BOWLING GREEN FACTS

THE FALCONS

The nickname Falcons was chosen for BGSU athletic teams in 1927. It was suggested by the sports editor of the Daily Sentinel Tribune, who thought the nickname was fitting because it was indicative of a powerful bird that was small in stature, its coloring represented the school colors, and, like the athlete, the falcon must go through a long period of training before battle. Freddie and Frieda Falcon are the campus mascots.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

The historical story behind how BGSU began using Brown and Orange as its school colors dates back to 1914.

Dr. Williams, the university's first President, gathered a group of people which included a Dr. L.L. Winslow from Industrial Arts as a selection committee for the school's new colors. While on an interurban (or trolley) ride to Toledo, Dr. Winslow sat behind a woman wearing a large hat adorned with beautiful brown and orange feathers. It is unclear whether or not she ever actually gave him a few of these feathers from her hat, however, he was so interested in the color scheme of the pair that he convinced the committee to approve the combination of Brown and Orange.

INSPIRATION TO THE CLEVELAND BROWNS

It was early in the calendar year of 1946 and Browns general manager/head coach Paul Brown was scouring Ohio, looking for a training camp site for that summer on which the team could get ready for its inaugural season in the start-up All-America Football Conference.

His travels took him to Bowling Green and Bowling Green State University. Brown was interested in the school because it was far enough away from Cleveland that he could sequester his team there away from all the noise and chatter of the big city, but close enough that the Browns, when they needed to, could get back to Cleveland in a decent amount of time (two hours-plus at a point in history before the existence of the Ohio Turnpike).

Brown was getting a tour when he stopped in an athletic building. What caught his attention was a framed BGSU football jersey on a wall. He really liked the school's orange-and-brown color combination and the rest is history.

SONGS OF BGSU

President Ralph McDonald opened a five-year contest during which each year a college song was chosen and presented on Honors Day. At the end of the five-year period, a committee convened to listen to all five winners. Edith Ludwig Bell's composition was publicly presented as The Alma Mater of BGSU at the Golden Anniversary Convocation on May 19, 1960.

Before 1948, there was not an official fight song for campus. The Commoners, a men's independent group, created a contest for a new fight song. Following the students' lead, campus officials asked the music department to develop an official fight song. Dr. Wayne Bohrnstedt, assistant professor of music from 1947-53, composed the current song, "Forward Falcons." The words were written by Sidney Freeman, a graduate assistant in the English department.

Brought to Bowling Green over half a century ago by original SICSIC member and World War II veteran Gilbert Fox, "Ay Ziggy Zoomba" is BGSU's unofficial fight song. In 1946, Fox, an Army Air Corps bombardier who served in Italy, brought his interpretation based upon a Zulu war chant back to the University.

YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

Bowling Green has a permanently unoccupied seat in Doyt Perry Stadium to honor the tens of thousands of military personnel who are or were prisoners of war (POW) or have been declared missing in action (MIA).

POW/MIA Chair of Honor is a national program designed to remember prisoners of war and those missing in action. The chair was permanently installed in the stadium in 2014 to help visitors and fans remember that even though our service members are not with us, they are not forgotten.

- Bowling Green State University returns to action in the eighth annual Quick Lane Bowl against the New Mexico State Aggies on Mon., Dec. 26.
- It is Bowling Green's first appearance in the Quick Lane Bowl, but the Falcons appeared in a bowl game two previous times at Ford Field, including the now-defunct Motor City Bowl (2003) and the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl (2013). Both those games also happened to be played on Dec. 26.

BOWLING GREEN VS. NEW MEXICO STATE

- The 2022 Quick Lane Bowl will be the first all-time meeting between Bowling Green and New Mexico State in football.
- BGSU is playing a FBS Independent team for the first time since traveling to Notre Dame in 2019.

FIVE TOP STORYLINES

- Bowling Green is playing in its first bowl game since the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl when the Falcons fell to the Georgia Southern Eagles.
- Bowling Green enters Bowl Season as one of four FBS programs whose win totals improved 4+ games from 2020 to 2021 and then improved 2+ more games from 2021 to 2022. Joining BGSU on the list are Kansas State, Oregon State and Tennessee as the Falcons are the only program from outside the "Power-5" to accomplish the feat.
- DL Karl Brooks is a first-team All-American by Pro Football Focus and is the highest graded edge rusher in the nation. He enters Bowl Season No. 8 in the nation in sacks with 10.0. He is also No. 9 in the nation with 18.0 tackles for loss.
- WR Odieu Hiliare has a catch in 34-straight games, which includes his career at Alabama A&M. It is the 14th-best active streak in the nation. The Alabama A&M transfer has 156 career receptions for 2,069 career receiving yards and 19 receiving touchdowns.
- TE Harold Fannin Jr. leads BGSU with four rushing touchdowns. He and Tennessee's Princeton Fant are the only tight ends with at least four rushing touchdowns. Fant scored his fifth last time out at Vanderbilt. He is the only FBS tight end in the nation to lead his team in rushing touchdowns.

DL Karl Brooks is a first-team All-American (PFF) and the highest graded edge in the nation. He is No. 3 all-time at BGSU in single-season sacks (10).

#ToTheMoon: BY THE NUMBERS

ON THIS DATE • DEC. 26

- Bowling Green has played two previous games in its history on Dec. 26. The Falcons are 1-1 all-time on this date and both those games were also bowl games at Ford Field in Detroit.

Season	Bowl	BGSU Coach	W/L/T	Score	BGSU Rank	Opponent	Opp. Coach	Opp. Rank

BOWLING GREEN FIRST WENT BOWLING IN 1961

- In 1961, Bowling Green played in its first bowl game, the Mercy Bowl at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The game against Fresno State was played to raise money to help the families of 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team. The 16 players perished in a plane crash shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport after a 1960 game against BG. The game netted $170,000 for the memorial fund.
- A bronze plaque mounted on the peristyle end of the Los Angeles Coliseum commemorates the 1961 Mercy Bowl. Until the 2021 LA Bowl, it was the last bowl game played in the city limits of Los Angeles.

MCDONALD FAMILY KNOWS BOTH BGSU AND NEW MEXICO STATE

- Bowling Green quarterback Matt McDonald is no stranger to New Mexico State. His older brother Andrew was a quarterback for the Aggies in 2012 and 2013. As the starter in 2013, he finished with 2,497 passing yards and 15 passing touchdowns.
- Matt and Andrew's older brother, Michael, was a quarterback at USC following in dad Paul's footsteps. More on McDonald family on page 10.

BGSU AND NEW MEXICO STATE WILL SEE A CLASH OF LINES

- Bowling Green is No. 11 in the nation with 37 sacks, or No. 9 in the nation with 3.08 sacks a game. They will have a battle in the trenches as New Mexico State is No. 25 in the nation by allowing only 15 sacks.
- The most sacks New Mexico State gave up in a game was three against UMass. BGSU tallied six in a game three times.

AGGIES HAVE HOSTED A NO-FLY ZONE IN 2022

- New Mexico is No. 13 in the nation by allowing only 183.7 yards per game through the air.
- Bowling Green's Matt McDonald has thrown for 200+ yards in a game eight times this season, creating a fun matchup to watch.

BOWLING GREEN IN FORD FIELD BOWL GAMES

- Northwestern took away Bowling Green's running game. So Josh Harris beat the Wildcats through the air. Harris passed for 386 yards and three touchdowns to lead Bowling Green to a 28-24 victory over Northwestern in the 2003 Motor City Bowl. It was the first postseason meeting ever between schools from the MAC and Big Ten.
- Bowling Green took the lead for good on Harris' 3-yard touchdown pass to Cole Magner with 4:06 left. Harris, who also ran for a TD, set a Motor City Bowl and BGSU record for completions with 38 in 50 attempts. It also marked the third fourth-quarter rally for BGSU against a Big Ten squad (Northwestern in 2001 and Purdue in 2003). Magner also set a game record for catches, finishing with 12 for 97 yards and two touchdowns.
- Bowling Green used two 80-yard scoring drives to take a 21-17 lead early in the fourth. Harris threw a 7-yard TD pass to Magner, and put the Falcons on top with an 11-yarder to Steve Sanders.
- Chris Blewitt's field goal with 1:17 remaining gave the Pitt a 30-27 win over the Bowling Green in the 2013 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl at Ford Field.
- Pitt freshman James Conner ran for 229 yards and a touchdown, while the Panthers' Tyler Boyd had 173 receiving yards and returned a punt 54 yards for a score.
- On BG's second drive, Johnson found Shaun Joplin for gains of 18 and 17 yards, respectively, on back-to-back plays. Joplin led the BG receivers with six catches and 86 yards vs. the Panthers. The Falcons got into the red zone before the drive stalled, and Tyler Tate kicked a 28-yard field goal to give the Brown and Orange the early lead.
- Trailing by a touchdown at halftime, BGSU drew even at the start of the second half, as BooBoo Gates returned the opening kickoff 94 yards for a score. Tate's PAT tied the game with only 11 seconds elapsed.
- That Gates return tied the school record for longest kickoff return in history, matching Leon Weathersby's 94-yard return in a 1997 game at Doyt Perry Stadium.
- The next drive, however, saw the Panthers kick what proved to be the winning field goal. On the second play of that drive, Voytik rolled out and gained 19 yards, giving Pitt a first down at midfield. Conner gained 20 yards on the following play. Voytik handed the ball to Conner on each of the next three plays, gaining a total of nine yards. On that third-down play, Conner was stopped for no gain, but on fourth down, Blewitt's 39-yard kick was good.

BOWLING GREEN - NMSU CONNECTIONS

- BGSU's Kitone Tau and New Mexico State's Ta'ir Brooks were teammates in 2019 and 2021 at Laney Community College in Oakland, Calif. The duo were true freshmen at Laney when the school was featured on the fifth season of Netflix's Last Chance U.
- New Mexico State's Linwood Crump was at Colorado State in 2021 when BGSU running back's coach Brian White was the interim head coach/senior associate head coach/running backs coach.
- Below is a list of connections between players on Bowling Green's roster and those on New Mexico State's roster:

Bowling Green	Previous School	NMSU

DOYT PERRY STADIUM

Doyt Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons.

Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is sixth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame), Frank Leahy (Notre Dame), Larry Kehres (Mount Union) and Jeff Devaney (Trinity, Conn.) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years (1965-71) after stepping down as football coach.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on Oct. 1, 1966. The football facility at BGSU was formally dedicated as Doyt L. Perry Stadium on Sept. 26, 1992.

Bowling Green has played 290 games in the venue. BGSU's all-time record at Doyt Perry Stadium stands at 174-110-6.

Scot Loeffler Head Coach • Fourth Season

Scot Loeffler is in his fourth season as the head coach at Bowling Green State University. The 20th head coach of the Bowling Green football program, Loeffler came to BGSU after serving as deputy head coach and offensive coordinator at Boston College.

Coming to BGSU, Loeffler inherited one of the nation's biggest rebuilding projects as the BGSU offense and defense both ranked nearly last in the nation in both offensive and defensive production the season before his arrival.

The gains during Loeffler's tenure started to take root in 2021 as the Falcons enjoyed some signature wins, highlighted by a 14-10 triumph at Minnesota. The Gophers ultimately finished the year 9-4 and in second place in the West division of the Big Ten. BGSU's gains in 2021 were foundational as the Falcons were one of the nation's youngest teams with 71 student-athletes on the roster that were taking part in their first or second season of college football.

The BGSU defense led the way in 2021 as it recorded its best season dating back to the 2013 MAC championship year, allowing opponents only 373.7 yards per game. Nate Needham earned first-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America after leading the nation in field goal percentage through the regular season (.950) on 19-of-20 field goal attempts. He was only the third Falcon to earn first-team honors from the FWAA, the second-oldest All-America team.

Linebacker Darren Anders, Needham and tight end Christian Sims all earned first-team All-MAC honors, giving BGSU the most first-team nods since the 2015 MAC championship season. Anders led the MAC and was No. 8 in the nation with 10.3 tackles per game. Sims led the MAC tight ends with 41 receptions and 418 receiving yards.

Loeffler's second season at Bowling Green came during the Covid-19 pandemic when the MAC started its season late and the Falcons played only five games. Despite going winless, the young Falcons had valuable game experience. Tight end Quintin Morris earned first-team All-MAC honors after leading the league in tight end receptions and tight end receiving yards.

In his first season at Bowling Green, the Falcons built a foundation for success. Although BGSU went just 3-9 overall and 2-6 in MAC play, the program started the rebuild in many ways. Most notably, the Falcons defeated rival Toledo 20-7 to end a nine-game losing streak in the Battle of I-75.

In BGSU's three victories (over Toledo, Akron and Morgan State), the Falcons outscored their opponents 101-16, highlighting explosive offensive performances and stifling defensive efforts. Bowling Green held Morgan State to just 70 yards of offense and Akron to 100 yards. BGSU gave up just one touchdown in those three victories.

Loeffler's coaching career, which spans back to his time as a student assistant at Michigan during the 1996 season, includes stops at Michigan, Central Michigan, Florida, Temple, Auburn, Virginia Tech and Boston College. He also spent a year coaching the quarterbacks for the Detroit Lions.

Over his career, Loeffler has coached seven quarterbacks who went on to play in the NFL – Tom Brady, Tim Tebow, Brian Griese, Chad Henne, Drew Henson, John Navarre and Logan Thomas. Those seven quarterbacks have won a combined nine Super Bowl championships (Tom Brady, 7; Brian Griese, 1; Chad Henne, 1). He has also directed a potent rushing attack at Boston College behind AJ Dillon, who was 12th nationally in rushing yards per game in 2018. Dillon was the ACC Rookie of the Year in 2017 and the nation's second-leading rusher among freshmen. Dillon was later drafted in the second round by the Green Bay Packers in the 2020 NFL Draft.

In 2018, Boston College scored 40+ points in four of its first five games, including an average of 52.7 points in consecutive wins over Massachusetts, Holy Cross and Wake Forest. The Eagles then defeated Temple 45-35 and Louisville 38-20. The team ended the regular season at 7-5 overall.

Prior to coming to BGSU, Loeffler's teams have played in 15 bowl games in the 17 seasons he has been a college coach.

In 2017, Loeffler's offense posted 35+ points in three consecutive games for the first time in 15 years at Boston College. The team scored 40+ points in consecutive conference games for the first time in the program's Big East and ACC history. The rushing offense climbed from 96th to 25th in the country and the Eagles were one of the faster teams in the nation, ranking 18th nationally in total plays.

In 2016, his first year on staff at Boston College, the Eagles won a bowl game for the first time in nine years.

Prior to his tenure at Boston College, Loeffler served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Frank Beamer at Virginia Tech from 2013-15. He mentored Logan Thomas, who finished his collegiate career by breaking career records for passing yards, attempts, touchdown passes and rushing touchdowns by a quarterback. He oversaw a trio of wide receivers who became the first group in Virginia Tech history to each record 40 or more receptions in a season. While at Virginia Tech he directed a VT offense that went into Columbus, Ohio, and defeated Ohio State, 35-21, in the Buckeyes only loss during their 2014 national championship season.

As the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Auburn in 2012, Loeffler mentored Tre Mason, a 1000-yard rusher who became the first non-quarterback to lead Auburn in total offense since Bo Jackson in 1985.

Loeffler guided Temple to the seventh-best rushing average in the nation as offensive coordinator in 2011 and running back Bernard Pierce ranked sixth nationally, including 107 yards on the ground in Doyt L. Perry Stadium in a 13-10 BGSU victory. That team went on to win the program's first bowl game since 1979.

Prior to his time at Temple, he was the quarterbacks coach at Florida under former BGSU head coach Urban Meyer, helping the unit to the best pass efficiency in the nation in 2009. He guided Tebow in his final season in Gainesville as he passed for 2,895 yards and 21 touchdowns. Tebow graduated from Florida with five NCAA, 14 SEC and 28 school records.

In 2008, Loeffler worked with the Detroit Lions' quarterbacks, following his tenure at Michigan. From 2002-07, he coached quarterbacks for the Wolverines. Chad Henne became the first true freshman quarterback to lead his team to a Big Ten title and start in a BCS game, while John Navarre became Michigan's first All-Big Ten first-team quarterback since 1997.

Along with his time at Temple, Loeffler has familiarity in the Mid-American Conference as he was Central Michigan's quarterbacks coach from 2000-01. Prior to that, he was a graduate assistant and student assistant at Michigan, working with Brady and Griese. He was part of the Wolverines' undefeated national championship season in 1997.

A native of Barberton, Ohio and Barberton High School, Loeffler played quarterback at Michigan from 1993-96. A 1998 graduate of Michigan, Loeffler earned his undergraduate degree in history with a minor in political science.

Loeffler is married to Amie, who holds an undergraduate degree in chemistry from Bowling Green in 1999 and a graduate degree in chemistry in 2005. The couple has three children – Luke, Alexis and Mary Elizabeth.

DID YOU KNOW?

• QB Matt McDonald, DL Karl Brooks and DL Walter Haire were voted on as team captains by their peers. McDonald and Brooks repeat as captains after serving the same role in 2021.

• QB Matt McDonald and WR Austin Osborne were high school teammates at Mission Viejo High School in Southern California. Osborne was part of MVHS's 2015 state championship team. That year McDonald was the starting QB at Mater Dei and was injured early in the season and while he was out with injury JT Daniels (West Virginia) took over. In 2016, McDonald took over at Mission Viejo and teamed up with Osborne. Osborne holds school records for receiving touchdowns in a game (4), season (20) and a career (46).

• OT Tunde Fatukasi started playing the drums in church when he was six years old. He taught himself to play the drums and has played over the years at churches in the USA and Nigeria. Fatukasi's older brothers Foley (Jaguars) and Olakunle (Buccaneers) currently play in the NFL. The Fatukasi family was displaced from their Far Rockaway, N.Y., due to Hurricane Sandy. The family of five lived in a hotel for three months and then a friend's apartment after that while their home was fixed.

• While in high school, WR Jaedyn McKinstry overcame rhabdomyosarcoma, a cancer that mostly affects children and forms in soft skeletal muscle tissue. The cancer was determined to be in stage 4 based on location — paratesticular, lymph node and lung — and required surgical removal. He was given only a 50 percent chance of surviving. He beat it and returned to high school sports in the fall of 2019.

• The Falcons have a unique legacy on their team in 2022. Tight end Bryce Boyer is a fourth-generation falcon. His dad (Lee), grandfather (Chester) and great grandfather (Rodney) all played football at Bowling Green. Research to this point has the Boyers as the second four-generation family in FBS history and first that is a direct line of son->father->grandfather->great grandfather. Washington State is the other, but it was a direct line of three and a maternal grandfather.

• Co-Offensive Coordinator Greg Nosal played offensive guard at Virginia Tech and in 2010 received the nickname "Nine-Fingers Nosal" after he lost the tip of his pinkie during a game with Central Michigan. His pinkie got stuck in a facemask on a block and the tip was ripped off. They found it in his glove, put it on ice and Nosal played the rest of the game with his hand taped up. Later in the fourth quarter they stitched it back on his finger.

• BGSU director of football operations Damaris Linker is one of six female directors of football operations at the FBS level that oversee the entire operation for the program. Along with Dani Coppes, BGSU's football sports medicine provider, Bowling Green and Kansas State are the only schools in the nation with female leads over football operations and sports medicine.
