No. 3 Georgia 49, No. 11 Oregon 3

Sept. 3, 2022 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

GAME 1

Third-ranked Georgia opened the 2022 season with a 49-3 victory over the 11th-ranked Oregon Ducks in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game in front of a record 76,490 fans at Mercedes-Benz Stadium and an ABC nationally televised audience.

Georgia — which won the 2021 national championship — improved to 99-27-3 in season openers, including 7-0 under Coach Kirby Smart. The Bulldogs moved to 2-0 all time against the Ducks.

Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett registered a 25-of-31 passing performance for a career-high 368 yards and two touchdowns in three quarters of work. Bennett also rushed for a touchdown for Georgia.

Senior tailback Kenny McIntosh led the Bulldogs (1-0) with 135 all-purpose yards (117 receiving and 18 rushing) and a touchdown, while redshirt sophomore receiver Ladd McConkey gained 89 yards (73 receiving and 16 rushing) with a pair of touchdowns (one receiving, one rushing). Junior tailback Kendal Milton led the Bulldogs with 50 yards rushing and two touchdowns (one rushing, one receiving).

The Georgia defense stood tall, holding Oregon out of the end zone. The Bulldogs were especially impressive on third down, with the Ducks (0-1) converting just 7-of-15 opportunities.

True freshman defensive back Malaki Starks led the Bulldogs with eight tackles and an acrobatic interception, while senior defensive back Christopher Smith and junior defensive back Dan Jackson each tallied five tackles. Smith had an interception as well.

After McConkey's 9-yard scoring run in the first quarter, the Bulldogs tacked on three second-quarter touchdowns. Bennett ran for one and threw for one (to McConkey) and McIntosh ran for one for a 28-3 halftime lead. Milton found the end zone and Bennett connected with AD Mitchell to push the edge to 42-3, then Milton caught a touchdown pass from redshirt sophomore quarterback Carson Beck for the final margin of 49-3.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I was really proud of the way our kids played. We tried to talk about coming out and playing as if we were hunting, and we wanted to play connected football. That was all we talked about all week; we're going to play connected, we're going to play aggressive, we're going to be a hunter. Kids kind of bought into that theme, and they like playing here. Offensively, we did execute at a high level, which when you have an experienced quarterback and you have experienced players, you can do that. I thought Coach (Todd) Monken and his offensive staff had a good plan. They played well. Defensively, we were a little more bend-but-don't-break. At the half, we both had 14 first downs and really had not stopped them like either team had wanted. Some opportunistic turnovers really helped the defense."

RB Kenny McIntosh caught nine passes and had a rushing touchdown to lead an impressive 2022 debut by the Bulldogs' offense.

Worth Noting...

- With its 49-3 victory over No. 11 Oregon, third-ranked Georgia improved to 99-27-3 in season openers, including winning its last nine dating back to a 45-21 over Clemson in Athens in 2014.
- The 49 points were the most in a season opener under Smart, and the most since 2015 (51-14 over La.-Monroe in Athens).
- Georgia limited the Ducks to three points, including a goal-line stand with less than two minutes left in the contest.
- Freshman Malaki Starks notched his first career interception (snagging it while falling backwards at the UGA 8) and finished with a team-best eight tackles. It led to a 92-yard touchdown drive and a 14-0 advantage. Senior Christopher Smith snagged his fourth career interception, and he returned this one for 24 yards to the UGA 44. It led to a touchdown and a 21-0 lead.
- Senior Stetson Bennett improved to 15-3 as the starter at quarterback as the Bulldogs racked up 571 yards of total offense on 62 plays. The Bulldogs were 8-for-8 on third down and 6-for-6 in the red zone (all touchdowns) with Bennett at the helm.
- Georgia had six first-time starters, all on defense. Javon Bullard (DB), Juman Dumas-Johnson (ILB), Kamari Lassiter (DB), Smael Mondon (ILB), Nazir Stackhouse (DL), and Mykel Williams (DE). Williams became the first true freshman starter on defense in a season opener since Tyson Campbell (DB) in 2018 against Austin Peay. Williams became just the ninth true freshman starter to make his debut in a season opener in the Smart era.

No. 2 Georgia 33, Samford 0

2

No. 2-ranked Georgia cruised to a 33-0 win over Samford in the Bulldogs' home opener.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett threw for 300 yards while throwing and running for touchdowns, the defense was dominant throughout, and kicker Jack Podlesny connected on four field goals in front of a crowd of 92,746 at Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium and an SEC Network television audience.

After scoring touchdowns on its first seven drives in last Saturday's season-opening 49-3 rout of then-No. 11 Oregon in Atlanta, Georgia (2-0) didn't get into the end zone as easily against Samford (1-1), an FCS squad from the Southern Conference. Podlesny, who was busy booting extra points last week, made field goals from 27, 25, 26, and 25 yards.

Georgia ended the game with 479 yards of offense, averaging 6.4 yards per play, while the defense held Samford to 128 total yards.

Bennett completed 24-of-34 passes, including a 3-yard scoring pass to receiver Dillon Bell. Running back Kendall Milton led Georgia with 85 yards rushing on 10 carries. Running back Kenny McIntosh had a 1-yard scoring run and caught a team-high five passes for 61 yards. Fifteen different Bulldogs hauled in receptions on Saturday.

Georgia gave up only one first down in the first half and led 30-0 at the break. Late in the third quarter, Carson Beck replaced Bennett and Georgia's third quarterback, Brock Vandagriff, completed the game.

Linebacker Smael Mondon paced the Bulldogs with four tackles. Defensive backs Tykee Smith and Daylen Everette each added three stops. Defensive lineman Mykel Williams had the Bulldogs' first sack of the season and linebacker Xavian Sorey recovered a fumble.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I was worried that we wouldn't have a great crowd (due to weather), but they did a great job. The rain stayed away, they stayed out. Our fan base showed up, our students showed up. They were loud and proud and the weather held out, which was positive. ... We didn't score touchdowns. Offensively, our goal was, how can we score more touchdowns? When you come off a week like Oregon where every opportunity to score a touchdown, we score a touchdown, No. 1 in the country on Red Zone offense, and then we take a huge step back and have to kick field goals. Good teams, you can't do that. You have to be able to execute well. I can't say what it was — one mistake here, one mistake there. We have to go back and watch the tape, but we have to do a better job."

Smael Mondon (2) and Nolan Smith (4) led a Georgia defense that held Samford to 128 total yards, three first downs, and zero points.

Worth Noting...

- For the ninth time in the Kirby Smart era, the Bulldogs registered a shut-out in posting a 33-0 win over Samford. Samford finished with 128 yards of total offense on 43 plays. The leading tackler for the Bulldogs was linebacker Smael Mondon with four stops and 1.5 tackles for loss. Samford finished the first half with only 59 yards of total offense on 23 plays.

- Georgia rolled up 479 yards of total offense on 75 plays. In the first half, the Bulldogs were 6-for-6 in the Red Zone with three touchdowns and three field goals, tallying 329 yards of total offense on 47 plays in building a 30-0 lead.

- At the start of the fourth quarter with Georgia leading 30-0, it was announced that by mutual agreement of the coaches, the final stanza would be shortened to 12 minutes. The Bulldogs would add one field goal in the second half and finish 7-for-8 in the Red Zone.

- Senior placekicker Jack Podlesny scored a career-high 15 points (4 FGs, 3 PATs) and that was the most by a Bulldog placekicker since 2017 when Rodrigo Blankenship had 17 against Missouri. In his career, Podlesny is now 16-for-16 in the 20-29-yard range.

- Georgia had one first-time starter in freshman Malaki Starks (DB). Senior Warren Ericson (OL), junior Zion Logue (DL), and junior Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint (WR) were the captains.

No. 1 Georgia 48, South Carolina 7

Sept. 17, 2022 • Williams-Brice Stadium • Columbia, S.C.

GAME 3 Led by another blistering offensive performance, top-ranked Georgia defeated South Carolina 48-7 before 78,212 spectators at Williams-Brice Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

Georgia (3-0, 1-0 SEC) amassed 547 yards of offense, including an average of 8.7 yards per play. Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett finished 16-of-23 passing for 284 yards and two touchdowns, while also leading the team in rushing with 36 yards and a score on three carries. Sophomore tight end Brock Bowers tallied 126 all-purpose yards and scored three touchdowns.

On the defensive end, Georgia held South Carolina (1-2, 0-2 SEC) to 306 yards of offense, with only 197 coming in the first three quarters. Sophomore linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson tied his career high with six tackles, while freshman defensive back Malaki Starks, junior defensive back Dan Jackson, and junior linebacker Trezmen Marshall notched interceptions.

Bowers demonstrated his versatility as he pulled in two touchdown passes and had a scoring run. His receptions spanned 78 and six yards, while the rush covered five yards.

Bennett and junior tailback Kendall Milton had the Bulldogs' additional touchdown runs, finding the end zone from one and 11 yards, respectively.

Freshman tight end Oscar Delp made his first collegiate catch a memorable one as he pulled in a 28-yard touchdown pass from sophomore quarterback Carson Beck. Kickers Jack Podlesny and Jared Zirkel, a senior and sophomore, respectively, hit field goals of 42 and 21 yards.

Coch Kirby Smart said...

"We've got a young team and a lot of them haven't played in or seen that type of environment.. I thought we had some guys grow up today. The offense really executed efficiently and did a nice job. The defense was 'bend, but don't break' again and they've been very opportunistic in terms of getting turnovers after big plays. ... I don't think the (2021 national) championship helps. I think the standard was created last year and the legacy was left. That was a really special group, and that still lingers around our building, not the championship, but the fact in the way they practice, the way they carry themselves. There's a lot of kids that try to emulate those guys that are gone and they're good kids. When you practice hard, you get better."

Tight end Brock Bowers caught two touchdown passes and rushed for a third in the Bulldogs' win over South Carolina.

- Georgia tallied 547 yards of total offense against South Carolina. This game marked the second time in Brock Bowers' career (Vanderbilt 2021) that he has scored three times and in that manner in the same game. Quarterback Stetson Bennett went 16-of-23 for 284 yards and two touchdowns in two-plus quarters of work. He also rushed for a touchdown to cap the Bulldogs' season-best drive of 88 yards on eight plays. Kicker Jack Podlesny drilled a season-best 42-yard field goal.
- The Bulldogs were 5-for-5 in the Red Zone with four touchdowns and a field goal. For the season, Georgia improved to 19-for-20 in the Red Zone with 14 touchdowns and five field goals.
- The Bulldogs have allowed 10 points this season, which is the program's lowest 3-game total since 1927. Linebacker Trezmen Marshall had his first career interception, one of three on the day for the Bulldogs. Collectively, the Bulldogs had six tackles for loss.
- Georgia had two first-time starters in receiver Dillon Bell and defensive lineman Tramel Walthour. Kearis Jackson (WR), Warren McClendon (OL), and Jamon Dumas-Johnson (ILB) were the captains.
- Georgia improved to 54-19-2 in the series history with South Carolina, including 21-10 in SEC matchups. The Bulldogs posted their largest margin of victory against the Gamecocks.

No. 1 Georgia 39, Kent State 22

Sept. 24, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

Tight end Brock Bowers scored two touchdowns and kicker Jack Podlesny made three field goals as top-ranked Georgia beat Kent State in front of 92,746 fans and an SEC Network + audience.

Georgia improved to 4-0, while Kent State slipped to 1-3.

Bowers found the end zone twice as a rusher, sprinting 75 yards in the first quarter and bulling in from two yards in the second quarter to finish as the team's leading ground gainer on the day. The sophomore tight end hauled in five passes for 60 yards.

Podlesny was true on all three of his field goals, converting from 39 in the first quarter and 31 and 32 in the third quarter. He went 3-for-3 on extra points.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett went 27-of-36 for 272 yards. He rushed for a 1-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

Running back Kendall Milton found the end zone from a yard out to seal the victory in the fourth quarter. Daijun Edwards was the Bulldogs' primary workhorse at running back as he carried 12 times for 73 yards.

The Bulldogs' other score came on a safety as linebacker Jalon Walker blocked a punt out of the end zone in the second quarter.

Kent State had a 56-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Collin Schlee to receiver Devontez Walker and a 1-yard scoring run by running back Marquez Cooper. Kicker Andrew Glass drilled three field goals.

Linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson and Smael Mondon and defensive back Malaki Starks paced the Bulldogs with six tackles each. Dumas-Johnson had three tackles for loss, including two sacks. Linebacker Nolan Smith added a sack, while defensive back Christopher Smith picked off a pass.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We played a tough opponent. We talked all week and told our team that we thought this was going to be the best team we had played and it came out to be that way. They played really tough. They have a really good quarterback, good system, and they are tenacious on defense. I thought we did really well on offense and had a great game plan. The kids practiced hard. We didn't cash in the chips in the red area, a couple really costly penalties that killed drives. Thank goodness for Jack Podlesny, he just kept on making them, and the defense had some timely stops. ... Turnovers. Three of them, maybe four total when you count the fake punt, that was like a turnover, they got an extra possession. It makes it hard. When you come out ahead like we did sometimes you take wins like that for granted. I have a lot of respect for that team and that program. That was a tough, hard-fought win."

Linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson posted six tackles against Kent State, including two sacks.

Worth Noting...

• QB Stetson Bennett finished 27-for-36 for 272 yards and one INT plus a rushing TD. TE Brock Bowers led all rushers with 77 yards on two carries - both resulting in TDs. Georgia had its longest TD-drive of the year (by time), chewing up 6:43 on a 12-play, 75-yard march in the fourth quarter.

• KSU finished with 22 points, running 52 plays for 281 yards of total offense. Georgia entered the game leading the nation in Scoring Defense, surrendering just 3.3 points a game and 10 total on the year. The Bulldogs came in with one sack on the year but tallied three against the Golden Flashes -- LBs Jamon Dumas-Johnson (2) and Nolan Smith.

• Georgia did not have any first-time starters. Nolan Smith, Christopher Smith (SS), Sedrick Van Pran (C), and Darnell Washington (TE) were the captains. In support of Curing Kids Cancer, Georgia wore special helmet stickers featuring the group's logo.

No. 1 Georgia 26, Missouri 22

Oct. 1, 2022 • Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field • Columbia, Mo.

GAME 5

Despite a slow start, top-ranked Georgia defeated Missouri 26-22 before 58,165 spectators at Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium and an SEC Network national television audience.

Georgia (5-0, 2-0 SEC) amassed 481 yards of offense, including 107 rushing yards in the fourth quarter. Quarterback Stetson Bennett finished 24-of-43 passing for 312 yards. Tight ends Brock Bowers (66) and Darnell Washington (64) led the team in receiving yards, while running back Kenny McIntosh led the rushing attack with 65 yards on 11 carries.

On the defensive end, Georgia held Missouri (2-3, 0-2 SEC) to 294 yards of total offense. Linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson led the Bulldogs in tackles with eight, including one for loss, and a pass breakup, while defensive back Malaki Starks posted six tackles and a pass breakup.

Tailback Daijun Edwards scored the game-winning touchdown with 4:03 remaining. He found the end zone from a yard out to give the Bulldogs their only lead of the game. Kicker Jack Podlesny, who made four field goals, tacked on the extra point for the 26-22 advantage. Edwards' touchdown capped a 7-play, 68-yard drive.

Five minutes earlier, the Bulldogs got their initial touchdown on tailback Kendall Milton's 1-yard rush. That got Georgia to within 22-19 as the drive covered 75 yards on 10 plays.

Podlesny's field goals were true from 40, 34, 28, and 29 yards. He also drilled both PATs.

Missouri cashed in on five field goals from kicker Harrison Mevis, including a 56-yarder early in the fourth quarter. The Tigers' only touchdown came on a 10-yard pass from quarterback Brady Cook to tight end Tyler Stephens.

Coch Kirby Smart said...

"It's never easy (playing on the road). We tried to convince our guys all week. We played together. We stayed together. We showed two of our core DNA traits tonight: resiliency and composure. It took all of the resiliency and composure we had in us to win tonight, I can promise you that. Give Missouri a lot of credit. They created a lot of difficult situations for us offensively and they played really hard. We did not do a great job executing. We missed some layups and they took advantage of those, but I couldn't be prouder of our guys. At halftime I told our guys, 'When we come back in here, we are going to be celebrating because we won this game.' We had a heck of an opportunity and every single one of them believed."

Daijun Edwards scored the game-winning TD with 4:03 left. He later carried the ball six straight times as the Bulldogs expired the clock.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia faced a pair of 13-point deficits in the first half and was down 10 in the fourth quarter. The Bulldogs overcame their largest fourth-quarter deficit since the 2021 Peach Bowl when No. 8 Cincinnati was up by 11 (21-10) with 13:20 remaining. Georgia would rally for a 24-21 win.
- Georgia executed a fake field goal as holder Stetson Bennett rushed for five yards on fourth-and-3 at the Mizzou 22. It was the team's first since the 2020 Sugar Bowl when holder Jake Camarda ran for a first down. The drive ended with a 34-yard field goal.
- The Tigers tallied 294 yards of total offense on 53 plays and were held to just one touchdown and five field goals. Defensive lineman Jalen Carter returned to action in the second quarter and then left with a knee injury and did not return. Georgia entered the game ranked fourth nationally in Scoring Defense, surrendering just 8.0 points a game.
- Kicker Jack Podlesny tallied 14 points on four field goals and two extra points. He is 12-for-13 on field goals this year with the lone miss coming on a 54-yard attempt against Samford.
- Georgia had one first-time starter in defensive back Tykee Smith as this was his first at Georgia and 18th in his career after having 17 starts while at West Virginia.

No. 2 Georgia 42, Auburn 10

Oct. 8, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

GAME 6

Behind a strong effort from its defense and a powerful and productive rushing attack — with three touchdowns by running back Daijun Edwards and a crowd-pleasing fourth-quarter touchdown run by quarterback Stetson Bennett — No. 2 Georgia knocked off Auburn 42-10 at Sanford Stadium in front of 92,746 fans and a CBS national television audience.

In the Deep South’s oldest football rivalry — Saturday was the 126th meeting — it was an old-school football game, with lots of runs and stuffed runs and very few aerial fireworks. Georgia ran for 292, amassed 500 yards of total offense, held Auburn to 258 yards of total offense, and got big third-down stop after big third-down stop as Auburn was 5 of 17 on third down.

Georgia has now won the last six meetings in the series, dating back to the SEC Championship Game in 2017. Georgia also added to its lead in the overall series against Auburn, improving to 63-56-8.

Edwards found the end zone three times for the Bulldogs, rushing in from one, two, and seven yards. Running back Branson Robinson paced Georgia with 98 yards, including a 15-yard scoring run, and running back Kenny McIntosh added a 1-yard touchdown rush.

Bennett went 22-of-32 for 208 yards and triggered a 21-point fourth quarter as he raced 64 yards for a touchdown.

Linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson led the Bulldogs with five tackles, while linebacker Rian Davis added four stops. Linebacker Nolan Smith registered three tackles, including a critical stop on a fake punt attempt by the Tigers. Smith and defensive back Javon Bullard had the Bulldogs’ tackles for loss.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

“I thought the atmosphere was great. We came out of the tunnel and I looked up in the rafters and it was packed. I knew that Auburn was going to be in for a tough time from the crowd standpoint, a team that had not played on the road in the SEC. I thought our crowd impacted the game. I thought our guys came out with a game plan. Striking, attacking, we really wanted to be physical. We wanted to win the line of scrimmage, we thought it would pay dividends in the fourth quarter, and in the second half being somewhat of a hot day, I thought it took its toll on them, especially in the second half for our team to be able to run the ball like it did. That helped us. We continue to grow and get better. This team has proven its resilience. They’re tough, but we’ve got a lot of things we can clean up. We didn’t play as well as we could have, but I want to say I’m very proud of the way our team went after it and attacked.”

Stetson Bennett outran several Auburn defenders on a career-long 64-yard touchdown dash early in the fourth quarter.

- Georgia now has won six in a row in the Deep South’s oldest rivalry and leads the AU series 63-56-8. Coach Kirby Smart is 7-1 against the Tigers, including 4-0 in Athens. Overall, Georgia is 34-4 at home under Smart.
- The Bulldog defense limited the Tigers to only 10 points with 258 yards of offense on 63 plays. Georgia entered the game ranked fourth nationally in Scoring Defense, surrendering just 10.8 points a game. For the third time this season, the Bulldogs blanked a team in the first half. The leading tackler was LB Jamon Dumas-Johnson with five stops.
- Georgia went 5-for-5 in the Red Zone with five TDs. Auburn was 1-for-1 with a field goal. Georgia improved to 35-for-36 in scoring in the Red Zone this season with 24 TDs and 11 FGs.
- Georgia came in averaging 39 points a game and scored 42, finishing with 500 yards on 71 plays. RB Daijun Edwards had 12 rushes for 83 yards and three touchdowns, while RB Branson Robinson finished with 12 carries for 98 yards, both career highs, and his first career TD. QB Stetson Bennett completed 22-of-32 passes for 208 yards and scampered a career-long 64 yards for a TD.
- Georgia had one first-time starter in LB Rian Davis, who finished with a career-high four tackles. Dumas-Johnson, RB Kenny McIntosh, LB Nolan Smith, and TE Darnell Washington were the captains. In partnership with Hilsinki’s Hope, the Bulldogs wore green ribbon helmet decals with the number three as part of College Football Mental Health Week.

No. 1 Georgia 55, Vanderbilt 0

Oct. 15, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

GAME 7

Top-ranked Georgia looked sharp in every phase of the game, cruising to a 55-0 win over Vanderbilt in front of 92,746 fans at Sanford Stadium and an SEC Network audience.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett completed 24-of-30 passes for 289 yards and two touchdowns, while the Georgia defense never let the Commodores set sail.

Georgia (7-0, 4-0 SEC) heads into its off week on a high note after dominating the game from start to finish. The offense gained 579 yards, the defense held Vanderbilt (3-4, 0-3) to just 150, and Georgia also made something happen on special teams, both kicking and returning.

Bennett threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to running back Kenny McIntosh and a 10-yarder to receiver Dominick Blaylock. Reserve quarterback Carson Beck got in on the act with scoring tosses of 24 yards to receiver Dillon Bell and four yards to tight end Arik Gilbert (his first as a Bulldog).

McIntosh also had a rushing touchdown covering seven yards. Running back Daijun Edwards, who paced the Bulldogs with 49 yards, powered in from a yard out. Reserve running back Cash Jones capped the day with his first career touchdown run, a 36-yarder.

Kicker Jack Podlesny connected on third-quarter field goals of 28 and 35 yards.

Defensive back Chris Smith led the Bulldogs with five tackles, including one for loss, and a fumble recovery. Linebackers Jamon Dumas-Johnson and Jalon Walker added four tackles each.

Coch Kirby Smart said...

“We had an awesome week. We had great practices Tuesday, Wednesday. What a great week for the University of Georgia, with homecoming being this weekend, Good Morning America being here and giving us great recognition. Then our team coming out and dominating. We started fast. I just think it’s a great week to be a University of Georgia Bulldog. I was really impressed with the performance early. I thought Stetson had good rhythm and was more accurate. We ran the ball, we mixed run and pass, and we got to play a lot of players. Our offensive line played well, they have to. They’re the guys that can really help us up front. They picked up some blitzes there that they got aggressive in the second half and started coming after us. (Defensively) The line of scrimmage was the big part of it. We won the line of scrimmage and once they couldn’t run the ball, the quarterback struggled.”

The Georgia defense, led by Tykee Smith (2 tackles, 1 forced fumble, 1 pass breakup) and Chris Smith (5 tackles, 1 fumble recovery), pitched its second shutout of the season, and second straight against the Commodores.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia now has won five in a row against the Commodores and leads the series 60-20-2, including 22-4 on Homecoming. Head coach Kirby Smart is 5-1 against Vanderbilt. Overall, the Bulldogs now are 35-4 at home under Smart and 73-15 overall. The Bulldogs blanked Vanderbilt for the second consecutive time in the series (55-0 and 62-0 in 2021), marking the first time Georgia has done that to an SEC team since 1980-81 Kentucky (27-0 and 21-0). The Bulldogs have two shutouts this year (33-0 over Samford) and now 10 in the Smart era, including six in the SEC.

- Georgia went 7-for-7 in the Red Zone with five TDs and two FGs. For the year, Georgia is now 42-for-43 in scoring in the Red Zone with 29 TDs and 13 FGs. Georgia came in averaging 39.5 points a game, jumped out to a 28-0 halftime lead, and won 55-0 with 579 yards of total offense (192 rushing, 387 passing). The points and total offense were season highs.

- Georgia has won 22 straight regular-season games, including 16 straight Between the Hedges. The Bulldogs have won their last 15 SEC regular-season games. Also, Georgia extended its sellout streak to 62 games dating back to 2012.

- TE Brock Bowers, DT Zion Logue, RT Warren McClendon, and PK Jack Podlesny (PK) were the captains.

- Selected by a student vote, the Queen and King were Madison Polk of Lithonia, Ga., and Obamide Samaye, an Atlanta native.

No. 1 Georgia 42, Florida 20

GAME
8

The No. 1-ranked Georgia football team built a big lead, saw much of it disappear, then built it up again, before finally finishing off Florida, 42-20, on Saturday afternoon in front of 75,868 fans at TIAA Bank Field and a national CBS television audience.

Georgia (8-0, 5-0 SEC) jumped out to a 21-0 lead but later hurt itself with three turnovers that helped Florida (4-4, 1-4) get back in the game. The Bulldogs finished with 555 yards of offense to the Gators' 371.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett threw for 316 yards and two touchdowns, while the ground game produced 239 yards and four touchdowns. Daijun Edwards (106 yards, Georgia's first 100-yard rushing game of the season) and Kenny McIntosh (90 yards) both scored two rushing touchdowns. Tight end Brock Bowers hauled in five passes for 154 yards, including a 73-yard touchdown.

After meeting No. 101 in this border-state battle, the Bulldogs now hold a 55-44-2 advantage. This was the second straight year in which Georgia came in as the No. 1 team in the country while the Gators were un-ranked. Georgia coach Kirby Smart is now 5-2 against Florida, with the Bulldogs winning five of the last six.

Saturday's game came one day after the passing of former Georgia coach and director of athletics Vince Dooley, who died at home in Athens Friday at age 90. In his 25 seasons as Georgia's coach, Dooley went 17-7-1 against Florida, including 12-3 over his final 15 meetings.

The Bulldogs wore a helmet sticker Saturday that read "62" in honor of Georgia football and baseball legend Charley Trippi, who died on Oct. 19 at age 100.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"What a great environment and great game. To the Dooleys back home in Athens I know they are together. It meant a lot for us to win that game for them because of all that Coach Dooley has meant to our University as an ambassador of our program and really all of college football. I know if he was looking down on that one he would have enjoyed the first half; I don't know that he would have enjoyed the second one. He has meant so much to us and in honor of him and their family, it was special. It was a tough time for that to happen. Our fans were also here, the environment was good. We lost momentum in the second half, faced resiliency and stared it in the eye, and we didn't blink and I'm really proud of our players. There was a time there that we lost momentum and that has happened to us more this year than it did last year and we bounced back. I am really proud of the players."

Daijun Edwards celebrates one of his two touchdowns against the Gators.

Worth Noting...

- The Bulldogs have won 23 straight regular-season games, including their last 16 SEC games. Georgia's 555 yards of total offense were the most-ever against the Gators, eclipsing the 502 in 1976. Coach Kirby Smart improved to 5-2 against the Gators and 74-15 overall.

- Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing 9.1 points a game. Florida was held to 20 points, including three in the first half. Florida scored 10 points off three Bulldog turnovers. Georgia collected three sacks on the Gators, who entered having allowed an SEC-low five overall. DB Chris Smith, LB Chaz Chambliss, and LB Mykel Williams registered sacks. Florida was limited to 100 yards rushing on 34 attempts (2.9 yards per carry) after entering leading the FBS at 6.4 yards per carry. The leading tacklers were DB Javon Bullard with a career-high eight followed by LBs Jamon Dumas-Johnson and Smael Mondon (seven each).

- QB Stetson Bennett completed 19-of-38 passes for 316 yards and 2 TDs and 2 INTs. In the second quarter, he connected with TE Brock Bowers for a 73-yard TD pass and a 21-0 lead. Bowers now has four TD receptions covering 70 yards or more in his career.

- QB Stetson Bennett, LB Nolan Smith, RB Kenny McIntosh, and LB Jamon Dumas-Johnson (LB) were the captains.

GAME 9

The Georgia defense quieted the nation's most prolific offense. The Georgia offense was explosive at times and efficient at others. And at the end, amid a roaring and raucous atmosphere at Sanford Stadium, the Bulldogs walked off of Dooley Field still undefeated.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score, while the Bulldog defense sacked Tennessee quarterback Hendon Hooker six times during a battle of unbeaten teams that Georgia won 27-13 in front of 92,746 difference-making fans and a national CBS television audience.

According to the Associated Press, Saturday's game was just the fifth regular-season meeting this century featuring teams ranked Nos. 1 and 2 in its media poll. In the first College Football Playoff rankings released Tuesday, Tennessee was ranked No. 1 and Georgia No. 3, with Ohio State in between them.

The polls may be up for debate, but the numbers told the story about Tennessee's offense. It was No. 1 in the country in multiple key categories going into Saturday — 49.4 points and 553.0 yards per game — but the Bulldog defense, ranked among the nation's best in most categories, had the better day. Georgia (9-0, 6-0 SEC) outgained the Volunteers 389-289, with Bennett finishing 17-of-25 for 257 yards and the two touchdown passes plus a 13-yard scoring run.

It was the first home game since the passing of two Georgia legends, former football coach and director of athletics Vince Dooley, on Oct. 28 at age 90, and legendary football and baseball player Charley Trippi, who died on Oct. 19 at 100.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We have a bunch of the kids that love this place, they all love it here. They competed so hard. I am so proud for this university and these kids. They practiced hard, they played together, they stuck to the plan, and when you stick to the plan, you have a chance. Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide — that was our theme. Every coach sold the plan to the players and the players had to unselfishly buy into the plan. I think physical toughness won out. It was great for the players to hear it and buy in. ... I thought we came out and ran the ball really well. We actually ran it better early than we did later in the game. That usually is not our MO; we wear people down. ... Our fans were elite today. We asked them to be (loud), and they responded."

Ladd McConkey's 5-reception day was highlighted by a 37-yard TD catch late in the third quarter, giving Georgia a 14-3 early lead over Tennessee.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia improved to 3-5 all-time against the No. 1-ranked team in school history. The other wins over No. 1 teams came against Florida (28-3 in Jacksonville) in 1985 and Alabama (33-18) for the 2022 CFP National Championship in Indianapolis. This marked the highest-ranked matchup in the history of Sanford Stadium, which opened in 1929. The Bulldogs now have won 24 straight regular-season games, including their last 17 SEC games in that span. Georgia now leads the Tennessee series 27-23-2. The Bulldogs have won six in a row, all by double digits. Coach Kirby Smart is now 6-1 against Tennessee and 75-15 overall.

- Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 10.5 points a game, while Tennessee came in leading the nation in scoring (49.4 ppg). The Bulldogs built a 24-6 halftime lead and ultimately won 27-13. The 13 points were the lowest scored by the Vols under Coach Josh Heupel. The Volunteers finished with 289 yards of total offense on 75 plays. They came in with a nation-leading average of 553 yards per game. DB Malaki Starks had a team-best and career-high 10 tackles.

- Brett Thorson had a 75-yard punt -- the 10th-longest in school history and the best since Drew Butler's 75-yarder in 2009.

- RB Kenny McIntosh, DB Chris Smith, OL Sedrick Van Pran, and LB Jamon Dumas-Johnson (LB) were the captains. LG Devin Willock made his first career start.

No. 1 Georgia 45, Mississippi State 19

Nov. 12, 2022 • Davis Wade Stadium • Starkville, Miss.

GAME 10

Top-ranked Georgia clinched another berth in the SEC Championship Game with a 45-19 victory over Mississippi State in front of 60,352 fans at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field and an national ESPN television audience.

The Bulldogs will face LSU in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta on Saturday, Dec. 3, following games at Kentucky and at home against Georgia Tech. Georgia will represent the East for the second straight year, the fifth time in six seasons, and for the 10th time overall.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett went 25-of-37 for 289 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for a score. He connected with tight ends Brock Bowers and Darnell Washington and receiver Ladd McConkey on the passing touchdowns. McConkey added a rushing touchdown and finished as the Bulldogs' leader in receiving (71) and rushing (70) yards. Tailback Kendall Milton sealed the game with a late touchdown run.

Georgia opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 2-yard pass from Bennett to Bowers. Georgia pushed its advantage to 10-0 in the second quarter with a 28-yard field goal by Podlesny. Following a State field goal, Bennett engineered an 8-play, 75-yard drive -- highlighted by two passes to receiver Kearis Jackson covering 38 yards -- and capped it with a 4-yard scoring run for a 17-3 lead. After the home-standing Bulldogs tacked on another field goal for a 17-6 score, Mississippi State's Zavion Thomas returned a punt 63 yards for a touchdown to make it 17-12 at intermission.

McConkey took over in the third quarter as he scored two touchdowns in a 5-minute span, then caught a 28-yard pass to set up another touchdown on the first play of the final stanza. McConkey raced 70 yards on an end-around rush for a score, then hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from Bennett. After McConkey's 28-yard catch got the Bulldogs into scoring position, Bennett opened the fourth quarter with a 2-yard touchdown pass to Washington. Milton put the game on ice as he darted 34 yards.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Our team was resilient and fought and did what we asked of them. I am so proud of them. This is a tough environment, but our kids respected the environment and the momentum and the rhythm. I appreciate how we prepared in the right way, a very mature way. We never take winning the East for granted and that's where we are now, but we're playing for more than the East. We've got some things to clean up, so it's one day at a time."

Darnell Washington (0) and receiver Ladd McConkey (84) each caught touchdown passes in the win over Mississippi State.

- At 10-0, Georgia has double-digit wins for the fifth time in Coach Kirby Smart's seven seasons and the 27th in school history. The Bulldogs have won 25 straight regular-season games, including their last 18 SEC games in that span. Georgia leads the MSU series 20-6.
- Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 10.8 points a game while MSU came in scoring 32.6 per game. MSU finished with only 19 points on 310 yards of total offense on 67 plays. MSU had a 62-yard punt return for a TD by Zavion Thomas with three seconds left in the first half to make it 17-12. The Bulldogs have not allowed a TD in the first quarter this year (just three field goals) and led 7-0 after the first. Georgia has posted 20 scoreless quarters this season.
- QB Stetson Bennett passed for three touchdowns, giving him 53 for his career. That puts him fifth on Georgia's all-time list. Bennett helped Georgia go 5-for-5 in the red zone, including four TDs. The Bulldogs are 55-for-56 (39 TDs and 16 FGs) on the year.
- DB Kamari Lassiter, LB Jamon Dumas-Johnson, RT Warren McClendon, and WR Ladd McConkey were the captains. LG Xavier Truss returned to the starting lineup after missing last week.

No. 1 Georgia 16, Kentucky 6

Nov. 19, 2022 • Kroger Field • Lexington, Ky.

GAME 11

Powered by a dominant rushing attack, No. 1 Georgia fought off Kentucky 16-6 on a cold afternoon at Kroger Field in front of 61,002 fans and a national CBS television audience.

Georgia (11-0, 8-0) clinched a second straight undefeated run through its SEC regular-season schedule. It was Georgia's 13th consecutive win over Kentucky (6-5, 3-5).

Kenny McIntosh led the way for Georgia, rushing for a career-high 143 yards and a 9-yard touchdown on 19 attempts. Georgia outgained the Wildcats 365-289, including 249 yards rushing on 44 carries.

Georgia built a 9-0 in the first half as kicker Jack Podlesny converted field goals from 27, 24, and 37 yards. It marked the fifth time this season that the Bulldogs didn't allow any points in the first half.

Georgia used its running game to get into the end zone for the first time in the third quarter. Running back Kendall Milton ran for a combined 28 yards on the first three plays, running back Daijun Edwards had an 8-yard run, followed by a 4-yard reception, and then McIntosh did the rest. An 8-yard McIntosh run gave Georgia first-and-goal at the 10, and two plays later, he ran the ball in for a 9-yard touchdown and a 16-0 lead with 6:22 remaining in the third. That capped an 8-play, 58-yard drive that lasted nearly four minutes.

The Bulldogs' next drive included a 35-yard pass from quarterback Stetson Bennett to receiver Dominick Blaylock on third-and-6 at the Georgia 31. On third-and-7 at the Kentucky 31, McIntosh ran left for 23 yards down to the 8 (the run put McIntosh over 100 yards rushing in a game for the first time in his career). But on fourth-and-goal at the 1, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Milton was stopped short of the goal line.

Kentucky then drove 99 yards for a touchdown, scoring from the 8 on fourth-and-2. The Wildcats went for the 2-point conversion and came up empty, keeping it the eventual final score of 16-6.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"(Going undefeated in the SEC is) hard to do. In the last 30 years, there had only been two, and it's hard to win on the road in the SEC. We just had four games in a row, three on the road, that were really tough and really physical. We knew this gauntlet was coming, and our guys put their heads down and worked really hard. Regardless of who we've faced, we stood up to the test that we've been asked to and am proud of what they've done."

Kenny McIntosh had the first 100-yard rushing game of his career and scored the Bulldogs' lone touchdown against Kentucky.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia improved to 11-0 overall and 8-0 in the SEC to post a perfect league mark for the second year in a row under Coach Kirby Smart. Georgia is just the third SEC team since 1992 to post back-to-back 8-0 league marks, joining Alabama (2008-09) and Florida (1995-96). The Bulldogs went 6-0 versus the East for the fourth time since 2017. The 2022 senior class has matched the school record for wins with a 45-5 mark. The 2021 class went 45-8. The Bulldogs have won 26 straight regular-season games, including their last 19 SEC contests. Georgia has won 13 straight over Kentucky and leads the series 62-12-2. Smart is 7-0 against the Wildcats and 77-15 overall. Georgia is 11-0 for the second straight year. Before the 2021 season, the last time Georgia was 11-0 was 1982.

- Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 11.6 points a game, while Kentucky entered scoring 23.3 points a game. The Wildcats finished with six points on 295 yards with 56 plays. Kentucky did have a 99-yard touchdown drive in nine plays in the fourth quarter. Georgia has posted 24 scoreless quarters, including its fifth first-half shutout.

- Georgia came in averaging 40.6 points per game and 509.6 yards of offense. The Bulldogs had just three possessions in the first half, running 31 plays and settling for three field goals with 161 yards of offense. They finished the contest with 16 points on nine drives with 363 yards of offense on 65 plays.

- Georgia went 4-for-5 in the Red Zone with one touchdown and field goals. Georgia is now 59-for-61 in the Red Zone with 40 TDs and 19 FGs.

- DL Jalen Carter, WR Kearis Jackson, DL Nazir Stackhouse, and C Sedrick Van Pran (C) were the captains.

No. 1 Georgia 37, Georgia Tech 14

Nov. 26, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, GA.

GAME 12 With its 37-14 win over Georgia Tech, top-ranked Georgia completed a second straight undefeated regular season. In addition, the 22 members of the Bulldogs' senior class earned their 46th win, becoming the winningest class in program history.

Georgia had to work for the victory, getting behind 7-0 and struggling to finish off drives against a spirited group of Yellow Jackets, playing under interim head coach Brent Key. During what was for a long time a low-scoring matchup on Dooley Field, kicker Jack Podlesny was pivotal, converting on field goals from 30, 50, and 36 yards. But then the Georgia offense got rolling and cruised to a blowout victory

Last year's class had the school record for career wins, going 45-8, while this group is now 46-5. The seniors, including Podlesny, quarterback Stetson Bennett, running back Kenny McIntosh, safety Christopher Smith, and more, were recognized before the game.

McIntosh had a big day rushing and receiving. He finished with 86 yards on the ground and two receptions for 96 yards, including an 83-yarder early in the fourth quarter during a 99-yard scoring drive. McIntosh capped the drive one play after the long pass with a 2-yard TD plunge.

Bennett went 10-of-18 for 135 yards and touchdown passes to receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and tight end Brock Bowers. The Bulldogs also cashed in on a 44-yard touchdown run by tailback Kendall Milton early in the fourth quarter.

Linebacker Smael Mondon led the defense with six tackles, including 1.5 for loss. Defensive back Tykee Smith was one of three Bulldogs with five tackles, and he also had 1.5 for loss. Georgia finished with four sacks and 11 tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"(Going 12-0 in the regular season for the second straight year) is hard to do. You schedule these games and you get everyone's best every single week. This team just keeps rising to the occasion. We came out a little flat, a little lethargic, you're always worried about your team over Thanksgiving because they take that break. But they answered the bell the second half. Georgia Tech helped us with some turnovers, but there are so many things we need to work on to get better at. I wish we had played better. I want to play better and that starts with us as coaches trying to get it better."

Linebacker Smael Mondon led the Bulldogs with six tackles, including one for loss, in the victory over Georgia Tech.

Worth Noting...

• Top-ranked Georgia is now 12-0 (8-0 SEC) after a 37-14 victory over Tech to claim the Governor's Cup Trophy and post a perfect regular season for the second year in a row under Coach Kirby Smart, and that's the first time in school history to do it in back-to-back seasons. The others came in 1896 (4-0), 1946 (11-0), 1980 (11-0), and 1982 (11-0). The Bulldogs now have won 27 straight regular-season games, which is a school record. Georgia has tied the school record for consecutive sellouts with No. 64. The current streak began versus Florida Atlantic in 2012. Georgia has now gone undefeated at home for the fifth time under Smart and is 37-4 overall in Athens (34-1 since 2017). Georgia has won five straight over Tech and now leads the series 70-39-5. Smart is 5-1 against Tech and 78-15 overall.

• Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 11.1 points a game. Tech managed 14 points; however it was limited to just 68 yards on 26 plays in the second half. Trailing 7-3 after the first, the Bulldogs blanked Tech in the second and third quarters. Georgia has posted 26 scoreless quarters this year.

• Georgia went 5-for-5 in the Red Zone with 3 TDs and 2 FGs. Georgia is now 64-for-66 in the Red Zone, including 43 TDs and 21 FGs.

• QB Stetson Bennett, DB Chris Smith, RB Kenny McIntosh, and OL Warren McClendon served as the captains. RB Kendall Milton had his first start of the year and just second of his career.

No. 1 Georgia 50, No. 14 LSU 30

Dec. 3, 2022 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

13

Georgia produced explosive plays all over the field during its 50-30 win over LSU in the SEC Championship Game in front of a national CBS television audience and 74,810 fans at Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

On offense, defense and special teams, the Bulldogs (13-0) delivered en route to the program's first SEC title since 2017. Georgia's offense produced a gaudy 529 yards and went 5-for-5 in the red zone.

While the defense gave up a lot of yards and big plays, it also forced three turnovers and made multiple timely stops to help Georgia pull away for good. And special teams produced a touchdown early, when safety Christopher Smith alertly picked up a blocked field goal and ran 96 yards untouched for the game's first score.

LSU (9-4) generated 549 yards of offense, 502 through the air, striking for multiple big plays against Georgia's highly rated defense. But the Bulldogs hunkered down when they had to. Georgia has now captured 14 SEC titles and improved to 4-6 in the SEC Championship Game.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett was named the game's Most Valuable Player as he went 23-of-29 for 274 yards and four touchdowns. Bennett's scoring tosses went to tight ends Brock Bowers and Darnell Washington and receivers Ladd McConkey and Dillon Bell.

Running backs Kendall Milton, Daijun Edwards, and Kenny McIntosh paced the running game's 255 yards as they went for 113, 77, and 55, respectively. McIntosh rushed for two scores for the Bulldogs.

Saturday's game was just the second time this season that the Bulldogs have hit the 50-part mark. The first came in their 55-0 rout of Vanderbilt on Oct. 15.

Linebacker Smael Mondon and defensive back Javon Bullard paced Georgia with six tackles apiece. The Bulldogs got interceptions from Smith and Mondon and a fumble recovery by defensive lineman Warren Brinson.

Cochair Kirby Smart said...

"We came here with a plan to have a connected assault. We talked about it all week. We wanted our team to stay connected, and they did that. Our team kind of played this game like they played the whole season: unbelievably well in spurts and unbelievably poor in spurts, and answered the bell when they had to. I'm proud of them. They've handled that all year. I want to give a lot of credit to Brian Kelly and the LSU team that never went away, never quit fighting. Had an injured quarterback. They did a really good job of fighting and pushing through. But this has been a different group. You guys have tried to label them, tried to figure them out, tried to analyze them. They're not comprehensible. They do what they have to do, and they do it well. They care about each other and they really do it for each other."

Malaki Starks (24) and Chris Smith celebrate Smith's 96-yard return of a blocked first-quarter field goal vs. LSU.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia improved to 13-0 for the first time ever and captured its 14th SEC title in school history. The 2022 senior class added to its school record for wins as it now stands at 47-5. The Bulldogs have won 15 straight going back to last season's CFP semifinal/Capital One Orange Bowl win over No. 2 Michigan. This is the second SEC title in the Kirby Smart era (the first since 2017) as the Bulldogs are now 79-15 in his seven seasons at the helm.
- Georgia's 35 first-half points tied the mark for most in an SEC Championship Game first half as Alabama led Florida 35-17 in 2020. QB Stetson Bennett now has 269 completions this season, which ties the single-season record set by Eric Zeier in 1993. Georgia converted a 2-point play when WR AD Mitchell tossed one to TE Darnell Washington to make it 50-23 with 13:13 left in the game. It was the first successful 2-point conversion since Bennett ran in for one against Arkansas in 2020.
- LSU passed for 502 yards, the second-most ever by a Bulldog opponent, trailing only the 528 put up by Kentucky in Georgia's 34-30 win in Lexington in 2000.
