Gus Malzahn Era in UCF Football Launches in 2021

by John Heisler

There's a new look to UCF football in 2021—and it begins with ultra-successful new head coach Gus Malzahn.

The former Auburn head coach saw his Tiger teams produce 77 wins over the last eight seasons, all ending in bowl games—six of them in the New Year's Day variety. Malzahn helped Auburn finish unbeaten and win the national championship as the Tigers' offensive coordinator in 2010—then as head coach led Auburn to the Bowl Championship Series title game to cap the 2013 campaign, a Southeastern Conference title and two SEC West crowns.

Malzahn takes over a UCF program led by record-setting junior quarterback Dillon Gabriel, who paced the NCAA in passing last year (357.0 yards per game). Gabriel returns to headline a Knight football team that expects to continue as one of the most prolific offensive units in the nation again in 2021. UCF has ranked in the top eight nationally in both total offense and scoring each of the last three seasons, the only team in the country to accomplish that.

"From the outside looking in, I always felt like if the right guy got to UCF, stayed here and built it, everybody else would be in trouble," says Malzahn. "Now that I've been here awhile, I believe that even more—and I hope I'm that guy. You just feel the positive excitement when you go around campus. It's set up for success."

"Now we've got to go and do it—you've got to work. But there's so much potential here, and that's really exciting. The foundation is here—this has been a top 25 program. We want to get it to where we are a top 10 team on a consistent basis. We believe the future of college football is here at UCF."

The UCF football program has put itself in elite company thanks to three 10-win seasons in the last four years, 41 combined victories in that span, a record five straight postseason appearances (including two New Year's Six bowl games) and a pair of American Athletic Conference titles. The Knights, whose three-season victory total eclipses that of all but a handful of major-conference programs (Alabama, Georgia, LSU, Florida, Ohio State, Oklahoma and Clemson), also will seek to retool a defense that returns 10 players who started at least four times in 2020.

UCF in 2021 returns its starting quarterback, two of its top five ground-gainers, two of its top four pass-catchers, three of its top four tacklers—and its entire offensive line. Maybe the most noteworthy challenge involves retooling multiple offensive skill positions—as the Knights seek to replace their top three ground-gainers (Greg McRae, Otis Anderson, and Bentavious Thompson, who combined for 1,827 yards and 19 TDs) and two of their top three receivers (Marlon Williams and Jacob Harris who combined for 101 catches and 18 TDs).

All that bodes well for a UCF team coming off a 6-4 record in 2020 (three defeats by a combined 12 points), finished off by a Boca Raton Bowl appearance. The Knights last year led the nation in fumbles recovered (with 13) and ranked second in total offense for the second straight year (568.1 yards per game, an all-time UCF and AAC high), fourth in passing (357.4 per game), fifth in turnover margin (plus-1.2 per game), seventh in first downs (283) and eighth in scoring (42.2 points per game).

UCF loses only three offensive starters and two more on defense. Among key offensive contributors lost are leading receiver and 2020 Pro Football Focus third-team All-American Williams (team-leading 71 catches for 1,039 yards and 10 TDs; 16 career starts), stalwart running backs Anderson (125 carries for 687 yards, 4 TDs; 2020 second-team All-AAC pick; 25 career starts) and McCrae (149 carries for 758 yards and 10 TDs; 11 career starts) and receivers Harris (30 for 539, 8 TDs; 11 career starts; third-round pick by Los Angeles Rams in 2021 NFL Draft) and Tre Nixon (108 career catches for 1,652 yards and 13 TDs; 30 career starts; missed six games in 2020 due to injury; seventh-round pick by New England Patriots).

Major defensive figures missing for 2021 are leading tackler and safety and three-time unanimous first-team All-AAC choice Richie Grant (72 tackles plus 3.5 TFL, 3 interceptions, 6 PBU; 33 career starts; second-round pick by Atlanta Falcons), nickelback and second-team All-AAC pick Aaron Robinson (41 tackles, team-high 7 pass-breakups; 19 career starts; third-round pick by New York Giants), defensive linemen Kenny Turner (12 tackles, 7.5 TFL, team-high 4 sacks in 2020; 61 tackles, 23 TFL, 9.5 sacks, 10 career starts) and Randy Charlton (18 tackles, 4 TFL, 2 sacks, team-high 5 quarterback hurries in 2020; 67 career tackles, 10 career starts), linebacker Eric Mitchell (40 tackles, 2.5 TFL in 2020; 175 career tackles, including 77 in 2019; 10 career starts), safety Antwon Collier (150 career tackles; 20 career starts) and cornerback Tay Gowan (31 tackles, 8 PBU in 2019; sixth-round pick of Arizona Cardinals) who opted out of the 2020 season.

"We're going to build around our strengths and particularly build around the strengths of Dillon Gabriel on the offensive side," says Malzahn. "We're going to play fast—so there definitely could be some things that UCF has been successful with in the past that you will continue to see."

Pulling the strings for the UCF attack is Gabriel (248 of 413 passing for 3,570 yards, 32 TDs, 4 interceptions in 2020; first-team All-AAC by Pro Football Focus) who now has started 22 consecutive games and developed into one of the most productive quarterbacks in the nation. He already boasts one of the top career TD pass-to-interception ratios in the country (61 to 11)—with his two-year numbers featuring 484 of 811 passing (.596) for 7,223 yards, to go with 247 rushing yards and 6 TDs. Gabriel finished the 2020 season as the NCAA FBS active career leader in both passing yards (314.0) and total offense yards (324.3) per game. SportSource Analytics says UCF ranks fourth nationally in average quarterback rating over the last four years (behind only Alabama, Oklahoma and Ohio State).

Among top receiving targets are elusive redshirt junior and first-team All-AAC choice Jaylon Robinson (top returning pass-catcher with 55 for 979 yards, 6 TDs) plus speedy junior Ryan O'Keefe (20 for 391, 3 TDs) and junior Amari Johnson (3 for 26). Also back is 2019 and 2020 tight end starter Jake Hescock (10 for 53, 3 TDs in 2020), a redshirt senior. The Knights reinforced their receiving corps with transfers: sophomore Jaylon Griffin (Kilgore College in Texas), redshirt senior Brandon Johnson (79 receptions for 969 yards, 1 TD over 46 career games, including 15 starts, at Tennessee), sophomore Kaedin Robinson (ASA College in New York), redshirt sophomore Diante Marks (he sat out 2020 after transferring from Florida), sixth-year senior Nate Craig-Myers (23 catches for 329 yards at Colorado State in 2019) and redshirt freshman Jordan Johnson (he played in two games in 2020 at Notre Dame).

When the Knights run the football UCF fans are anxious to see more of redshirt sophomore RJ Harvey (he played in 5 games in 2020 after transferring from Virginia), junior Damarius Good (he played in all 10 games in 2020, carrying 4 times for 24 yards), sophomore Johnny Richardson (11 for 65, 1 TD), and redshirt junior Trillion Coles (he missed all of 2020 due to injury; 33 for 168 in 2019). Also a position group reloaded with transfers, Malzahn added Isaiah Bowser (334 rushes for 1,300 yards and seven TDs in three seasons at Northwestern) and Mark-Antony Richards (Three games as a freshman at Auburn in 2020).

The Knights will field a veteran and talented offensive line led by six individuals who combined to play the vast majority of snaps a year ago. Returning offensive starters up front are redshirt senior guard and first-team All-AAC pick Cole Schneider (34 career starts), redshirt sophomore and first-team All-AAC center Matthew Lee (started all 10 games in 2020), redshirt junior tackle Edward Collins (13 career starts) and redshirt senior tackle Marcus Tatum (started 5 times in 2020) and junior guard Lokahi Pauole (8 starts in 2020), along with redshirt senior Samuel Jackson who has played significant snaps with 17 career starts at both guard and tackle.

On the defensive line again look for a bevy of contributors, led by returning regulars redshirt senior tackle Anthony Montalvo (24 tackles, 5 TFL; 17 career starts), redshirt senior tackle Noah Hancock (16 tackles, 1.5 TFL; 7 career starts), redshirt junior end Landon Woodson (23 tackles, 5.5 TFL, 3 sacks) and junior end Tre'mor Morris-Brash (26 tackles, 6 TFL, 3.5 sacks). Also back are redshirt senior tackle Kalia Davis (27 tackles, 8 TFL, 3 sacks, 9 starts in 2019), who opted out of the 2020 campaign, redshirt senior end Stephon Zayas (18 tackles in 2019; 13 career starts), redshirt junior tackle Cam Goode (19 tackles, 7.5 TFL, 3 sacks); third-team All-AAC by PFF, fourth-team by Phil Steele) and sophomore end Josh Celiscar (16 tackles, 4.5 TFL, 2 sacks).

A talented and experienced linebacking corps is led by senior Erik Gilyard (59 tackles, team-high 8.5 TFL, team-high 3 forced fumbles; 23 career starts; fourth-team All-AAC by Phil Steele) and junior Tatum Bethune (57 tackles, 7 TFL; started 5 of last 7 games in 2020), both returning starters from 2020. Those two players rank as the top two returning tacklers from a year ago to the 2021 lineup. Far and away the other most experienced returnee is junior Jeremiah Jean-Baptiste (37 tackles in 2020).

The Knights started 11 different players in the secondary in 2020—and the experience gained by a corps of younger players will help offset the loss of productive veterans Grant, Aaron Robinson, Collier and Gowan from this unit. Cornerbacks in the mix will be sophomore Corey Thornton (30 tackles; he started all 10 games in 2020), sophomore Davonte Brown (23 tackles), three-time letter-winner and redshirt senior Zamari Maxwell (20 tackles; 9 career starts) and sophomore Justin Hodges (he started once among 7 appearances in 2020). At safety, look for senior returning regular Derek Gainous (46 tackles; second-team All-AAC by PFF), redshirt juniors Jermaine McMillian (25 tackles), Dyllon Lester (18 tackles) and Divaad Wilson (11 tackles from the nickelback spot), along with sophomore Quadric Bullard (12 tackles).

The Knights' special teams return sophomore punter Andrew Osteen (43.9-yard average in 2020; third-team All-AAC by both Phil Steele and PFF) and sophomore placekicker Daniel Obarski (12 of 17 on field goals in 2020) and redshirt junior snapper Alex Ward (third-team All-AAC by Phil Steele). The top name among kickoff returners again is O'Keefe (21.8-yard average in 2020), while UCF will seek to identify who will return punts—after no Knight player returned more than three last season.

2021 UCF FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

Gus MALZAHN head coach | first season

Gus Malzahn, who led Auburn to the Bowl Championship Series National Championship Game following the 2013 season in the first of eight straight years his Tigers qualified for bowl games, was named the ninth head football coach at UCF on Feb. 15, 2021.

In eight years as head football coach at Auburn, Gus Malzahn also led the Tigers to a Southeastern Conference Championship, two SEC West Division titles and six New Year's Day bowl selections among those eight postseason appearances.

Malzahn, 77-38 in nine seasons overall as a head coach, has helped teams to seven conference championship game appearances in his 15 seasons as a collegiate coach, including winning a pair of SEC Championships at Auburn (2010, 2013) and a Sun Belt Championship at Arkansas State in 2012. In the final Associated Press rankings his Auburn teams finished second (2013), 10th (2017), 22nd (2014) and 24th (2016).

"When I started the search process, it became very evident very quickly that, based on the conversations I had with the players last week and what they told me we were looking for, Gus Malzahn was the guy for the job," said Mohajir. "He has won at every level, and he has coached a Heisman Trophy winner and NFL draft picks. There has never been a better time for Coach Malzahn to lead this program than right now."

"I'm thrilled to be the head coach at UCF, and I'm truly looking forward to being part of Knight Nation," said Malzahn. "It's exciting to be head of a program where the future is extremely bright. I will be hitting the ground running in terms of getting to know our team and everyone else connected with UCF. Our goal is to be ready to win championships."

The 2013 Bear Bryant, Bobby Bowden, Eddie Robinson, Home Depot, Sporting News, SB Nation, Liberty Mutual and Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Malzahn earned SEC Coach of the Year honors that season after guiding Auburn to the biggest turnaround in SEC history. He led the Tigers to a 12-2 record and one of the most memorable seasons in school history in 2013, with historic wins over Georgia and top-ranked Alabama and a record-setting SEC Championship Game win over fifth-ranked Missouri. He became just the third coach in SEC history to win an SEC title in his first year at a school, joining LSU's Bernie Moore in 1935 and Ole Miss' John Vaught in 1947.

The 34-28 victory over top-rated Alabama in 2013 came on a memorable 100-yard return of a Tide missed field goal on the final play of the game. Malzahn's Tiger squads also defeated seventh-ranked Texas A&M in 2013, seventh-rated Ole Miss in 2014, second-ranked Georgia and top-rated Alabama in 2017 and fifth-ranked Alabama in 2019.

After his eight seasons at Auburn, Malzahn qualified as the second-longest tenured head coach at one school in the SEC. He is one of only 10 active FBS head coaches to take a team to a national championship game. During his time with the Tigers, Auburn was one of only three SEC schools to play in multiple SEC Championships games and play for a national championship.

Malzahn has produced 15 1,000-yard rushers in 15 seasons as a college coach, including Heisman Trophy finalist Tre Mason (1,816) and Nick Marshall (1,068) in 2013 and Cameron-Artis Payne (1,608) in 2014. Kamryn Pettway ran for 1,123 yards in 2016 (despite missing significant time with injuries) and Kerryon Johnson led the SEC with 1,320 yards in 2017.

On three occasions, Malzahn has had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season: 2013 and 2010 (both Auburn) and 2006 (Arkansas). Malzahn has also coached five 1,000-yard receivers and three 3,000-yard passers. His 2007 Tulsa team had three 1,000-yard receivers.

During Malzahn's eight years at Auburn, the Tigers had the top rushing offense in the SEC, averaging 228.6 yards per game. In 2013, Auburn led the nation in rushing at 328.3 yards per game, the first SEC team to do so. Three of the top six team rushing totals in SEC history (2010, 2013, 2016) came under Malzahn's leadership. Auburn became just the second team in SEC history to gain more than 7,000 yards of total offense in a season in 2013, finishing the year with 7,018 yards (also Texas A&M in 2012).

The Tigers set a school record with 48 rushing touchdowns in 2013 and set a school record against SEC opponents with 677 yards of total offense versus Missouri in the SEC Championship Game. The Tigers set SEC Championship Game team records with 26 rushing first downs, 74 rushing attempts, 545 rushing yards and seven rushing TDs.

Tre Mason, a Heisman Trophy finalist and 2013 SEC Player of the Year, ranked third in the nation with 23 TDs, was fifth nationally with 1,816 yards rushing, sixth with 10.7 points per game, sixth with 169.57 all-purpose yards per game and eighth with 129.7 rushing yards per game. Mason set the Auburn single-season record with 1,816 rushing yards and 2,374 all-purpose yards and was second with 317 rushing attempts. His 46 rushing attempts and 304 rushing yards vs. No. 5 Missouri set SEC Championship Game records and fell three yards shy of the Auburn record.

In Malzahn's eight seasons 32 players were selected in the National Football League draft, including four first-round draft picks—including Derrick Brown (No. 7) and Noah Igbinoghene (No. 30) in the 2020 NFL Draft. Malzahn's other first-round picks include Greg Robinson (No. 2 overall) and Dee Ford (No. 23) in the 2014 draft. In the last two drafts, 12 Auburn players have been drafted, the most for the Tigers in a two-year span in the common draft era.

Malzahn coached 14 All-Americans as head coach at Auburn, including consensus selections center Reese Dismukes (2014) and defensive lineman Derrick Brown (2019). Brown won the Lott IMPACT Trophy in 2019, while Dismukes was named the 2014 Rimington Award winner as the nation's top center.

The Tigers faced the nation's most difficult schedule collectively during Malzahn's eight years at Auburn, facing 38 ranked opponents, including 21 in the top 10. Auburn was the nation's only program in 2016 to face both the No. 1- and No. 2-ranked programs and in 2017 it faced three of the four College Football Playoff semifinalists a total of four times, earning two wins.

Malzahn and his coaching proved highly successful on the recruiting trail, recording five consecutive top-10 nationally ranked recruiting classes, a first in Auburn history. Six of his eight recruiting classes rated in the top 11 nationally.

Malzahn, who won the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in 2010 while helping the Tigers to the national title, returned to Auburn after serving as the head coach at Arkansas State in 2012 when he led the program to a 9-3 regular-season mark and the Sun Belt Conference title. Mohajir was named the Red Wolves' vice chancellor and director of athletics in the middle of that 2012 season and remained in that role until coming to UCF last week.

As offensive coordinator, Malzahn made an immediate impact during his tenure at Auburn, highlighted by a record-setting offense in 2010 when the Tigers finished 14-0 and claimed the school's first national title since 1957. Malzahn's arrival in 2009 and style of offense marked a drastic turnaround from the 2008 season when Auburn struggled offensively. In a two-year period, the Tigers improved from a tie for 110th to seventh in the nation in scoring offense (from 17.3 to 41.2) and from 104th to seventh in total offense.

The 2010 Auburn offense set nine school records, while leading the SEC and finished in the top 10 nationally in six statistical categories. He coached Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton, who had one of the best single-season performances at the position in college football history. Newton threw for 2,908 yards and 30 TDs, while rushing for 1,586 yards and 20 TDs. Newton, the No. 1 overall draft pick in the 2011 NFL Draft, also won the Davey O'Brien, Manning and Maxwell Award.

During two seasons (2007-08) as assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator at Tulsa, Malzahn's offenses were among the nation's finest, ranking first nationally in total offense. Tulsa's offense in 2007 established nine team and 12 individual school records. The 2008 Tulsa offense averaged 569.9 yards per game and was second nationally, averaging 47.2 points per games. Malzahn in 2006 spent one season at Arkansas as offensive coordinator, coaching Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden and helping the SEC West champion Razorbacks finish fourth nationally in rushing offense.

Malzahn's coaching career began in his home state of Arkansas at the high school level. In 14 seasons as a high school head coach, Malzahn led seven teams to the state championship game and won three titles. In July 2013, he was inducted into the Arkansas High School Sports Hall of Fame. After one year as defensive coordinator in 191 he spent four years (1992-95) as head coach at Hughes (Arkansas) High School, five years (1996-2000 as head coach at Shiloh (Arkansas) High School and five years (2001-05) as head coach at Springdale (Arkansas) High School.

As a player he helped the Razorbacks to the 1984 Liberty Bowl and the 1985 Holiday Bowl (a win over Arizona State).

Malzahn and his wife Kristi (Otwell) are parents of two daughters, Kylie (Collin) Peek and Kenzie (Charl) Stander.

Brian BLACKMON

special teams coordinator/tight ends | first season

Brian Blackmon, a former member of Gus Malzahn's Auburn football staff and one of the most successful and respected high school coaches in the state of Alabama, rejoined Malzahn at UCF as the Knights' special teams coordinator and tight ends coach on Feb. 21, 2021.

Blackmon in 2020 concluded his third season on the Troy football staff. He added the role of special teams coordinator prior to the 2019 season after coaching Troy's tight ends and S-backs in 2018. Blackmon also coached the Trojan running backs in 2019 and then in 2020 worked exclusively with special teams. He joined the Troy staff following one season as an offensive analyst under Malzahn at Auburn after a 21-year career at Opelika High School.

In 2020, Troy finished 19th in punt-return defense (2.91 yards each), led the Sun Belt Conference (ranking 28th nationally) in net punting at 40.63 and blocked three kicks. Punter Jack Martin was a first-team All-Sun Belt pick as he led the country with his 45.8 net punting average while his 46.1 per-punt average was sixth nationally. Martin allowed just four returns on his punts for a total of seven yards, while having no touchbacks and 52 percent fair catches.

In one season coaching the running backs in 2019 Blackmon was dealt one of the most difficult hands in the country as Troy lost Sun Belt Conference Preseason Offensive Player of the Year B.J. Smith and two other running backs in week two to injury. He mentored Smith's replacement, DK Billingsley, toward a season where he rushed for 901 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Troy was once again one of the top special teams units in the country in 2019, ranking 17th in opponent kickoff return yards limiting returns to just a 17.85-yard average. Troy was successful in all phases in which Blackmon had a hand in during his initial season with the Trojans. He played a vital role in Troy's special teams units, and the Trojans finished the season ranked number one in the country according to ESPN's special teams efficiency rating.

Blackmon also assisted with the Trojan special teams in 2018 as Troy finished fourth nationally in net punting. Tyler Sumpter set the school record by averaging 45.1 yards per punt (11th nationally), and the Trojans were ninth in the country averaging 25.0 yards per kickoff return. Sumpter finished one field goal shy of setting the school record with 18 makes on the year, and the Trojans were one of just 24 teams nationally to not allow a blocked kick.

Blackmon's first season at Troy in 2018 resulted in a 10-3 overall record, a victory at Nebraska and the Trojans' third straight bowl victory (42-32 over Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl in Mobile). Smith turned in the fourth-best rushing season in school history with 1,186 yards (second in the Sun Belt) behind the blocking of Troy's tight ends and S-backs.

In Blackmon's lone season with the Tigers and Malzahn, Auburn's offense ranked in the top 30 nationally in total offense, rushing, pass efficiency and scoring as the Tigers won the Southeastern Conference West Division and played in the SEC Championship Game. Running back Kerrion Johnson was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year and Auburn finished the season with a Peach Bowl appearance against UCF after knocking off a pair of No. 1 teams-- Georgia and Alabama--over the regular season's final three weeks.

Blackmon served as head coach of the Opelika football program in his final eight seasons (2009-16) at the school, while also serving as the athletics director during the same time period before leaving for Auburn in February 2017.

Opelika advanced to a pair of Alabama 6A state championship games (2012 and 2016), and the Bulldogs compiled a 69-25 record during Blackmon's tenure. He was honored as the 6A Coach of the Year in 2012 by the Alabama Sports Writers Association, the Alabama Football Coaches Association, the Opelika-Auburn News, Columbus SportsVision and AL.com.

The Bulldogs won three consecutive region championships and advanced to the playoffs in seven of his eight seasons as head coach. Blackmon left Opelika as the third-winningest coach in the then-99-year history of the high school. He has served as president of the Alabama High School Athletic Directors and Coaches Association and on the advisory, Hall of Fame, reclassification and all-star selection committees of the Alabama High School Athletic Association. Additionally, he served on the high school task force of USA Football and as a district board member of the Alabama Football Coaches Association.

Blackmon spent his first 13 years at Opelika as the offensive coordinator under legendary head coach Spence McCracken. He also served as assistant athletics director from 2001-08 and coached the soccer, wrestling and golf teams during his career at Opelika. He was named the Alabama Assistant Coach of the Year following the 2004 season and was a consistent figure on the coaching staffs of the Alabama-Mississippi and North-South all-star games.

A graduate of Robert E. Lee High School in Montgomery, Alabama, Blackmon was part of the 1991 state champion football team and was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2017. Blackmon played one season at North Alabama before transferring to Troy to complete his studies.

Blackmon earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from Troy in 1996 and a master's degree in business education from Auburn in 1998. He and his wife Kellie have two children--Cade, a quarterback at Samford, and Carlyle.

David GIBBS

co-defensive coordinator/secondary | first season

David Gibbs, a 27-year veteran of the coaching industry, including 11 seasons as a defensive coordinator in the college ranks and nine seasons as a defensive backs coach for three different National Football League teams, was named co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach on Gus Malzahn's UCF football coaching staff on Feb. 18, 2021.

Gibbs was the secondary coach at Missouri the last two years (2019-20) after spending four seasons as defensive coordinator (2015-18) at Texas Tech, where his defenses became known as one of the top turnover-creating units in the country.

Mizzou's defense in 2019 allowed the fewest first downs (195) of any Football Bowl Subdivision program while also ranking sixth nationally in pass defense (179.3 yards per game) under Gibbs. The Tigers were ninth in pass efficiency defense, 14th in total defense (312.0) and 16th in scoring defense (19.4).

In 2017, Texas Tech led the Big 12 Conference and ranked sixth nationally with 29 forced turnovers, including four defensive scores, most by a Texas Tech defense since 2001. From 2013-17, Gibbs' defenses at Tech and Houston forced a combined 140 turnovers, tied for most in the nation among any defensive coordinator during that five-year span.

Gibbs previously served as defensive coordinator at Minnesota (1997-2000), Auburn (2005) and Houston (2013-14) and also took over as interim head coach for the Cougars' appearance in the 2015 Armed Forces Bowl. In that game, Gibbs' team posted the biggest fourth-quarter comeback win in bowl game history, overcoming a 31-6 deficit with just 11 minutes remaining to notch a thrilling 35-34 victory over Pittsburgh.

In his first season at the helm of the Red Raider defense, Gibbs preached the importance of forcing turnovers and the effects showed as Tech went from a minus-13 turnover margin in 2014 to plus-two in 2015. The Red Raiders picked off 15 passes and recovered 10 fumbles in 2015, a year after forcing just 15 turnovers altogether.

Gibbs quickly changed the defensive culture at Houston shortly after his arrival prior to the 2013 season. The Cougars ranked as the third-most improved scoring defense nationally and ranked 20th in the country after allowing 21.8 points per game, a significant improvement from the 36 points per game Houston surrendered in 2012.

The 2013 Houston defense led the nation with 43 turnovers forced to help lead the Cougars to a nation's best plus-25 turnover margin. Trevon Stewart led the nation and set a Houston record with six fumble recoveries, while Adrian McDonald led the American Athletic Conference with six interceptions.

The dramatic defensive overhaul under Gibbs continued in 2014 as Houston finished the regular season ranked 11th nationally in scoring defense at 19.5 points per game and 19th nationally in total defense at 334.6 yards per game. The Houston defense was fifth nationally with 30 takeaways, including 19 interceptions (sixth nationally).

Prior to Houston, Gibbs' last collegiate coaching stop was in 2005 when he served as defensive coordinator at Auburn. The Tiger defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 15.5 points per game that season, while ranking 11th in sacks (39) and 16th in third-down defense.

On the professional level, Gibbs spent a combined nine seasons in Denver, Kansas City and Houston as a defensive backs coach. Teams sporting Gibbs on staff finished in the top 12 of total defense five times and advanced to the NFL Playoffs on three occasions. Three players under Gibbs earned NFL Pro Bowl selections--Champ Bailey, John Lynch and Deltha O'Neal.

Prior to joining the professional ranks, Gibbs became the youngest coordinator on the Football Bowl Subdivision level at the time as the then-29-year-old took over as defensive coordinator at Minnesota in 1997. Gibbs improved a Minnesota defense that had ranked last in the Big Ten in 1996 to one ranked eighth in the nation in pass efficiency defense and scoring defense by 1999.

Under Gibbs' tutelage, Tyrone Carter won the 1999 Jim Thorpe Award and back-to-back All-America honors in 1998 and 1999. Defensive end Lamanzer Williams earned All-America honors in 1997 as Gibbs' defense produced an All-American in three straight seasons for the first time at Minnesota since 1961-63.

Gibbs earned his first full-time coaching position in 1995 at the University of Kansas, where he coached the program's defensive backs. The Jayhawks advanced to just their eighth bowl game in program history in Gibbs' first year when they defeated UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Gibbs earned his first coaching opportunity with back-to-back two-year stints as a graduate assistant at both Colorado and Oklahoma.

The Auburn, Alabama, native was a four-year letterman at the University of Colorado from 1987-90. He started at defensive back for the 1990 national-title winning Colorado team and the 11-1 1989 team that finished fourth nationally in the final polls. Gibbs graduated from Colorado in 1990, earning Academic All-Big Eight honors as a senior.

Gibbs and his wife, Debbie, are the parents of two children--a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Charlie Grace.

Herb HAND

offensive line | first season

Herb Hand, who worked with Gus Malzahn at Tulsa in 2007-08 when they produced the number-one offense in the country and also coached the Auburn offensive line that helped the Tigers rank as one of three finalists for the 2017 Joe Moore Award as the top offensive line in the nation, joined Malzahn's UCF football staff as the Knights' offensive line coach on Feb. 18, 2021.

Hand had most recently spent three seasons as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Texas, and enjoyed great success in stints at Auburn, Penn State, Vanderbilt, West Virginia and Tulsa. He has coached in offenses that produced all-time leading rushers at West Virginia, Tulsa and Vanderbilt.

In both 2020 and 2019, both Texas center Zach Shackelford and left tackle Samuel Cosmi earned All-Big 12 honors. Cosmi was a unanimous first-team all-league pick in 2020 and went on to earn third-team All-American honors from the Associated Press. In his three years at Texas, Hand saw nine offensive linemen earn All-Big 12 recognition.

After Hand's unit paved the way for Texas to rush for 231 yards against 11th-ranked Utah in the 2019 Valero Alamo Bowl, the Longhorns' offensive line received All-Bowl recognition from Sports Illustrated. Cosmi was recognized individually by the Associated Press and ESPN as an All-Bowl performer for his Alamo Bowl showing.

In 2018, all five starting offensive linemen garnered All-Big 12 honors. Led by center Shackelford's first-team recognition (AP) and second-team honors (coaches), Calvin Anderson, Elijah Rodriguez and Patrick Vahe were honorable mention, while Cosmi received votes as the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and was a freshman All-American.

Hand has worked with programs that produced six conference championships in addition to three division championships. Offenses Hand has coached on have produced all-time leading rushers at three different schools including West Virginia, Tulsa and Vanderbilt.

A three-time finalist for Offensive Line Coach of the Year by Football Scoop (2008, 2016-17), Hand was also co-coordinator for an offense that led the nation in total offense for two consecutive years (2007-08) at Tulsa, one of which is the only offense to feature a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers (2007). He has also coached five Freshman All-Americans.

Hand came to Austin from Auburn, where he served for two seasons as offensive line coach under Malzahn, whom he was previously co-coordinator with at Tulsa. While at Auburn, Hand's offensive line was named one of three finalists for the Joe Moore Award (nation's top offensive line) in 2017, and the unit was a semifinalist for the award in 2016. During that time, along with his time at Vanderbilt, he coached players who earned 11 Southeastern Conference Offensive Lineman of the Week Awards.

In 2017, Auburn ranked in the top 30 in the nation in total offense (26th/451.6 yards per game), scoring offense (27th/33.9) and rushing offense (26th/218.3), while ranking sixth in completion percentage (.668) and 15th in third-down conversion percentage (.455). The Tigers' balanced offense was one of only five nationally to average at least 230 yards passing and 215 yards rushing per game, along with Louisville, Oklahoma, Ohio State and South Florida. Auburn's eight 40-point games during the season set a school single-season record.

Under Hand, right guard Braden Smith earned All-America honors from all NCAA-recognized outlets including a first-team nod from the Associated Press, and a second-team selection from all others (WCF, FWAA, AFC and Sporting News). Smith also earned the SEC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy, as the top blocker in the conference, along with being named first-team All-SEC by both the league's coaches and the Associated Press. Along with Smith, left tackle Austin Golson was tabbed third-team All-SEC by Phil Steele. The line paved the way for running back Kerryon Johnson to rank 15th nationally in rushing yards per game (115.9) and ninth in rushing TDs (18), while being named SEC Offensive Player of the Year and second-team All-America.

In 2016, Auburn led the SEC and was sixth nationally in rushing with 271.3 yards per game. Both the scoring offense and total offense ranked in the Top 50 in the nation. Two offensive linemen in Smith and left guard Alex Kozan garnered second-team All-American honors and both were first-team All-SEC selections. Right tackle Robert Leff also took home All-SEC recognition. The offensive line was a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, and Hand was a finalist for Football Scoop's Offensive Line Coach of the Year award. The line cleared the way for running back Kamryn Pettway to lead the SEC and rank 11th in the nation in rushing yards per game (122.4 yards per game). Auburn finished 2016 with an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Hand went to Auburn after two seasons at Penn State as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach. In 2015, the unit blocked for Big Ten Freshman of the Year Saquon Barkley as he set Penn State's freshman rushing record with 1,076 yards. In 2014, Hand's young offensive line steadily improved and produced second-round NFL Draft pick Donovan Smith, who was chosen by Tampa Bay.

Hand coached the offensive line at Vanderbilt from 2010-13, adding run game coordinator duties in 2013. In 2013, Vanderbilt's offensive line blocked for 34 rushing touchdowns, including a school-record 14 by running back Jerron Seymour. Hand helped Wesley Johnson earn All-SEC honors in 2012 and 2013 and then end up selected in the fifth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Hand's 2011-12 offensive lines were instrumental in Zac Stacy breaking the Vanderbilt season and career (3,143 yards) rushing records at that time.

Prior to Vanderbilt, Hand worked three years at Tulsa, serving as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. Hand helped guide Tulsa to consecutive GMAC Bowl appearances behind one of the NCAA's most explosive spread offenses, while mentoring four Freshman All-Americans. As Tulsa's offensive coordinator with Malzahn, Hand coached an offensive line that paved the way for the nation's top-ranked offense in 2007 and 2008. He was a finalist for national offensive line coach of the year in 2008.

In 2007, the offense became the only one in NCAA history to feature a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers. Quarterback Paul Smith passed for 5,065 yards, while running back Tarrion Adams rushed for 1,225 yards, and the trio of Brennan Marion (1,244), Trae Johnson (1,088) and Charles Clay (1,024) each topped 1,000 receiving yards. As a whole, the offense led the nation with 543.9 total yards per game, was third with 371.0 passing yards per game and sixth with 41.1 points per game. A year later, the offense averaged 569.9 total yards per game, while ranking in the top 10 in both rushing (fifth/268.0 yards per game) and passing (ninth/301.9) offense. The scoring offense ranked second with 47.2 points per game.

Hand spent six successful years at West Virginia, serving as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. Hand helped the Mountaineers win three Big East Conference titles and go to five straight bowl games during the span, including a 38-35 victory over SEC champion Georgia in the 2006 Sugar Bowl. In 2006, West Virginia finished with an 11-2 record and had an offense that ranked second nationally in rushing, third in scoring, and fourth in total offense.

Prior to West Virginia, Hand served as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson for two seasons (1999-2000), as the Tigers participated in the 1999 Peach Bowl and 2001 Gator Bowl. Before that, he served as defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator at Concord College in West Virginia. He also was defensive coordinator at another WVAC program, Glenville State, where he helped the Pioneers win three WVAC Championships.

Hand earned his bachelor's degree in history from Hamilton College in 1990, where he was a three-year starter on the offensive line for the Continentals, serving as team captain and earning All-NESCAC honors in 1989. He earned a master's degree in business administration in 1993 from West Virginia Wesleyan while serving as a graduate assistant.

A native of Westmoreland, New York, Hand and his wife, Debbie, have three children—sons Trey and Cade and a daughter, Bailey.

Tim HARRIS JR.

co-offensive coordinator/running backs | first season

Tim Harris Jr., an integral part of Florida International's football success the last half-dozen years as running back coach and recently promoted to offensive coordinator and play-caller, was named co-offensive coordinator and running back coach on Gus Malzahn's new football coaching staff at UCF on Feb. 21, 2021.

In 2020 Harris Jr. tutored a Florida International running attack led by Phil Steele third-team all-league selection D'vonte Price, the league leader in rush yards per carry (6.84). Price also ranked 11th in the nation for rush yards per game this past season, after averaging 116.2 yards per contest. He also finished over the century mark for rushing in all but one game in 2020, while earning a career-high 178 yards rushing against Florida Atlantic.

Harris oversaw a balanced rushing attack in 2019 that produced a pair of NFL rookie free agents in Anthony Jones and Napoleon Maxwell. The duo's highlight of the season came in the win over Charlotte, as Jones (117) and Maxwell (114) rushed over the century mark. It was just the seventh game in Florida International history that the Panthers had at least two players go over 100 yards rushing in the same game. Harris has overseen five of Florida International's seven games in program history with two or more running backs over the century mark. Jones continued his success over the course of the season as he strung together a streak of three games over 100 yards rushing, becoming just the second Panther ever to achieve that feat.

During the 2018 season, Harris Jr. developed his unit into one of the most productive ground attacks in Conference USA and one of the most successful in program history. Florida International broke the school's single season record for rushing touchdowns (27) and rush yards per carry (4.8), while also logging the second-most rushing yards (2,286) in program history and the second-highest rush yards per game (175.8).

In 2018 Florida International finished third overall in Conference USA in total rushing yards, rush yards per game, and rushing touchdowns, while also averaging the second-highest rush yards per carry in the conference. Under Harris, running backs Anthony Jones and Napoleon Maxwell finished first and third on the team with eight and seven touchdowns, respectively. Harris developed junior running back Anthony Jones into a 2018 All-Conference USA honorable mention selection despite only having him available for six games. Harris implemented a balanced ground attack that helped running backs Maxwell, Price, and Shawndarius Phillips all finish with a top 20 ranking in Conference USA rushing yards. Maxwell and Price also finished third and fourth on the team, respectively, with 771 and 743 all-purpose yards.

The 2017 season was a banner year for the Panther offense, with Florida International amassing 5,100 total yards to come just 37 yards shy of setting a program record. Florida International scored 333 points in 2017, which ranked second in program history for a single season.

The Panthers were masters at moving the chains as well, with Florida International setting a school record for most first downs (269) in a season. Florida International also ranked first in the NCAA for red zone offense, after scoring on 40 of 41 attempts (97.6%).

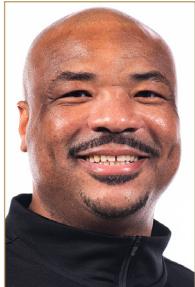

On the ground, the Panthers earned the second-most rushing touchdowns (20), yards (2,069) and yards per game (159.2) in school history, while earning nine games over the century mark as a team. Overall, Florida International finished with four games over 200 yards on the ground, while the 379 yards against Massachusetts ranks as the third-most for a single-game in school history. Under Harris Jr.'s guidance, three players gained over 450 yards rushing in 2017 with Alex Gardner leading the running back stable with 719 yards on the ground.

Harris Jr., came to Florida International after one year as the head coach of Booker T. Washington High School in 2014. In his first season as head coach, Harris Jr., the Class 4A Coach of the Year and the son of legendary Washington coach and two-time Florida Dairy Farmers Coach-of-the-Year Tim "Ice" Harris (2012, 2013), led the Tornados to their second-straight 14-0 record, their third-straight Florida 4A state title and a No. 2 final national ranking (USA Today). The Tornados capped the title run with a 54-35 state championship win over Jacksonville Bolles. Harris Jr., was named the 2014 Florida Dairy Farmers Football Coach of the Year, the 2014 Miami Dolphins George Smith South Florida High School Football Coach of the Year, the 2014 NIKE Football State Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2014 U.S. Army All-American National Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking over the reins in 2014, Harris Jr., was the offensive coordinator for the Tornados for five seasons. During that time he also coached wide receivers and quarterbacks. In 2013, Harris, Jr., helped Booker T. Washington win the 2013 national championship, averaging 41.9 points per game. He also served as the Tornados' head track and field coach from 2010-2014. During that time, Harris Jr., won the 2014 Florida 2A Boys Track & Field State Championships and was the state runner-up in 2013. He was awarded the Miami-Dade County Boys Track & Field Coach of the Year in 2013.

Harris Jr., was a four-time NCAA All-American and Atlantic Coast Conference champion for the University of Miami's track and field team. He earned a degree in English and creative writing from Miami in 2008.

G.J. KINNE

co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks | first season

G.J. Kinne, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Hawai'i in 2020 and a former professional quarterback with stints in the National Football League and Canadian Football League, joined the UCF football staff under head coach Gus Malzahn as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on Feb. 21, 2021.

Kinne previously spent one season each with the Philadelphia Eagles handling offensive special projects in 2019, at Arkansas as an offensive analyst 2018 and at SMU as a graduate assistant coach in 2017. He has worked and played for an impressive list of top offensive play-callers including Doug Pederson, Mike Norvell, Chad Morris, Chip Kelly, Ryan Day and Press Taylor.

Working under head coach Todd Graham at Hawai'i in 2020, he tutored sophomore quarterback Chevan Cordeiro who threw for 231.4 yards per game and 14 touchdowns. Cordeiro also rushed for 483 yards and seven TDs, becoming the first Hawai'i quarterback to lead the team in rushing since 1991.

Hawai'i had three games in 2020 in which it gained at least 500 yards in total offense and scored at least 34 points. The Rainbow Warriors finished 5-4 after defeating Houston 28-14 in the New Mexico Bowl behind Cordeiro's three TD passes.

In his one season with the Philadelphia Eagles, he assisted the offensive staff with game-planning for a squad that won the NFC East division title with a 9-7 mark. The Eagles fell to Seattle in a wild-card playoff game.

He served as an offensive analyst at Arkansas under Morris (offensive coordinator in 2020 under Malzahn at Auburn). # Kenny MARTIN

defensive tackles | first season

Orlando native Kenny Martin, defensive tackle coach from 2018-20 for Western Kentucky defenses that ranked among the most productive in the country, joined Gus Malzahn's UCF football staff as a defensive assistant coach on Feb. 23, 2021.

A former defensive lineman for the Hilltoppers, Martin first returned to his alma mater in 2016 and worked with the defensive tackle position group the past five seasons.

In 2020 Martin helped the Western Kentucky defense rank eighth in the nation in passing yards allowed (177.3), 28th in total yards allowed (348.7) and 41st in points allowed (25.3) per game. Among the defensive tackle group, redshirt freshman Ricky Barber was named a Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-American. His 58 total tackles tied for fifth among all Football Bowl Subdivision defensive linemen regardless of class. Phil Steele tabbed Barber as an All-Conference USA second-teamer and Jeremy Darvin, the other starting tackle, as a third-teamer.

In 2019 Martin helped mentor his group into one of the most solid positions on the field. Darvin and Jaylon George earned All-Conference USA honorable mention recognition, while Barber was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team. Western Kentucky allowed only 20.1 total points per game, the lowest mark for the program since 2004, to rank 22nd nationally. The Hilltoppers held opponents to a 29.7% rate (51-of-172) on third down (sixth in the FBS) and ranked third in the FBS with only 82 missed tackles. Western Kentucky was 24th in total defense at 335.5 yards allowed per game.

In 2018 Martin's work developed George into one of the top defensive tackles in Conference USA as an all-conference selection by Pro Football Focus. In 2017, senior Chris Johnson earned all-Conference USA honorable mention accolades after leading all defenders in quarterback hurries from his tackle position.

In 2016, Martin helped senior Keith Brown set a single-season record for total tackles with 131 en route to earning All-Conference USA first-

A four-year letterman for Western Kentucky, Martin started 42 games from 2009-12 and was a member of the Hilltoppers' first FBS bowl team in the 2012 Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl.

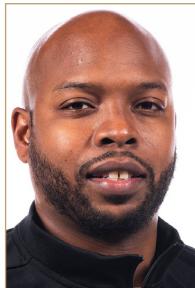

As a coach, Martin helped Western Kentucky participate in the 2016 Boca Raton Bowl (won 51-31 over Memphis), 2017 Cure Bowl, 2019 First Responder Bowl (won 23-20 over Western Michigan) and 2020 LendingTree Bowl.

Prior to returning to Western Kentucky, Martin was the defensive line coach at the University of Virginia-Wise in 2015. # Addison WILLIAMS

cornerbacks | first season

Addison Williams, a former member of Gus Malzahn's football staff at Auburn and Coastal Carolina safeties coach in 2020, rejoined Malzahn and his UCF coaching staff as the Knights' cornerback coach on Feb. 22, 2021.

Williams helped the Chanticleers to an unbeaten and record-setting 2020 regular season, an overall 11-1 record and final rankings of 14th in both the Associated Press and coaches' polls (highest in Sun Belt Conference history).

The Chants finished 8-0 in winning the Sun Belt title in 2020. Coastal posted the only undefeated regular season by a football team in Sun Belt history, which included two wins over Football Bowl Subdivision top-25 nationally-ranked opponents (No. 8 BYU and No. 21 Louisiana), the first two in program history, and four wins over top-50 opponents.

Williams helped Coastal Carolina rank third nationally in 2020 with 16 interceptions (plus second in overall turnovers gained with 25) and 16th in team pass efficiency defense.

Williams came to Coastal Carolina after one season as an analyst and assistant to Malzahn for Auburn football in 2019. He ventured to Auburn from Furman, where he had been promoted to defensive coordinator in the spring of 2019. At Furman, Williams served as cornerbacks coach for the 2017 and 2018 seasons, helping the Paladins win a share of the 2018 Southern Conference title.

From 2013-16, Williams was the defensive backs coach (2013-16) and defensive coordinator (2016) at Tusculum College, where he mentored South Atlantic Conference (SAC) 2016 Defensive Freshman of the Year and All-American Jay Boyd and All-American Cameron Thomas, who led the league in interceptions (five) and passes defended (15) in 2015.

He served as a student assistant coach for the 2010 Gamecocks who won the SEC East title and was a defensive graduate assistant at South Carolina during the 2011-12 seasons, helping the Gamecocks to a 22-4 overall record and wins in both the Capital One and Outback bowls. While at South Carolina, he worked with All-SEC defensive backs Antonio Allen, D.J. Swearinger and Stephon Gilmore.

A native of Atlanta, Georgia, where he earned all-state and all-conference football honors at Westlake High School, Williams earned a bachelor's degree in sports and entertainment management from South Carolina in 2010.

Travis WILLIAMS

defensive coordinator | first season

Travis Williams, former Auburn co-defensive coordinator, linebacker coach and recruiting coordinator, was named UCF's defensive coordinator by Knight head coach Gus Malzahn on Feb. 17, 2021.

As part of the defense, Auburn finished in the top 17 in the nation in scoring defense in four of the last five seasons. Williams also mentored All-Southeastern Conference linebackers in three consecutive seasons.

During Williams' five seasons as linebacker coach under Malzahn, the Tigers ranked fifth nationally in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision, allowing only 54 rushing TDs (eight in 2016, nine in 2018).

In 2020, Tiger linebacker Zakoby McClain led the SEC in tackles with 113. In 2019, Auburn's defense ranked eighth nationally in both red-zone and third-down defense, allowing only 19.5 points per game against a schedule that featured six 11-win opponents.

The 2018 Auburn defense ranked 14th nationally in scoring defense (19.2) and allowed only those nine rushing touchdowns. The Tigers ranked in the top 20 nationally in sacks (38) and tackles for loss (96) and were ninth nationally with three interception returns for touchdowns.

In 2017, SEC West champion Auburn ranked 14th in the country in total defense (319.4) and 12th in scoring defense (18.5), allowing just 4.67 yards per play, eighth-best nationally. Senior linebacker Tre' Williams earned second team all-SEC honors.

In 2016, the Tigers ranked 11th in red-zone defense and 28th in total defense (361.9), an improvement of 43 spots over the previous season, and held eight consecutive opponents without a rushing TD, the longest season streak at Auburn since 1957.

Williams played for the NFL Atlanta Falcons during the 2006 and 2007 seasons, before beginning his coaching career.

Williams was promoted to linebacker coach at his alma mater prior to the 2016 season, after holding various roles on the Tigers' football support staff. While continuing to coach linebackers, he became co-defensive coordinator in 2019 and added the role of recruiting coordinator in 2020.

Williams earned his bachelor's degree in criminology and criminal justice from Auburn in 2005 and received a master's degree in adult education from Auburn in 2011.

A native of Columbia, South Carolina, Williams and his wife Jeanine, an Auburn graduate, have three daughters—Tru, Reign and Brave.

Darrell WYATT

wide receivers | fourth season

Darrell Wyatt, UCF receiver coach from 2018-20 on one of the most productive offenses in college football and mentor of recent UCF All-Americans Gabriel Davis and Marlon Williams, remained in that role on Gus Malzahn's new Knight football coaching staff for the 2021 season, announced Feb. 23, 2021.

A veteran of more than three decades coaching receivers at the college and professional levels, Wyatt and his pass-catchers played hugely prominent roles in the ultra-successful Knight offense and passing game that have ranked among the most potent in the country the last three seasons:

—UCF is the only team in the country to rank among the top five in the nation in total offense each of the last three years (2018-19-20).

—The Knights join Alabama and USC as the only three teams to average at least 316.7 passing yards per game each of the last two seasons.

—UCF joins Alabama, Clemson and Oklahoma as the only four teams to rank among the top eight in scoring each of the last three years.

Wyatt's crew was an integral part of one of the most productive aerial attacks in the nation in 2020—with the Knights averaging 357.4 passing yards per game (fourth nationally). Senior and Pro Football Focus third-team All-American Williams led the way for that unit with his 71 receptions for 1,039 yards and 10 touchdowns—with those numbers and his 129.3 receiving-yards-per-game average all ranking among the top nine nationally. Williams was a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist for the top receiver in the country.

Sophomore speedster Jaylon Robinson added 55 receptions for 979 yards and six scores in 2020, while Jacob Harris had eight TD catches among his 30 catches for 539 yards—all helping UCF and quarterback Dillon Gabriel average 42.2 points per game (eighth nationally). The Knights' big-play capabilities allowed UCF to rank 17th nationally at 14.35 yards per completion for an attack that ranked second nationally in total offense (568.1 yards per game). That level of production earned first-team all-American Athletic Conference honors in 2020 for both Williams and Robinson.

Wyatt's first season at UCF in 2018 featured a host of weapons on the perimeter, as the Knights went 12-0 in the regular season, repeated as American Athletic Conference Champions, earned a berth to the 2019 Fiesta Bowl and rose to as high as seventh in both the Associated Press top 25 and the Amway poll of coaches.

Led by the receiving trio of Davis, Dredrick Snelson and Tre Nixon, the UCF wideouts totaled 2,312 yards and 17 TDs in 2018. The receiving corps was the catalyst for explosive plays with more than 40 of those for 20 or more yards. The Knights ranked ninth in the nation with 14.94 yards per completion and totaled 522.7 yards of total offense per game, good for fifth nationally. Davis (who just finished a standout rookie season in 2020 with the NFL Buffalo Bills), under the leadership of Wyatt, led the team with 815 yards on 53 catches, scoring seven TDs to earn AAC second-team all-conference honors.

Then, in 2019, Davis excelled once again, adding another 72 catches for a UCF single-season record 1,241 yards to go with a dozen TD receptions. A first-team all-league selection in 2019, he led the conference in receiving yards per game (eighth nationally) and was 12th in the nation in TD catches—good for third-team All-America honors from Pro Football Focus and honorable mention All-America accolades from Phil Steele. The Knights ranked eighth nationally in yards per pass completion (15.19 each).

Meanwhile, Nixon contributed 49 more catches (830 yards and seven TDs) and Williams 51 (717 yards and six TDs). The UCF receiving corps combined with Gabriel to enable the Knights to rank fifth nationally in scoring (43.4 points), second in total offense (540.5 yards per game, then the UCF record) and 316.7 passing yards per contest (eighth in the country).

Wyatt was named to the UCF football staff in December 2017 as wide receivers coach. He came to Orlando after a stint on the staff at Arkansas State, serving as an offensive assistant in 2017. The Red Wolves produced a top-five passing offense and a top-20 total offense during his season with the squad. Prior to his time with the Red Wolves, Wyatt worked at Houston, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator in 2016. The Cougars featured the No. 17 passing offense in the nation that year.

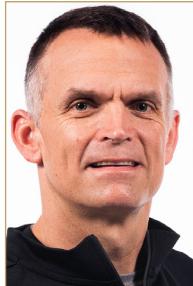

Wyatt has taken part in numerous New Year's Six bowl games throughout his career, and he has multiple years of experience as an offensive coordinator as well. He was an offensive analyst at Oklahoma State in 2015 when the Cowboys went to the Alstate Sugar Bowl and ranked No. 7 in the nation in passing yards and No. 14 in scoring offense.

Wyatt was on the coaching staff at Texas from 2011 through 2013. He was co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Longhorns in 2013, while serving as co-recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2011 and 2012. During his time at Texas, Wyatt's wide receivers earned five All-Big 12 Conference accolades. With Wyatt's help as co-recruiting coordinator, the 2012 Texas signing class was ranked No. 2 in the nation.

In 2008-09, Wyatt was the associate head coach/offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach at Southern Mississippi. The Golden Eagles were No. 18 in the nation in scoring offense and No. 31 in total offense in 2009. In 2008, Southern Miss broke 38 offensive school records en route to the No. 20 total offensive output in the country.

Wyatt also has coaching experience with Kansas, Arizona, NFL Minnesota Vikings, Oklahoma, Baylor, Wyoming, Sam Houston State and Trinity Valley (Texas) Community College.

Wyatt is a graduate of Kansas State University, where he played for two seasons after transferring from Trinity Valley Community College in Athens, Texas. He's originally from Killeen, Texas.

Chris DAWSON

director of sports performance | first season

Chris Dawson, a veteran of more than 25 years in the field of strength training and most recently Kansas State's director of strength and conditioning the last 12 years, was named UCF's director of sports performance for football on Feb. 19, 2021.

Dawson managed the total strength program while providing daily leadership for the Wildcats' football strength and conditioning program for the last dozen years. The Houston, Texas, native spent the previous seven seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas before coming to Manhattan. Under Dawson's tutelage, 39 Kansas State players were drafted by NFL teams, including 10 that were taken in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Prior to his tenure at Kansas State--which included seven bowl appearances--Dawson was part of four bowl teams from 2003 to 2008 at Kansas, including a 2008 Bowl Championship Series appearance in the Orange Bowl. Following the successful 2007 campaign, Dawson was awarded the National Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year Award by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Dawson worked the 2001 and 2002 football seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach for the University of Minnesota after serving a five-year stint at the University of Oklahoma, his alma mater. With the Sooners, Dawson worked with the football and men's basketball teams.

Before taking the position at Minnesota, he spent three months with the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL and two months with the NFL Dallas Cowboys as a strength and conditioning intern.

Overall: 6-4

The 2020 college football season will be remembered most for the way it was delayed, shortened, and interrupted due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The UCF football team, like all across the country, had to deal with more obstacles than usual, but still finished with a 6-3 record in just nine regular season games. The Knights also earned a bowl berth for the fifth consecutive season, and finished with a winning record for the fourth year in a row, at 6-4 overall.

IMPRESSIVE OFFENSIVE NUMBERS

UCF is the only team in the country to rank among the top five in the nation in total offense in each of the last three seasons (2018-19-20). This past year, the Knights were second in the nation and set a new program record with 568.1 yards of total offense per game. UCF ranked third in passing offense with 357.4 yards per game and eighth in scoring offense with 42.2 points per game.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF TURNOVERS

The UCF defense ranked sixth in the nation in turnovers gained in 2020, totaling 22 takeaways in just 10 games. The Knights led the nation in fumbles recovered with 13 and had the fifth best turnover margin in the nation at 1.20.

GABRIEL GOT GOING

Dillon Gabriel took his game to another level as a sophomore in 2020, leading the nation in passing with 357.0 yards per game. He was also second in the nation in total offense with 373.9 yards per contest, fourth in passing touchdowns (32), fifth in points responsible for (212), and seventh with 24.8 completions per game. He set a new single-season record at UCF for passing yards per game, as well as a single-game record for yards (601), and the consecutive completions record (18).

RECEIVING CORPS COMPETED

The offensive line and running backs made the offensive success possible, but receivers excelled on another level in 2020. Marlon Williams led the American Athletic Conference in receptions, receiving yards, and touchdown receptions. Jaylon Robinson was second in the league in receiving yards. Williams was third in the nation with 8.9 receptions per game, fifth with 129.9 yards per game, and seventh with 10 touchdowns. Williams and Robinson had 100 or more yards each in four games in 2020. No other UCF tandem had done that more than twice in a season.

ALL-CONFERENCE ACCOLADES

Eight Knights earned all-conference honors from The American in 2020, including first-team nods for Jaylon Robinson, Marlon Williams, Matthew Lee, and Richie Grant. Dillon Gabriel, Aaron Robinson, and Otis Anderson were named second-team all-conference, while Lokahi Pauole received honorable mention honors.

ALSO ALL-AMERICANS

UCF had three players earn All-America honors following the 2020 season. Marlon Williams was named a third-team All-American by Pro Football Focus and honorable mention All-American by Phil Steele. Richie Grant was also an honorable mention All-American from Phil Steele, while Matthew Lee was named freshman All-American by The Athletic.

NEW NFL DRAFT RECORD

Following the 2020 season, five Knights were selected in the NFL Draft, setting a new program record. Richie Grant was picked in the second round by the Atlanta Falcons, Aaron Robinson went in the third round to the New York Giants, Jacob Harris was picked in the fourth round by the Los Angeles Rams, Tay Gowan was taken in the sixth round by the Arizona Cardinals, and Tre Nixon was picked in the seventh round by the New England Patriots.

• During his inaugural address, UCF President Trevor Colbourn announces that the school will "explore the possibility of developing a football program." Later, Colbourn and director of athletics Jack O'Leary approve a decision to form a football team to begin play in the fall of 1979 as an NCAA Division III program. Former professional football player Don Jonas becomes the school's first coach on a volunteer basis. On Aug. 28, 148 prospective players participate in the program's first practice. Less than one month later on Sept. 22, UCF travels to St. Leo for its first game and wins 21-0. Bobby Joe Plain scores the school's first touchdown on a 13-yard pass reception from Mike Cullison in the first quarter. The following week, UCF plays its first home contest at the Tangerine Bowl and posts a 7-6 victory over Fort Benning in front of 14,188 fans.

The Knights win four games during the campaign and in an 18-14 victory over Emory and Henry, Michael O'Shaughnessy tallies a school-record five sacks. Following the season, cornerback Tim Kiggins earns third-team All-America honors and becomes the first UCF player to sign a professional contract when he joins the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

• The first year of the Scott Frost era at UCF saw the former Oregon offensive coordinator take the Knights from 0-12 to a bowl game, finishing 6-7 on the year. One of the top turnarounds in the nation, Frost's Knights were the first team to go from winless to a bowl game since UCF did it from 2004 to 2005. Linebacker Shaquem Griffin burst onto the scene in Frost's defensive system, earning First Team All-Conference and American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Four Knights were honored by The American in all as Shaquill Griffin and Jamiarius Pittman earned Second Team honors and Drico Johnson was named an Honorable Mention. Shaquill went on to be selected in the third round of the NFL Draft, while five members of the UCF defensive back field signed NFL contracts (Johnson, D.J. Killings, T.J. Mutcherson, Jeremy Boykins).

2018

The first season under head coach Josh Heupel was another success for the UCF football program. The Knights finished the 2018 regular season undefeated for the second straight year, advancing to the American Athletic Conference Championship and winning their second straight league title. Heupel became one of just three coaches to have gone undefeated in their first season as a head coach, joining Chris Peterson (Boise State, 2003) and Larry Coaker (Miami, 2001). The Knights extended their program-record winning streak to 25 games before falling to LSU in the Fiesta Bowl. It was the longest streak in the nation at the time and the fourth longest win streak in FBS since the year 2000. The rushing attack for UCF was one of the best in the nation in 2018. Led by Greg McCrae, who went for 1,182 yards on the ground, rushing for a school record and second-best in the nation 8.9 yards per carry. The Knights set new program bests of 3,448 rushing yards, 265.2 rushing yards per game, 43 rushing touchdowns and a team average of 5.8 yards per carry. McKenzie Milton led a conference record 17 all-conference honors, earning AAC Offensive Player of the Year honors for the second straight season. He also finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting despite missing the final two games of the season due to injury.

Spirit Splash

One of the most unique homecoming traditions in the nation, every year the UCF student body rushes into the reflection pond on campus, reaching to the sky for flying rubber ducks that are thrown out into the crowd by football players, coaches, and other important guests at Spirit Splash. The national champion UCF cheerleading team, KnightMoves, Knightro, and plenty of other student-athletes are in attendance to get the crowd going year after year on homecoming weekend.

2005 SHERATON HAWAII BOWL

NEVADA .....	49
UCF .....	48

December 24, 2005 | Honolulu, Hawaii | Aloha Stadium

HONOLULU - UCF dropped a 49-48 overtime decision to Nevada in the 2005 Sheraton Hawaii Bowl, the first bowl game in school history. The Knights finished the season with an 8-5 record, just one year after going 0-11. The turnaround of seven games from 2004 placed UCF tied with seven other schools for the fourth-best single-season turnaround in Football Bowl Subdivision history.

UCF kicker Matt Prater, who had three field goals during the game, missed the game-tying extra point wide right, giving the Wolf Pack the win.

B.J. Mitchell ran for 178 yards and two touchdowns, and Robert Hubbard had 126 yards rushing and three touchdowns for the Wolf Pack (9-3), who finished with their best season since 1996 and spoiled UCF's bowl debut.

UCF's Brandon Marshall caught a 16-yard pass for a touchdown that tied the game at 42 with 55 seconds left. The score capped a four-play, 48-yard drive that took just 37 seconds.

Prater booted a 46-yard field goal with 1:32 left to draw UCF to 42-35, and the Knights recovered the onside kick with no time-outs left, setting up Marshall's dramatic catch that sent the game into overtime.

Trailing 32-28, the Wolf Pack took the lead on Hubbard's 5-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. Nevada scored again on Rowe's 7-yard scoring pass to Travis Branzell for a 42-32 lead with 3:18 remaining.

Kevin Smith, Conference USA's Freshman of the Year, scored on a 78-yard run, the second longest run from scrimmage in UCF history, to give the Knights a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. The run was the longest in school history by a freshman and in UCF's 10-year Football Bowl Subdivision history. The longest run from scrimmage in UCF history was Elgin Davis' 79-yard scoring run vs. Samford (Nov. 15, 1986).

The 78-yard touchdown run by Smith was the second-longest run by a true freshman in the NCAA during the year. It also marked the longest run in Sheraton Hawaii Bowl history.

2007 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

UCF .....	3
MISSISSIPPI STATE .....	10

December 29, 2007 | Memphis, Tenn. | Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - UCF's memorable season came to a close in a 10-3 loss to Mississippi State in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Playing at the site of Paul "Bear" Bryant's final game, the Bulldogs used power running and a dominant defense to top the Knights.

Anthony Dixon powered in from the one for the winning touchdown with 1:54 to go and most valuable player Derek Pegues picked off two passes in a game featuring anemic offenses and 17 punts.

The Bulldogs (8-5) kept the Knights (10-4) out of the end zone and Kevin Smith from breaking the single-season rushing record. The junior finished with 119 yards, leaving him 61 shy of Barry Sanders' mark of 2,628 yards set for Oklahoma State in 1988.

"I was trying to find the holes, but they were playing faster than us," said Smith.

Dixon finished with 86 yards and became the seventh Bulldogs runner to go over 1,000 yards (1,066). But like the rest of the Bulldogs, he was ineffective much of the game.

The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, mostly due to conservative play-calling.

Neither team converted a third down in the first half (0 for 16) as Mississippi State was held to 84 total yards and UCF to 79.

Kyle Israel had 12 yards passing and two interceptions by halftime and Mississippi State's Wes Carroll had 15 yards and an interception. UCF also didn't get much help from kicker Michael Torres, who gave the Knights a 3-0 lead in the second quarter with a 45-yard field goal, but missed from 32 and 37 in the second half.

"I think those missed field goals were big momentum breakers," UCF coach George O'Leary said. "Give Mississippi State credit. They fought hard and didn't turn the ball over. That usually means you're going to come up with a close win like that."

Mississippi State finished with 199 total yards and Blake McAdams tied the Liberty Bowl record with 11 punts. But the Bulldogs came up with just enough big plays after Keith Fitzhugh picked off Israel's pass at the Mississippi State 41 with 5:47 left.

Carroll, pulled the series before, returned and responded with two rushes for 17 yards and two completions for 15 yards. All went for first downs and spurred a 10-play, 59-yard drive that consumed 3:53 and finally led to a touchdown.

Derek Pegues, fittingly, made the final key defensive play, knocking down a fourth-down pass on UCF's final drive. The Bulldogs held the Knights to 219 yards and forced four turnovers.

2009 ST. PETERSBURG BOWL

UCF .....	24
RUTGERS .....	45

December 19, 2009 | St. Petersburg, Fla. | Tropicana Field

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The St. Petersburg Bowl presented what seemed to be a perfect storm for UCF on Saturday night with 20,000 of its fans packed inside Tropicana Field and a hot football team positioned for the first bowl victory in school history.

But an avalanche of errors combined with speedy, physical opponent in Rutgers ruined what could have been a dreamy, feel-good night for UCF's program and its hopeful fanbase.

Down four points late in the second quarter, UCF allowed an interception return to sap its momentum and the Knights could never mount much of a comeback in a disappointing 45-24 loss to Rutgers in the second St. Petersburg Bowl presented by Beef 'O' Brady's.

"As I told the players, I'm embarrassed for the football team that we didn't go out and do a better job for the fanbase and for the football program," UCF coach George O'Leary said.

"I thought we beat ourselves a lot in a lot of situations out there," a frustrated O'Leary continued. "Right now, Rutgers defense was just a lot better than our offense and that was the difference in the game."

UCF (8-5) had hoped that the momentum of a strong finish to the regular season, one in which it won the final six conference games and knocked off Marshall, Houston and UAB down the stretch, would carry over to the bowl game. But problems on both sides of the ball sabotaged the Knights' chances of pulling off the upset in this game.

Playing before roughly 20,000 Knights fans among the Tropicana Field crowd of 29,763, UCF netted just 35 yards on the ground, 33 of them coming in the fourth quarter when the outcome of the game was already decided. And in the passing game, two Brett Hodges' interceptions led to 14 points for Rutgers, bowl winners for a fourth consecutive season. And UCF's defense yielded 380 yards and eight third-down conversions.

"The offense put up 14 points and a field goal early and defensively we played our butts off. We didn't want to go out like this, and this is so disappointing," senior defensive tackle Travis Timmons said. "It's just such a big letdown. We're 0-14 now against Big East teams and 0-3 in bowl games. Torrell (Troup), Bruce (Miller) and myself along the defensive line wanted to change all of that, but unfortunately things didn't go the way we wanted them to."

Rutgers (9-4) played like an experienced team in its fifth consecutive bowl, using big plays on offense and an attacking defense to frustrate the Knights. Rutgers got six sacks and two interceptions defensively and freshman quarterback Tom Savage threw for 294 yards and two TDs.

2010 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

GEORGIA .....	6
UCF .....	10

December 31, 2010 | Memphis, Tenn. | Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - A UCF football program clearly on the rise as a power-house to be reckoned with nationally registered a landmark victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, beating Southeastern Conference power Georgia while registering the school's first-ever bowl victory.

When UCF sophomore safety Kemal Ishmael batted down a Hail Mary pass that seemed to hang in the air forever, it preserved No. 24 UCF's 10-6 defeat of Georgia and set off a wild celebration among the 8,000 Knights' fans who roared with noise inside the Liberty Bowl.

Doing something for a first time is never easy, and this first-ever bowl victory for UCF went down to the final seconds. Georgia quarterback Aaron Murray heaved a pass into the end zone for 6-foot-4 superstar wide out A.J. Green, but Ishmael was there to make the game-saving play that is sure to live in the history of the program for years to come.

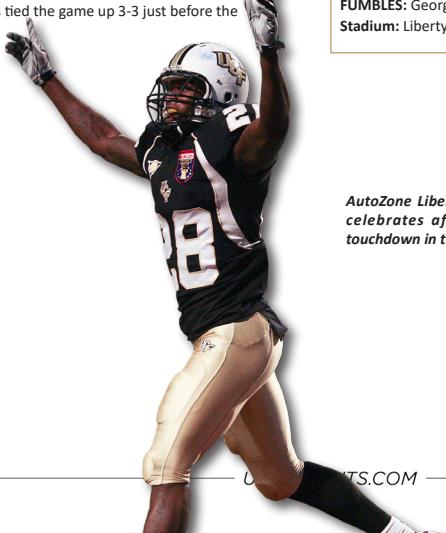

Sophomore tailback Latavious Murray, the game's Outstanding Offensive Player and the MVP, scored on a 10-yard run with 9:01 to play to put the Knights ahead 10-6. And a defense that was dominant a couple of weeks ago in the Conference USA title game made it stand up. They held a Georgia offense that came in averaging 34.3 points a game to just two field goals and no touchdowns.

Freshman quarterback Jeff Godfrey capped a stellar first season on campus, helping the program win a C-USA title and the school's first bowl game. Let the comparisons to UCF legend Daunte Culpepper begin after he joined the school's lore. He completed 16 of 29 passes for 117 yards.

Georgia drove 61 yards on the first drive of the second half, but again had to settle for a Blair Walsh 42-yard field goal when the Knights got crucial pass break-ups from Ishmael and senior cornerback Justin Boddie. That 6-3 Georgia lead would be its final advantage of the game because they couldn't score against UCF's gritty defense.

UCF appeared to have scored first for the 13th time in 14 games when Quincy McDuffie took the opening kickoff back 98 yards. McDuffie, one of only nine players in the nation to return two kicks for touchdowns, hit a seam and sprinted for an apparent touchdown. However, the return was negated by a holding penalty on UCF special teams ace Ronnie Weaver.

Georgia's first drive started at the 2-yard line following a 56-yard boot by UCF senior punter Blake Clingan, but the Bulldogs proceeded to march 95 yards in the next 15 plays. But the Knights stiffened up near the goal line, forcing Georgia to settle for a field goal that put the 'Dogs up 3-0, and the Knights tied the game up 3-3 just before the half.

2012 BEEF O'BARDY'S BOWL

BALL STATE.....	17
UCF .....	38

December 21, 2012 | St. Petersburg, Fla. | Tropicana Field

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The slogan of UCF for 2012 was "Finish." And the Knights did just that with an exclamation point in the 2012 Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl. UCF earned its second bowl victory in program history with a 38-17 win over Ball State.

Led by the all-time winningest senior class in school history, UCF clinched its 10th victory of the season behind an impressive effort by the duo of senior running back Latavius Murray and sophomore signal-caller Blake Bortles. Bortles capped his first full season in style, earning MVP honors while finishing 22-of-33 for 271 yards and three passing touchdowns. He also led the team with a career-high 80 yards on the ground and another score.

Murray was just as impressive, cashing in for three touchdowns (all in the first half) and 104 total yards, with 71 on the ground and 33 through the air on a team-high six catches.

The defense also did its part in the drubbing of the Cardinals. Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year Kemal Ishmael finished his career with 367 tackles after recording seven in the contest. He also forced his sixth career fumble and two pass break-ups. Fellow senior defensive end Troy Davis also went out in style with 1.5 sacks to crack the UCF top 10 with 18-career QB take downs.

After winning the toss and receiving the ball to start the game, UCF matriculated down the field, mixing the run and pass well on a 13-play, 78-yard drive that was capped off by a Bortles-to-Murray touchdown connection. The drive ate 7:33 off the clock and was aided by the sophomore QB's ability to evade the pass rush, while also connecting with rookie Breshad Perriman three times for 21 yards and a pair of first downs.

With the defense forcing a quick three-and-out, UCF's offense continued its impressive start with a seven-play 58-yard drive that saw Murray reach pay-dirt on a short 2-yard burst. The Knights closed out the first quarter outgunning the Cardinals, 16-15.

Ball State would settle in, however, with an 82-yard drive for seven points that saw Keith Wenning hit Willie Snead from seven-yards out to make it a 13-7 contest in the second quarter.

UCF responded with Bortles completely taking over on the ensuing drive. The Oviedo native became a dual threat on the drive, rushing three times for 32 yards, including a 6-yard scramble up the middle that saw him bulldoze a pair of Cardinal defenders on his way to the end zone. He capped the scoring drive with UCF's first two-point conversion since Sept. 5, 2009, hitting senior H-back Dontravious Floyd in the back of the end zone.

Ball State drove right back into UCF territory, reaching the Knights' 10-yard line prior to freshman DL Thomas Niles sacking Wenning for an 11-yard loss. The third-down tackle for loss resulted in a much longer field-goal attempt, which sailed well left of the uprights.

Starting on its own 32-yard line with just 55 seconds left in the half, Bortles hit junior Jeff Godfrey and Murray for 12 and 10 yards before launching a 45-yard beauty to a streaking Perriman, who finished with a career-best 90 yards on five catches, on the far side line. The career-long reception led to Bortles hitting Murray for the second time in the half, this time from five yards out with just five ticks left on the first-half clock.

After a 45-yard field goal by Schott to make it 28-10 with 7:54 left in the third quarter, the Cardinals attempted an onside kick that redshirt sophomore running back Cedric Thompson grabbed out of the air safely to set up the Knights at the BSU 49-yard line.

Bortles continued to shred the Ball State defense with the prime field position. He racked up 41 of the next 49 yards through the air, tying his career record and a Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl mark with touchdown pass No. 3 from seven yards out to fellow sophomore J.J. Worton.

Sophomore Shawn Moffitt would cap the Knights' scoring on the year with a 25-yard field goal to make it 38-10. The Cardinals tacked on a late touchdown to account for the final tally of 38-17. On the season, UCF finished with 496 total points, second all-time in program history.

2014 TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL

UCF.....	52
BAYLOR.....	42

January 1, 2014 | Glendale, Ariz. | University of Phoenix Stadium

GLendale, Ariz. - The most memorable season in UCF football history ended with the most memorable win in program history. In thrilling fashion, the Knights took a 52-42 triumph over No. 6 Baylor in the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The No. 15 Knights (12-1) won their third-consecutive bowl game and set a school record with their 12th victory of the season. UCF came into the season with just one victory over a ranked opponent and ended the historic effort with their second over a ranked squad in 2013 alone. To make the accomplishment even more impressive, both wins over ranked teams came against Top 10 opponents.

Junior quarterback Blake Bortles was named the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Offensive Player of the Game after racking up 301 passing yards and three touchdowns to go along with a career-high 93 yards rushing and a touchdown.

UCF's offense matched Baylor's high-powered attack every step of the way. The Bears came into the contest leading the NCAA in scoring offense and total offense, but it was the Knights who racked up 52 points and 558 total yards for the victory. The points and yardage were the largest totals ever by UCF in a bowl game and against a ranked opponent.

Much was said before the game about how the Knights' defense would stack up against Baylor's up-tempo offense. UCF, however, came into the game with the 13th-ranked scoring defense in the nation. The Knights forced seven Baylor punts and two turnovers, while holding the Bears 11 points and 75 yards beneath their season averages.

The Knights began to put the wild back-and-forth affair on ice when Storm Johnson ripped off a 40-yard touchdown run to give UCF a 49-35 advantage with 10:26 remaining. Johnson set a new career high with 124 rushing yards and matched his season-high mark with three rushing touchdowns. The Knights accounted for the winning total with a 36-yard field goal from Shawn Moffitt with less than five minutes remaining.

UCF got off to a roaring start. After receiving the opening kickoff, the Knights churned out 76 yards in six rush attempts, capped off by an 11-yard touchdown burst by Johnson. This marked the first touchdown drive of the season for the Knights that came without a single pass attempt.

After forcing a three-and-out, the Black and Gold again marched down the field, primarily on the strength of its rushing attack. After Bortles found Breshad Perriman streaking down the left sideline for a 34-yard gain, UCF returned to its ground control attack with four consecutive running plays. Johnson's 2-yard touchdown plunge gave the Knights a 14-0 advantage just eight minutes into the contest.

Junior Rannell Hall proved once again that his nickname, "Speedy" is appropriate as he took two short, second-quarter passes to the house. Both catches were made near the line of scrimmage and featured Hall out-running the Baylor secondary, with help from some terrific blocking from fellow wideouts Josh Reese, J.J. Worton and Taylor Oldham.

While Bortles brought home Offensive Player of the Game honors, Terrance Plummer was named Defensive Player of the Game. The junior linebacker racked up a game-high 14 tackles, including half a sack. Sean Maag (12 tackles) and Clayton Geathers (10 tackles) both recorded double-digit stops as well.

2014 BITCOIN ST. PETERSBURG BOWL

NC STATE .....	34
UCF .....	27

December 26, 2014 | St. Petersburg, Fla. | Tropicana Field

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The UCF Knights fell just short of another stirring comeback at Tropicana Field in the Bitcoin St. Petersburg Bowl. UCF trailed North Carolina State 34-13 in the fourth quarter, and mounted a rally before falling, 34-27.

A Niklas Sade field goal put the Wolfpack on top by 21 points with 12:37 remaining in the contest. But senior captain Josh Reese, who scored all three of the UCF (9-4) touchdowns, hauled in a 14-yard strike from quarterback Justin Holman less than three minutes later, bringing a huge, partisan UCF crowd back into the game.

When the UCF defense got a three-and-out, the Knights' faithful really began believing. However, a Holman interception slowed the Knights' momentum mid-way through the fourth quarter.

NC State (8-5) had two empty possessions, punting and missing a field goal, but a great deal of time ran off the clock.

The Knights started moving the ball again when they took over with 2:56 remaining. Just 1:12 later, Reese found the end zone a third time on a 2-yard pass from Holman. That score pulled UCF within seven points, 34-27.

With 1:44 remaining and no timeouts, the Knights needed to recover an onside kick to have a chance. NC State secured the kick and was able to run out the clock.

Meanwhile, thousands of Knight fans chanted "UCF! UCF! UCF!" and saluted their team as they left the field. An estimated 20,000-plus UCF fans made the short trip and were a part of a near-sellout of 26,675.

The Knights opened the scoring on the first possession of the game. A 40-yard Shawn Moffitt field goal put the Knights on top 3-0. But NC State answered on its first possession with an 18-yard halfback pass to Jaylen Samuels to go on top 7-3. The Knights regained the lead 10-7 early in the second quarter. Holman rifled a pass to Reese at the goal line from six yards out.

But it was all Wolfpack for the next two-plus quarters, as NC State out-scored the Knights 27-3 to go on top by 21 points. Wolfpack quarterback Jacoby Brissett found a wide open Johnathan Alston for a 37-yard score to make it 14-10. An NC State field goal with 3:16 remaining in the first half pushed the score to 17-10 at halftime. Matt Dayes ran up the middle for a 19-yard score on the opening drive of the second half, putting the Wolfpack on top 24-10. The Knights got three points back after Wolfpack turnover, with Moffitt hitting from 36 yards out to make it 24-13. NC State answered with another Dayes score, as he went untouched up the middle late in the third, making it 31-13.

For the game, the Wolfpack out-gained the Knights 487-373. Brissett was named the game's MVP after passing for 262 yards and rushing for 31 more. Holman threw for 291 yards on 23-of-53 with three scores to pace the UCF offense. Breshad Perriman had nine receptions for 138 yards. Defensively, UCF was led by senior captain Clayton Geathers, who racked up 14 tackles.

2016 AUTONATION CURE BOWL

ARKANSAS STATE .....	31
UCF .....	13

December 17, 2016 | Orlando, Fla. | Camping World Stadium

ORLANDO – The UCF football team couldn't overcome a number of miscues in Saturday night's Cure Bowl, falling to Arkansas State 31-13.

Despite the outcome, UCF head coach Scott Frost expressed the amount of pride he has in what the Knights accomplished this season. He had a message of gratitude for the seniors, who played their final game in the Black & Gold.

"What this team has accomplished, I'm proud of them, happy for them. I'm hungry to accomplish more," Frost said. "I had a simple message for our team. I thanked the seniors. Everything we say about our seniors we mean from the bottom of our heart. These guys could have gone a lot of different directions. They didn't have to sacrifice and put in the effort and be leaders for our team and totally take a new direction in a new way of doing things that our coaching staff was asking them to do. They all did; they all led us. I'm proud to be their coach."

The Red Wolves scored 14 points off turnovers and added a touchdown on a blocked punt, which opened the scoring. Those 17 points were a huge difference in a contest where the two defenses were dominant. Arkansas State rushed for just 29 yards, while the Knights only managed 12. UCF passed for 211 yards, while the Red Wolves threw it for 205. Neither squad managed more than 234 yards. Combined, the two teams were 6-for-35 on third down.

"I think when either team's defense is on the field it was the superior unit on the field and we kind of knew that going in," Frost said.

A nightmare first quarter for UCF left Arkansas State with a 17-0 lead after 15 minutes of play. A blocked punt was recovered in the end zone for the Red Wolves. A long Arkansas State pass play led to a field goal to make it 10-0. On the ensuing kickoff, a fumble set the Red Wolves up with a short field that was converted into a touchdown to account for the 17 points.

The Knights found some offense in the second quarter. Tre'Quan Smith made another of his patented circus catches. The 34-yard completion set up an 11-yard scoring strike from McKenzie Milton to a wide-open Taylor Oldham. Following an Arkansas State fumble, Matthew Wright converted a 45-yard field goal to pull the Knights within seven, 17-10 at the intermission.

But a 75-yard touchdown pass less than a minute into the third quarter swung the momentum back to Arkansas State. Wright's second field goal of the game late in the third quarter got the Knights back within 11, 24-13. The Red Wolves took over deep in UCF territory late in the third quarter on a fumbled UCF punt and turned it into a touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter, accounting for the final tally.

2018 CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL

UCF .....	34
AUBURN .....	27

January 1, 2018 | Atlanta, Ga. | Mercedes-Benz Stadium

ATLANTA, GA. (UCFKnights.com) – Behind 21 unanswered points in the second half, the UCF football team capped a perfect 13-0 season with a 34-27 win over No. 7 Auburn in the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on New Year's Day.

Down seven late in the third quarter, the No. 12 Knights stormed back into the game. Quarterback McKenzie Milton hit Otis Anderson on a screen pass that the freshman took to the end zone to tie the game with 1:30 to play in the third. Following a Tigers punt, the Knights offense drove back into Auburn territory. Milton danced around a few would-be tacklers, stepped up in the pocket and found a cutting Dredrick Snelson from eight yards out to give the Knights a 27-20 lead.

Auburn took over at their own 20-yard line with 6:58 left to play and a chance to even the score. Tigers quarterback Jarrett Stidham threw a pass that was intended for a cutting receiver for a short gain, but senior Chequon Burkett stepped in front to intercept the pass. The native of Montgomery, Ala., had no one in front of him and sprinted 45 yards to the end zone for the game-winning score.

Burkett, along with Shaquem Griffin and the UCF defense, gave the Tigers all they could handle. UCF racked up a season-high six sacks and 11 tackles for loss. UCF recorded a pair of takeaways. In addition to Burkett's pick-six, A.J. Wooten set up the Knights' first touchdown in the second quarter. The redshirt junior jarred the ball loose from Stidham, and it bounced into the hands of Tre Neal, which later led to an 18-yard scoring run for Milton.

MCKENZIE FRENZY

- Milton was 16-of-35 for 242 and a pair of passing touchdowns and added a score on the ground, earning Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl Offensive MVP honors.
- After slow start in the first half, Milton was nearly unstoppable in the second half. He completed 13 of 18 passes for 212 yards.
- The sophomore led the team in rushing with a career-high 116 yards for 8.9 yards per carry.

Milton now holds the UCF record for single-season rushing yards by a quarterback. The previous record was 566, set by Jeff Godfrey in 2010. Milton finished the season with 613.

2019 PLAYSTATION FIESTA BOWL

LSU .....	40
UCF .....	32

January 1, 2019 | Glendale, Ariz. | State Farm Stadium

GLENDALE, Ariz. (UCFKnights.com) – Senior defensive lineman Titus Davis took a knee on the 35-yard-line, his silence only interrupted by teammates who approached to extend their hand or a hug.

Senior linebacker Pat Jasinski hugged quarterback McKenzie Milton and told him he loved him like a brother.

Senior punter Mac Loudermilk thanked a slew of teammates one by one before taking a moment for himself to stand near the end zone and soak up the scene before him as memories of the past five years brought tears to his eyes.

The No. 7 UCF football team didn't get the ride-off-into-the-sunset ending it was hoping for in its 40-32 loss to No. 11 LSU at Tuesday's PlayStation Fiesta Bowl.

But this journey was something they'll never forget.

"I wouldn't trade this for anything in the world. Do I wish this game would have come out a little bit differently? Yeah. It's bittersweet," Loudermilk said. "What I want is for people to know this team pushes through any adversity there is, no matter what it is. I hope we stir the pot for expansion. I hope we've opened some people's eyes that we play real ball, and we can play with anybody. There is no limit to this team. Orlando has a hometown team and I think the school is only going to skyrocket from here."

The Streak that Knight Nation will Always Remember

The Knights' spectacular win streak came to an end after 25 games and a span of 745 days, dating to Aug. 31, 2017. The accomplishment will be listed in the NCAA record book among the longest win streaks ever recorded and marks the fourth-longest win streak this millennium (Miami, 34 – 2000-03; Florida State, 29 – 2012-14; Alabama, 26 – 2015-16).

During the last two years, the Knights won two War On I-4 rivalry matchups against USF. They bested four different nationally ranked opponents. They set an American Athletic Conference record for all-conference honorees in a single season. They welcomed ESPN's iconic show College GameDay to campus for the first time. They won two conference championships. They won the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and celebrated a national championship season.

And despite all that, those accomplishments will always fall second to the brotherhood and family they gained.

"I told the team in the locker room, 'You wipe y'all tears,'" linebacker Nate Evans said. "I know it's hard for some of these seniors, it's their last game. But football doesn't last forever. It's just a game. It's going to end. The memories that we have together as this UCF football team (are) going to last forever."

2019 BAD BOY MOWERS GASPARILLA BOWL

UCF .....	48
MARSHALL .....	25

December 23, 2019 | Tampa, Fla. | Raymond James Stadium

TAMPA – After nearly a month off from playing, the UCF football team got things started quickly on Monday afternoon, scoring 21 points in the first eight minutes on the way to 48-25 victory over Marshall at the 2019 Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

Two of the Knights' (10-3) first three scores came from the defense, as Richie Grant snagged his first pick of the season and returned it 39 yards for a touchdown on the third play from scrimmage.

After punts from both teams, freshman Dillon Gabriel led a 6-play, 65-yard drive that culminated with a 26-yard Greg McCrae touchdown to put the Knights up 14-0 less than six minutes into the game.

Marshall (8-5) then began a drive at its own 21-yard line and advanced it to UCF's 40-yard line, before the Knights defense struck again. Tre'Mon Morris-Brash knocked down a backwards pass and picked it up to record the first forced fumble and the first fumble recovery of his career. Better than that, he then ran 55 yards to the end zone to give his team a 21-0 advantage it never looked back from.

A penalty-riddled, defensive-minded second quarter came and went with the Knights going into the locker room with a 24-7 lead.

The offense took its turn after the break, as the two teams totaled 39 combined points in the third quarter. Following the hour-long period, UCF found itself leading 45-25.

Gabriel, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player after the win, hit Otis Anderson on a 4th-and-7 screen pass that went 35 yards to pay dirt to get things started in the quarter. Gabriel also rushed for a score and connected with Marlon Williams on a 75-yard score down the sideline to give the Knights a 45-25 lead heading into the final frame.

The Knights' offense controlled the clock and the defense kept the Herd at bay in the fourth quarter. Dylan Barnas's second field goal of the game, at the 9:01 mark, was the lone score of the period, and UCF left Tampa with the 48-25 victory over its former rival.

The Knights' 586 yards of total offense and 310 yards rushing both marked program records in a bowl game, while the 48 points were just four points shy of the 52 scored against Baylor in the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The defense totaled five turnovers on the day, another UCF bowl-game record.

The game's MVP, Gabriel finished the day 14-of-24 for 260 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions. The true freshman also added a score on the ground.

UCF finished the 2019 season at 10-3, the program's third straight 10-win season, a first for UCF.

Overall Record				125-101

On Sept. 29, 1979, Camping World Stadium, known back then to the Orlando community as the Tangerine Bowl, opened its doors for a hometown, start-up football program guided by Don Jonas. The Florida Citrus Bowl for much of the Knights' run, the crown jewel of the Orlando Centroplex was home for UCF until the 2007 season when the Bounce House - then Bright House Networks Stadium - was erected on the UCF campus.

Jonas was the first of seven men that led the Knights onto the field at the Citrus Bowl with George O'Leary being the last. The relationship witnessed more than 100 Knight victories and came to an end when the Black and Gold ran through the Citrus Bowl tunnel one last time on Nov. 25, 2006, against UAB.

The Citrus Bowl saw the Knights' football program rise through the division ranks of the NCAA, starting as a Division III member in 1979, to making the move to Division II in time for the 1982 season, then on to Football Championship Division status in 1990 before finally emerging at the top level as a Football Bowl Subdivision member in 1997.

The Knights were victorious in their inaugural game at the stadium, defeating Fort Benning 7-6 in front of 14,138 fans. Quarterback Mike Cullison's touchdown pass to Bobby Joe Plain on a fourth-and-goal was the first Knight score in the venue and proved to be the difference in the game. UCF fans would go on to set a Division III record as an average of 11,420 fans attended the Knights' four home games that season.

During UCF's 28-year stretch when it called the Citrus Bowl home, the stadium was the platform for some great UCF moments. The final home game vs. UAB in 2006 served as the final opportunity to add to that long, memorable list, and the Knights did not disappoint. Quarterback Kyle Israel found Mike Sims-Walker twice in the first quarter for a pair of touchdowns and the Black and Gold did not look back, defeating the Blazers 31-22. The crowd of 23,755 broke the 200,000 mark for the first time in school history, as the Knights saw a then-school record 220,980 fans flock through the gates in 2006.

UCF completed its tenure at the Florida Citrus Bowl with a 112-59-1 record. The Knights outscored their opponents 5,136-3,496 in 172 games with the 5,000th point coming on a Michael Torres extra point against Villanova Sept. 2, 2006.

BY THE NUMBERS

7 Record number of touchdown passes by a Knight. Darin Slack achieved the feat during a 52-14 trouncing of West Georgia in 1987.

8 Number of 300-yard passing games Daunte Culpepper had during his illustrious career with UCF. Also the jersey number worn by the first-round NFL draft pick, who had a total of 15 300-yard passing games during his career as a Knight.

11 Most consecutive home wins by UCF in the Citrus Bowl. The streak started on Nov. 2, 1996, with a 42-15 victory over Illinois State on Homecoming.

21 Largest margin overcome by the Knights in a victory. UCF fell behind 21-0 in the first quarter, but rallied for a 28-24 win over Illinois State on Oct. 20, 1984.

23 Tackles recorded by Bill Giovanetti in the 1979 season-finales against Morehouse. The total still stands as the all-time record for single-game tackles by a Knight.

50 Highest number of points scored in a half by the Knights. UCF went on to defeat Akron, 57-17, on Nov. 3, 2001.

55 Longest field goal by a Knight. Ed O'Brien drilled the booming kick to help UCF pull out a 39-37 victory over Bethune-Cookman on Sept. 7, 1985.

64 The greatest margin of victory for the Knights. UCF thumped Grand Valley State 67-3 on Halloween in 1987.

100 The Knights' 100th victory on their home field was a 28-17 win over Akron on Homecoming, Oct. 26, 2002.

Alexander CARTWRIGHT

university president | second year

Alexander Cartwright became UCF's sixth president in March 2020. Under his leadership, UCF is determined to become the world's leading public metropolitan research university, to foster success for students of all backgrounds and to produce research and creative works that positively impact lives across our community and beyond. To achieve this vision, the university is focused on achieving greater academic, inclusive and operational excellence.

As a first-generation college student, Dr. Cartwright understands and prioritizes the need to build successful outcomes for students from all backgrounds. He grew up in the Bahamas and moved to Iowa with his mother and stepfather at age 17. He earned a GED and then worked to pay for community college classes, including cleaning a hog confinement building and serving as a custodian in a factory.

Persuaded by the factor owner to study engineering, Cartwright transferred to the University of Iowa, where he earned bachelor's and doctoral degrees in electrical and computer engineering.

His educational path mirrors that of many students at UCF, where one of every five students is the first in their family to attend college and half of the students work more than 20 hours a week.

Before coming to UCF, Cartwright served as chancellor of the University of Missouri for three years. He also was a professor of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science at MU. He previously was provost and vice president for research and economic development at the University at Buffalo, State University of New York, where he had served as a faculty member since 1995.

An internationally recognized researcher and scholar in the area of optical sensors, he is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, SPIE and the National Academy of Inventors. Dr. Cartwright is a prior winner of both the National Science Foundation CAREER Award and the Office of Naval Research Young Investigator Award.

He and his wife Melinda have two children, Alyssa and Andrew.

Terry MOHAJIR

vice president &amp; director of athletics | first season

Terry Mohajir, UCF's vice president and director of athletics, has excelled at hiring coaches who win championships, raising money for first-class athletics facilities and support resources necessary to be nationally competitive—and fulfilling a unique promise to guarantee a job or graduate school admission for every student-athlete who graduates. He heads into his first full year with the Knights in 2021-22.

Mohajir (pronounced mo-HAH-zhure) joined the UCF Athletics staff in February 2021 following eight years as Arkansas State University's vice chancellor for intercollegiate athletics. His early months in Orlando included four 2021 American Athletic Conference titles produced by Knight teams.

Mohajir wasted no time making an impact at UCF. Just five days after taking over the Knights' program he hired former Auburn coach Gus Malzahn as the new UCF football coach. Malzahn was the head coach at Arkansas State in 2012 when Mohajir was hired there as director of athletics—with the Red Wolves winning the Sun Belt Conference title that year in Malzahn's single season with Arkansas State. Malzahn led Auburn to the Bowl Championship Series title game after the 2013 campaign, one Southeastern Conference Championship and two SEC West Division titles.

Since Mohajir came on board at UCF, Knight teams have produced the following on-field achievements in the spring of 2021:

- AAC titles in volleyball, men's soccer, men's tennis and women's tennis
- NCAA Championship appearances by those four teams, plus women's basketball, women's golf and softball, with individuals qualifying in men's golf and women's track and field
- NCAA Sweet 16 qualifications in men's soccer and women's tennis, plus an NCAA regional runner-up slot in softball

His tenure at Arkansas State featured delivering on a guarantee that every student-athlete who graduated earned a job opportunity or admission to graduate school. The Red Wolves achieved the 100% guarantee every year for Mohajir's last six years there—and he expects to institute the same program at UCF under the banner of the Knights Leadership Academy.

In addition, he conducted a facility audit that resulted in the installation of new artificial turf in the Nicholson Fieldhouse (UCF's indoor football building) plus significant branding and other updates in the football offices, prompted rebranding of the Knights' ongoing athletics fundraising and giving platform as the ChargeOn Fund, helped raise more than $5 million in commitments in his first five months in Orlando, reworked the UCF management team of senior athletic administrators—and attached his imprint to the Knights' future football schedules with creation of a series with Florida. In the classroom, UCF student-athletes in spring 2021 achieved a 27th consecutive semester with a combined grade-point average of at least 3.0—including 148 dean's list honorees.

Mohajir also has played a major role for UCF Athletics in navigating both the ongoing Covid-19 challenges and adoption of name, image and likeness (NIL) initiatives with Opendorse and Compass via UCF's LAUNCH program.

Mohajir was a member of the prestigious College Football Playoff (CFP) Selection Committee from 2019-21, and he has served on the NCAA Division I Championships Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee. He was appointed to the NCAA Division I Football Ad Hoc Recruiting Working Group which was formed to conduct a comprehensive review of Division I football recruiting legislation. In 2020 he was named one of the top five non-Power 5 athletic directors by Stadium, based on the success of head coaching hires in football and men's basketball.

While at Arkansas State for eight-plus years, Mohajir's accomplishments included:

- Creating new policies, producing record-breaking fundraising totals, overseeing significant facility upgrades, almost tripling the athletics budget and implementing creative philosophies that strengthened the Red Wolves' national brand, as part of a series of sweeping changes—as Arkansas State enjoyed unprecedented overall success academically, competitively and financially.
- The school's football team winning four Sun Belt championships and playing in a bowl game every year in his eight seasons. Overall, the Red Wolves won 25 conference titles in all sports during Mohajir's tenure.
- More than $90 million in facility enhancements, including a new premium football seating area, new tennis courts, a new outdoor track and a state-of-the-art operations center for all student-athletes that houses locker rooms, a weight room, training area, lounge plus offices for coaches. The operations center was funded entirely with $29 million in private money.
- Arkansas State student-athletes consistently achieved school-record grade-point averages, culminating with a Sun Belt-leading 3.211 GPA in 2019-20.
- A series of standout coaching hires, including current Auburn head football coach Bryan Harsin, current Utah State head football coach Blake Anderson, as well as Butch Jones who became Arkansas State head football coach in December 2020.
- Establishment of a variety of leadership and professional development programs for student-athletes, including creative offerings such as faculty-led study-abroad opportunities.

Arkansas State placed among the top 12 programs in the nation in five consecutive Excellence in Management Cup standings—in annual reviews of the nation's athletics departments in regard to maximizing fiscal resources while providing results in the form of championship victories.

Mohajir previously was senior associate athletic director for external relations at the University of Kansas in 2011-12 and senior associate director of athletics for external relations at Florida Atlantic University in 2004-11. He served as assistant director of athletics for external relations at the University of Missouri-Kansas City in 1997-2004 and was assistant offensive line and game-day special teams coach with Kansas football in 1993-97.

Mohajir earned a bachelor's degree in sports management with a minor in business marketing from Arkansas State in 1993 and a master's degree in sports management/psychology from Kansas in 1997. He was a starting safety on Arkansas State's football team from 1990-92—including the Red Wolves' first season competing at the Division I/Football Bowl Subdivision level in 1992.

The Overland Park, Kansas, product was named UCF's vice president and director of athletics on Feb. 9, 2021. Mohajir is married to the former Julie Hammond and they are parents of three children—Maria (a student at Temple), Molly and Marco.

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida, Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American is firmly established as a Power 6 conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, football and basketball postseason victories, expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to three New Year's Six bowl champions (UCF in 2013 and 2017; Houston in 2015), two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 13 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl six times in the league's first eight football seasons, including the 2020 campaign, when Cincinnati reached the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The American finished the 2019 football season with four top-25 teams; among the 10 FBS conferences, only the SEC and Big Ten had more ranked teams in the final polls.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. UCF finished in the national top 10 twice as a conference member – in 2013 and 2017. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last six years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). Cincinnati registered its third and fourth 11-win seasons in program history in 2018 and 2019 and was ranked No. 8 at the end of the 2020 season. SMU returned to national prominence in 2019 with a 10-win season, during which the Mustangs were ranked as high as No. 14 nationally. Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014, while Tulane has played in three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, men's cross country and men's track and field.

Under The American's banner, Houston's men's basketball team reached the 2021 NCAA Final Four and was ranked No. 3 in the final coaches' poll, while Memphis claimed the 2021 NIT title. Houston's men's track and field team took third place at the 2018 and 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Tulsa has registered top-six national finishes at the 2019 and 2020 NCAA Men's Cross Country Championships.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. Houston's Ed Oliver won the 2017 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman. The American has had three top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes as UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton was eighth in 2017 and sixth in 2018, while Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds was fifth in 2015. Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Acker was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional and international sports as well, beginning with the selection of UCF quarterback Blake Bortles by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer, including former Memphis center James Wiseman, who was the No. 2 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and former Wichita State third-baseman Alec Bohm, the No. 3 selection in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Former SMU standout Bryson DeChambeau, who was the 2014 American Athletic Conference individual champion, went on to win the 2015 NCAA Championship, the 2015 US Amateur title and has since become one of the top players on the PGA Tour, including a win at the 2020 U.S. Open. Former Memphis tennis player Joe Salisbury, a 2014 all-conference selection, has gone on to win the 2020 Australian Open men's doubles championship and the 2021 French Open mixed doubles title. Former Tulane standout Dominik Koepfer has earned a top-50 world ranking in men's tennis. Cincinnati's Jordan Thompson was named to the 12-player United States Olympic volleyball team, which will compete in Tokyo in 2021.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+. The football championship game, all rounds of the men's basketball championship, and multiple rounds of the women's basketball championship, will be on linear ESPN television networks.

The first six American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with an expansive group bowls for the new cycle, which began in 2020, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations for member institutions.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Powerful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

The crown jewel in UCF's impressive Kenneth G. Dixon Athletics Village, the Bounce House opened in 2007. The campus facility gives the Knights one of the top venues in the southeast and one of the best homefield advantages in college football. After spending their previous 28 seasons at the Florida Citrus Bowl (now known as Camping World Stadium) in downtown Orlando, the Knights made their debut at then Bright House Networks Stadium on Sept. 15, 2007, facing national power Texas. A capacity crowd was on hand for the game, which was televised live nationally on ESPN2.

In its inaugural campaign at the stadium, UCF completed the season with six-straight wins at home, including a 44-25 victory over Tulsa in the Conference USA Championship game. When UCF hosted Miami on Oct. 17, 2009, a facility-record 48,453 fans were on hand for the contest.

Located on the modern north side of campus, the stadium features luxury boxes, a large club lounge on the west side of the stadium, the Carl Black and Gold Cabana premium experience on the east side, and field-level cabanas in the north and south end zones.

In the summer of 2015, the stadium enjoyed its first major renovation with the addition of the Carl Black and Gold Cabana. It is a premium experience that became one of the signatures of the UCF gameday experience. The Cabana is a 10,000-square-foot, Florida-themed social area and lounge located between the 30-yard lines. It features chair-back stadium seating, as well as an open-air sun deck to enjoy the game. Refreshments, televisions, private restrooms and other amenities are available as well.

One year later, UCF upgraded its video board to a 114 by 36 feet LED display. It features Daktronics' 15HD pixel layout for excellent image clarity. The display also has variable content zoning, allowing it to show one large image or be divided into multiple windows to show any variety of live video, instant replays, statistics, scoring, graphics, animations and sponsorship messages. The stadium also saw the addition of a ribbon display to the south end zone in 2017. This display measures more than seven feet high by 199 feet wide.

Also new to the Bounce House in 2017 were the Field Cabanas, a premium area on the field, behind both end zones with tvs, refrigerators, food and refreshments.
