paved the way for Calvin Dawson, a two-time Sun Belt rushing champion, to his best season as a Warhawk with 1,414 yards on the ground.

The Warhawks led the Sun Belt in fewest sacks allowed from 2004-06 after combining to surrender only 28 during that stretch. Monroe ranked second nationally in the FBS with seven sacks allowed in 2004, fourth with only eight sacks a year later and fifth in 2006 with 13 sacks given up.

In between his two stints in Monroe, Farmer returned to his alma mater, Illinois State, where he served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 2009.

Farmer had his first offensive line coaching position at Eastern Illinois for two seasons (2001-02), as his unit allowed only 17 sacks in those two years. He then moved to coach the offensive line at Eastern Michigan for the 2003 season.

Farmer began his coaching career at his alma mater following graduation. He coached defensive tackles in his first season (1999) at Illinois State, helping the Redbirds reach the NCAA FCS semifinals, and in his second season coached the tight ends.

As a student-athlete, Farmer was a first-team All-Gateway Conference performer at center for Illinois State in 1998 and a member of the Redbirds' 1998 FCS playoff team. He began his collegiate career at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M, where he was a two-year letterwinner and team captain in 1996.

Farmer earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Illinois State in 1999. He and his wife, Amy, have a daughter, Rebekah, and a son, Luke.

Alma Mater: Illinois State '98

Hometown: Coweta, Okla.

Playing Experience: Played two seasons at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M and two years at Illinois State, earning all-conference honors in 1998.

Gary McGraw

Cornerbacks Coach

FIRST YEAR

Gary McGraw joined The University of Tulsa football coaching staff as cornerbacks coach in February 2022.

McGraw has spent 20 seasons coaching on defense, mainly in the secondary but has also coached linebackers. He has also served as the recruiting coordinator at three schools, defensive passing game coordinator and special team's coordinator at two schools and spent three seasons as a defensive coordinator.

McGraw came to Tulsa following six seasons coaching cornerbacks and serving as special teams coordinator in his final three years at Sam Houston State. He also served as defensive passing game coordinator in his final two seasons with the Bearkats.

While at SHSU, the Bearkats posted a 58-14 record, won three conference titles and advanced to the NCAA FCS playoffs four times. The 2020 team captured the FCS National Championship while compiling a perfect 10-0 record.

Sam Houston State had one of the nation's top defensive units during McGraw's tenure, ranking among the top teams in numerous statistical categories. In 2017 and 2020, SHSU ranked in the top-10 for interceptions. McGraw tutored five-year starters Zyon McCollum and Jaylen Thomas. McCollum, a four-time All-America selection, was a 2022 fifth round draft pick by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, while Thomas earned all-conference honors for three seasons.

Before his stint at Sam Houston, McGraw spent five seasons as the defensive secondary coach and special team's assistant at Midwestern State. He coached six All-Americans, eight all-region and 17 all-conference performers, while Midwestern completed a 42-12 record and won three Lone Star Conference titles.

The 2015 Midwestern team went 10-2 with three of McGraw's defensive backs –cornerbacks Dominique Rouse, Dominique Williams and safety Marqui Christian – each earning All-America honors. Christian also garnered the 2015 Lone Star Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Defensive Back of the Year and the National Defensive Player of the Year honors, in addition to becoming McGraw's first NFL Draft pick as the Arizona Cardinals' 5th round selection.

Previously, he spent the 2011 season as the secondary coach at Ferris State, where he coached two all-conference defensive backs. Before that, McGraw coached six years at Quincy University, including his final two seasons as the defensive coordinator.

At Quincy, McGraw coached defensive backs and linebackers where he tutored three NAIA All-Americans and 24 all-league performers. He coached the secondary in 2004-2007, while handling the linebackers in his last two years.

McGraw's recruiting areas have included San Antonio, Austin, Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston and East Texas in the state of Texas, as well as the St. Louis area, northern Illinois, California and Florida High Schools. He has also recruited California and Texas junior colleges.

He began his coaching career at Marist (Ore.) High School in 2002 as co-defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator. In two seasons, Marist posted a 23-1 record and won the 2003 Oregon Class 3A State Championship.

A 2003 graduate of Oregon, McGraw played safety for the Ducks in 2000 and 2001, helping the team win back-to-back PAC-10 championships, compiling a 21-3 record and winning both the Holiday and Fiesta Bowls. The 2001 team finished the season ranked second in the final Associated Press poll. He began his collegiate playing career at Chabot (Calif.) Junior College, where he finished his two-year career as the nation's leader for interceptions with 12 in his sophomore campaign.

A native of Fremont, Calif., McGraw earned his bachelor's degree from Oregon in psychology and his master's in educational leadership from Quincy in 2011.

McGraw has been inducted into the Hall of Fame at both Oregon and Chabot JC. His wife's name is Christine.

Kendrick Shaver

Safeties Coach

SECOND YEAR

Kendrick Shaver is in his second season as safeties coach at The University of Tulsa. Shaver was appointed to his position in March 2021.

In 2021, the safety position recorded 137 tackles, six of Tulsa's 11 interceptions and 11 pass break-ups. Tulsa's appearance in the 2021 Myrtle Beach Bowl was the ninth bowl game that Shaver has been a part of a coaching staff making a postseason appearance.

A native Oklahoman, Shaver has coached safeties, cornerbacks and outside linebackers in his career and has also served a stint as co-defensive coordinator since beginning his collegiate coaching career in 2004. Shaver spent two seasons (2018-19) at Washington State, where he served as the Cougar's safeties and NICKEL coach.

He was a part of two bowl games at Washington State, including the 2018 Alamo Bowl and 2019 Cheez-It Bowl. In 2018, Shaver's group of safeties and Nickels combined for six interceptions and 10 tackles-for-loss while helping the Cougars finish fourth in the Pac-12 in total defense, fourth in pass defense and tied for second in takeaways.

Prior to WSU, Shaver coached seven seasons (2011-17) at Utah State, including the final two as the co-defensive coordinator. Shaver spent six seasons coaching in the secondary before working with outside linebackers in 2017. He was part of a Utah State program that played in a school-record six-straight bowl games, to go along with a 2012 Western Athletic Conference championship.

In his final two seasons, the Aggie defense ranked among the top-20 nationally in fewest passing yards allowed, finishing the 2017 season ranked 19th for allowing 182.5 passing yards per game. The Aggies also forced 29 turnovers that season to rank sixth nationally.

Throughout his seven years on the Aggies' defensive staff, Utah State was at or near the top of the Mountain West Conference and among the top third of the national defensive leaders in several categories. In 2013 and 2014, the USU defense ranked seventh and 12th, respectively, in scoring defense. He also mentored future NFL draft selections Will Davis (2013) and Nevin Lawson (2014).

Shaver was named FootballScoop.com's Co-Defensive Backs National Coach of the Year in 2012. He also served an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Oakland Raiders in 2014.

Before his appointment at Utah State, Shaver spent four years (2007-10) as the secondary coach at Northern Colorado. He also served as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M (2006), and defensive and special teams graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky (2004-05).

Shaver began his coaching career at Hillcrest (Mo.) High School, where he coached defensive backs and wide receivers in 2002.

A native of Eufaula, Okla., Shaver played two seasons (1998-99) at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College before transferring to Missouri State, where he was a free safety and cornerback in 2000 and 2001. Shaver spent the 2003 season playing for the Sioux Falls Storm of the NIFL before coaching full-time.

Shaver graduated from Missouri State with a bachelor's degree in business in 2002. He earned his master's degree in physical education in 2005 from Eastern Kentucky.

Alma Mater: Missouri State '02

Hometown: Eufaula, Okla.

Playing Experience: Played two seasons at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M and finished his career at Missouri State.

Craig Suits

Linebackers Coach

FIRST YEAR

Former Tulsa linebacker and defensive assistant coach Craig Suits rejoined the Golden Hurricane coaching staff as linebackers coach in February 2022.

After a four-year career starting for the Hurricane at linebacker (2014-17), Suits spent three seasons as a defensive assistant (2018-2020), tutoring under former defensive coordinators Bill Young and Joe Gillespie. He spent his first year as a defensive intern and then two seasons as the defensive quality control coach, where he worked with the linebackers.

Suits played in two bowl games with the Hurricane – 2015 Camping World Independence Bowl and 2016 Miami Beach Bowl – while coaching in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl in 2020.

Following a redshirt season in 2013, Suits completed his playing career in 2017, playing in 48 career games with 47 starts. He finished his career with 279 tackles, 31.5 TFL for -69 yards, six pass breakups, five interceptions and five forced fumbles. In 2017, Suits totaled 72 stops and 9.5 TFL as a senior.

Suits was a Freshman All-America selection by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) in 2014. He compiled 81 tackles, 7.5 TFL, four pass break-ups and two forced fumbles that season.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Suits played his prep football at Mesquite Poteet High School, where he also started all four seasons at linebacker. He was a two-time first-team all-district performer and was named to the Dallas Morning News Top 100 as a senior.

Suits earned his bachelor's degree in exercise & sports sciences in 2016 and completed his master's degree in math & science education from Tulsa as well.

He and his wife, Cassidy, have a son, Casen.

Alma Mater: Tulsa '16

Hometown: Dallas, Texas

Playing Experience: Was a four-year starting linebacker at Tulsa (2014-17) and earned 2014 FWAA Freshman All-America honors.

Luke Wells

Tight Ends Coach

FIRST YEAR

A veteran offensive coach, Luke Wells, joined The University of Tulsa football coaching staff as tight ends coach in June 2022.

A native of Sallisaw, Okla., Wells spent three seasons at Texas Tech, coaching the tight ends and inside receivers, before moving to Tulsa. He coached three players to Big 12 honors during his Red Raider tenure.

Before his Texas Tech stint, Wells spent six years at Utah State. He served as the Aggies' co-offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator from 2013-16, working with the tight ends the first three years and then quarterbacks in 2016. He shifted back to overseeing Utah State's tight ends and inside receivers his final two years, helping the Aggies boast one of the nation's top offenses.

Utah State won 44 games and played in five bowl games during Wells' six seasons, which was highlighted by three 10-win seasons. The Aggies finished 10-4 in only his second season on staff and then added an 11-2 campaign in 2018, matching the school's single season record for wins.

Utah State closed the 2018 season ranked 21st in the final Amway Coaches' poll and 22nd in the Associated Press poll. It marked only the fourth time in school history that the Aggies, who climbed as high as No. 13 during the regular season, ended a year among the top-25 schools in the AP poll.

Offense was a prevalent theme of Utah State's success during Wells' final two seasons as the Aggies averaged 47.5 points per game in 2018, which trailed only Oklahoma among schools nationally. The Aggies racked up 618 points on the season, snapping the Mountain West and Utah State single-season records in the process.

Wells mentored one of the top tight ends in Utah State history late in his tenure in Wyatt Houston, who completed his career with 86 receptions for 933 yards and nine touchdowns, all of which ranked second all-time among Aggie tight ends. Houston, who earned honorable mention All-Mountain West honors as a senior in 2017, went on to sign a free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers.

Previously, Wells coached wide receivers and tight ends at Iowa State for four years (2009-12), helping the Cyclones to one of their most-successful stretches in their history. Iowa State played in three bowl games during his four seasons, beginning with a 14-13 victory over Minnesota in the 2009 Insight Bowl.

Wells arrived in Ames following six seasons at Louisiana-Monroe where he began as an offensive graduate assistant in 2003 before being promoted to wide receivers and tight ends coach a year later. He served as the Warhawks' recruiting coordinator over his final two seasons, helping Monroe sign its highest-rated class in school history at that time.

Wells earned his first full-time coaching position managing the wide receivers at Denton High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex in 2002. He was previously a student assistant at Oklahoma for the first three seasons of Bob Stoops' tenure where the Sooners claimed the 2000 Big 12 Conference crown and the BCS National Championship.

Wells earned his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in secondary education in 2002. He and his wife, Coby, have a son, Walker, and a daughter, Kinsley.

Alma Mater: Oklahoma '02

Hometown: Sallisaw, Okla.

Brad Carson
PRESIDENT

Brad Carson became The University of Tulsa's 21st president on July 1, 2021. Having built a distinguished career in public service, law and education, before becoming president of TU, Carson was a professor at the University of Virginia, teaching courses related to national security and public sector innovation. He also served as a senior advisor at Boston Consulting Group.

In 2015, President Barack Obama appointed Carson acting under secretary of defense for personnel and readiness at the U.S. Department of Defense. There, he oversaw the human resources, military readiness, education, training and health care of the nearly 5 million service members, civilian employees and their dependents within the Department of Defense and managed an internal organization of 30,000 employees.

Prior to that, Carson served as the under secretary of the U.S. Army, where he managed the daily operations of the largest military service, and as general counsel of the U.S. Army, where he oversaw the service's worldwide legal operations.

Carson is widely published and is a noted authority on national security, energy policy and American politics. From 2001 to 2005, Carson served two terms as a U.S. congressman, representing Oklahoma's 2nd District. Later, he was appointed to the faculty of TU's Collins College of Business and College of Law, where he taught courses on energy policy, property law, negotiation and game theory, globalization and law and literature. In 2008, Carson deployed during Operation Iraqi Freedom as an intelligence officer and was awarded the Bronze Star for his service.

Carson brings to TU a strong commitment to diversity and inclusion, having spent most of his career working, directly or indirectly, in this area. This interest arises naturally from his childhood growing up on Indian reservations around the country and, later, representing the congressional district that is home to the Cherokee Nation. Carson served as president and chief executive officer of Cherokee Nation Businesses, where he refocused the organization's corporate strategy and governance and significantly increased revenues.

Raised in Oklahoma, Carson received his BA from Baylor University and was a Rhodes Scholar at the University of Oxford. He then went on to earn a JD at the University of Oklahoma.

Rick Dickson
VICE PRESIDENT
& DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Rick Dickson, a native Tulsan and TU graduate, returned to his alma mater in September 2020 to lead the athletics department, serving as interim director. In February 2021, the interim tag was removed from Dickson's title.

On August 18, 2021, Dickson agreed to a three-year contract as Tulsa's Vice President & Director of Athletics. He previously served as the school's Athletic Director from 1990 to 1994.

Dickson's prolific career has also included leading athletic programs at Washington State University (1994-2000) and Tulane University (2000-2015). Programs under Dickson's guidance has seen dozens of conference championships and scores well above the national average in the NCAA's Academic Performance Rates.

Dickson's leadership, business acumen, energy and fundraising ability has resulted in a career that has covered 29 years as a collegiate athletic director. His drive to provide student-athletes the tools and support they need to grow academically, athletically and socially is at the forefront of his commitment as an administrator.

Upon his TU return, Dickson was immediately dealt with handling the COVID-19 crisis and positioning the athletic department for success on the field, the classroom and in the community. He has made positive strides in re-energizing alumni and community, while also reinventing the new Golden Hurricane Champions Fund. Tulsa's fundraising total increased by 25-percent each year under Dickson's leadership. He oversaw the complete renovation of the strength & conditioning facility, now the F.A. Dry Sports Performance Center, and has instituted the Pathway to Sports Academy. On the field, Tulsa teams have won six conference championships and played for four more league titles in the last two seasons.

For the first time, TU athletics instituted a spring Hall of Fame Weekend in April 2022, an event that included the Golden Champions Fund Gala and the annual Hall of Fame Induction ceremony.

Dickson has become entrenched in the community. He currently serves on the Greenwood Chamber of Commerce Advisory Board and Tulsa Regional Tourism Board of Directors. Dickson has continued his membership on the USTA Collegiate Tennis Committee and Team Gleason Board of Directors, an organization to improve life for people living with ALS.

Dickson, who attended Tulsa's Bishop Kelley High School, played football for the Golden Hurricane before graduating from TU in 1977. His wife, Brenda, graduated from TU in 1979.

During his first tour of duty at TU, Dickson galvanized the city of Tulsa in support of Golden Hurricane athletics. Season attendance spiked for football and surpassed an all-time high attendance average of 31,000 fans for seven home games in 1991, while fans returned to the Tulsa Convention Center Arena after Dickson's hiring of basketball coach Tubby Smith. Basketball attendance grew more than 2,000 fans and reached a season average high of 7,300 in his final year at Tulsa.

Dickson lobbied bowl committees in 1991 for Tulsa's opportunity to participate in a post-season game, landing the Hurricane an appearance in the Freedom Bowl. He also was successful in getting Tulsa voted onto the College Football Association's Active Member list in 1991 as a major college independent. Dickson established the school's first statewide radio network, also in 1991, with the debut of the Golden Hurricane Radio Network.

He instituted several new fund-raising initiatives as well programs to improve the academic performance of student-athletes. Dickson coordinated the development of an academic advisor program for athletics while establishing "Operation Golden Hurricane," a community outreach program for TU student-athletes.

Before leaving Tulsa for Washington State in 1994, Dickson was instrumental in the university securing membership in the Western Athletic Conference, thus giving the football program conference stability.

At Washington State, Dickson oversaw an athletics program that was recognized nationally for its success in dealing with gender equity issues. He raised funds for a capital campaign that funded scholarships and endowments, an indoor practice facility, and the renovation of Bohler Gymnasium. Washington State enjoyed its highest ever Sears Cup Ranking during his tenure, highlighted in 1998 by the football team's first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years.

While at Tulane, Dickson is credited with helping the athletic program and community rebound after the destruction of Hurricane Katrina in 2005. Teams under his tenure won 41 conference titles and advanced to NCAA postseason play 36 times.

Following a 2003 Board Review that resulted in a unanimous resolution reaffirming the institution's Div-1A status, Dickson assumed the task of building a permanent foundation of support for Tulane Athletics through the Perpetual Wave Campaign. During the review, Dickson guided the department through an intense campaign that saw football season ticket sales more than triple, as well as secure funding for the new Greer Baseball Field, Yulman Football Stadium, Devlin Fieldhouse, The Hertz Center and numerous other facilities and program updates.

Following his retirement from Tulane in 2016, Dickson formed R.P. Dickson Consulting LLC, which has assisted many universities with multiple projects including Title IX reviews, departmental organization, fundraising and marketing campaigns, and facility development.

In 2019, Dickson accepted a year-long role as the CFP New Orleans ambassador, serving the Extra Yards for Teachers Campaign that supports public school teachers of New Orleans.

The Dickson's have four grown children and eight grandchildren.

With a Myrtle Beach Bowl Championship in hand, the 2021 Tulsa team posted a 7-6 record against a schedule featuring four teams that finished the season among the nation's top-20 teams in the final Associated Press poll – No. 4 Cincinnati, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 7 Oklahoma State and No. 17 Houston.

GAME 1: UC Davis 19, Tulsa 17

Sept. 2, 2021 • H.A. Chapman Stadium
Attendance: 15,085

TULSA, Okla. — Three turnovers and 122 yards in penalties was enough to seal defeat for Tulsa on a Thursday night against the FCS' 23rd-ranked UC Davis Aggies by a score of 19-17 at H.A. Chapman Stadium.

The Aggies scored its lone touchdown on the game's opening possession and were held to four field goals the remainder of the game. Tulsa scored on a 41-yard Zack Long field goal, a one-yard run by Steven Anderson and a 59-yard rush by Deneric Prince.

The Hurricane threatened to take control of the game several times but turnovers came at the UC Davis 18, 47 and 8-yard line. Tulsa held a 448 to 399-yard edge in total offense. The Aggies converted 10-of-19 third downs, while Tulsa managed just 2-of-10 on third downs.

Tied 10-10 at halftime, UC Davis scored the first points of the second half on a 22-yard field goal. Tulsa scored seven points just over one minute later when Prince's 59-yard TD capped a 4-play, 78-yard drive. UC Davis cut Tulsa's lead to one point, 17-16, on their third field goal of the night with 11:09 remaining.

The Aggies second interception put the ball at the Tulsa 5-yard line, and again the Hurricane defense bowed up and held UC Davis to three points, but it was enough for the visitors to take a two-point lead at 19-17 with 7:35 remaining in the contest. Tulsa took the subsequent possession 74 yards in eight plays to the UCD 12-yard line when Keylon Stokes hauled in a reception at the 8-yard line but a forced fumble saw the ball bounce out of the end zone, thus ending any Tulsa scoring opportunity.

GAME 2: Oklahoma State 28, Tulsa 23

Sept. 11, 2021 • Boone Pickens Stadium
Attendance: 52,127

STILLWATER, Okla. — Tulsa made it a five-point game with three minutes remaining in the contest but fell 28-23 to the Oklahoma State Cowboys in the Bank of Oklahoma Turnpike Classic in front of 52,127 fans at Boone Pickens Stadium.

Tulsa held the Cowboys to just seven points in the first 45 minutes, but the home team scored 21 in the fourth quarter to claim its ninth straight series win.

It was a game expected to be dominated by the defense and that's exactly what happened for the first 40 minutes. After totaling just 224 yards and 14 points between them in the first 30 minutes, the two teams combined for 37 points and 395 yards in the second half.

The Hurricane took a 17-14 lead at the 10:56 mark on the game clock, but OSU returned the kickoff 98 yards to take a four-point lead, 21-17. The Cowboys added another score for an 11-point lead before the Hurricane cut the deficit to single digits with a 75-yard, seven-play drive with just over three minutes to play.

For the second straight week the Tulsa offense outgained its opponent as the Hurricane put up 347 yards to OSU's 313. Davis Brin completed 19-of-27 passes for 224 yards, while rushing for a team-high 37 yards. JuanCarlos Santana caught four passes for 61 yards and Sam Crawford Jr. was next with three receptions for 57 yards.

GAME 3: #9 Ohio State 41, Tulsa 20

Sept. 18, 2021 • Ohio Stadium

Attendance: 76,540

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Tulsa had the No. 9-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes on the ropes late in the fourth quarter before the home team added two scores in the final three minutes for a 41-20 victory at Ohio Stadium.

Tulsa amassed 501 total yards with 428 of those coming through the air as Davis Brin completed 31-of-54 yards and added two touchdown tosses. TreVeyon Henderson led the Ohio State offense with 277 rushing yards and three touchdowns, but the heralded Buckeyes receiving corps was held intact with only 185 yards through the air.

Ohio State led 13-6 at halftime, but Henderson put some separation on the scoreboard with a 48-yard scamper on the Buckeyes' first second-half possession to give the home team a 20-6 lead.

The Hurricane scored its first TD of the game when Brin connected with Cannon Montgomery on a 21-yard catch and run to cut its deficit to seven points at 20-13. OSU relied on their offensive star of the day when Henderson tallied his third rushing TD with a 52-yard jaunt to put the Buckeyes up by a score of 27-13.

Tulsa responded with 12:07 left in the fourth quarter on a 22-yard toss from Brin to Johnson to make the score 27-20. Tulsa's defense shut down the Buckeyes on their next possession and the Hurricane offense got to the OSU 43-yard line when a sack on 3rd-and-7 forced a Tulsa punt. Ohio State responded with two scores to close out the contest.

GAME 6: Tulsa 35, Memphis 29

Oct. 9, 2021 • H.A. Chapman Stadium

Attendance: 17,593 • HOMECOMING

TULSA, Okla. — Tulsa scored 21 second-half points and held off a late Memphis drive to claim a 35-29 victory in front of a Homecoming crowd of 17,593 fans at H.A. Chapman Stadium.

Tulsa improved to 2-4 overall and 1-1 in American Athletic Conference play, while Memphis fell to 3-3 and 0-2 in the league.

Josh Johnson's 63-yard touchdown reception and Anthony Watkins' 44-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter and Tulsa's defense was enough to hold off the Tigers from mounting a final quarter comeback. Watkins' run came with 4:28 left on the game clock, but Memphis closed the gap to six points 1:17 later.

On what amounted to their final drive, Memphis received the ball at their own 11-yard line, converted on a big 4th-and-11 play for 12 yards to get to their own 42-yard line. On the very next play, Tulsa's Travon Fuller tipped a pass that was intercepted by Bryson Powers, ending Memphis' chance for a comeback.

For the game, Tulsa's defense forced three turnovers had three sacks and six pass breakups. Justin Wright led the way with 14 tackles, two TFL for -8 yards and forced one fumble, while Fuller added four stops, three breakups and one pickoff. Shamari Brooks had a game-high 126 rushing yards and two touchdowns and Josh Johnson had his third 100+ receiving game in the last four contests with 140 yards on eight receptions.

Memphis ran 99 plays for 614 yards, while the Hurricane had 417 total yards on 67 offensive snaps. The Tigers missed three field goals and one PAT on the night.

GAME 7: Tulsa 32, South Florida 31

Oct. 16, 2021 • Raymond James Stadium

Attendance: 21,767

TAMPA, Fla. — Shamari Brooks' three-yard touchdown run with less than one minute in the game lifted Tulsa to a 32-31 comeback victory over South Florida at Raymond James Stadium. The Hurricane improved to 3-4 overall and 2-1 in American Athletic Conference action, while USF fell to 1-5 and 0-2 in league play.

Tulsa overcame three offensive turnovers, a special teams' touchdown by the Bulls and a double-digit deficit for the win. The final 0:47 of the game was the only time Tulsa led in posting its third comeback victory of the season.

With 4:20 remaining, Tulsa took over possession at the USF 42-yard line, trailing 31-26, after the Hurricane defense held the Bulls on 4th-and-1. Tulsa had its own fourth down situation on 4th-and-3 from the USF 20-yard line, but Davis Brin completed a 6-yard pass to Josh Johnson for the first down. Brooks then took over, gaining five and six yards on the next two plays before scoring from three yards out for the game-winning touchdown.

Without defensive starters – end Cullen Wick, and safeties Cristian Williams and Kendarin Ray – the Tulsa defense put in another solid performance, holding the Bulls to 113 rushing and 155 passing yards. Defensively, Justin Wright had a team-best seven tackles and a season-high 2.5 sacks for -9 yards, while Tyon Davis had a team-high three pass breakups.

Tulsa ended the game with a whopping 535 to 268-yard edge in total offense, while the Hurricane defense also held USF to 17 offensive points. The Bulls added a pick-6 and a 61-yard punt return for scores.

GAME 8: Navy 20, Tulsa 17

Oct. 29, 2021 • H.A. Chapman Stadium

Attendance: 16,279

TULSA, Okla. — The Navy Midshipmen scored 17 second-half points to grab a 20-17 victory over Tulsa in front of 16,279 fans at H.A. Chapman Stadium.

After a first half that saw the teams tied at 3-3, the Navy option attack came alive after halftime and scored on its first three possessions for a 20-10 lead. Tulsa began the second half with an Anthony Watkins 97-yard kickoff return to give Tulsa a 10-3 lead, but the Midshipmen went 75 yards in 10 plays to tie the score at 10.

When it looked like Tulsa would be taking a seven-point lead on a pass from Davis Brin to Josh Johnson in the end zone late in the third quarter, the pass went through Johnson's arms and into the hands of defender Rayuan Lane. Navy drove 80 yards to take a 17-10 lead and added a 46-yard field goal on its next possession.

Tulsa made it interesting late when Brin connected with JC Santana on a 43-yard pass to the one-yard line and two plays late hit Ezra Naylor II in the end zone for a 2-yard score to make the score 20-17.

Tulsa's inside kick attempt failed as Navy took over at the 38-yard line to run out the game clock.

It was a defensive struggle in the first 30 minutes as the two teams combined for 292 yards, but 142 of those yards came on just two plays. Tulsa's Watkins had a 78-yard run and Navy's Carlinos Acie had 64 yards on a run from scrimmage.

GAME 9: #2 Cincinnati 28, Tulsa 20

Nov. 6, 2021 • Nippert Stadium

Attendance: 37,978

CINCINNATI, Ohio — Tulsa's comeback bid ended at the one-yard line as the nation's second-ranked Cincinnati Bearcats held off the Golden Hurricane for a 28-20 victory in front of 37,978 fans at Nippert Stadium.

It was a momentum-filled game as the Bearcats jumped out to the early 14-0 lead. Tulsa dominated the second quarter to make the halftime score 14-12. UC scored on its first two second-half possessions for a 28-12 lead, and the Hurricane came back with a dominating fourth quarter.

Tulsa out-gained the Bearcats 446 to 390 yards in total offense and held a whopping 34:16 to 23:06 advantage in possession time. The Hurricane run game had its way with the country's No. 9-ranked defense by rushing for its second-highest total of the season with 297 yards.

While Tulsa's offense had success on the ground the Hurricane defense held Cincinnati to well below its season rushing average with 116 yards. Tulsa's defense also forced three turnovers, had three TFL and two sacks on the day.

At the 8:10 mark of the fourth quarter, Tulsa made the score 28-20 on a 21-yard pass from Davis Brin to JuanCarlos Santana and a two-point pass play. From there, the Hurricane defense forced a Cincinnati punt. Tulsa marched to the Cincinnati 6-yard line but a 4th-and-5 pass fell one yard short of the first down.

What looked to be the end for Tulsa resulted in one more chance. Cincinnati fumbled the snap from their own 2-yard line on the first play with 1:11 to play. Tulsa took over from the UC 3-yard line but on 4th-and-1 the ball was fumbled into the end zone and recovered by the Bearcats to end the game.

GAME 10: Tulsa 20, Tulane 13 (OT)

Nov. 13, 2021 • Yulman Stadium

Attendance: 22,784

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Shamari Brooks scored on a 15-yard run in overtime to give Tulsa a 20-13 victory over the Tulane Green Wave in front of 22,784 fans at Yulman Stadium. Tulsa improved to 4-6 overall and 3-3 in American Athletic Conference action and kept its Bowl aspirations alive.

Tulsa's defense held the Green Wave offense to just 139 yards on its first 12 drives before Tulane's offense woke up to pick up 154 yards on 11 plays on its two late fourth quarter scoring drives.

Ahead 13-3 late in the contest, Tulsa was looking to close out the game, but a Tulane offense that was stagnant all night, thanks to the Hurricane defensive unit, came to life. The Green Wave marched 95 yards in four plays and just 0:57 to make the score 13-10. Tulane recovered the onside kick and settled for the game-tying field goal on 4th-and-goal from the Tulsa six-yard line with 1:16 to play.

Now tied 13-13, Tulsa threw its third interception of the game with one minute left in the game clock. Tulane took over from the Tulsa 24-yard line and looked to get an apparent come-from-behind victory but Merek Glover's 26-yard field goal missed wide right, thus forcing overtime.

Tulane won the overtime coin toss and elected to play defense first. It took the Hurricane just four plays to cross the goal line with Brooks carrying for the final 15 yards and a 20-13 lead after the Zack Long's PAT. As they did most of the day, Tulsa's defense stopped Tulane's opportunity to force a second OT when a Michael Pratt pass was broken up by Tyon Davis and fell incomplete on the 4th-and-10 play to preserve the Hurricane victory.

GAME 11: Tulsa 44, Temple 10

Nov. 20, 2021 • H.A. Chapman Stadium
Attendance: 16,731

TULSA, Okla. — Tulsa scored a season-high for points in its 44-10 home finale victory over the Temple Owls in front of 16,731 fans at H.A. Chapman Stadium.

The Hurricane scored on its first four possessions for a 20-0 lead and five of its six first-half possessions to take a 27-0 lead over the Owls at halftime. To open the game, Tulsa's offense marched down the field on its first possession and put the ball across the goal line for the second straight week on its opening drive. Davis Brin threw the final 21 yards of a seven-play, 83-yard drive to JC Santana for the score.

Tulsa made the score 10-3 on a Zack Long 44-yard field goal, capping a 73-yard, 12-play drive on Tulsa's second possession.

Tulsa scored on its third straight possessions going 69 yards in 14 plays as Brin threw the final eight yards to Josh Johnson for the score. Zack Long added a 47-yard field goal on Tulsa's next possession to cap a seven-yard, 42-yard drive and put the Hurricane ahead 20-0 with 8:52 left in the first half.

At halftime, Tulsa had a 306 to 98-yard advantage in total offense as Brin threw for over 200 yards in the first 30 minutes for the third time this season.

In the second half, the two teams each scored 10 points. Temple capitalized on a Hurricane fumble, marching 65 yards for a field goal to make the score 27-3. In the fourth quarter, Tulsa went ahead 34-3 on a Brin one-yard run and added a field goal and Deneric Prince TD run after Temple.

GAME 12: Tulsa 34, SMU 31

Nov. 27, 2021 • Gerald J. Ford Stadium
Attendance: 17,158

DALLAS, Texas — Trailing 17-0, Tulsa had its fourth comeback win of the season and 20th in the Philip Montgomery era with a 34-31 victory over the SMU Mustangs at Gerald J. Ford Stadium. Tulsa improved to 6-6 on the season to become bowl eligible and ended the regular season with a 5-3 American Athletic Conference record.

SMU jumped out to a 17-0 lead early in the second quarter, but the Hurricane cut its deficit to three points, 17-14, by halftime with two touchdowns in the final 66 seconds.

The first Tulsa score came on a 10-play, 89-yard drive that was capped by an Anthony Watkins' seven-yard run. After Tulsa's defense held the Mustangs to a 3-and-out in taking just 0:27 off the clock, the Hurricane offense took possession at the 50-yard line with 0:18 left on the first-half clock as Davis Brin threw 32 yards to Josh Johnson for Tulsa's second straight touchdown.

The second half opened with Tulsa taking the kickoff 75 yards in nine plays for a 21-17 lead as Deneric Prince scored from one yard out. SMU threatened but the Hurricane defense stopped the Mustangs on 4th-and-3, and the Tulsa offense responded as true freshman Braylon Braxton scored his first career touchdown on a nine-yard run to give Tulsa a 28-17 lead with 5:03 left in the third period.

Tulsa went 53 yards in 13 plays on its next possession and scored on a 36-yard Zack Long field goal for a 14-point Hurricane lead at 31-17. The Mustangs responded to get within seven points at 31-24 with 11:00 remaining. Long added a 27-yard field goal at the 4:06 mark for a 34-24 lead before SMU responded with a 69-yard drive to make the score 34-31.

Tulsa recovered the onside kick and ran the final 2:50 off the clock for the victory.

MYRTLE BEACH BOWL

GAME 13: Tulsa 30, Old Dominion 17

Dec. 20, 2021 • Brooks Stadium

Attendance: 6,557

MYRTLE BEACH, S.C. — The Tulsa offense gained 529 yards and the defense limited Old Dominion to 247 yards en route to a 30-17 victory over the Monarchs on a Monday afternoon in the Second Annual Myrtle Beach Bowl at Brooks Stadium. Tulsa ended the season with a 7-6 record and on a four-game winning streak.

Davis Brin won the MVP Award after completing 22-of-34 passes for 285 yards and two touchdowns. Shamari Brooks moved into second place on the school's career rushing chart while toting the ball 26 times for 107 yards and one TD. Josh Johnson surpassed 1,000 receiving yards on the season and 2,000 career yards en route to 129 yards and one TD on eight receptions.

Defensively, Tulsa had two takeaways that led to 10 Tulsa points with a fumble that resulted in a touchback and an interception.

The Hurricane controlled the game in the second half by holding a 25:11 to 4:49 advantage in possession time and ended the game with a 39:43 to 20:17 edge. Tulsa's defense held the Monarchs to just 110 yards in the second half, while the Hurricane offense gained 255 yards. Tulsa also had a 35-to-10 edge for first downs.

ODU jumped out to a 7-0 lead by taking the opening kickoff 100 yards, but the Hurricane scored on its first two possessions to take a 14-7 lead into the second quarter. After leading 14-10 at halftime, Tulsa scored the first 16 points of the second half to take a 30-10 lead with just over nine minutes left to play.

Despite only scoring six points on two field goals in the third quarter, the Hurricane took control in the period. Tulsa held a time of possession advantage of 12:39 to 2:21 in the quarter, while the Hurricane defense held ODU to two three-and-outs and -2 yards in the period.

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida, Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American is firmly established as a Power 6 conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, football and basketball postseason victories, expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to a College Football Playoff semifinalist, three New Year's Six bowl champions (UCF in 2013 and 2017; Houston in 2015), two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 13 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar.

Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl seven times in the league's first nine football seasons, including the 2021 campaign, when Cincinnati became the first American Athletic Conference team to reach the College Football Playoff. The American was the only conference to have a team in the College Football Playoff and the NCAA Men's Final Four in the 2021 calendar year.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. Cincinnati has registered back-to-back top-10 finishes after the Bearcats were No. 4 in 2021 after their historic CFP appearance and No. 8 in the final 2020 national polls. UCF finished in the national top 10 twice as a conference member – in 2013 and 2017. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last seven years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). SMU returned to national prominence in 2019 with a 10-win season, during which the Mustangs were ranked as high as No. 14 nationally. Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014, while Tulane played in three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's cross country and men's track and field.

Under The American's banner, Houston's men's basketball team reached the 2021 NCAA Final Four and was ranked No. 3 in the final coaches' poll, while Memphis claimed the 2021 NIT title. Houston's men's track and field team took third place at the 2018 and 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships.

Tulsa has registered top-six national finishes at the 2019, 2020 and 2021 NCAA Men's Cross Country Championships.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. Houston's Ed Oliver won the 2017 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman, while Cincinnati's Coby Bryant won the 2021 Jim Thorpe Award as the top defensive back. The American has had four top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes as Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds was fifth in 2015, UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton was eighth in 2017 and sixth in 2018, and Cincinnati quarterback Desmond Ridder was eighth in 2021. Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Ackers was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, South Florida star Georgina Corrick was the Division I softball Academic All-America of the Year in 2022, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional and international sports as well, beginning with the selection of UCF quarterback Blake Bortles by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer, including former Memphis center James Wiseman, who was the No. 2 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and former Wichita State third-baseman Alec Bohm, the No. 3 selection in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Former SMU standout Bryson DeChambeau, who was the 2014 American Athletic Conference individual champion, went on to win the 2015 NCAA Championship, the 2015 US Amateur title and has since become one of the top players on the PGA Tour, including a win at the 2020 U.S. Open. Former Memphis tennis player Joe Salisbury, a 2014 all-conference selection, has gone on to win the 2020 Australian Open men's doubles championship and the 2021 French Open mixed doubles title. Former Tulane standout Dominik Koepfer has earned a top-50 world ranking in men's tennis. Cincinnati's Jordan Thompson led the United States volleyball team to its first gold medal in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+. The football championship game, all rounds of the men's basketball championship, and multiple rounds of the women's basketball championship, will be on linear ESPN television networks.

The first seven American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with an expansive group of bowls for the new cycle, which began in 2020, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations for member institutions.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Powerful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

1895: THE LEGACY BEGINS

The legacy of Tulsa football began when the Bacone School for Indians and Henry Kendall College, which later became The University of Tulsa, did battle in 1895. It was one of the first football games in the Indian Territory and the game caused a lot of excitement within the student bodies of each school as well as the citizens of the Territory.

People in Indian Territory were excited by the prospects of having football in the area, but no one really understood how the game was played. The Kendall team didn't even actually have a coach in that first season. A young transfer student from Springfield, Missouri, named Norman Leard stepped up to the task.

Although there was no score recorded, Kendall College won the only game the team played that year.

Football struggled to gain its prominence at the college. The college played only 55 games between 1900 and 1910. No teams were fielded in 1907 and 1911.

Kendall College's reappearance on the collegiate football scene in 1912 came at a time when the game itself was becoming modernized. New rules altered the game. Offenses were allowed four downs to make 10 yards. The length of the playing field was reduced from 110 to 100 yards, and most importantly, the 20-yard limit on forward passes was removed.

By 1914, the resurrection of Kendall College football was in full swing and two men helped spur that along. Sam McBirney, a Tulsa banker, and Francis Schmidt came on the scene. In 1914, McBirney led the team to a 7-2 record with five shutout victories, and followed that season with a 6-1-1 record in 1915.

It wasn't just McBirney who jump-started the football program. Ivan Grove, who was one player instrumental in building the the Kendall football program, was the key to undefeated seasons of 1916 and 1919. He quarterbacked the Presbyterians from 1914 through 1916, and again in 1919.

During the 1916 season, Grove and receivers Virgil Jones and Madison "Puny" Blevins developed the controversial "tower play". The play called for Jones and Blevins to sprint down field, Blevins would stop, lift Jones onto his shoulders, and Grove would toss the ball to Jones. At that time, there were no rules against such a play But it only worked once for the Kendallites in a 117-0 thrashing of Missouri School of Mines.

That was the type of domination Kendall experienced in 1916. The season ended with Kendall producing an undefeated 10-0 record, and laying claim to the unofficial title of "state champions."

While the team turned in their uniforms that season, a few Tulsa businessmen wanted one more game for the Kendall team, against the fabulous Irish of Notre Dame. How close Kendall came to playing Notre Dame in the finale of the 1916 season probably will never be known, but a definite move was underway with some of the town's wealthiest oilmen reportedly backing the promotion.

Prior to the 1917 season, McBirney went back to his bank, and Schmidt, an assistant coach under McBirney, went to fight in World War I, as did a number of players. As a result, the 1917 season was a rough one for Kendall College.

Hal Medford took the coaching reins, but enrollment dropped drastically as did the male population. With only two varsity players available, Medford took the initiative to recruit players from Kendall Academy to fill the roster. The team had many weak areas and Medford had a hard time finding players to strengthen those areas. The team went without a win, thus it was called "the season that fell victim to the Kaiser's war."

By 1919, the Presbyterians were back in full force and primed for a comeback. Schmidt came back from the war ready to coach, and McBirney joined him as an assistant coach this time. All the players from previous years were back now, including Grove, and optimism was high.

Henry Kendall College 1916 Football Team

Tulsa versus Arkansas, 1920.

The team played nine games, but only three were seen as serious threats — Oklahoma, Oklahoma A&M and Arkansas. The powerful Kendall team with Grove, John Young, Benton Springer, Harry Miller and Vergil Jones back in 1919, pummeled its first opponent, Oklahoma Baptist. Kendall scored 22 touchdowns and 20 conversions to amass a 152-0 victory.

Tulsa went on to defeated two of its main rivals, including 27-0 against Oklahoma and a 63-7 victory over Arkansas. Tulsa and Oklahoma A&M tied 7-7.

By the turn of the century, Henry Kendall College was on the map as a team to reckon with on the field.

THE GLORIOUS TWENTIES

Schmidt took Henry Kendall College into the new decade with another undefeated season in 1920, the third such season in the brief history of the school. Kendall outscored its opponents in 1920, 621 to 21 points.

As the decade progressed, changes ranging from coaching to the name of the university itself altered the face of Kendall football.

The first thing to change was the actual name of the university. On February 8, 1921, The University of Tulsa was born. The administration of Kendall College believed that by taking on the name of the city, more support from its citizens would follow. This change was met with immediate increases in donations, thus proving its effectiveness.

Schmidt, who led the 1921 team to a 6-3 record, was preparing for the 1922 season when he was named the head coach at the University of Arkansas.

Enter the name Howard Acher. When he took over the position, Acher saw great potential in his team and wanted to publicize it by creating a new identity with a new nickname. Sports writers and others had called the school by any number of names from the Presbyterians to the Orange and Black, to the Kendallites.

After an opening day win against a strong Texas Christian University team in 1922, Acher put his mind to work. The press had claimed that the Kendall football team blew through its opponents like a tornado. So, it figured that Tornadoes, would be the nickname with "golden" added to identify the color of the uniforms. However, it was later found that Georgia Tech had claimed that name, so from tornado it was evolved meteorologically to a hurricane. Thus the squad voted, and the name "Golden Hurricane" became the new team moniker with the gold added because of the jersey color.

TU lived up to its nickname as the Golden Hurricane blew through the Texas A&M defense in the next game with pass after pass from quarterback Rex Thomas. TU won its first game as the Golden Hurricane by a score of 13-10.

A perfect 9-0 record in was followed with two straight losing seasons, and after the 1924 season Acher resigned his position as head coach. His replacement was quite a shock to everyone as Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson was chosen to take over the coaching reins. The selection of Henderson wasn't as much of a surprise as was his acceptance of the offer. He was coming from a program at the University of Southern California where, "one All American was in the game, and his substitute on the bench was an All American." No one could understand why he would leave such a program. But the reason was simple, his lucrative contract at Tulsa.

Known as "Gloomy Gus" because of his pessimism when speaking for publication, he found success easy at Tulsa. He taught his team five new formations, and put the team back on its feet after only three wins over the previous two seasons. His first few seasons resulted in 13 wins and four losses, and by 1927, Golden Hurricane football was well on its way to recovery.

In 1928, prosperity in America and the success of Tulsa football, inspired Henderson to dream of a new stadium. He took his dream to the rich oilmen of Tulsa, and they supported it. A short time later, Henderson saw his dream come true. The University of Tulsa football team had a new home to go along with the new philosophy and nickname.

The first game in Skelly Stadium was played on Oct. 4, 1930. Tulsa defeated Arkansas 26-6.

TULSA FOOTBALL GETS A NEW HOME

The 1930 season saw Coach Henderson's dream of a new home for Tulsa football become a reality. Though the Depression had hit hard, the need for a new stadium was growing by the day.

McNulty Park, the original home of the Golden Hurricane, had become archaic by modern collegiate standards. In actuality, it was a baseball field that only measured 90 yards. This meant teams had to cross the goal line once, place the ball back on the 10 yard line, and cross the goal line again in order to score.

By 1930, the new stadium had been approved and funding for the $300,000 project had been acquired, so there could be no stopping. The stadium was built to hold 15,000 spectators, and the north and south ends were left open for future growth. Capacity now stands at 40,235. The stadium was named after William G. Skelly, a local oilman, who donated $125,000 to the project. The balance was raised by Tulsa businessmen by organizing the Stadium Corporation of Tulsa.

The stadium was dedicated at the 1930 season opener against Arkansas. The Golden Hurricane christened their new home with a 26-6 victory.

One of the mainstays for the Golden Hurricane during this transition was Chet Benefiel who played for TU from 1928 to 1931. The halfback's exploits on the football field was said to have spurred the support for TU football that resulted in the building of Skelly Field. Benefiel earned honorable mention All-America honors in 1930, and captained two teams. He was Oklahoma Back of the Year in 1929, and was selected to the All-Oklahoma team in 1929 and 1930.

As the Hurricane adapted to its new surroundings, the team's prosperity grew. Henderson's 1933 team was the highlight of the decade.

The Golden Hurricane played seven games that season, posting victories over rivals Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas. The Hurricane also soundly beat Oklahoma Central, Washburn and George Washington. The lone setback TU suffered was at the hands of Texas A&M. Wins over such strong competition caused the team of 1933 to be called one of the best in Tulsa football history.

When Henderson decided to leave his coaching post in 1935, TU went in search of a successor. What they found was yet another Rose Bowl champion coach from Southern Methodist University named Vic Hurt. At first, Hurt didn't accept the position, but with some persuasive recruiting talk and a visit to campus, he accepted.

Hurt's tenure lasted three seasons and after the 1938 season, he stepped down to take the head coaching post at Kansas.

Former TU player Chet Benefiel moved up from his freshman coaching position to be Hurt's successor. In 1940, Benefiel led the Hurricane to share the Missouri Valley Conference Championship in 1940. However, his contract was not renewed for the next season. As a result, Tulsa hired Henry Frnka who would lead the Hurricane through one of the most successful decades in Tulsa football history.

TULSA GOES TO FIVE STRAIGHT NEW YEARS DAY BOWL GAMES — THE FIRST SCHOOL TO ACCOMPLISH THAT FEAT

The 1940s saw great development in the strength and notoriety of the University of Tulsa Golden Hurricane. Players like Glenn Dobbs, Sax Judd, Bobby Jack Stuart and N.A. Keithley, combined with the coaching of Frnka meant five straight bowl berths. Tulsa became the first school to go to five straight New Years Day Bowl Games, starting with the Sun Bowl on January 1, 1942. Two Sugar Bowls, the Orange Bowl and Oil Bowl followed.

Frnka brought a fervent love of the game and a strong desire to learn as much as he could about the game to Tulsa. He built a national football powerhouse en route to a career record of 40-9-2 in his five years.

The bowl appearances began in 1941 as the Hurricane posted a 7-2 regular season record. By early December, there had been no talk of a bowl bid for the Hurricane. A 13-6 loss to Arkansas seemed to have dashed any bowl dreams the team may have had. However, on December 4, word came that TU had in fact been invited to the Sun Bowl to play Texas Tech in El Paso, Texas on January 1, 1942.

Tech was favored in the game, but that fact did not intimidate the Hurricane. As the waning minutes of the game approached and the game still scoreless, Dobbs connected with Judd who fell over the goal line for the games only points. Tulsa emerged victorious from its first bowl game.

Tulsa's bowl dynasty gained strength in 1942. At the end of the regular season, the Hurricane had the only perfect record in college football going at 10-0.

It had been rumored that the Hurricane was in line for the Rose Bowl, but when the invitation came, it was from New Orleans and the Sugar Bowl. Tulsa's opponent would be Tennessee.

Tulsa struck first in that January 1, 1943 game. On TU's second possession, Dobbs went to work picking apart the Vols' defense to put the Hurricane on top 6-0. As the game went on, TU saw its lead dissipate. The Volunteers pulled to within one point just before halftime.

A safety and another Tennessee touchdown in the second half gave the Vols a 14-7 victory, and ending Tulsa's hope of going 11-0 on the season and being able to claim the nation's number one ranking. Tulsa ended the season 10-1 and ranked fourth in the nation.

The 1943 season saw Tulsa receive a second straight invitation to the Sugar Bowl. This time the opponent would be Georgia Tech.

After the Tulsa offense failed to gain a first down, Clyde LeForce faked a field goal and threw the ball to Ed Shedlosky for a 6-0 Tulsa lead on the first Hurricane possession. At the start of the second quarter, TU struck again on a Jimmy Ford 76-yard touchdown run putting TU in command 12-0. Then, the Yellow Jackets got on the scoreboard making it a 12-7 game. By halftime, the score stood at 18-7.

As the second half began, the Yellow Jackets began a comeback that broke the backs of the Hurricane. Tech quickly scored a touchdown to bring the score to 18-13. A 78-yard drive hammered the final nail in the Hurricane's coffin as the game ended in a 20-18 heartbreaking defeat.

As the next season took shape, TU was looking good for a fourth straight bowl game. Tulsa's wish came true when the Hurricane received word that they'd have a chance to avenge the previous year's bowl loss to Georgia Tech. This time Tulsa would face Tech in the Orange Bowl on January 1, 1945.

Tulsa scored two first quarter touchdowns and added a third TD in the third quarter before Tech was able to get on the scoreboard. Tech had a third period score and each team scored once more in the final quarter, as Tulsa held on for a 26-14 win.

Coming off that bowl victory, TU was hungry for another, and that hunger grew as the 1945 season began. Hopes of another big bowl appearance were strong, but setbacks near the end of the season deflated those hopes somewhat. However, Tulsa impressed the Oil Bowl selection committee enough with a 20-18 win over Hondo Air Base in the regular season finale to earn a bowl bid. Thus, the Golden Hurricane found itself in its fifth straight bowl game playing Georgia.

The Oil Bowl game was close throughout, as each team capitalized on turnovers and the score stayed 7-6 until the fourth quarter, when the Bulldogs scored 13 of their 20 points in that quarter. Tulsa came out on the short end of a 20-6 battle.

Although that loss ended Tulsa's bowl appearances for a time, the accomplishment of having gone to five straight bowl games put The University of Tulsa on the college football map. The Frnka era also ended with the Oil Bowl game. But, his contributions to Tulsa kept alive a tradition of quality football that ranks with some of the best in the country that carried into the 1950s.

THE BOWL LEGACY CONTINUES

J.O. "Buddy" Brothers moved into the head coaching position in 1946 and took the Hurricane program into the 1950s, but not before posting a 9-1 record in 1946. Tulsa hit a low point in 1948 with an 0-9-1 record, but two years later Tulsa bounced back with a 9-1-1 mark in 1950.

Ellis Jones, a one armed guard, was named as a Football All-American in 1945.

The highlight of the 1950s was Tulsa's visit to the Gator Bowl following the 1952 season where they met a strong Florida team. That season, the Hurricane posted an 8-2-1 record as TU renewed their bowl tradition.

Several players played key roles in the success of that 1952 team. Of course, it all started with inspiration from Coach Brothers, who was born with no left hand. He inspired his players with his courage and determination not to allow his handicap to get in the way. Tom Ham, a player for Brothers on that 1952 team, once said "coach Brothers showed his toughness every day at practice." His toughness spurred the Hurricane to success in 1952.

Coach Brothers was voted Missouri Valley Coach of the Year in 1949 and 1951. His Hurricane teams had a career record of 26-5-1, winning two Missouri Valley Conference championships.

Tulsa was also blessed with exceptional talent in 1952. Tommy Hudspeth, Marvin Matuszak and Howard Waugh were tri-captains. Hudspeth was a strong defensive back for the Hurricane and was selected to the All-Oklahoma decade football team of the 1950s.

Matuszak, hailed as one of the best linemen in Tulsa history, was the first Hurricane player to twice be named first team All-America. Waugh was a record-setting running back. He led the nation in rushing with 1,372 yards and averaging 6.8 yards per rush.

These three men led a strong Hurricane team into the Florida game. From the time the Hurricane took the field against Florida in the Gator Bowl, they knew they were in for a battle. Florida scored the first time they had the ball, and again on a 37-yard pass play in the second quarter.

1953 Gator Bowl Football Team

When TU took the field for the second half, the Hurricane constructed a drive of 73 yards for their first score pulling the Hurricane within a touchdown at 14-7. Tulsa's second scoring drive covered 46 yards, capped by Waugh leaping into the end zone after the Hurricane recovered a fumble at the Gators' 46-yard line. However, Tom Miner's PAT went wide left leaving Florida with a one-point lead, 14-13.

TU had one final scoring opportunity after another Florida fumble with six minutes remaining in the game. The Hurricane traveled to the Gators' 4-yard line, but had to settle for a field goal attempt that missed, allowing Florida to hold on for a 14-13 victory. Although Tulsa lost that bowl game, the 1952 team and those previous to it had some of the best players in Tulsa history.

PASSING WAS THE NAME OF THE GAME IN THE 1960S

As the 1960s took shape, Glenn Dobbs became the head football coach at his alma mater in 1961. Dobbs revitalized Tulsa's passing attack making the Hurricane offense a threat whenever it took the field. Tulsa led the nation in passing for five straight seasons — 1962, 1963, 1964, 1965 and 1966.

Although the 1963 season produced only a 5-5 record, Tulsa's offense, spearheaded by quarterback Jerry Rhome, averaged 199.3 yards passing per contest.

Until 1964, college football was dominated by running attacks. The nation saw Tulsa's vaunted offensive attack in 1964 as the best passing team the nation had ever seen.

For 30 years teams avoided passing the ball because they thought running the ball was a better way to play the game.

What took years for college football to develop, Rhome and company obliterated in two years. In 1964, the Rhome-Twilley connection broke 20 NCAA records for total offense, passing, receiving and scoring. The notoriety those impressive statistical numbers gave the two Hurricane standouts helped lead them to back-to-back Heisman Trophy runner-up finishes, Rhome in 1964 and Twilley in 1965.

Dobbs obviously didn't believe in the ground attack philosophy. He was one of the Hurricane's most prolific passers himself, so it's no wonder he brought his aerial philosophy back to Tulsa. Under Dobbs' guidance, the Hurricane offense passed 52 percent of the time, well above the 29 percent Tulsa's opponents were averaging.

Behind that strong offense, the 1964 team won all but two regular season games leaving the Hurricane with an 8-2 record and an invitation to the Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, Texas to face Mississippi.

In that game, Tulsa dominated with its passing game as the Hurricane came from behind to re-establish themselves as a strong bowl team by winning 14-7, and finishing the season with a 9-2 mark.

The 1965 season saw a quarterback named Billy Guy Anderson rise up to lead the Hurricane. It wasn't long before Anderson started breaking the records Rhome had set the year before. Anderson was the nation's leading passer as he took Tulsa to yet another Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twilley was more of a threat than ever as he put his team and NCAA records of the previous year to shame. He caught 134 passes for 1,779 yards and 16 touchdowns in 1965, and came up just short in the Heisman Trophy balloting, as did Rhome the year before, finishing second to USC's Mike Garrett.

The Golden Hurricane went into the Bluebonnet Bowl against Tennessee with an 8-2 record hoping to repeat the success of its previous Bluebonnet Bowl appearance. However, things were rough for the Hurricane this time, as Tulsa could cross the Volunteers' 20-yard line only twice.

Tennessee jumped out to a 14-0 lead as they capitalized on two Tulsa fumbles. They also returned a punt for a third score, and turned an interception into their fourth score. The volunteers put the game out of reach on their last touchdown in the third quarter. Tennessee won the game 27-6.

In the 1960s, Tulsa took the collegiate passing game to a level never seen before. The Hurricane averaged nearly 318 yards in 1964, and increased that average to 346 yards a year later. Under the tutelage of Dobbs, it was Rhome, Anderson and Twilley who helped revolutionize the way college football was played.

Lineman Marvin Matuszak (1951) was Tulsa's first two-time All-American.

NFL TALENT FLOURISHES

The 1970s continued the wealth of talent going through the Hurricane program and entering the professional ranks. Some of the players Tulsa turned out that decade went into the NFL and became legends of the game. Names like Steve Largent and Drew Pearson went on to successful careers in the NFL.

When F.A. Dry took over as head coach at mid-season 1972, replacing Claude Gibson after six games, he was faced with the immediate challenge of creating an understanding of his philosophy. That philosophy. He believed that strong organization was key the to a successful team.

From the moment Dry took the helm, things began to improve for the Hurricane. His first game came the night after he accepted the head coaching position. Before that game, TU had gone 1-5, but upset Louisville and won its final two games to post a 3-2 record under Dry, and 4-7 on the year. It would be the only year during Dry's four-and-a-half year tenure, that the Hurricane would suffer a losing season. A year later, Dry led Tulsa to a 6-5 record and first place in the Missouri Valley Conference.

The 1976 season was the highlight of the Dry Era as he coached the team to a 7-4 record, a Missouri Valley Conference championship, and a berth in the first Independence Bowl where the Hurricane faced McNeese State University.

Things looked promising for the Hurricane at first as they constructed a 65-yard drive capped by a Thomas Bailey one-yard jaunt into the end zone for the first TU score, but at halftime, Tulsa clung to a slight 7-6 lead.

As the second half started, McNeese State produced a 65-yard scoring drive of their own, topped with a two-point conversion giving them the lead 14-7. The Hurricane scored on a blocked field goal attempt, but the PAT was no good, so the Hurricane stayed a point shy of the lead at 14-13.

After Tulsa made a fourth quarter 38-yard field goal to go ahead 16-14, TU seemed to have the game in the palm of their hands, but McNeese State answered by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive during the final two minutes that put the Hurricane down to defeat 20-16.

Dry made great strides in revitalizing Hurricane football. During his tenure, he posted a 31-18-1 record, and coached many standout players. Twenty-seven of them went into the pro ranks most of which were drafted.

Billy Guy Anderson passes for a school record 502 yards in a 48-20 win over Colorado State.

Skelly Stadium was expanded to 40,235 seats in 1964.

One player who wasn't drafted, turned out to be one of the best NFL receivers of all-time. Drew Pearson signed a free agent contract in 1972 with the Dallas Cowboys where he established himself as one of the best receivers in National Football League history.

After two years as Tulsa's quarterback, he went to the receiving end of the ball and led TU to the Missouri Valley Conference championship in 1971. As a receiver for the Hurricane, Pearson caught 55 passes for 1,119 yards placing him tenth in receiving in TU history. His senior season, Pearson averaged 20.9 yards per catch scoring five touchdowns. Pearson was signed with the Dallas Cowboys as a free agent in 1972.

Steve Largent, who would become an NFL Hall of Fame inductee, was favorably compared to Howard Twilley while at Tulsa. In 1974 and again in 1975, Largent led the nation in touchdown receptions with 14 touchdowns each year. He was a two-time selection for the all-MVC team and was named to the Associated Press second team All-American squad in 1975. Largent averaged 17.5 yards per catch for his career, and caught 51 passes for 1,000 yards his senior season.

In 1977, offensive lineman Steve August was a first round draft selection of the Seattle Seahawks.

These players and others, along with the man who coached them made a mark on Tulsa football history. Some made a mark on the NFL as well. The teams of the 1970s helped Tulsa build a reputation for developing quality players who can make a difference on a team.

NO JUSTICE

John Cooper took over the Tulsa football program in 1977, and suffered through a 3-8 campaign, but in 1978 he rebounded the troops for an impressive 9-2 record.

Perhaps one of the best football teams was assembled in 1982. The only blemish on the season was a loss to nationally-ranked Arkansas. However, Tulsa's 10-1 season and top-20 national ranking was not good enough to impress Bowl scouts.

In that same season, college football fans new about a tandem of running backs at SMU, nicknamed the Pony Express ññ Eric Dickerson and Craig James. But what college football fans may not have known was that Tulsa has the only other pair of running backs in the country to rush for over for over 1,000 yards each — Micheal Gunter and Ken Lacy. In a takeoff of the Pony Express, Tulsa's tandem was dubbed the "Palomino Express".

That season, Tulsa was not the only 10-1 team snubbed from the Bowl picture, as New Mexico was in the same situation as the Hurricane. Tulsa and New Mexico fans cried out for justice, and Justice is just what they received.

Tulsa and New Mexico would square off in the Justice Bowl on December 19, 1982. At 1:15 p.m. that afternoon, radio stations in the two cities carried the play-by-play of a fictitious matchup between the two schools. In Tulsa, the Hurricane would win the game, and in New Mexico the Lobos triumphed.

BOWL GAMES CLOSE OUT 1980S, USHER IN THE '90S

Coach Cooper enjoyed a successful tenure taking Tulsa football into the 1980s, while a former Tulsa quarterback would take Hurricane football out of the '80s and into the 1990s. When Dave Rader became head coach in 1988, he became an expansion of Tulsa football's past.

Between Cooper and Rader, Tulsa had two coaches for a total of three seasons. Don Morton was the head coach in 1985 and 1986, while George Henshaw coached the Hurricane for the 1987 season.

Under Rader, Tulsa football experienced a roller coaster ride. The highest points were two bowl games — 1989 Independence Bowl and 1991 Freedom Bowl.

In 1989, the Hurricane posted a 6-5 regular season mark, and represented the Independent Football Alliance at the Independence Bowl, where the Hurricane faced a strong Oregon team from the PAC-10. The Ducks had a second-place conference finish, and was a 16-point favorite, but TU obviously didn't gamble. TU gave the Ducks all the fight they could handle.

Tulsa struck first on a one-yard TD run from Brett Adams, but Oregon bounced back as they put together scoring drives of 54 and 79 yards of their own to take the lead 10-7. The Hurricane took a 17-10 lead into halftime on a field goal and a blocked punt return for a touchdown.

Tulsa scored once more in the third quarter to build their lead to 24-10, but Oregon came back scoring two quick touchdowns to knot the game at 24. As time wound down in the fourth period, the officials ruled against TU on a fumble recovery allowing the Ducks to continue a drive that ended with a final field goal and a victory. Though the Hurricane suffered a heartbreaking loss, that bowl game allowed TU to get back into the college football spotlight.

That spotlight continued to shine in the 1991 season as Tulsa produced a 10-2 season and a number 21 ranking in the final Associated Press football poll. A season that saw the Hurricane upset 15th-ranked Texas A&M 35-34 at Skelly Stadium, and post a come-from-behind 13-10 victory over Southern Mississippi in the "snow bowl" was capped by an invitation to the Freedom Bowl in Anaheim, California, where Tulsa met San Diego State and star running back Marshall Faulk.

At halftime, the two teams went into the locker room deadlocked at 10-10. In the second half, the Tulsa defense became a wall that the Aztecs offense couldn't penetrate, holding them to just 83 yards of total offense.

Late in the game with the Hurricane up by three points, San Diego State muffed a punt at their own eight-yard line resulting in a Tulsa recovery. Two plays later, the Hurricane scored to make the final score 28-17. That Hurricane team went down in Tulsa football history as one of only five teams to have a 10-win season.

Eight Tulsa players from that team went into the NFL, including the likes of quarterbacks T.J. Rubley and Gus Frerotte, lineman Jerry Ostroski, receiver Chris Penn, and defensive stalwarts Barry Minter and Tracy Scroggins.

Since 1991, Tulsa football has been in a transition period, moving from a football independent to the Western Athletic Conference. Tulsa became a member of the WAC in 1996, and had its best season of league play in 2001, winning four games.

Tulsa football did not enjoy much success in the 1990s but as history has proven, success was not far away.

TULSA GOES TO EIGHT BOWL GAMES IN 12 YEARS

The Golden Hurricane won the 2005 Conference USA Championship in its first season as a league member.

The Steve Kragthorpe Era began with a bang in 2003, as the Golden Hurricane had its first winning season and first bowl appearance in 12 years. Tulsa posted an 8-5 overall record, and placed second in the WAC with a 6-2 mark.

In his first year as head coach, Kragthorpe led Tulsa to the biggest turn-around in college football with a seven-win improvement from the previous season. Tulsa made the school's 12th bowl appearance as the Hurricane played Georgia Tech in the Humanitarian Bowl on January 3, 2004. Tulsa football returned to its roots in 2003 as the Golden Hurricane became an offensive juggernaut, scoring over 30 points in seven games and averaging 30.8 points per game.

With an 8-5 record in 2003, Tulsa's seven-win improvement from the previous year was the biggest turn-around in college football for that season.

Although Tulsa only posted four wins in 2004, including two overtime losses, junior Ashlan Davis, a junior college transfer, made NCAA history becoming the first player to run-back five kickoff returns for touchdowns in a single season. He broke the previous NCAA mark of three.

The 2005 season began another new era for the Hurricane as Tulsa officially became a member of Conference USA on July 1, 2005. It would be a year to remember in the first as a C-USA member.

In conference action, Tulsa defeated the preseason favorite to win the C-USA East, Southern Miss, as well as the preseason #3 team in the East Division, Memphis, in the regular season en route to posting a 6-2 league record, winning the C-USA West Division title and playing in the inaugural Conference USA Football Championship Game presented by Xbox 360.

Tulsa captured a 44-27 win in the league championship game over UCF in Orlando, Florida, on Dec. 3, 2005, and received an invitation following the game to play in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tennessee.

Tulsa was matched up against former Western Athletic Conference rival Fresno State in the Liberty Bowl game. Tulsa amassed 430 yards in the game and scored 14 points in the final 10:35 of the game to capture a 31-24 victory over the Bulldogs in front of 54,894 fans.

The Hurricane finished the season with an overall 9-4 record as senior All-American Garrett Mills became the single-season receiving leader in NCAA history for tight ends.

In 2006, Tulsa made its second straight bowl appearance, a feat not accomplished since back-to-back Bluebonnet Bowl appearances in 1964 and '65. The Hurricane played in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl and finished the season with an 8-5 record.

The 2007 campaign, the first for former Hurricane defensive coordinator Todd Graham as head coach, proved to be a record-setting season for the Golden Hurricane. Tulsa set 29 school records, 15 C-USA marks and four NCAA records, en route to leading the nation in total offense with 543.9 yards behind Wuerffel Trophy Award winner Paul Smith at quarterback. Tulsa met up with Bowling Green of the Mid-American Conference in the GMAC Bowl and came away with the largest margin of victory in NCAA Bowl history with a 63-7 win over the Falcons. With a 10-4 record, this Tulsa team became one of only six in school history to reach 10 wins.

Tulsa won the back-to-back GMAC Bowl titles after the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

A year later, the Hurricane won a school record 11 games by posting an 11-3 mark in 2008, established more school records, won the C-USA West Division title and made its' second straight appearance in the GMAC Bowl, defeating No. 22-ranked Ball State by a score of 45-13.

For the second consecutive season, Tulsa again led the nation in total offense with 569.9 yards per game. The Hurricane scored a school record 661 points, while finishing second nationally in scoring with a 47.2 average. Senior running back Tarrion Adams became the school's single-game, single-season and career record-holder for rushing, while senior placekicker Jarod Tracy set the all-time scoring record.

Only 10 times in NCAA history has a school led the nation in total offense in back-to-back years. Tulsa has done it three of those 10 times (1951-52, 1964-65, and 2007-08).

Tulsa captured its third 10-win season in four years with a 10-3 record in 2010. The season was highlighted with one of the most prestigious wins in school history, a 28-27 road win over Notre Dame, as well as a 62-35 victory against 24th-ranked Hawaii in the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl.

Receiver and kick return specialist Damaris Johnson became the NCAA's all-time record-holder for career all-purpose yards (7,796) and kickoff return yards (3,417). He went on to earn second-team Associated Press All-America honors, while Tulsa finished the season ranked 24th in the final AP poll.

ANOTHER 11-WIN SEASON FOR THE HURRICANE

Tulsa alumnus Bill Blankenship took over as head coach in January 2011 and encountered a schedule that featured three top-10 teams in the first four weeks of the season, including #1 Oklahoma, #7 Oklahoma State and #4 Boise State in three of the first four weeks. Tulsa faced its fourth top-10 opponent in the final regular season game of the year as No. 7 Houston handed the Hurricane a home loss.

Blankenship led the Hurricane to an 8-5 overall record in year one, making the school's seventh bowl appearance in nine years. Tulsa faced BYU at the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl, falling in the last minute by a score of 24-21.

In 2012, Blankenship's group posted seven straight victories following an opening road loss at Iowa State. Tulsa won the Conference USA Championship with an overtime win over UCF in the title game, thus setting up a second match-up against Iowa State in the 2012 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

This time, Tulsa got the best of the Cyclones with a 31-17 victory at Liberty Bowl Stadium in Memphis, Tenn. With the win, Tulsa finished the season with an 11-3 record, tying the school mark for most wins in a season.

MONTGOMERY TAKES TULSA TO FOUR MORE BOWL GAMES

Following two losing seasons, Tulsa named Baylor Offensive Coordinator Philip Montgomery as the school's new head coach. The Hurricane offense was among the nation's top units, ranking 11th for passing (333.2 ypg) and 13th for total yards (507.4 ypg) in Montgomery's first at the helm of the program

Tulsa began the 2015 season with wins over FAU and at New Mexico, before dropping a 14-point decision at #16 Oklahoma. The Hurricane needed a final quarter comeback for a 45-34 victory in the regular season finale at Tulane to become bowl eligible with a 6-6 record. In addition to Oklahoma, two more of the six losses came to nationally-ranked opponents #17 Memphis and #16 Navy, as well as one that would end the season in the final rankings, Houston.

2012 AutoZone Liberty Bowl Champions

The Hurricane returned to the postseason with a trip to Shreveport, Louisiana to face Virginia Tech in Frank Beamer's final game as the Hokies head coach. Trailing 45-21 in the second quarter, Tulsa out-scored VT 31-10 over the final 33 minutes and fell just shy in a 55-52 loss.

Despite a final 6-7 record and bowl game loss, the momentum was established to put Tulsa football back into the conversation of conference championships and consistent bowl game appearances.

A year later, Montgomery led the Hurricane to a 10-3 season and 6-2 mark for a second-place finish in the American Athletic Conference's West Division. The 2016 campaign was a record-setting season as the Hurricane became the first team in NCAA FBS/DI history with a 3,000-yard passer (Dane Evans), two 1,000-yard rushers (D'Angelo Brewer and James Flanders) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Josh Atkinson and Keevan Lucas) in the same year.

Tulsa's offense also had a school-record eight 300+ rushing games, while the Hurricane defense had 15 takeaways that led to 101 points and had improvements from a year earlier of allowing the opposition 10 less points and 110 less yards.

Tulsa put an exclamation point on the 2016 season with a 55-10 victory over Central Michigan in the Miami Beach Bowl.

In 2017, two players put themselves atop the school's career performance lists – D'Angelo Brewer became the all-time rushing leader with 3,917 yards and Redford Jones became Tulsa's career scoring leader with 319 points.

The 2020 season was one that college football will never forget as the season was altered by COVID-19. The Hurricane team had eight games affected by the pandemic, but was able to play seven regular season contests and two in the postseason.

Tulsa tied Cincinnati for the league title with a 6-0 AAC mark and went down to the final seconds in the championship game as the Bearcats knocked through a last second field goal for a 27-24 victory. The Hurricane made its third appearance in the Armed Forces Bowl to close out the season.

The campaign was highlighted by the play of the nation's Defensive Player of the year, linebacker Zaven Collins. Collins won the Bronko Nagurski, Chuck Bednarik and Lombardi Awards, while earning consensus All-America honors.

In 2021, Tulsa won its final three regular season games to get bowl eligible and claimed a 30-17 win against Old Dominion in the Myrtle Beach Bowl to finish with a 7-6 record. It was the fourth bowl game under Montgomery. Four of Tulsa's six losses came against four top-25 ranked teams.

D'Angelo Brewer became the school's career rushing leader in 2017, while also breaking the American Athletic Conference all-time rushing record that year. He concluded his career with 3,917 rushing yards.

The 2020 and '21 seasons brought Tulsa a first in school history when the Hurricane had two back-to-back NFL first round draft picks – linebacker Zaven Collins to the Phoenix Cardinals in 2021 and offensive tackle Tyler Smith to the Dallas Cowboys with the 26th overall selection.

1942 SUN BOWL

Tulsa 6, Texas Tech 0
El Paso, Texas

January 1, 1942 • Attendance: 12,000

Tulsa earned its first bowl bid with a 7-2 regular season record. Tulsa's only losses were against Texas Christian, 6-0, and Arkansas, 13-6, in Henry Frnka's first season as head coach.

The game with the Red Raiders, which was played before a partisan Texas crowd, proved to be a defensive struggle. Tulsa's defense held Tech to four first downs and 104 yards of total offense. In the first half, the Raiders pushed the ball to the Tulsa 15-yard line, but the Hurricane defense forced Tech to try a field goal, which missed and resulted in a scoreless first half.

After intermission, Tulsa's Glenn Dobbs punted the ball from the Hurricane 14-yard line out of Tech's end zone, giving Tulsa the momentum. Late in the game, Tulsa mounted a 71-yard touchdown drive behind the passing of Dobbs, who finished the day with 239 passing yards.

With only a few minutes remaining, Dobbs passed to Sax Judd for a 32-yard score, but Dobbs' PAT attempt was blocked. Tulsa intercepted a Tech pass to preserve the 6-0 victory.

1943 SUGAR BOWL

Tennessee 14, Tulsa 7
New Orleans, Louisiana

January 1, 1943 • Attendance: 70,000

Tennessee nosed out Tulsa, 14-7, in the ninth Sugar Bowl football game before 70,000 fans on a beautiful sunny afternoon.

Tulsa scored first on an aerial march of 60 yards headed by All-American Glenn Dobbs early in the second period. Dobbs threw to end Cal Purdin for the score, while Clyde LeForce kicked the extra point. Later in the same period Tennessee countered with six points of their own and at halftime Tulsa held a slim 7-6 advantage.

The Volunteer's power told the story in the second half, as Tennessee scored a safety by blocking one of Dobbs' punts to take the lead in the third period, 8-7. The Volunteers added another touchdown by its powerful running game in the fourth quarter.

With Tennessee leading 14-7 in the waning minutes of the game, the Hurricane drove to the UT 11-yard line and was within one play of a tie, before Tennessee's Bill Nowling intercepted an N.A. Keithley pass to end any hopes of a Tulsa victory.

1944 SUGAR BOWL

Georgia Tech 20, Tulsa 18
New Orleans, Louisiana

January 1, 1944 • Attendance: 69,000

Tulsa made its second straight trip to the Sugar Bowl but failed in its bid for a victory over Georgia Tech in front of 69,000 fans.

For the first three periods and past the middle of the fourth, Tulsa clinged to the lead. But in the end, Tulsa could not withstand an offensive attack led by Tech All-American Eddie Prokop who led the 72-yard drive that gave the Yellow Jackets a 20-18 decision.

Tulsa stopped a Tech drive following the opening kickoff, and from their own 14-yard line marched 86 yards to score in the first five minutes. A fake field goal by Clyde LeForce ended up in a TD pass to Ed Shedlosky. TU tailback Jimmy Ford ran around left end for a 79-yard touchdown on the first play of the second quarter for a 12-0 Hurricane lead.

Prior to halftime, Tech scored on a 71-yard drive, followed by a six-yard TD run by TU's LeForce to give the Hurricane an 18-7 halftime lead. Tech made it 18-13 in the third period, and put together a 79-yard drive for a two-point lead in the final quarter. Tulsa could get only as close as the Tech 34-yard line before the final horn sounded.

Prokop gained 199 yards on 29 carries for Georgia Tech, while Tulsa's Ford had 119 yards on 14 carries.

1945 ORANGE BOWL

Tulsa 26, Georgia Tech 12
Miami, Florida

January 1, 1945 • Attendance: 29,426

Tulsa sought revenge against the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets for the come-from-behind victory in the previous year's Sugar Bowl. This time Tulsa handed the Jackets a 26-12 loss in front of 29,426 fans at the Orange Bowl.

The Hurricane jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter lead and held that same advantage at halftime. On Tulsa's first play of the third quarter, the Hurricane used some razzle-dazzle as Perry Moss threw to Nip Goodnight at the 35-yard line, who then lateraled to Barney White, who sped straight down the north side line for six points, making the score 20-0.

Tech came back with six points of their own in the third period. Tulsa's Camp Wilson quickly quieted the crowd taking the Tech kickoff on the 10-yard line and racing 90 yards for a 26-6 Tulsa lead. Georgia Tech added six points in the final quarter to pull within 14 points of the victorious Hurricane.

1946 OIL BOWL

Georgia 20, Tulsa 6
Houston, Texas

January 1, 1946 • Attendance: 27,000

The game was closer than the score would indicate, as 13 of Georgia's points in its 20-6 victory came in the fourth quarter at the Oil Bowl in Houston, Texas. The Bulldogs scored on their second possession of the first quarter, driving 31 yards after a Tulsa punt traveled only 16 yards. Rabbit Smith scored from three yards out for the Bulldogs.

Just as Georgia had capitalized on a poor punt, Tulsa capitalized on a fumble that was recovered at the Georgia 13-yard line. Five plays later Camp Wilson went over for the touchdown from one yard out giving Tulsa what would be their only score of the game.

The score remained 7-6 through three quarters, but Georgia threw a 47-yard touchdown pass on its second fourth quarter possession, and added a 68-yard punt return for a touchdown by Charlie Trippi. Tulsa had two more opportunities to score but failed.

1953 GATOR BOWL

Florida 14, Tulsa 13
Jacksonville, Florida

January 1, 1953 • Attendance: 30,015

Tulsa battled back from a 14-0 halftime deficit, but saw its brilliant rally fall one point shy as Florida escaped with a 14-13 victory in front of a Gator Bowl crowd of 30,015.

The Gators scored the first time they had the ball, driving 78 yards in 11 plays. Florida scored again in the second period on a 37-yard pass play, capping an 80-yard, 13-play drive. But in the second half, Tulsa's offense threw the Florida defense off balance with the running of Jake Roberts.

The Hurricane put together drives of 73 and 46 yards in the second half. Roberts ran for a three-yard touchdown in the third quarter, followed by a Tom Miner extra point. Tulsa's next touchdown drive began following a Florida fumble at their own 46-yard line. Howard Waugh went over from three yards out for the touchdown. Miner's extra point attempt went wide to the left.

With six minutes left to play, the Hurricane recovered another Florida fumble. Tulsa drove to the Gators' four-yard line, but had to settle for a field goal that again went wide left. Florida was left with just under three minutes to hold onto the ball and the victory.

1964 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Tulsa 14, Mississippi 7
Houston, Texas

December 19, 1964 • Attendance: 50,000

Tulsa quarterback Jerry Rhome offset Mississippi's quick, blitzing defense with a mixture of running and passing as the Hurricane came from behind to upset the Rebels, 14-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Rhorne completed 22 of 36 passes for 252 yards and gained 29 yards on the ground. He was the unanimous selection for the most outstanding back. Tulsa defensive lineman Willie Townes, who harassed Rebel quarterback Jim Weatherley, was named the game's outstanding lineman.

Ole Miss opened the scoring with a one-yard Weatherley run in the second quarter. Rhorne answered on a fourth down situation with a one-yard run of his own with 6:15 remaining in the first half. The Tulsa drive covered 72 yards.

In the third quarter, Rhorne threw 35 yards to flanker Eddie Fletcher for the go-ahead touchdown that proved to be the game-winner.

1965 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Tennessee 27, Tulsa 6
Houston, Texas

December 18, 1965 • Attendance: 40,000

Tennessee combined its error-forcing defense, opportunistic offense, and superior kicking with the rain and mud to hand Tulsa a 27-6 loss in the Bluebonnet Bowl. The Volunteers set the tempo by recovering three fumbles and intercepting four passes to frustrate Tulsa's national passing champions.

Other than a 44-yard, 11-play touchdown drive in the closing minutes of the first quarter that saw Gary McDermott run in from one yard out, Tulsa did not cross the Tennessee 20-yard line until the last minute of the game.

Tennessee, who jumped out to a 6-0 lead, scored its first and second touchdowns on drives of 48 and 33 yards following Tulsa fumbles. Tennessee's third touchdown came on a seven-yard drive after a 45-yard punt return.

The Volunteers led 20-6 at halftime and put the game out of reach with their final touchdown early in the third quarter, coming after another Tulsa turnover. Statistically, Tulsa outgained the Volunteers by 105 yards, including a 250 to 37-yard advantage in the passing department.

1976 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

McNeese St. 20, Tulsa 16
Shreveport, La.

December 13, 1976 • Attendance: 19,164

The inaugural Independence Bowl wasn't decided until McNeese State fullback Oliver Hadnot scored the winning touchdown with 37 seconds remaining on the game clock, giving McNeese a 20-16 win.

The excitement began almost immediately as Tulsa completed a 65-yard drive for an opening drive score. Fullback Thomas Bailey's one-yard run capped Tulsa's scoring drive.

At halftime, Tulsa held onto a 7-6 lead. However, in the third quarter the Cowboys took a 14-7 lead with a 63-yard drive and two-point conversion.

On their next possession, McNeese attempted a 51-yard field goal that was blocked, recovered and returned by Tulsa's Mel McGowen 65 yards for a score. The extra-point-attempt was blocked and the Southland Conference champions led 14-13 with 4:07 remaining in the third period.

With 4:22 remaining, Tulsa appeared to have won the game when Steve Cox kicked a three-pointer from 38 yards out to put his team ahead, 16-14. However, McNeese drove 80 yards from their own 20-yard line in the last two minutes and Hadnot raced the final 25 yards for the winning score.

1989 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Oregon 27, Tulsa 24
Shreveport, La.

December 16, 1989 • Attendance: 44,621

The PAC-10 Conference's second-place team, the Oregon Ducks, entered the Independence Bowl against Tulsa as 16-point favorites, only to hang on for a controversial 27-24 win. The Hurricane went into the game without the services of All-America receiver Dan Bitson, who suffered numerous injuries in an automobile accident two weeks earlier.

The Hurricane scored first on a Brett Adams one-yard run. Oregon put together drives of 54 and 79 yards to take a 10-7 lead, until a Tulsa field goal of 26 yards by David Fuess knotted the score at 10-10 with just over two minutes to play in the first half.

Tulsa took the halftime lead, 17-10, on a blocked punt by Herbert Harvey. Derrick Williams picked up the ball and raced 21 yards for the score with 22 seconds left on the first half clock.

Adams added another one-yard touchdown run in the third period as Tulsa took a 24-10 lead. However, Oregon scored two touchdowns in a six-minute span late in the third quarter and early in the fourth.

With just over three minutes to play, an apparent Tulsa recovery of an Oregon fumble was overruled by the officials. Thus, the Ducks converted on a 20-yard field goal to capture a 27-24 victory.

1991 FREEDOM BOWL

Tulsa 28, San Diego State 17
Anaheim, Calif.

December 30, 1991 • Attendance: 34,217

Tulsa, making its second bowl appearance in three years and its first at-large showing since 1976, notched its first bowl victory since 1964 with a 28-17 win over San Diego State in the eighth Freedom Bowl.

Tulsa's veteran offensive line opened huge holes for tailback Ron Jackson, who grabbed Most Valuable Player honors as he rushed by 211 yards and a Freedom Bowl record four touchdowns on 46 carries. The junior scored once in each of the four quarters, accounting for touchdown runs of 10, 6, 4 and 4 yards, respectively.

The teams were deadlocked at the end of the first and second quarters. Tulsa's defense came alive after intermission holding the potent Aztec offense to just three points and 83 total yards.

Tulsa led 21-17 late in the game when Gus Frerotte's booming 54-yard punt was mishandled by Aztec return specialist T.C. Wright at his own 8-yard line. Billy Cole recovered for Tulsa and the Hurricane scored two plays later to seal the win. The victory earned Tulsa a ranking of 21st in the final Associated Press and CNN/USA Today polls.

2003 HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Georgia Tech 52, Tulsa 10
Boise, Idaho

January 3, 2004 • Attendance: 23,118

Tulsa won five straight games to end the regular season and claimed second-place in the Western Athletic Conference. The prize was a trip to play Georgia Tech of the Atlantic Coast Conference in the Humanitarian Bowl. It would be the third meeting between the two school's, and all three times in bowl games.

The game marked Tulsa's first bowl appearance in 12 years and the eight wins was more than the previous three seasons put together. Although the Hurricane enjoyed its trip to Boise, Idaho, the game was another story. Despite trailing just 10-3 at halftime, Georgia Tech had controlled the first half out-gaining the Hurricane 129-20.

The second half was more of the P.J. Daniels show for Tech. The running back had 104 yards at halftime, and ended the game with 307 rushing yards and four touchdowns. While the Tulsa defense couldn't stop Daniels, the Hurricane offense was giving the Yellow Jackets a short field with six lost fumbles. Six of Tech's eight touchdown drives began inside the Tulsa 40-yard line, and four of those TDs coming after a Tulsa fumble.

Tech put up 42 second-half points and went on for a 52-10 victory, the most lopsided Bowl loss for the Hurricane in 12 postseason appearances.

2005 LIBERTY BOWL

Tulsa 31, Fresno State 24
Memphis, Tennessee

December 31, 2005 • Attendance: 54,894

Tulsa amassed 430 yards for the game and scored 14 points in the final 10:35 of the game to capture a 31-24 victory over the Fresno State Bulldogs in the 47th Annual AutoZone Liberty Bowl in front of 54,894 fans at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium.

The win for Tulsa was its' fifth bowl win in 13 games, and snapped Fresno State's bowl winning streak in consecutive years at three.

Hurricane sophomore Paul Smith, who completed 18-of-27 passes for 234 yards and one touchdown and scored the winning TD on a four-yard run, was named the Most Valuable Player. Senior Ashlan Davis had his first career 100+ receiving game with 128 yards on eight catches, while being named Tulsa's Offensive Player of the Game and sophomore defensive back Anthony Germany was selected as Tulsa's Defensive Player of the Game after intercepting one pass and breaking up two passes.

Trailing 24-17, the Hurricane early in the fourth quarter, Tulsa gained 162 yards while holding the Bulldogs to 77 yards in the final stanza. The Hurricane tied the score at 24 with 10:35 remaining and after Germany's interception Tulsa went ahead on Smith's TD run with 2:55 left. Fresno State's final drive to try to tie the game ended with a Nelson Coleman interception.

2006 ARMED FORCES BOWL

Utah 25, Tulsa 13
Fort Worth, Texas

December 23, 2006 • Attendance: 32,412

Utah scored the final six points of the first half and the first 10 points of the second half en route to a 25-13 victory in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium on the TCU campus.

Utah scored 10 points in a 3:11 span including three points with 0:02 left in the first half, and seven points in the first 3:09 of the second half to take a 16-7 lead with 11:51 on the clock.

Bobby Blackshire's team-leading fourth interception of the year led to a 39-yard, eight-play scoring drive that saw Paul Smith score on his second one-yard TD run of the game at the 10:54 mark of the fourth quarter. The Tulsa score cut the Utah lead to six points, 19-13, as the point-after-attempt failed.

Utah put the game out of reach when Eric Weddle took the snap and ran four yards over the left side for the final score of the game with 1:05 left in the game.

Tulsa's first score came at the 13:01 mark of the second quarter as the Hurricane traveled 80 yards in 10 plays. Smith went over from one yard out for six points in the second quarter to take a 7-3 lead.

Smith finished the game 20-for-27 for 158 yards with one interception. Utah's Ratliff finished 23-for-34 for 240 yards, a touchdown and an interception

2008 GMAC BOWL

Tulsa 63, Bowling Green 7
Mobile, Alabama

January 6, 2008 • Attendance: 36,932

Tulsa won its second Bowl game in the last three years with a 63-7 victory over Bowling Green in the GMAC Bowl at Ladd-Peebles Stadium. Tulsa improved to 10-4 giving the Hurricane the school's sixth 10-win season in the 108-year history of football.

The 56-point victory was the largest in NCAA Bowl history.

Tulsa quarterback Paul Smith completed 27-of-45 passes for 312 yards and five touchdowns, while becoming only the seventh player in NCAA history to surpass 5,000 passing yards in a season.

Tulsa capitalized on three first quarter turnovers by Bowling Green and took a 21-0 lead at the end of one quarter. The Hurricane increased its lead to 35-0 at halftime, capitalizing on another Falcon turnover.

The Hurricane opened the second-half with an eight-play, 78-yard drive in just 2:11 that saw Smith throw the final 14 yards to Trae Johnson, to give the Hurricane a 42-0 lead at the 12:49 mark. BGSU scored its first points of the game on the subsequent kickoff with a 78-yard return.

Tulsa scored one more time in the third quarter on a Paul Smith two-yard run. While the senior threw fourth quarter TD passes of three yards to Charles Clay and six yards to A.J. Whitmore.

2009 GMAC BOWL

Tulsa 45, Ball State 13

Mobile, Alabama

January 6, 2009 • Attendance: 32,816

MVP Tarrion Adams set the school's career and single-season rushing records as he totaled 207 yards and three touchdowns in Tulsa's 45-13 victory over No. 22-ranked Ball State in the 10th Annual GMAC Bowl in front of 32,816 fans at Ladd-Peebles Stadium. The victory gave the Hurricane its first-ever 11-win season, while Ball State ended its' campaign at 12-2.

Tulsa scored the first seven points of the game and took a 24-13 lead at halftime. The Hurricane went on to score 21 unanswered points in a rain-soaked second half, while the Hurricane defense held the nation's 17th-ranked offense to just 17 second-half yards, and allowing zero first downs and zero pass completions.

The Hurricane set school bowl records for total yards (632) and rushing yards (439). Tulsa improved its Bowl record to 7-9 overall, and have won three of its' last four Bowl games.

Adams was joined on the medal stand by Offensive MVP David Johnson, Defensive MVP Roy Roberts and Special Teams MVP Jarod Tracy. Adams was not the only Hurricane player to set a career record, as Tracy established the school's career scoring mark. Adams finished his career with 3,651 yards, while Tracy ended his career with 286 career points.

The victory was the second straight in the GMAC Bowl for the Hurricane. In the last two GMAC Bowls, Tulsa out-scored the two Mid-American Conference foes, Bowling Green and Ball State, by a combined 108-20 score.

2010 SHERATON HAWAII BOWL

Tulsa 62, Hawai'i 35

Honolulu, Hawaii

December 24, 2010 • Attendance: 43,673

Tulsa ended the season with a victory over the No. 24-ranked Hawai'i Warriors in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl in front of 43,673 fans on the island of Oahu.

The Golden Hurricane defense grounded the Nation's No. 1 passing offense for most of the night and kept Tulsa ahead in the first 30 minutes with five first-half interceptions. Tulsa's offense picked it up in the second half by scoring 35 points, including a 21-point third quarter. Among the five first-half pickoffs, two were returned for touchdowns as juniors John Flanders and Cornelius Arnick each recorded 54-yard interception returns in a span of five plays in the second quarter.

The Hurricane led at intermission 27-14, and out-scored the Warriors 35-21 in the second half. For the game, Tulsa's defense picked up six sacks as the Hurricane also won the turnover battle 7-1.

Junior Damaris Johnson set the NCAA career record for all-purpose yards in the contest as he compiled 326 yards, giving him an NCAA record 7,796 all-purpose yards for his illustrious three-year career. The game's MVP recorded 109 kick return yards, 101 receiving yards, 98 rushing yards and 18 punt return yards. Johnson also scored touchdowns on both a 67-yard rush and a nine-yard reception.

2015 CAMPING WORLD INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Virginia Tech 55, Tulsa 52

Shreveport, La.

December 26, 2015 • Attendance 31,289

Trailing by as many as 24 points, Tulsa scored 21 points in the second-half but it wasn't enough as the Golden Hurricane dropped a 55-52 decision to Virginia Tech in Frank Beamer's final game as the Hokies head coach. It was an exciting game from start to finish as the two teams combined to score 107 points and gain 1,161 total yards in front of 31,289 fans Saturday at Independence Stadium.

After combining for 76 first-half points, the two teams scored just 13 between them in the third quarter, while Tulsa out-scored the Hokies 15-3 in the final period and 31-10 over the final 33 minutes of the game. Tulsa's defense which gave up scores on Tech's first six possessions, held the Hokies to just 10 second-half points, while intercepting a pass, recovering a fumble and forcing three punts.

The Hurricane had one last crack at grabbing the victory, starting their final drive at the 20-yard line with 2:00 remaining on the game clock. Tulsa reached the 40-line, but failed to convert on a 4th-and-16 from its own 40-yard line.

Tulsa amassed 563 yards with 374 coming through the air and 189 yards on the ground, while Tech had 598 total yards, including 344 passing and 254 rushing.

2016 MIAMI BEACH BOWL

Tulsa 55, Central Michigan 10

Miami, Fla.

December 19, 2016 • Attendance: 15,262

Tulsa's offense was unstoppable and the defense was dominant as the Golden Hurricane posted an impressive 55-10 victory over Central Michigan in the 2016 Miami Beach Bowl on a Monday afternoon in front of 15,262 fans at Marlins Park. Tulsa finished the season with a 10-3 record, the 10th 10-win season in school history, while also capturing the school's 10th bowl game victory.

Tulsa's offense put the Hurricane into NCAA lore, becoming the first team in DI/FBS history to have a 3,000-yard passer (Dane Evans), two 1,000-yard rushers (D'Angelo Brewer and James Flanders) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Josh Atkinson and Keevan Lucas). It didn't take the Hurricane offense long to accomplish that feat as Evans' 30-yard pass to Atkinson in the middle of the second quarter put the Hurricane quintet into the NCAA record books.

With a 27-3 halftime lead, the Hurricane came out in the second half and scored three more touchdowns to take a 48-3 lead after three quarters. Flanders began the second-half scoring barrage with a 17-yard TD run after an earlier 31-yard run in that same series, capping a 56-yard, five-play drive.

While the Hurricane offense gained 581 yards, the defense held Central Michigan to 355 total yards and only 10 points, tying for the fewest points Tulsa had allowed this year. Tulsa's defense had three interceptions, including a bowl record 66-yard return for a touchdown by end Jesse Brubaker.

2020 LOCKHEED-MARTIN ARMED FORCES BOWL

Mississippi State 28, #24 Tulsa 26
Fort Worth, Texas

December 31, 2020 • Attendance: 9,000

Tulsa dominated the game statistically, but the Hurricane comeback bid against the SEC's Mississippi State Bulldogs fell short, 28-26, in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Trailing 28-19 with 8:01 remaining in the game, Tulsa went on a 6-play, 55-yard scoring drive that saw Zach Smith throw the final 15 yards to Keylon Stokes. The ensuing inside kick, after being bobbled, was corralled by an MSU player, thus securing the Bulldogs two-point win.

Tulsa out-gained MSU 484 to 271 in total offense, as the Hurricane gained 347 yards via the air and 137 rushing yards. The Hurricane defense, playing without College Football's Defensive Player of the Year Zaven Collins, held the Bulldogs to 123 yards on the ground and 148 passing yards, 109 yards below MSU's season average for total yards.

The Hurricane pulled to within two points early in the 4th quarter when Corey Taylor II ran in from five yards out to cap a 32-yard, 9-play drive making the score 21-19. Tulsa's pass on a two-point conversion attempt skipped off of Keylon Stokes' hands, thus keeping it a two-point MSU advantage.

Tulsa nickel safety Cristian Williams was named Tulsa's Game MVP with seven tackles and one pass breakup.

2021 MYRTLE BEACH BOWL

Tulsa 30, OLD DOMINION 17
Myrtle Beach, Fla.

December 20, 2021 • Attendance: 6,557

The Tulsa offense gained 529 yards and the defense limited Old Dominion to 247 yards en route to a 30-17 victory over the Monarchs on a Monday afternoon in the Second Annual Myrtle Beach Bowl at Brooks Stadium.

Davis Brin won the MVP

Award after completing 22-of-34 passes for 285 yards and two touchdowns. Shamari Brooks moved into second place on the school's career rushing chart while toting the ball 26 times for 107 yards and one TD. Josh Johnson surpassed 1,000 receiving yards on the season and 2,000 career yards by totaling 129 yards and one TD on eight receptions.

Defensively, Tulsa had two takeaways that led to 10 Tulsa points with a fumble that resulted in a touch-back and an interception.

ODU jumped out to a 7-0 lead by taking the opening kickoff 100 yards, but the Hurricane scored on its first two possessions to take a 14-7 lead into the second quarter. After leading 14-10 at halftime, Tulsa scored the first 16 points of the second half to take a 30-10 lead with just over nine minutes left to play.

The Hurricane controlled the game in the second half by holding a 25:11 to 4:49 advantage in possession time and ended the game with a 39:43 to 20:17 edge. Tulsa's defense held the Monarchs to just 110 yards in the second half as the Tulsa offense gained 255 yards.

Retired Jerseys

BILLY GUY ANDERSON

GLENN DOBBS

ELLIS JONES

STEVE LARGENT

MARVIN MATUSZAK

JERRY OSTROSKI

FELTO PREWITT

JERRY RHOME

HOWARD TWILLEY

#14 • BILLY GUY ANDERSON • He followed in the footsteps of an All-American, and he played only one year, but Billy Guy Anderson became Tulsa's most prolific passer. He established 10 school passing records. In his first game at quarterback for Tulsa, he completed 25 of 47 passes for two touchdowns and 230 yards. In his final collegiate regular season game, he threw successive scoring bombs of 60, 63 and 51 yards in the fourth quarter to defeat Colorado State. On that same day, he set an NCAA record as he passed for 502 yards. As a senior, he completed 58 percent of his passes for 3,464 yards and 30 touchdowns. His jersey was retired on September 23, 1995.

#45 • GLENN DOBBS • A star tailback for the Golden Hurricane teams of 1940, '41, and '42, Glenn Dobbs was an All-America selection in 1942. One of the best passers and punters in college history, Dobbs led Tulsa to a 25-6 record with two post-season bowl games in his three seasons. He returned to TU as athletics director in 1955 after playing professional football and in 1961 was named Tulsa's head football coach. He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1980 and to the TU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

#31 • ELLIS JONES • A courageous performer, Ellis Jones was the one-armed player who helped lead the University to three bowl appearances in 1942, '43, '44. He was the defensive standout in the 1945 College All-Star game against the Chicago Bears, collecting three tackles behind the line of scrimmage in the same series. A 1983 inductee into the TU Athletic Hall of Fame.

#83 • STEVE LARGENT • An All-America receiver at Tulsa, Steve Largent went on to a Hall of Fame career with the Seattle Seahawks. He was a two-time all-Missouri Valley Conference selection. As a senior in 1975, Largent caught 51 passes for 1,000 yards, 19.5 yards per reception and 14 touchdowns. As a junior, Largent caught 52 passes for 884 yards and 14 TDs. He had career totals of 136 receptions for 2,385 yards and 32 touchdowns. His jersey was retired on October 26, 2008.

#64 • MARVIN MATUSZAK • Possibly the top lineman in The University of Tulsa's history, Marvin Matuszak was a two-time first-team All-America choice in 1951 and '52. He was an all-Missouri Valley Conference pick as well and led the Golden Hurricane into the 1953 Gator Bowl against Florida. Matuszak was a longtime standout in both the National and American Football Leagues. He was inducted into the TU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1983.

#55 • JERRY OSTROSKI • A first-team Associated Press All-America selection in 1991, Jerry Ostroski helped lead the Golden Hurricane to a 10-2 record and victory in the Freedom Bowl. As a true freshman in 1988, Ostroski was the only rookie to letter as a part-time starter on the offensive line. He was a full-time starter for his final three seasons and as a senior graded 91-percent for blocking consistency with 49 knockdowns. He also earned All-America honors by the FWAA, The Sporting News, UPI and College and Pro Football Weekly his senior season. Ostroski was inducted into the TU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. His jersey was retired on October 27, 2018.

#36 • FELTO PREWITT • Considered to be one of the top centers in Golden Hurricane history, Felto Prewitt starred on the bowl teams of 1943, '44, and '45. He gained first team All-America honors in 1945 and went on to play with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

#17 • JERRY RHOME • Possibly the most polished passer in college football history, Jerry Rhome made a shambles of NCAA passing and total offense records in 1963 and 1964. He threw for a career 4,779 yards and 42 touchdowns. In 1964, when he passed for 2,870 yards and 32 TDs, Rhome was the runner-up to Notre Dame quarterback John Huarte in the Heisman Trophy voting. He was selected as the Collegiate Player-of-the-Year in several polls and made nearly every All-America team. Elected to the TU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1984. He was a College Football Hall of Fame inductee in 1998.

#81 • HOWARD TWILLEY • A consensus All-America choice in 1965, Howard Twilley set nearly every Golden Hurricane receiving record and set most national marks. He followed Jerry Rhome as the runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1965, placing second to Southern California halfback Mike Garrett. He caught a career 261 passes for 3,343 yards and 32 touchdowns. Twilley was the captain of the Academic All-American team in 1965. He went on to star for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. He was selected to the TU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1984 and was a College Football Hall of Fame inductee in 1992.

Tulsa Players Get National Awards

WILSON HOLLOWAY

The 2008 Courage Award Goes to Wilson Holloway

The University of Tulsa's Wilson Holloway was the 2008 winner of the FedEx Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award. Holloway, a red-shirt freshman offensive lineman, battled cancer when a softball-sized mass was discovered in his chest in the spring of 2008. Holloway was presented with the award at the BCS Championship Game on January 8, 2009 in Miami, Florida. He was also honored that day at the Football Writers Association of America's (FWAA) annual awards breakfast. A select group of writers from the FWAA vote on the winner Courage Award winner each year. The requirements for nomination include displaying courage on or off the field, including overcoming an injury or physical handicap, preventing a disaster or living through hardship. (Note: Wilson Holloway passed away on February 16, 2011).

Paul Smith Gets Wuerffel Trophy in 2007

In 2007, senior quarterback Paul Smith had a record-setting year, establishing himself as Tulsa's all-time passing leader. He was also presented with the Third Annual Wuerffel Trophy. The prestigious Wuerffel Trophy, named after former University of Florida quarterback Danny Wuerffel, is given to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.

Zaven Collins Named College Football's National Defensive Player of the Year in 2020

A unanimous consensus All-American Zaven Collins was named college football's defensive player of the year after winning the two national awards given to the best defender – the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Chuck Bednarik Award. Collins was also the winner of the Lombardi Award. The Lombardi is presented to the top FBS player, regardless of position, based on the Lombardi Award's criteria of "performance and leadership honed by character and resiliency." The award was formerly given to the best college football defensive lineman or linebacker up until 2017. Collins was also named the 2020 CFB on FOX Defensive Player of the Year and the Butkus Award runner-up, which goes to the nation's top linebacker.

Canadian Football League Hall of Fame Inductees

JERRY KEELING • 1989 CFL Inductee

Keeling played quarterback at The University of Tulsa and was an all-Missouri Valley Conference performer in 1959 and 1960. He starred for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League as a defensive back, and was selected to the all-CFL team three times. Keeling played on two Grey Cup winning teams.

KAYE VAUGHAN • 1978 CFL Inductee

BOB ST. CLAIR • 1990 Inductee

Bob St. Clair, who was a tackle for The University of Tulsa in 1952, was a 1990 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. St. Clair played professional football for the San Francisco 49ers from 1953-63. In 11 seasons, he was a five-time starter in the Pro Bowl. He played both ways for the 49ers and also starred on the special teams. St. Clair is one of Tulsa's greatest defensive tackles. He came to Tulsa for the 1952 season after transferring from San Francisco. He played on Tulsa's 1952 Gator Bowl team.

JIM FINKS • 1995 Inductee

Jim Finks was an outstanding quarterback at The University of Tulsa from 1946-48. He played seven seasons for the Pittsburgh Steelers after being drafted in the 12th round. Following his playing career, he went on to an illustrious career as a team administrator, serving as chief executive officer with the Minnesota Vikings (1964-73), Chicago Bears (1974-82) and the New Orleans Saints (1986-93). At Tulsa, he threw for 2,796 yards and 18 touchdowns and was selected all-conference in 1947 and '48. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame posthumously in 1995.

STEVE LARGENT • 1995 Inductee

Steve Largent played at The University of Tulsa from 1972-75 and then went on to a 14-year career with the Seattle Seahawks. Largent ended his career in the NFL with league career records for receptions (819), yards (13,089), touchdowns (100), consecutive games with a reception (177), 50-catch seasons (10) and 1,000-yard seasons (8). He was selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game seven times. Largent was originally drafted on the fourth round in 1976 by the Houston Oilers, was waived by the Oilers, recalled, and traded to the Seahawks that same year. At Tulsa, Largent was a two-time first-team all-Missouri Valley Conference pick and was a second-team All-American in 1975. He caught 136 passes for 2,385 yards and 32 TDs at Tulsa. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1995.

DREW PEARSON • 2021 Inductee

Drew Pearson came to The University of Tulsa from South River, New Jersey, as a quarterback and moved to receiver as a junior. Pearson rose to become one of the NFL's greatest wide receivers and earned the nickname "Mr. Clutch". He completed his career with 489 receptions and 7,822 receiving yards, along with 189 rushing yards, 155 yards returning kickoffs, and 50 touchdowns in 156 games played. Pearson signed with Dallas as a free agent in 1973 and in that first season caught 22 passes for 388 yards and two touchdowns. A year later, Pearson turned in a season that saw him pull in 62 passes for 1,087 yards. Pearson was a three-time Pro Bowl selection, three-time first-team All-Pro and was named to the NFL's 1970s All-Decade Team. At Tulsa, Pearson finished his career with 55 receptions for 1,119 yards, eight TDs and a 20.3-yard average per reception.

Conference History

In the early years, Tulsa competed in the Oklahoma Collegiate Conference for 11 seasons. Tulsa posted a 46-7-4 record and won five league titles. The Hurricane spent four seasons as members of the Big Four Conference, winning three conference championships while registering a 12-1-1 mark.

From 1935 to 1985, The University of Tulsa competed for the Missouri Valley Conference football championship. After becoming a member of the conference in 1934, Tulsa proceeded to win the league championship its first four years and eight of its first nine years in the conference.

In 50 years of competition in the Missouri Valley

Conference, Tulsa won more conference championships than any other team in the history of the league. TU has to its credit 25 Missouri Valley Conference titles, including 19 outright titles and six co-championships.

Following the 1985 season, Tulsa withdrew its football membership from the Missouri Valley Conference. The league then closed down its operation of football as a conference sport. Before leaving the MVC, Tulsa won the final six league championships (1980-1985).

Tulsa played as an independent for 10 seasons before becoming a member of the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) beginning with the 1996 season, while the 2004 campaign was the last in the WAC for the Hurricane. Tulsa's best finish in nine years in the WAC was second place with a 6-2 league record in 2003.

The 2005 season was the first for Tulsa in Conference USA, and the Golden Hurricane responded that season by winning the school's first conference title since 1985. Tulsa's affiliation with C-USA ended after the 2013 season, and in nine years, Tulsa posted an overall 49-23-1 mark, four West Division titles and two C-USA Championships.

Tulsa began its membership in the American Athletic Conference in the 2014 season.
